ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is now available for searching by JIL subscribers as well as by job seekers in ADE and ADFL member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE or ADFL member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.adefl.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a subscription is $30.00 in the United States and Canada and $42.00 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas; delivery should be shortly after the publication dates listed below. Please note, however, that these are projected dates only and are subject to change without notice.

October issue	17 October 1997
December issue	14 November 1997
February issue	18 February 1998
April issue	15 April 1998

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003 (212 614-6321; joblist@mla.org).

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

In This Issue

The December issue contains notices describing approximately 310 definite and possible positions. Readers should note that departments are not encouraged to repeat listings that have appeared in the October issue. If a notice published in the October JIL does not reappear in this issue, readers should not assume that the position is no longer available. The only reliable guide to application is to check the deadline reported in the original notice or a current announcement in this List.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

US and Canadian Departments

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Comparative Literature, Linguistics, and ESL Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

Comments on Previous Listings

This section contains statements submitted by departments commenting on entries in the October List (e.g., announcing a new application deadline, reporting an address correction, etc.).

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see list of upcoming meetings below).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981.

MLA ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Modern Language Association will be held in Toronto, 27–30 December 1997. The Job Information Center will be located in the Grand Ballroom East of the Sheraton Centre Toronto, for both English and foreign languages. Job candidates, departmental administrators, and representatives who wish to use the facilities of the Job Information Center must be registered for the convention. The following services will be provided:

- (1) Interviewer's Sign-In Desk. Departmental administrators or representatives who plan to hold job interviews during the convention, whether in their own hotel rooms or in the Interview Area of the Job Information Center, should sign in (name, institution, hotel, and room number) at the main desk in the Job Information Center, so that candidates with whom they have been in correspondence regarding interviews will be able to locate them. Although an interviewer's name may appear in Who's Where, it is often impossible for candidates to get through the busy hotel switchboards for room information. A brief stop at the sign-in desk by a thoughtful interviewer can save much confusion and worry for a candidate who has received a letter saying "I want to interview you. Get in touch with me at the convention." If supplied with a list of candidates with whom the department has scheduled interviews, the MLA staff will release room information only to these people. The sign-in desk will be open from 12:00 noon to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on 30 December.
- (2) Counseling Service. The Job Information Center counseling service affords job seekers the opportunity to discuss individual employment problems with experienced department administrators. While counselors cannot help candidates obtain interviews, they can and will offer objective, concrete advice on such matters as the appropriate content and presentation of vitae and letters of application, the kinds of institutions to which candidates might most profitably apply, and realistic approaches to job interviews. Counselors will be on hand at the center to speak with interested candidates from 10:15 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. on 28 and 29 December. Appointments can be arranged through the staff member on duty in the interview area of the job center.
- (3) Interview Areas. For the convenience of departmental representatives and candidates, there will be an interview area for English and foreign languages within the Job Information Center. Interviewers who wish to use this area should schedule their own interviews either by letter before the convention or by leaving messages at the message center. Table assignments in the interview area, which will be open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until noon on 30 December, will be given to departmental representatives on a first come, first served basis. MLA staff members will be on duty in the area to assist interviewers and candidates.

- (4) Vacancy Notices. A list of job openings received too late to be included in the December Job Information List will be posted on bulletin boards in the Job Information Center. Departmental representatives who have last-minute vacancies should submit detailed descriptions of these to an MLA staff member in the center, who will see that they are posted on the boards. Such notices may also appear in the February Job Information List so that candidates who do not attend the convention will have an opportunity to apply.
- (5) Message Center. Open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until noon on 30 December, the message center will help candidates and interviewers who have corresponded before the convention to establish specific interview times and places. The message center will not be useful to those who leave messages at random for persons who may not even be in attendance at the convention. Such messages are not picked up, and they serve only to defeat the purpose of the center.

While every effort will be made to assist candidates and interviewers in the Job Information Center, it should be noted that the MLA does not have the facilities for introducing candidates and interviewers who have not corresponded prior to the convention.

THERE IS VERY LITTLE OPEN INTERVIEWING AT THE CONVENTION. JOB CANDIDATES WHO DO NOT HAVE PREARRANGED INTERVIEWS SHOULD NOT PLAN TO ATTEND FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

Telephone System for Interview Location

This year candidates will be able to obtain information about interview locations by telephone as well as in person. Telephone numbers for the Job Center will be published in the MLA Convention News and Program Update and posted at all convention information centers.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

We anticipate filling two non-tenure track visiting positions, pending final budgetary approval.

A two-year appointment in twentieth-century English literature and theory. We seek a scholar-teacher with special interest in English as an international literature; one whose teaching and scholarship deal with the recognition of English language and literature as global phenomena in the context of traditional theories of modernism and postmodernism.

A one-year appointment in English literature of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries with special emphasis in poetry, fiction, and non-dramatic prose.

