

MLA JOB INFORMATION LIST: SUMMER SUPPLEMENT

JUNE 1993

The following is information on positions in English and foreign languages that the Job Information Service received after the April List went to press. Subscribers to the List may use the form enclosed to renew their subscriptions. Departmental members of ADE and ADFL receive their copies of the List through their memberships. For additional copies of the subscription form, please write to the Job Information Service.

YALE U, 3388 Yale Station, New Haven, CT 06520

The Department of English and the Program in African and African-American Studies seek a senior scholar in English and African-American literature who is a comparativist specializing in the literatures of the Americas for a joint appointment with tenure, beginning in July 1994. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply. Send letter and curriculum vitae to: Hazel V. Carby, Chair, English and African and African-American Studies Search Committee, as soon as possible but no later than 15 July 1993. Yale is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

POLYTECHNIC U, Rt 110, FARMINGDALE, NY 11735

HUMANITIES

Possible part-time adjunct openings for the fall and spring semesters in ESL, basic writing, composition, technical writing, public speaking, and introduction to literature. M.A. required. Indicate whether you prefer the Long Island campus or the Brooklyn campus. Letter and resume to Prof. S.K. Marks, Humanities. EOE/MFVH

HOLLINS C, ROANOKE, VA 24020

ENGLISH

Leave replacement for one, possibly two years to teach undergraduate and graduate students in an established creative writing program. Academic rank negotiable. We are looking for someone able to teach both fiction and poetry writing. Ability to teach minority literature also desirable. M.A., M.F.A., or Ph.D., with at least one published book (poetry or fiction) and magazine publications in both genres. Evidence of successful college-level teaching. Send letter of application, cv, dossier, and writing samples to Eric Trethewey, Chair. We will begin reading applications immediately and will continue until the position is filled. EOE. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

C OF ST. CATHERINE, 2004 Randolph Ave., ST. PAUL, MN 55105 ENGLISH

The College of St. Catherine, a private Catholic college for women, offers majors in the liberal arts and professional fields, values diversity in its faculty, staff, and students. The student body includes women of all ages in both weekday and weekend programs. The English department offers concentrations in literature and writing and preparation for secondary teaching, and jointly sponsors an indepartmental communication major. Full-time Tenure Track Position for Generalist in Literature and Composition to begin Fall, 1994. Requirements: Earned Ph.D. in Literature or equivalent scholarship; demonstrated success in college teaching of literature and composition; strong background in composition; American and British literature with supporting work in minority and/or third world literature; knowledge of critical theories. Six (4-credit courses) constitute the full-time teaching load per academic year. The College of St. Catherine is an EEO and AA employer. Minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Send letter of application, vitae, and list of at least three references by 15 November 1993 to: Human Resources Department. (612) 690-6425.

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY, 221 North Grand Blvd., ST. LOUIS, MO 63103

English: For a tenure-track position at the rank of assistant professor, starting in the Fall of 1994, we seek a specialist in literature of the English language in the Post-Colonial world. The normal 9-hour teaching load, with possibility of research reductions, would entail courses in the area of Post-Colonial literature at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, and the ability to design and offer literature classes at the introductory level. Candidates must have the Ph.D., and, beyond their specialization, should have a firm secondary grounding in a related area of English or American literature; they will need to combine genuine scholarly promise and a research agenda with a strong commitment to teaching at the graduate and undergraduate levels. We especially welcome inquiries and applications from women and minorities. Preliminary screening of applications will begin on August 2nd. Please send letters of inquiry and application, with c.v.'s to: Thomas Moisan, Chair, Department of English.

U OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY, CA 94720

RHETORIC

Pending budgetary resources, the Department of Rhetoric at the University of California, Berkeley, will have available 1 to 3 positions as lecturer effective 1 July 1993, for a period of no longer than three years, at a minimum full time annual salary rate of $29,972 (without Ph.D.) to $30,540 (with Ph.D.) at 33 to 100 percent time. Successful candidates will teach upper division courses in the areas of argumentation, modern rhetorical theory, and political and legal discourse. Preference will be given to candidates with equivalent teaching experience. CV, dossier, and supporting materials by 15 July 1993 to Anthony Cascardi, Chair. The University of California is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer.

