

MLA JOB INFORMATION LIST: SUMMER SUPPLEMENT*JUNE 1995

The following is information on positions in English and foreign languages that the Job Information Service received after the April List went to press. Subscribers to the List may use the form enclosed to renew their subscriptions. Departmental members of ADE and ADFL receive their copies of the List through their memberships. For additional copies of the subscription form, please write to the Job Information Service.

U OF MAINE, 5752 Neville Hall, ORONO, ME 04469ENGLISH

Two-Year Leave Replacement. Assistant Professor in Medieval English Literature. Responsible for teaching graduate and undergraduate courses in Middle English literature, survey of British literature, introductory literature and writing courses. Ph.D. required in English or related field. Demonstrated success at university-level teaching. Indication of current scholarly activity. Salary: $28,000 plus attractive fringe benefits package. Pending final administrative approval, this will be a fixed-length, one-year appointment with a likely one-year renewal. Appointment starts September 1, 1995. Send letter, c.v., and dossier to Chair, Medieval Search Committee, by July 7, 1995. The University of Maine is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, PHILADELPHIA, PA 19104ASIAN-AMER STUDIES

The School of Arts & Sciences invites applications for a position in Asian American Studies at the junior or senior level. Candidates with disciplinary specializations in any of the humanities or social sciences are encouraged to apply. The search is being conducted by an interdisciplinary committee. We seek a candidate accomplished in one discipline who can think, write, teach and collaborate across disciplines and contribute to the building of an interdisciplinary program in Asian American Studies. The appointment will be effective on July 1, 1996. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Applicants should send an application letter, curriculum vitae, and list of references to Rosane Rocher, Chair, Asian American Search Committee, 820 Williams Hall. The University of Pennsylvania is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer.

EAST CAROLINA U, GREENVILLE, NC 27858ENGLISH

Assistant Professor of English, tenure-track, specializing in the Victorian Period, starting August 19, 1996. Ph.D. with evidence of scholarly potential required. Position open until filled; screening begins September 5, 1995. Send letter, vita, sample of professional writing, one-page statement of teaching philosophy and research agenda, and three current reference letters to Professor Donald Palumbo, Chair. An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University. Accommodates individuals with disabilities. Applicants must comply with provisions of the Immigration Reform and Control Act. Official transcripts required upon employment.

GOSHEN C, GOSHEN, IN 46526ENGLISH

One-year position in teaching general and specialized courses in American Literature as well as general education literature and composition -- perhaps American Literature Survey, the novels of Toni Morrison, Third World Literature, Writing about America, Expository Writing. Goshen College is a liberal arts college sponsored by the Mennonite Church. It is an equal opportunity employer.

U OF MARY, 7500 University Dr., BISMARCK, ND 58504ENGLISH & SPEECH

The University, a four-year coeducational Catholic University of 1,800 students, invites applications for the following appointment for August, 1995: Anticipated full-time position in speech and English. Experience in directing theater or competitive speech, or in teaching television or radio a plus. Master's degree required, Ph.D. preferred. All applicants must be supportive of higher education within a Benedictine Tradition. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae and references to: Office of Academic Affairs. EOE/AA

CALIFORNIA SU, 1250 Bellflower Blvd., LONG BEACH, CA 90840 ENGLISH

Assistant Professor, effective date: August 26, 1996. Minimum qualifications: Ph.D. or Ed.D. in English Education required. Applicants must have English teaching experience in both secondary schools and college/university. Demonstrated potential for or record of scholarly activity relevant to field. Ability to communicate effectively with an ethnically and culturally diverse campus community. Desired/preferred qualifications: Documented teaching ability and experience in the Teaching of Writing, Adolescent/Children's Literature, Teaching Methods, and Supervision of student teachers in English and Literacy Studies. Record of published scholarly activity. Duties: The position involves teaching such credential-related courses as Teaching English in Secondary Schools, Composition for Teachers, Theories of Writing and Literacy, Literature for Adolescents, along with supervision of student teachers in English. Salary range: commensurate with background and experience. Probable range from $35,868 - $43,164, depending on teaching experience. Required documentation: Letter of application; resume; three letters of recommendation; transcript from institution awarding highest degree. Position open until filled (or recruitment canceled). Review of applications to begin October 1, 1995.

Applications, required documentation, and requests for information should be addressed to: Prof. Gene L. Dinielli, Chairman.

