ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is now available for searching by JIL subscribers as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.ade.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The print version of the Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a subscription is $35.00 in the United States and Canada and $47.00 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas; delivery should be shortly after the publication dates listed below. Please note, however, that these are projected dates only and are subject to change without notice.

October issue	18 October 1999
December issue	15 November 1999
February issue	18 February 2000
April issue	14 April 2000

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003 (212 614-6321; roy.chustek@mla.org).

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

In This Issue

The December issue contains notices describing approximately 235 definite and possible positions. Readers should note that departments are not encouraged to repeat listings that have appeared in the October issue. If a notice published in the October JIL does not reappear in this issue, readers should not assume that the position is no longer available. The only reliable guide to application is to check the deadline reported in the original notice or a current announcement in this List.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

US and Canadian Departments

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Comparative Literature and Linguistics and ESL Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

Comments on Previous Listings

This section contains statements submitted by departments commenting on entries in the October List (e.g., announcing a new application deadline, reporting an address correction, etc.).

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. ii).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981.

MLA ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Modern Language Association will be held in Chicago, 27–30 December 1999. The Job Information Center will be located in the International Ballroom, level 2, Fairmont Chicago, for both English and foreign languages. Job candidates, departmental administrators, and representatives who wish to use the facilities of the Job Information Center must be registered for the convention. The following services will be provided:

- (1) Interviewer's Sign-In Desk for Departments. Departmental administrators or representatives who plan to hold job interviews during the convention, whether in their own hotel rooms or in the Interview Area of the Job Information Center, should sign in (name, institution, hotel, and room number) at the Job Information Center, so that candidates with whom they have set up interviews will be able to locate them. Although an interviewer's name may appear in "Who's Where," for security reasons hotel switchboards will not give out guests' room numbers—and are in any case extremely busy. A brief stop at the sign-in desk by a thoughtful interviewer can save much confusion and worry for candidates. If supplied with a list of candidates with whom the department has scheduled interviews, the MLA staff will release room information only to these people. The sign-in desk will be open from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on 30 December.
- (2) Telephone Service. Job candidates with whom hiring departments have arranged convention interviews may retrieve information about the location of interviews by telephone as well as in person at the Job Information Center. Job candidates may dial the following telephone number for this information: 312 565-6653. Telephone service will be available from 12:00 noon to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on 30 December. Job candidates who need TDD service may call 312 565-6656.
- (3) Counseling Service. The Job Information Center counseling service affords job seekers the opportunity to discuss individual employment problems with experienced department administrators. While counselors cannot help candidates obtain interviews, they can and will offer objective, concrete advice on such matters as the appropriate content and presentation of vitae and letters of application, the kinds of institutions to which candidates might most profitably apply, and realistic approaches to job interviews. Counselors will be on hand at the center to speak with interested candidates from 10:15 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. on 28 and 29 December. Appointments can be arranged through the staff member on duty in the interview area of the job center.
- (4) Interview Area. For the convenience of departmental representatives and candidates, there will be an interview area for English and foreign languages within the Job Information Center. Interviewers who wish to use this area should schedule their own interviews either by letter before the convention or by leaving messages at the message center. Table assignments in the interview area, which will be open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on 30 December, will be given to departmental representatives on a first-come, first-served basis. MLA staff members will be on duty in the area to assist interviewers and candidates.
- (5) Vacancy Notices. A list of job openings received too late to be included in the December Job Information List will be posted on bulletin boards in the Job Information Center. Departmental representatives who have last-minute vacancies should submit detailed descriptions of these to an MLA staff member in the center, who will see that they are posted on the boards. Such notices may also appear in the February Job Information List so that candidates who do not attend the convention will have an opportunity to apply.
- (6) Message Center. Open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on 30 December, the message center will help candidates and interviewers who have corresponded before the convention to establish specific interview times and places. The message center will not be useful to those who leave messages at random for persons who may not even be in attendance at the convention. Such messages are not picked up, and they serve only to defeat the purpose of the center.

While every effort will be made to assist candidates and interviewers in the Job Information Center, it should be noted that the MLA does not have the facilities for introducing candidates and interviewers who have not corresponded prior to the convention.

