SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Job Information Lists are published four times during the academic year--in October, December, February, and April. All issues provide information about four-year colleges and universities; the February issue contains supplementary two-year college listings. The cost of a subscription in the U.S. and Canada is $35.00 and $47.00 outside the U.S. or Canada. The Lists are sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the U.S. and Canada, and by airmail to all other areas.

This April List is the last regularly scheduled issue for 1991-92; however, a special Summer Supplement containing last-minute notices of vacancies will be mailed to all 1991-92 subscribers (both full-year and half-year) on 22 June. Renewal forms for 1992-93 will be included in the supplement.

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003. Telephone (212) 614-6321.

IN THIS ISSUE

The April issue contains notices describing 71 definite and possible positions.

GUIDE FOR USING THE JOB INFORMATION LIST

U.S. and Canadian Departments (pp.1-5)

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state (and for Canada, by province), contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously published position has been filled or the deadline extended), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep vitae on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it would be worthwhile to write.

In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience.

Additional Entries(pp.6-7)

The "Additional Entries" section consists primarily of notices that arrived after the main body of the List went to press, but in time to be included in an appendix. The section also contains notices of nonacademic positions, overseas opportunities, fellowships and grants, as well as openings in private secondary schools, when such information is supplied.

Departments Reporting No Vacancies

A listing of these departments appears in the October and February issues.

Advanced Placement
Dedicated to Educational Excellence
for Nearly Four Decades

Faculty Consultants for the AP Reading

Each year, the College Board's Advanced Placement (AP) Program gives hundreds of thousands of exceptionally able high school students an opportunity to take rigorous college-level courses and appropriate exams in 16 disciplines. More than 2,900 colleges and universities offer credit or advanced standing to students based on their exam performance. For six days in June, more than 2,000 college faculty and AP teachers from across North America gather in the Princeton area and at Clemson University at the annual AP Reading to evaluate and score students' essays and recorded responses. The participants also exchange ideas and contribute suggestions about their discipline, their courses, and the AP Examinations. Participants are paid honoraria, provided with housing and meals, and reimbursed for travel expenses.

Applications are now being accepted for Faculty Consultants to the College Board's Advanced Placement Readings in English, French, German, and Spanish. Applicants should currently be teaching or directing instruction for the first-year college course in English Language and Composition or English Literature and Composition; an upper-division college course in French, German, or Spanish language; or an introductory course in French or Spanish literature.

For an application or additional information, please contact: Dr. Walt MacDonald, Director, Advanced Placement Program, Educational Testing Service, Rosedale Rd. 02-E, Princeton, NJ, 08541. Educational Testing Service is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and especially encourages minorities and women to apply.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Applications for teaching appointments are invited under the Linguistics Programme and in the Department of English Language and Literature in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

Linguistics Programme

It focuses on theoretical linguistics, emphasising the construction of precise theories and arguments in accounting for language data. It aims to forge a vision of linguistics in which different pursuits such as phonology, syntax, discourse, psycho-linguistics, and sociolinguistics interact with and illuminate each other. It also gives priority to developing the skills of linguistic investigation over transmission of information.

Candidates should possess a PhD degree in linguistics, with specialisation in phonological theory, syntactic theory, formal semantics, discourse theory or theoretically informed psycholinguistics and sociolinguistics. We are looking for people with a strong research background and an equally strong commitment to teaching, and willingness to try out innovative ideas in training future linguists. For senior positions, publications in prestigious international journals is essential.

Department of English Language and Literature

Candidates should possess a PhD degree. Those with relevant teaching experience at University level and published research will have an advantage. Applicants for posts in Literature would have a further advantage if they are also able to teach the Sociology of Literature, the 18th Century Novel, Contemporary British/American Literature and/or Commonwealth/New Literatures. Candidates should be able to teach in one or more of the following areas:

Language

Phonetics/Phonology
Syntax
Semantics
Discourse Analysis
Sociolinguistics
Psycholinguistics
Applied Linguistics
Advanced Writing Skills

Literature

Comparative Literature (covering at least one major Asian Literature)
Modern Drama
Film Criticism and History (an interest in Asian films will be an advantage)
Theatre Studies

Besides appointments on normal 3-year contracts, visiting appointments for one or two years will also be considered.

Gross annual emoluments range as follows:

Lecturer	$550,390 - 64,200
Senior Lecturer	$558,680 - 100,310
Associate Professor	$588,650 - 122,870

(US$1.00 = S$1.63 approximately)

The commencing salary will depend on the candidate's qualifications, experience and the level of appointment offered.

Leave and medical benefits will be provided. Depending on the type of contract offered, other benefits may include: provident fund benefits or an end-of-contract gratuity, a settling-in allowance of S$1,000 or S$2,000, subsidised housing at nominal rentals ranging from S$100 to S$216 p.m., education allowance for up to three children subject to a maximum of S$18,425 per annum per child, passage assistance and baggage allowance for the transportation of personal effects to Singapore. Staff members may undertake consultation work, subject to the approval of the University, and retain consultation fees up to a maximum of 60% of their gross annual emoluments in a calendar year.

There are eight faculties in the National University of Singapore with a current student enrolment of some 15,000. All departments are well-equipped with a wide range of facilities for teaching and research.

All academic staff have access to the following computer and telecommunication resources: an individual microcomputer (an IBM AT-compatible or Apple Macintosh); an IBM mainframe computer with 16 MIPS of computing power; an NEC SX supercomputer with 650 MFLOPS of computing power; departmental laser printers; a wide spectrum of mainframe and microcomputer software; voice-mail. A campus-wide network, which is based on the high speed optical fibre based FDDI technology, links up all the academic staff and student microcomputers, UNIX workstations and provides access to the mainframe computer, the supercomputer, UNIX hosts, the on-line library catalogue, Internet and BITNET.