Both positions will also involve teaching undergraduate surveys in English literature and Masters level seminars. PhD is required, teaching experience preferred. Send letter, CV, dossier and writing sample by December 1 to Ronald R. Thomas, Chairman. Trinity College is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and welcomes applications from women and minorities.

CULTURAL STUDIES/NEW MEDIA STUDIES. Georgia Tech's School of Literature, Communication, and Culture (LCC) is engaged in rethinking the role of humanities education in an increasingly technological, multicultural environment. LCC offers a master's degree in Information Design and Technology, a bachelor's degree in Science, Technology, and Culture, and minors in Women, Science, and Technology and Performance Studies. In addition LCC sponsors the interdisciplinary Center for New Media Education and Research and also provides humanities and communication courses for all Georgia Tech undergraduates. In keeping both with our current programs, and with an eye toward developing a PhD in the history, theory, and practice of technologies of representation, we seek to fill 3-4 tenure-track positions (rank open). Applicants should share LCC's commitment to interdisciplinary work at the theoretical and applied levels, as well as to the incorporation of new electronic media (visual, aural and textual) into humanities education. Expertise in the cultural studies of science and technology and/or new media studies required. Secondary expertise in the study of one or more of the following areas desired: gender, performance, computers and writing, communication, race, ethnicity. Strong preference given to candidates with experience teaching and developing courses in the design and production of new digital media. We are especially interested in considering applications from women and minority candidates. Send letter, CV, dossier, and sample of scholarship and/or new media projects to Professor Richard Grusin, Chair. COMPARATIVE AMERICAN CULTURES

The Comparative American Cultures Program (CAC) of the Johns Hopkins University will make a tenure-track faculty appointment of a specialist in studies related to the African diaspora. CAC, now in its third year, seeks to refocus much of the debate over culture, nationality and identity by looking beyond national and disciplinary boundaries. CAC incorporates significant concern over questions of migration and transculturation with a particular interest in the African and Asian diasporas. We seek candidates with interests in 20th century African American social and cultural life as well as African and/or African diaspora communities. We have particular interests in candidates working in topics related to film, comparative American literatures as well as comparative cultural and social studies. The successful candidate will be housed in a traditional department in either the humanities or social sciences and will be expected to participate actively in the intellectual and institutional development of the CAC Program. This will include some significant administrative responsibility and regularly offered trans-disciplinary courses. The appointment will be made at the rank of assistant professor, though more advanced candidates with some postdoctorate professional experience are preferred. Vitae, three (3) letters of recommendation and representative scholarly work should be sent to Robert F. Reid-Pharr, Director, Comparative American Cultures Program, c/o Humanities Center, Johns Hopkins University, 3400 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, MD 21218-2687. Applications are due by December 15, 1997.

Cultural Stds in the Musics & Lit of Europe 00071

Position in Cultural Studies in the Musics and Literatures of Europe

The University of Michigan, through its International Institute and with participation of the College of Literature, Science & the Arts and the School of Music, seeks applicants for an interdisciplinary position in cultural studies in the musics and literatures of Europe past and present. This appointment will be a joint one between the School of Music (Department of Musicology) and one of the following departments: Germanic Languages and Literatures, Romance Languages and Literatures, Slavic Languages and Literatures, or the Program in Comparative Literature. Rank will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Through their scholarly work, applicants should show responsiveness to changes underway in and convergences among the disciplines of the humanities. Applicants are expected to demonstrate (or to show strong promise for) excellence in interdisciplinary scholarship and teaching, including fluency in music and at least one pertinent language. Preference will be given to candidates with teaching experience in these areas, as teaching responsibilities will include the development of an interdisciplinary graduate seminar. Tenure or tenure-track homes will be negotiated with the appointee, though instructional and service effort will be provided within both partnering units. Applicants must hold the Ph.D. degree in an appropriate discipline. Materials received before November 15, 1997 will receive first consideration, but applications will be reviewed until the position is filled.

Send application materials, including CV, writing sample, and three letters of reference, to: Cultural Studies Musics and Literatures Search, The International Institute, The University of Michigan, 340 Lorch Hall, 611 Tappan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-1220 USA. The University of Michigan is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.

U of Michigan

Theatre Department, 2550 Frieze Bldg, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109

Assistant Professor of Theatre 00083

Post available: September 1998.

Responsibilities: Teach undergrad and grad courses from among: surveys of theatre history and dramatic literature, performance theory, introduction to theatre and drama, dramaturgy and criticism, and perhaps acting/directing. Opportunity to teach grad courses in specialization (one outside the Euro-American tradition would be welcome) and to direct in studio or workshop format.

Qualifications: Ph.D. or D.F.A. in theatre-and-performance studies. Post is designed for an interdisciplinary thinker with an interest in theatre practice who is a productive scholar and a stimulating teacher. Publications and two or three years of teaching experience are requested.

Rank: Assistant Professor. Salary includes substantial benefits (health and life insurances; retirement; etc.).