U OF ALBERTA, EDMONTON, ALBERTA, CANADA T6G 2E5 ENGLISH

Applications invited for a tenurable position at the Assistant Professor level, effective July 1, 1996, in the area of Victorian Literature. The deadline for receiving completed applications is November 15, 1995. Applications from persons who have a substantial background in more than one area of the discipline, who have interdisciplinary and/or Cultural Studies expertise, and who are able to teach generalist as well as specialized courses are particularly welcomed. The appointment will be at the floor of the Assistant Professor level (1995-96 salary of $39,230). The English Department at the University of Alberta has 63 tenure-track faculty members, approximately 135 graduate students of whom half are in the Ph.D. programme, over 100 Honours programme students, and over 700 Arts and Education majors. Faculty members typically teach courses from first-year to graduate levels. The current teaching load is 5 semesters; new faculty members will be assigned a reduced teaching load during their first year of appointment and are eligible to apply for a small start-up grant for research. Staff members are also eligible to apply to university programmes in support of research and attendance at conferences. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada. Candidates should ask three referees to send letters directly to: Dr. Patricia Demers, Chair. Candidates should also send the Chair a letter of application, a complete curriculum vitae, and the names of referees, and should arrange for the Chair to receive graduate and undergraduate transcripts. Only complete applications received by November 15 will be considered; candidates are responsible for ensuring that transcripts and letters of reference are received by the Department. The University of Alberta is committed to the principle of equity in employment. As an employer we welcome diversity in the workplace and encourage applications from all qualified women and men, including Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and members of visible minorities.

* * * * *

JOB SEARCH CLINIC AT THE 1995 MLA CONVENTION IN CHICAGO will again

be conducted by Howard Figler, career consultant, author (The Complete Job Search Handbook), and former director of the career center at the University of Texas at Austin. The clinic is designed for MLA members interested in making the transition to employment outside the academy. The eleven previous clinics have been enthusiastically received by participants. The clinic will assist participants in learning about career options and marketable skills, preparing effective resumes, locating jobs, and improving interviewing and negotiating skills. The clinic will consist of five sessions that begin at 4:00 p.m. on 26 December and conclude at noon on 28 December. There should be minimal conflict with other convention sessions. The cost of the clinic is $205; enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars when complete information becomes available next fall, write to the MLA Job Information Service.

* * * * *

POLYTECHNIC U, Rt 110, FARMINGDALE, NY 11735

HUMANITIES

Possible part-time adjunct openings for the fall and spring semesters in ESL, basic writing, composition, creative writing, technical writing, public speaking, and introduction to literature. M.A. required. Indicate whether you prefer the Long Island campus or the Brooklyn campus. Letter and resume to Prof. S.K. Marks, EOE/MFVH.

NEW YORK INST OF TECH, PO Box 8000, OLD WESTBURY, NY 11568 ESL

Assistant Professor in ESL, Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics (preferred), full-time tenure-track appointment to begin September 1, 1995; M.A. in TESOL considered at Instructor's rank, non-tenure track. Teaching and coordinating college ESL courses in writing process and literature; solid experience teaching CAI writing courses, portfolio approach; experience coordinating ESL program a plus as is a background in English Education. Send c.v. and dossier by 7/7/95 to Anthony DiMatteo, Chair, English.

U OF MICHIGAN, ANN ARBOR, MI 48109

WOMEN'S STUDIES

The Women's Studies Program at the University of Michigan seeks qualified candidates to become Director of Women's Studies beginning in September 1996. Candidates should be senior scholars who could be appointed as full professors, with outstanding records of accomplishment in research and teaching, as well as experience in women's studies and administration. The joint appointment will be in Women's Studies and in any liberal arts or professional school department. The University of Michigan is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Send a letter outlining interest in the position; four one-page statements (one, a statement about your scholarly interests and plans, the second addressing teaching interests and philosophy, the third addressing administrative experience and style, and the fourth outlining your view of women's studies' present and future); a vita; and names and addresses for six potential references to: Chair, Search Committee for Women's Studies Director, Women's Studies Program, 234 W. Engineering 1092, Ann Arbor, MI 48109. Review of applications will begin on June 1; applications should be received by June 30, 1995.

INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC U MALAYSIA, SELANGOR, MALAYSIA ENGLISH

Applications are invited for the posts of Professor, Associate Professor and Assistant Professor in the Department of English Language and Literature. The appointment will be made on a fixed term contract for 2 years, tenable from May - July 1, 1995 with a possibility of renewal. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in Literature, Drama, or a related field, an active program of research and publication and prior teaching experience. They should have expertise in one or more of the following areas: Islamic Literature, British/American Literature, World Literature in English, and/or Literary Theory and Criticism. The Department especially seeks applicants who are interested in helping to develop Islamic perspectives towards literature at both the undergraduate and graduate level. Monthly salaries and allowances from US$ 2,000 to US$ 4,000. Education of three children and health care for family as well as economy class travel on commencement and completion of contract period, gratuity at 17.5% of salary on completion of contract. Please forward Curriculum Vitae and copies of certificates and details of publication to: Dato' Dr. Abdulhamid A. Abusulayman, Rector, International Islamic University Malaysia, Jalan Universiti, 46350 Petaling Jaya, Selangor Darulehsan, Malaysia. Telephone (603)7555401, FAX (603)7571006, E-mail, Rector@its.iiu.my.

BOK JI CORPORATION, SEOUL, KOREA

ENGLISH

Teach English in Korea -- many positions available monthly. B.A., B.S. or B.Ed required; graduate degrees welcome. $18,000-$24,000 U.S./yr. Accomodation provided, with other benefits. Send c.v., two color photographs, diploma and passport copies to Mike Oh, Bok Ji Corporation, Yang Chun P.O. Box 8, Yang Chun Gu, Seoul, Korea. Tel.: 011-822-242-5627; FAX: 011-822-242-4329.

* * * * *

NORTHEASTERN U, BOSTON, MA 02115

MODERN LANGS

The College of Arts and Sciences at Northeastern University seeks an innovative and dynamic Chairperson for the Department of Modern Languages. The Chairperson will be responsible for using new resources to facilitate major enhancements in modern language instruction. The Chairperson is also expected to participate in an institutional commitment to interdisciplinary programs and the internationalization of the University-wide curriculum. The Department is committed to developing language instruction with new technological and pedagogical techniques. Candidates must possess a Ph.D. in a relevant discipline, and hold a minimum rank of associate professor with tenure. Candidates must also have near-native fluency in at least one language in addition to English, and have strong records in undergraduate teaching and scholarship. Candidates with significant accomplishments in establishing successful innovative programs in language instruction and in securing grants are especially encouraged to apply. The successful candidate will be expected to possess the strong interpersonal skills necessary to foster a collegial and participatory environment in the Department, and to be an effective advocate for the interests of the Department in the University. The Chairperson will be expected to act in accordance with Northeastern University's support for the principles of Affirmative Action and cultural diversity. The Department offers undergraduate courses in languages (Spanish, French, German, Italian, Russian), literature, film studies, and linguistics. The area of language specialization and scholarship is open. Please send a letter of application, a current curriculum vitae, and the names and telephone numbers of three references to: Professor Robert Modée, Chair, Modern Languages Chair Search Committee, c/o Faculty Senate Office, 442 Ryder Hall, Northeastern University, Boston, MA 02115. Full consideration will be given to materials received by September 1, 1995. Northeastern University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action, Title IX Employer.

BROWN U, Box 1961, PROVIDENCE, RI 02912

FRENCH STUDIES

Lecturer in French language. Full-time three-year renewable position to begin July 1, 1996. Candidates should have ability in French equivalent to that of a native speaker and hold a Ph.D. in Foreign Language Acquisition or equivalent credentials. Responsibilities will include teaching and coordinating French language courses from the elementary through the advanced levels. Required: demonstrated experience and excellence in teaching. Preferred: experience in teacher training and material development. Send a cover letter with c.v. and a dossier including three letters of recommendation to Professor Edward Ahearn, Chair of the Language Search Committee. Please include a self-addressed postcard so that we can acknowledge receipt of your materials. Deadline for application: November 1, 1995. AA/EOE. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

BROWN U, Box 1961, PROVIDENCE, RI 02912

FRENCH STUDIES

Assistant Professor in the Renaissance, with background in cultural, interdisciplinary approaches to the field, beginning July 1, 1996. Interest in late Medieval Studies desirable. Demonstrated excellence in teaching, including a strong commitment to language teaching. Ph.D. required. Three-year renewable contract, tenure track. Send a cover letter with c.v. and a dossier, including 3 letters of recommendation to Professor Inge Wimmers, Chair, Please include a self-addressed postcard so that we can acknowledge receipt of your materials. Deadline for application: November 1, 1995. AA/EOE. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

