NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Starting in the 2000–01 subscription year, individual subscribers to the Job Information List may choose to subscribe to the online list only at $35.00 a year, to receive only the print list by first-class mail at $35.00 a year, or to purchase access to both online and print versions at $55.00 a year. Details on these options will be contained in the subscription renewal form that will be mailed to individual subscribers with the Summer Supplement of the JIL. Departments that maintain memberships in ADE and ADFL will continue to receive print copies of the JIL as well as rights to provide online access for all students and faculty members affiliated with the department.

ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is now available for searching by JIL subscribers as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.adefl.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a subscription is $35.00 in the United States and Canada and $47.00 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas. This April List is the last regularly scheduled issue for 1999–2000; however, a special Summer Supplement containing last-minute notices of vacancies will be mailed to all 1999–2000 subscribers (both full-year and half-year) on 26 June. Renewal forms for 2000–01 will be included in the supplement.

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003 (212 614-6321; joblist@mla.org).

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

In This Issue

The April issue contains notices describing approximately 100 definite and possible positions.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

US and Canadian Departments

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Comparative Literature and Linguistics and ESL Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

Comments on Previous Listings

This section contains statements submitted by departments commenting on entries in the October List (e.g., announcing a new application deadline, reporting an address correction, etc.).

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. ii).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

Roosevelt U

School of Liberal Studies, 430 S Michigan Av Chicago IL 60605

Assistant Professor of Film Studies

<http://www.roosevelt.edu>

We seek to fill a tenure-track position in Film Studies at the Assistant Professor level. The position involves teaching topics in film, other visual texts and literature. The candidate should be able to introduce students to a wide range of approaches to film from historical, theoretical and cultural perspectives. In addition, the candidate should have a strong interest and experience in the teaching of writing. A secondary interest in creative writing is desirable. Roosevelt's school structure allows for a high degree of interdisciplinarity. All faculty are expected to teach and develop courses in the interdisciplinary core curriculum in addition to undergraduate and graduate courses in their fields. The standard teaching load is seven courses per year over two semesters, with an average class size of 17. True to its founding heritage in support of tolerance and opposition to discrimination, Roosevelt University maintains a principled commitment to diversity in both its faculty and its student body. Therefore, we encourage applicants from traditionally under-represented groups. We are a vibrant metropolitan institution with two campuses, one in downtown Chicago, the other in the northwest suburbs. Faculty generally teach at both. Minimum qualifications: PH.D. in hand by 15 August 2000; scholarly potential required. We expect to interview during the Society of Cinema Studies conference in March. To apply, send a letter and CV only to Susan Weininger, Director, School of Liberal Studies, Roosevelt University, 430 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60605-1394. Applications postmarked by March 3 will receive fullest consideration.

Dean of Libraries & Media Services

Kent State University invites applications and nominations for the position of Dean of Libraries & Media Services (LMS) with the expectation of a July 1, 2000 appointment. Kent State University is a Carnegie Research II institution offering nearly 170 baccalaureate majors, 37 master's programs, and 20 areas of doctoral study. The Dean is the chief administrative and academic officer for the university's integrated eight-campus Libraries and Media Services system. The Libraries are a member of the Association of Research Libraries and a founding member of OCLC and OhioLINK. Media Services includes instructional graphics, video production, classroom technology, a student multimedia studio, and a significant media collection. The Libraries are committed to an active, university-wide instruction program. The University has made large investments in network and computing technologies in the past three years. Recent technology initiatives include an electronic reserves program, beta testing of Innovative Interfaces Advanced Keyword (AltaVista) Searching module, and extensive use of RLG's Ariel document delivery software. The dean coordinates library services and collection management, advises executive officers on budgetary and service issues, supports local implementation of information technology initiatives and OhioLINK consortial efforts, serves as an advocate to external constituencies, and directs external fund-raising and grant initiatives. The successful candidate will supervise 22 tenure-track librarians, 31 administrative contract employees, and 48 classified staff. The Dean oversees a budget of more than 8 million dollars, reports directly to the Provost, and is a member of the deans' council. Applicants must hold a Master's Degree from an accredited American Library Association program. An additional advanced degree at the master's or doctoral level is strongly preferred. The successful candidate will have a scholarly record appropriate for appointment as a tenured full professor, significant administrative experience managing a complex research library, and knowledge of developments in information technology. The candidate will demonstrate a commitment to diversity, consensus building, and collegial processes. Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience. Review of applications will begin on February 22, 2000 and will continue until the position is filled. To apply, applicants should send a letter highlighting qualifications for this position, resume, and the names, phone numbers, and Email addresses of three (3) or more references to: Dr. Diedre L.