The Department: The School of Music's Department of Theatre & Drama offers BA, BTA, BFA (Performance; Design & Production), MFA (Design; Directing; Playwriting), and Ph.D. degrees. The department believes firmly in symbiosis of dramatic production and theatre scholarship. It mounts a five-show mainstage season in three distinct venues.

To Apply: Send letter stating teaching philosophy, research specialty, and production interest; curriculum vitae; all graduate transcripts; one sample publication; three letters of recommendation not more than two years old, to: Bert Cardullo, Chair, Theatre Search Committee, Department of Theatre & Drama, 2550 Frieze Building, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1285

Application Deadline: February 15, 1998. The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

Henry R. Luce Professorship in the Civil War Era

Gettysburg College announces the establishment of the HENRY R. LUCE PROFESSORSHIP IN THE CIVIL WAR ERA and the search for its first occupant.

Gettysburg College seeks nominations and applications for the Henry R. Luce Professorship in the Civil War Era. This is a tenure-track position, with appointment to be made in Interdepartmental Studies (and perhaps jointly in another department) for fall 1998. It is supported by a generous grant from the Henry R. Luce Foundation.

We seek a proven scholar and teacher in any relevant academic discipline, who will lead the development of a multi-disciplinary undergraduate program in Civil War Studies, and who will establish and direct The Gettysburg Semester, a one-term intensive program for students from other institutions. These programs will draw upon Gettysburg College's unique and extensive resources, including the Lincoln Prize, our Civil War Institute, and our proximity to the Gettysburg National Military Park. The Luce Professor, who will be provided resources for scholarly pursuits and program development, should be prepared to teach both gateway and capstone courses for these multi-disciplinary programs.

Academic rank is open, though Associate Professor is most likely. Candidates holding the Ph.D. or terminal degree in any academic field will be considered, though historical grounding is required and scholarship should be focused on an integrative approach to issues in the Civil War Era. The successful applicant will demonstrate a record of excellent teaching, scholarship, and cross-disciplinary cooperation.

Gettysburg College is a highly selective liberal arts college located within 90 minutes of the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area. Established in 1832, the College has a rich history and is situated on a 220-acre campus with an enrollment of 2,200 students. The College seeks to promote diversity in its community through its affirmative action/equal opportunity programs; included in an attractive benefits package is a Partner Assistance Program. For more information about the College, please visit our web page: <http://www.gettysburg.edu>.

Nominations, applications, and inquiries should be sent to: Prof. Robert Winans, Chair, Luce Professor Search Committee, Office of the Provost, Box 410, Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, PA 17325. Applicants should send a letter addressing the fit between their credentials and experience and this opportunity, along with a curriculum vitae, which includes at least three names of references. Letters of reference and sample publications should NOT be sent at this time. Applications will be evaluated beginning November 17, 1997, and continue until the position is filled.

Martin Hensel Corporation

233 Needham Street, Newton, Massachusetts 02164-1502

Martin Hensel Corporation, a fast-growing electronic-publishing systems and services firm, is seeking creative and analytical individuals with advanced degrees in the humanities. We build electronic editorial systems for publishers of scholarly, scientific, and legal books and journals, and need people who are responsible and self-motivated, have good problem-solving abilities, and are interested in acquiring new skills and working on very diverse projects. We are a small company with an informal atmosphere and no bureaucracy. Depending on our needs at any point, we may call on you to analyze publications in collaboration with developers of new systems, work with clients to support their use of our systems, write documentation, or review the work of other employees.

We've grown 100% in the past year and expect comparable growth this year, so intellectual adaptability and a desire to work on constantly-changing projects are essential. No specific technical skills are required, but evidence of aptitude for and interest in computer work is important. Desirable skills would include: knowledge of SGML and TEI; familiarity with Unix, Windows, or Macintosh programming or scripting; experience in web site development and maintenance; and experience with desktop publishing or computer typesetting.

Job Clinic on Nonacademic Careers

A job clinic for MLA members interested in employment outside the academy will be held at the 1997 convention in Toronto. The clinic will be conducted by Howard Figler, career consultant, author (The Complete Job Search Handbook), and former director of the University of Texas Career Center. The workshop, consisting of three sessions, will begin at 4:00 p.m. on Friday, 26 December, and conclude at 12:00 noon on Sunday, 28 December. Conflict with other sessions should be limited.

The job clinic is designed to help participants learn to identify career options and marketable skills, prepare effective letters of application and resumes, locate jobs, and improve interviewing and negotiation skills. It is especially recommended for those considering nonacademic professional careers. The first job clinic was held at the 1984 convention. Response over the years has been enthusiastic. One participant praised a previous clinic for being very well organized and reasonably priced. Another observed: I feel that I now have a concrete picture of available opportunities and practical approaches to the job search. Dr. Figler really helped build my confidence and change my frame of mind to a more positive attitude. I especially appreciated that Dr. Figler's own background and the slant given to the seminar were pertinent to my own specific situation as an academic in transition.

The cost is $205. Participants must be registered for the convention. Since enrollment is limited, those interested should write as soon as possible to the Job Information Service at the MLA office.
