SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Job Information Lists are published four times during the academic year--in October, December, February, and April. All issues provide information about four-year colleges and universities; the February issue contains supplementary two-year college listings. The cost of a subscription in the U.S. and Canada is $35.00 and $47.00 outside the U.S. or Canada. The Lists are sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the U.S. and Canada, and by airmail to all other areas.

This April List is the last regularly scheduled issue for 1991-92; however, a special Summer Supplement containing last-minute notices of vacancies will be mailed to all 1991-92 subscribers (both full-year and half-year) on 22 June. Renewal forms for 1992-93 will be included in the supplement.

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003. Telephone (212) 614-6321.

IN THIS ISSUE

The April issue contains notices describing 71 definite and possible positions.

GUIDE FOR USING THE JOB INFORMATION LIST

U.S. and Canadian Departments (pp.1-5)

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state (and for Canada, by province), contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously published position has been filled or the deadline extended), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep vitae on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it would be worthwhile to write.

In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience.

Additional Entries(pp.6-7)

The "Additional Entries" section consists primarily of notices that arrived after the main body of the List went to press, but in time to be included in an appendix. The section also contains notices of nonacademic positions, overseas opportunities, fellowships and grants, as well as openings in private secondary schools, when such information is supplied.

Departments Reporting No Vacancies

A listing of these departments appears in the October and February issues.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Applications for teaching appointments are invited under the Linguistics Programn Department of English Language and Literature in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

Lingustics Programme

It focuses on theoretical linguistics, emphasising the construction of precise theories and arguments in accounting for language data. It aims to forge a vision of linguistics in which different pursuits such as phonology, syntax, discourse, psycho-linguistics, and sociolinguistics interact with and illuminate each other. It also gives priority to developing the skills of linguistic investigation over transmission of information.

Candidates should possess a PhD degree in linguistics, with specialisation in phonological theory, syntactic theory, formal semantics, discourse theory or theoretically informed psycholinguistics and sociolinguistics. We are looking for people with a strong research background and an equally strong commitment to teaching, and willingness to try out innovative ideas in training future linguists. For senior positions, publications in prestigious international journals is essential.

Department of English Language and Literature

Candidates should possess a PhD degree. Those with relevant teaching experience at University level and published research will have an advantage. Applicants for posts in Literature would have a further advantage if they are also able to teach the Sociology of Literature, the 18th Century Novel, Contemporary British/American Literature and/or Commonwealth/New Literatures. Candidates should be able to teach in one or more of the following areas:

Language

Phonetics/Phonology Syntax Semantics Discourse Analysis Sociolinguistics Psycholinguistics Applied Linguistics Advanced Writing Skills