PRINCETON U, 230 East Pyne, PRINCETON, NJ 08544

GERMANIC LANGS & LITS

Advanced Associate or Full Professor, with a specialization in 19th century German literature and strength in women's studies. The application deadline is September 15, 1995. Send letter of application and full CV to: Prof. Michael Curschmann, Acting Chair. Princeton University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

PRINCETON U, 211 Jones Hall, PRINCETON, NJ 08544

EAST ASIAN STUDIES

The Department of East Asian Studies invites applications for a position in Classical Chinese Literature, with research and teaching strengths in a broad range of genres and periods of traditional poetry and prose. Deadline for applications is October 1, 1995. Send c.v. and relevant supporting materials to: Search Committee Chair. AA/EOE.

NORTHERN MICHIGAN U, MARQUETTE, MI 49855

LANGUAGE DEPT

Spanish Instructor, one semester, (January 3 - April 30, 1996). M.A., A.B.D. with experience in teaching undergraduate courses. Native or near native fluency in Spanish. $13,000 plus benefits. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, official transcripts and two letters of recommendation (one from teaching supervisor): Dr. Roland Graves. Deadline: August 30, 1995. Office: (906) 227-2940. FAX (906) 227-1819. Northern Michigan University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

U OF CALIFORNIA, SAN DIEGO, LA JOLLA, CA 92093

SPANISH/VIETNAMESE

The Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies invites applications for part to full-time language lecturers in Spanish and Vietnamese. 9 month appointment starts September 1, 1995 with possible renewal. Salary based on University of California pay scales, experience, and qualifications. Duties: teach, test proficiency and placement, develop materials for social science graduate language study. Requirements: M.A. (Ph.D. preferred) and native or near-native fluency, proven excellence in language teaching, knowledge of contemporary theories in second language acquisition. Preferred: knowledge of language's culture/society and of oral proficiency testing and computer assisted instruction. Send letter, c.v., and three reference names to Language Search (MLA), Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies 0519, 9500 Gilman Drive. Applications received by July 15, 1995 given first consideration. All positions subject to fund availability. AA/EOE.

SEATTLE U, SEATTLE, WA 98122

FOREIGN LANGS

Assistant Professor of Spanish, tenure track, Ph.D. or equivalent. Primarily language instructor. Position involves Latin American Studies Program in Mexico. Native fluency. Women and minorities encouraged. Deadline: December 1, 1995. CV, recommendations and SASE to James Stark, Chair.

MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION, 10 Astor Place, NEW YORK, NY 10003

Index scholarly publications for the MLA International Bibliography. Must have M.A. in linguistics (specialization in Slavic languages), an excellent command of English, editing and proofreading experience, and excellent organization and typing skills. Position open 1 September 1995. Send letter including your salary expectations and resume to Box TFS.

+++++

SETON HALL U, SOUTH ORANGE, NJ 07079

MODERN LANGS

Assistant Professor or Instructor of French. One-year term appointment, beginning Fall 1995. Recent Ph.D. (ABD considered). Native/near-native fluency. Experience in proficiency-based instruction, language pedagogy and literature before the 20th century preferred. Publications desirable. Send letter and c.v. on or before June 25, 1995 to: Dr. Daniel Zalacain, Chairperson.

+++++

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, CORK

IRELAND

FRENCH

Boole Fellowships, American Ireland Fund and California Alumni & Friends Fellow in Medieval Language and Literature: French. Applications are invited for the above position, tenable for 3 years from as soon as possible (and not later than 1 January 1996). Candidates should have obtained, or be near completing, a Ph.D. (or equivalent), and should have research interests in the language or literatures of medieval France; or a comparative interest in French and other European medieval cultures; or in the linguistics-literature interface in the medieval period; or in interdisciplinary approaches to medieval culture. Further details of the Fellowship may be obtained from: Professor Patrick O'Donovan, Department of French. Telephone: +353 21 902552. Facsimile: +353 21 272836. Email: PTODONOVAN@VAX1.UCC.IE. Applications, in the form of a curriculum vitae giving full details of education, research experience, publications and the names of two or three referees, together with a 1000 word statement of research interests and projects, should be sent so as to reach Professor O'Donovan no later than 24 July 1995; candidates are also requested to ensure that their referees forward recommendations direct to Professor O'Donovan by the same date.