THERE IS VERY LITTLE OPEN INTERVIEWING AT THE CONVENTION. JOB CANDIDATES WHO DO NOT HAVE PREARRANGED INTERVIEWS SHOULD NOT PLAN TO ATTEND FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

*Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.*

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

<http://www.depaul.edu/~english/home.html>

The DePaul University Department of English plans to fill a tenure-track position in literature beginning in the fall of 2000. We seek a candidate in modernist/twentieth century British and American literature with expertise in drama or poetry. In addition to offering courses in an undergraduate English major program and an M.A. program in English, the successful candidate will develop and teach courses in an interdisciplinary general education program. Applicants must have the Ph.D. in hand by September of 2000, evidence of a scholarly agenda, a demonstrated commitment to excellent teaching, and an interest in contributing to a variety of department and college programs. The DePaul University Department of English seeks a diversity in its faculty that mirrors the diversity of the university's student body and surrounding community. We therefore specifically solicit applications from women, people of color, and members of other historically under-represented groups.

Send letter and vita to Helen Marlborough, Chair, Department of English, DePaul University, 802 W. Belden Ave., Chicago IL 60614-3214. Applications will be acknowledged, but must be postmarked by November 5, 1999. DePaul University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

MARYLAND

Saint Mary's C of Maryland

English, St Mary's City MD 20686

Assistant Professor of English 1777

St. Mary's College of Maryland is seeking an assistant professor for a tenure-track position beginning in the fall of 2000. Because all members of the English Department share in the responsibilities of teaching courses in both composition and literature, we seek a colleague committed to the liberal arts and excellent teaching who has both the ability and desire to teach our introductory and college-wide requirement courses. We seek candidates with training and experience in Victorian literature who can situate Victorian studies within an Anglo-American context. Of special interest to us would be a candidate who can also add to our college-wide cross-disciplinary studies program. A Ph.D. is required. Preference will be given to candidates with successful teaching experience.

St. Mary's College of Maryland is a public liberal arts college located 70 miles southeast of Washington, D.C., on the St. Mary's river. A Carnegie Baccalaureate I institution, St. Mary's College has been designated as the state's public honors college. The diverse and coeducational student body of 1700 completes a rigorous and unique curriculum, culminating in a yearlong senior project. The student-faculty ratio is 13 to 1.

A comprehensive program of support is provided for faculty, including professional travel, internal grants for research and teaching, paid pre-tenure leaves, and sabbaticals for tenured faculty. The quality of life is enhanced by the beauty and recreational opportunities of the Chesapeake Bay region and close proximity to the amenities of Washington, D.C., Baltimore, and Richmond.

Please send letter of application, vita, dossier, and a short writing sample to Michael S. Glaser, Search Committee Chair, St. Mary's College of Maryland, St. Mary's City, MD 20686. For full consideration, please submit application materials by November 15, 1999. Applications will be reviewed until a selection is made. St. Mary's College of Maryland is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Assistant Professor: Cultural Studies 1487

<http://www.folwell.umn.edu/cscl/>

University of Minnesota. College of Liberal Arts. Department of Cultural Studies and Comparative Literature. As part of a university-wide initiative in Critical Visual Literacy through Film and Video Studies, we invite applications for two tenure-track positions. Assistant Professor rank, full-time 9-month appointments to begin 28 August 2000. Salary commensurate with experience. The successful candidate for each position will be expected to maintain a program of research, teaching (at graduate and undergraduate levels), and service. Ph.D. required by 28 August 2000 in film or media studies or related field. Candidates are expected to have broad historical, social and theoretical knowledge of the fields of media studies or media technologies, and approach them from an international as well as comparative perspective. Although we are especially interested in candidates with the expertise described in the departmental priorities below, we welcome applicants with a broad range of abilities and training. Applicants are invited to view the related position advertised by the Department of French and Italian. Priority 1. Specialization in media and visual cultures with specific competence in feminist theory, particularly as it has engaged some of the following problematics: the place of media technology in the field of cultural and intellectual history; the construction of gender in the discourses of scientific representation; the emergence of new forms of community in the context of information technology; and the history of the construction of sexuality and sexual deviance, particularly as mediated through the techniques and technologies of visual representation. Priority 2. Specialization in "documentary" media, including cinema in the post-studio era, innovations such as amateur video ("home movies"), so called real TV, "live on-line video" (e.g., Jenni Cam) and the industry-wide digitalization of media technologies. Send letter of application, CV, a copy of your graduate transcript, three letters of evaluation, and writing sample (no more than 25 pages) to: Jochen Schulte-Sasse, Chair, Search Committee, Dept. of Cultural Studies & Comparative Literature, 350 Folwell Hall, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455. Application must be postmarked by 24 November 99. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the MLA Convention. For information on the department check our website at <http://www.folwell.umn.edu/cscl/>. The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator & employer.