VYTAUTAS MAGNUS U, Daukanto 28, 3000 KAUNAS, LITHUANIA ENGLISH

A newly-reopened liberal arts University in Kaunas, Lithuania, is looking for two or three teachers of English literature or linguistics for the 1993-94 academic year, to teach in its B.A. program (M.A. required) or its M.A. program (Ph.D. required). Instruction in all classes is in English. Please send applications and curricula vitae to Department of English. Fax: 370-7-203-858 be conducted by Howard Figler, career consultant, author (The Complete Job Search Handbook) and former director of the career center at the University of Texas at Austin. The clinic is designed for MLA members interested in making the transition to employment outside the academy. The nine previous clinics have been enthusiastically received by participants; last year's was sold out. The clinic will assist in learning about career options and marketable skills, preparing effective resumes, locating jobs, and improving interviewing and negotiating skills. The clinic will consist of five sessions that begin at 4:00 p.m. on 26 December and conclude at noon on 28 December. There should be minimal conflict with other convention sessions. The cost of the workshop is $205; enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars when complete information becomes available next fall, write to the MLA Job Information Service.

JOB SEARCH CLINIC AT THE 1993 MLA CONVENTION IN TORONTO will again

FULBRIGHT POST-DOCTORAL PROGRAM IN ISRAEL. 1994 GRANTS FOR U.S.

POSTDOCTORAL SCHOLARS. The United States-Israel Educational Foundation

(USIEF) offers Fulbright awards to post-doctoral scholars at Israeli institutions of higher learning. Awards are for ten months, renewable up to twenty-one months. Applications in all disciplines accepted. Preference to scholars up to the age of thirty-five, who have not previously studied or done research in Israel and to those who have completed their doctorate within two years prior to application. Stipends in 1993 ranged from $17,800 to $63,300, depending on length of stay and number of dependents. Twenty one month awards include additional round-trip ticket to the United States. Application deadline 31 October 1993. Apply to: Institute of International Education (IIE) Study Abroad Programs, 809 UN Plaza, New York, NY 10017. Telephone (212) 984-5327 or campus Fulbright advisors.

NATIONAL U OF SINGAPORE, 10 Kent Ridge Crescent, SINGAPORE 0511

Linguistics Programme: Applications for teaching appointments are invited under the Linguistics Programme in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. Candidates should possess a Ph.D. degree in linguistics, with specialisation in phonological theory, syntactic theory, formal semantics, discourse theory, or theoretically informed psycholinguistics and sociolinguistics. We are looking for people with a strong research background and an equally strong commitment to teaching, and willingness to try out innovative ideas in training future linguists. For senior positions, publications in prestigious international journals are essential. Gross annual emoluments range as follows: Lecturer, S$50,390-64,200; Senior Lecturer, S$58,680-100,310; Associate Professor S$88,650-122,870 (US$1.00 = S$1.60 approximately). The commencing salary will depend on the candidate's qualifications, experience, and the level of appointment offered. Leave and medical benefits will be provided. Depending on the type of contract offered, other benefits may include: provident fund benefits or an end-of-contract gratuity, a settling-in allowance of S$1,000 or S$2,000, subsidised housing or a housing allowance, education allowance for up to three children subject to a maximum of S$16,425 per annum per child, passage assistance and baggage allowance for the transportation of personal effects to Singapore. Staff members may undertake consultation work, subject to the approval of the University, and retain consultation fees up to a maximum of 60% of their gross annual emoluments in a calendar year. Application forms and further information on terms and conditions of service may be obtained from: The Director, Personnel Department at the above address or The Director, North America Office, National University of Singapore, 55 East 59th Street, New York, NY 10022, U.S.A. Tel: (212) 751-0331. Enquiries may also be sent through BITNET to: PERLIMSK @ NUS3090, or through Telefax: (65) 7783948.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION SERVICES, TOKYO, JAPAN ESL

Live in Japan. Individuals with professional experience in business, education, engineering, languages, computers or related fields with a university degree(s) interested in teaching English in Japan for one year to employees of major corporations and governmental agencies should send a comprehensive in-depth resume to: IES, Shin-Taiso Building, 10-7 Dogenzaka 2-chome, Shibuya-ku, Tokyo 150 Japan. Fax: (03) 3463-7089.

BRANDEIS U, WALTHAM, MA 02254

GERMANIC & SLAVIC LANGS

German Language and Literature. Rank open--tenure or tenure-track. Ph.D., extensive teaching experience, established publication record, native or near-native fluency in German are required. In addition to teaching a full range of German language and literature courses, the successful candidate is expected to make a contribution to some of our existing programs: Joint (graduate) Program in Literary Studies, Humanities, European Cultural Studies, Women's Studies. We welcome applications from women and minorities. Brandeis University is an equal employment opportunity and affirmative action institution. Send applications to Professor Robert Szulkin, 215 Shiffman. Applications will be accepted until December 10, 1993.

