CONTENTS

PART ONE: MATERIALS

Franco Ricci

The Instructor's Library 3

Works by Italo Calvino

Primary Texts 4

Translations in English 6

Calvino and the Internet 7
Andrea Dini

PART TWO: APPROACHES

Introduction 17

Historical Contexts

The Figure of the Intellectual in Calvino's Early Fiction 23
Eugenio Bolongaro

Calvino's Essays 31
JoAnn Cannon

Calvino's Scientific Humanism 37
Guy P. Raffa

Intellectual Contexts

Open Encyclopedias: Teaching Calvino's Works from a Comparative Perspective 42
Anna Botta

From Fiction to Theories: Calvino's Art of Narration and Literary Theories 50
Rocco Capozzi

Proceed with Caution: Teaching Symbolism and Intertextuality in Calvino's Fantasy Novels 54
Andrew Martino

Autobiography, History, and Writing in Calvino: Toward an Ethics of the Subject 59
Massimo Lollini

Readerly Expectations: Identification and Fantasy in Calvino's Experimental Fiction 69
Robert Rushing

Reading Calvino's Women 74
Carol Lazzaro-Weis

Classroom Contexts

Why Read Calvino? What We Tell Our Italian Language and Literature Students 83
Natasha V. Chang

Reading, Writing, Desire, and Closure: Teaching Calvino to Undergraduates in Italian 90
Julia M. Cozzarelli

Teaching Il castello dei destini incrociati: An Intuitive Approach 95
Rita Gagliano

Calvino, Translations, and Translatability 99
Giulia Guarnieri

Teaching Calvino in Creative Writing Classes 106
John Domini

Using Mr. Palomar to Question Received Truths in a General Education Course in the Humanities 115
Joseph Francese

Through the Eyes of Another: Text as Visual Representation 120
Susan Rogers

The Invisible Monster: Calvino and the Contemporary City 125
Dean Swinford

"Then She Saw the Surprise": Teaching Writing with Six Memos for the Next Millennium and Difficult Loves 134
Douglas Basford

Notes on Contributors 141

Works Cited 145

Index 157