Writing Program Director 1674

<http://www.millsaps.edu>

Millsaps College invites applications for a Writing Program Director. This is a full-time, tenure-track assistant professor position responsible for further developing and strengthening the College's writing program and realizing more fully the faculty's commitment to writing across the disciplines in an interdisciplinary core curriculum and in the majors. The Director will oversee the Writing Center, the administration of the writing portfolio requirement, and the training of students who serve as writing tutors. The Director will also be expected to work extensively with faculty to develop more effective ways to teach writing in their courses and will be expected to initiate such programs as one-on-one consulting, writing workshops, and a writing seminar series. Finally, the Director will be expected to teach two to three courses a year and maintain an active scholarly agenda. Administrative duties will begin July 1, 2000, and teaching duties will begin August 30, 2000. Ph.D. (completed by July 1, 2000) is required, and administrative experience is desirable. Academic field is open although a strong commitment to interdisciplinary teaching and scholarship is preferred.

Millsaps College is a National Selective Liberal Arts I College founded by the United Methodist Church in 1890. It hosts the only chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in the state of Mississippi. The College's MBA and BBA program in the Else School of Management are accredited by AACSB, and the teacher education program by NCATE. The College occupies a beautiful 100 acre residential campus in the heart of Jackson Mississippi — a growing metropolitan area (SMSA 400,000) that is the political, financial, legal, medical, and cultural center of the state. Enrollment is 1400, with an annual operating budget in excess of $30 million supported by an endowment of more than $90 million. Millsaps College is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from women and minorities (Website: www.millsaps.edu).

Interested persons should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendations to: Office of the Vice President and Dean of the College, Millsaps College, Jackson, MS, 39210. Review of applications will begin December 15 and will continue until the position is filled.

Post-Colonial Literature

The Department of English invites applications for a tenure track position in Post-Colonial Literature written in English, in any area of special interest and competence within this broad category. Candidates must be able to design and teach a broad range of courses in post-colonial literature, from introductory to advanced levels, in an undergraduate English Department which has not thus far offered such courses. A concomitant interest in 20th Century British Fiction would be most welcome. Other teaching responsibilities include introductory literature seminars and lecture courses, courses on literary theory and methodology, advanced seminars, and specialized work with senior majors. Appointment will be made at the rank of Assistant Professor (Ph.D.) or Instructor (ABD). The Department and College expect a deep and demonstrable commitment to outstanding undergraduate teaching and evidence of scholarly potential. Please send letter of application with a statement of teaching interests, curriculum vitae, graduate transcript, a sample of scholarly work and three current letters of recommendation, at least two of which must speak to teaching ability, to: Professor John A. Bertolini, Chair, Department of English, Munroe 111, Middlebury College, College Street, Middlebury, VT 05753. Applications must be postmarked by November 19, 1999. Please include self-addressed, stamped postcard for acknowledgment of receipt of materials, and a note indicating where you may be reached prior to and during the MLA meeting in Chicago. Middlebury College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and encourages applications from women and members of minority groups.

Chair/African American Studies

The Department of African American Studies in the College of Arts and Sciences at Syracuse University is involved in a multi-year search to fill the position of Chair beginning July 1, 1999. However, the starting day may be negotiated. We are inviting applicants with strong scholarly records and active research in African American Studies, preferably with additional experience in African and/or Caribbean Studies. The successful candidate will be expected to provide intellectual leadership in departmental matters relating to budget, personnel, curriculum development, advising, fellowships, and the development of an M.A. Degree Program in Pan African Studies. Demonstrated commitment to excellent teaching within a student-centered environment and collaboration with faculty are required. Desire to develop African American Studies programs abroad is also a plus. Commitment to community outreach programs and proven experience in grant writing for department initiatives are also expected. The Department of African American Studies curriculum is interdisciplinary and Pan Africanist in its orientation. Please send: Detailed letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, and two published samples of your work and/or research plan to: Co-Chairs, Search Committee, Department of African American Studies, Syracuse University, 200 Sims Hall, Syracuse, New York 13244-1230. Job Clinic on Nonacademic Careers, 10 Astor Place New York NY 10003

Job Clinic at the Chicago MLA Convention 798

A Job Clinic for MLA members interested in employment outside the academy will be held at the 1999 convention in Chicago. The Clinic will again be conducted by Howard Figler, career consultant, author ("The Complete Job Search Handbook"), and former director of the career center at the University of Texas at Austin. The fifteen previous clinics have been enthusiastically received by participants. The clinic will assist in learning about career options and marketable skills, preparing effective resumes, locating jobs, and improving interviewing and negotiation skills. It will consist of five sessions that begin at 4:00 p.m. on 26 December (one day before the formal opening of the convention) and conclude at noon on 28 December. There should be minimal conflict with other convention sessions. The cost is $205 in addition to the convention registration fee; enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars, write or e-mail (joblist@mla.org) with your name and complete mailing address to the MLA Job Information Service.