BRANDEIS U, WALTHAM, MA 02254

ROMANCE & COMPARATIVE LIT

Assistant Professor, tenure-track, August 1994. Candidate must have Ph.D. in hand, with specialization in French Medieval and Renaissance Studies. They should have competence in teaching French language, literature and culture at all levels and possess near-native fluency in French and English. Publications desirable, as well as the ability to contribute to some of the Department's programs, such as Comparative Literature and European Cultural Studies. Teaching load: two courses per semester. Send letter and C.V. to Search Committee Chair, Prof. Stephen J. Gendzier. Deadline: December 6, 1993. We welcome applications from women and minorities. AA/EOE.

NEW YORK U, 19 University Place, NEW YORK, NY 10003

GERMAN

Inviting applications for a tenured or tenure-track position, effective Fall 1994. Candidates for this position should have demonstrated high scholarly achievement, and teaching effectiveness in German literature or German area studies. Salary is negotiable. Applicants please send letter, curriculum vita, and names, addresses, and phone numbers of three to five potential referees to: Professor Doris Guillon, Chair, Search Committee. Letters of nomination are also invited and should be sent to the same address. The application deadline is October 1, 1993. NYU is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer.

LYCOMING C, WILLIAMSPORT, PA 17701FOREIGN LANGS & LITS

Spanish. Two-year visiting Assistant Professor with possible future tenure track. Generalist to teach all levels of language and literature. Preference given to candidates with specialization in Spanish American literature and excellent teaching recommendations. Ph.D. required. EOE. Send complete package including application letter, vita, graduate and undergraduate transcripts and 3 letters of recommendation to: Dr. Paul A. MacKenzie, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.

DELAWARE SC, DOVER, DE 19901FOREIGN LANGUAGES

One full-time tenure-track position for Instructor/Assistant Professor of German. Candidate must hold an earned Doctorate degree in German with the ability to teach German language at all levels, German literature, linguistics and translation. Experience with multi-cultural student population is required. Send letter of application, resume, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Oriaku Nwosu, Chairperson. Deadline: All applications should be received by May 31, 1993. But applications will be accepted until position is filled. Delaware State College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. AA/EOE.

RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S C, LYNCHBURG, VA 24503ROMANCE LANGS & LIT

Randolph-Macon Woman's College, a selective liberal arts college for women seeks a full-time, one semester sabbatical replacement in Spanish for Spring 1994. Three language courses (two preparations), plus one literature course, ideally the second semester of Contemporary Latin American literature. Send letter of application, vitae, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references to: Professor Chet Halka, Department of Romance Languages, 2500 Rivermont Avenue. FAX 804-947-8138.

*** **

LAFAYETTE C, EASTON, PA 18042FOREIGN LANGUAGES & LIT

Japanese, Assistant Professor. Full-time (3-3 course load) one-year visiting appointment beginning Fall '93. Native or near-native fluency. Ability to teach elementary, intermediate, and advanced Japanese language courses and Japanese Culture/Civilization in English. Ph.D. in hand although A.B.D. may be considered for instructor level. Position will be readvertised as tenure-track in fall '93. Send letter of application, dossier, and 3 letters of recommendation to Prof. H. Marblestone, Chair, Search Committee. Applications accepted until position is filled. Lafayette College is committed to equal opportunity through affirmative action.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS U AT CARBONDALE, CARBONDALE, IL 62901FOREIGN LANGS

Full-time Lecturer of Japanese, to start 16 January 1994. Master's in hand at time of application, minimum of 2 years college teaching experience. Teach Japanese to U.S. students at SIUC's Nakajo, Japan campus. Preference to those qualified to teach all levels of Japanese and introductory courses in contemporary Japanese culture. Salary commensurate with experience. Benefits include housing, cost of living allowance, round trip travel. Apply by 1 July '93 or until filled with detailed c.v. and 3 letters of reference to Prof. Margaret E. Winters, Chair. EO/AA

