NATIONAL HUMANITIES CTR., 7 Alexander Dr., RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK, NC 27709FELLOWSHIPS

The NHC is an institute for advanced study in history, literature, philosophy, and other humanities fields. It is designed to foster individual research and intellectual exchange within a community of scholars. For the academic year 1984-85 fellowships are available for: 1. Men and women near the beginning of their scholarly careers, normally three to ten years beyond the doctorate. 2. Senior Fellows--Men and women more than ten years beyond the doctorate are regarded as Senior Fellows. 3. Commerce and Culture--The Center has received special funding for five to seven scholars whose work illuminates the relations between the world of commerce and the pursuit of intellectual, artistic, or moral excellence. (A description of the topic is available on request). Most fellowships are awarded for the academic year, though some for shorter periods are available. The amount of a fellowship stipend is based on a scholar's usual academic salary; but since not all financial requests can be met in full, applicants are encouraged to arrange some measure of support. Write for further details.