ASSOCIATED KYOTO PROGRAMRESIDENT DIRECTOR POSITION

The Associated Kyoto Program, sponsored by a consortium of thirteen small liberal arts institutions, is seeking a Resident Director. The program, which admits forty to fifty students annually, is based at Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan. The Resident Director will teach two courses and be responsible for the overall operation of the program in Kyoto, including office staff supervision, financial management, overseeing Japanese language and elective course faculty and curriculum, counseling students, homestay responsibilities, relations with Doshisha University, and liaison with the Board of Directors in the United States. (Ultimate decision-making authority lies with the Board of Directors.) Qualifications include an advanced degree (M.A. or Ph.D.) in some area of Japanology, fluency in Japanese, prior residence in Japan, experience teaching American undergraduates, and previous administrative experience. The applicant must be available for interviews in the United States. The initial appointment is for two years (commencing June 1, 1994) with the possibility of renewal. Salary is competitive and will be commensurate with experience and qualifications. Fringe benefits, round-trip transportation for self and immediate family members, free housing (excluding utilities) through Doshisha University, annual return to the United States, and up to $2,000 for moving expenses are included. Qualified candidates must submit a letter of application, a resume, and at least three letters of recommendation to: Professor Ray A. Moore, Chair, AKP Search Committee, Amherst College, Box 1839, Amherst, MA 01002. Applications will continue to be accepted until the position is filled. The Associated Kyoto Program is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

U OF AUCKLAND, AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND ASIAN LANGUAGES & LITERATURES

The Department of Asian Languages and Literatures was set up in 1966 and has expanded rapidly, particularly in the last decade. It now offers courses in Chinese, Indonesian, Japanese and Korean, and has an establishment of two Professors, five Senior Lecturers, ten Lecturers and one Tutor, plus a number of part-time lecturers and tutors. The Department invites applications for the following vacancies:

Chair in Japanese. Vacancy UAC.271. We seek applications from candidates of high academic standing who have the qualifications, experience and ability to provide strong leadership in one or more aspects of Japanese language and literature. Applicants must be experienced in teaching English-speaking students, have a strong research record and proven administrative ability.

Lectureship in Japanese. Vacancy UAC.270. Applicants must have a thorough knowledge of Japanese language or literature and have a native or near-native fluency in spoken Japanese. They should also be suitably qualified to teach Japanese language or literature to English speaking students up to advanced levels. Preference will be given to candidates with a Ph.D. or equivalent expertise in Japanese literature or teaching Japanese as a foreign language. //Commencing salary will be established within the ranges NZ$80,080-NZ$99,840 per annum (Chair) or NZ$37,440-NZ$49,088 per annum (Lecturer).//

Further information, Conditions of Appointment and Method of Application, should be obtained from the Academic Appointments Office, University of Auckland, Private Bag 92019, Auckland, New Zealand, phone (64)9 373-7999 extn 5790, fax (64)9 373-7454. Three copies of applications should be forwarded to reach the Registrar by 30 June 1993. Please quote the relevant Vacancy Number in all correspondence. W.B. Nicoll, Registrar. An Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.

**

**

U OF AUCKLAND, AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND ROMANCE LANGUAGES

1. Lectureship in Italian, Department of Romance Languages. Vacancy UAC.279. Candidates are expected to have advanced academic qualifications and a record of research primarily in the areas of language teaching and/or linguistics. The prime responsibilities of the lecturer appointed will be in the area of Italian language teaching and will involve the coordination of language courses, the development of teaching materials and teaching at all levels. Applicants should have native or near native knowledge of Italian. Commencing salary will be established within the range NZ$37,440 - NZ$49,088 per annum. Closing date: 30 July 1993.

2. Chair in French, Department of Romance Languages. Vacancy UAC.274. The Department of Romance Languages at the University of Auckland is composed of three sections: French, Italian and Spanish, each of which has its own Sectional Head who is responsible to the Head of Department. The Department teaches French, Italian and Spanish from first-year to Masters and Ph.D. level. The present teaching staff in French is one Professor, one Associate-Professor, four Senior Lecturers, two Lecturers, one Half-Time Tutor and two Lectrices, whose teaching and research fields include areas of both literature and linguistics. The University seeks applications from candidates of high academic standing who have the qualifications, experience and ability to provide strong leadership in one or more aspects of French Language and Literature. The successful applicant will have a native or near-native command of both French and English, an outstanding publication record and be capable of providing dynamic leadership in promoting research and administering the Department. He or she will be expected to assume teaching responsibilities in areas of expertise and contribute to the language acquisition programme. The appointment may carry with it the Headship of the Department of Romance Languages. Commencing salary will be established within the range NZ$80,080 -NZ$99,840 per annum. Closing date: 6 September 1993.

Conditions and Procedures for both Vacancies.

Further information, Conditions of Appointment and Method of Application, should be obtained from the Academic Appointments Office, University of Auckland, Private Bag 92019, Auckland, New Zealand, phone (64)9 373-7999 extn. 5790, fax (64)9 373-7454. Three copies of applications should be forwarded to reach the Registrar by the closing date specified.

Please quote the relevant Vacancy Number in all correspondence.

W B Nicoll, Registrar
An Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.