Job Clinic on Nonacademic Careers, 26 Broadway New York NY 10004

Job Clinic at DC MLA Convention

763

<http://www.mla.org>

A Job Clinic for MLA members interested in employment outside the academy will be held at the 2005 convention in Washington, DC. The Clinic will again be conducted by Howard Figler, career consultant, author ("The Complete Job Search Handbook"), and former director of the career center at the University of Texas at Austin. The twenty one previous clinics have been enthusiastically received by participants. The first job clinic was held at the 1984 convention. One participant praised a previous clinic for being "very well organized, reasonably priced." Another observed, "I feel that I now have a concrete picture of available opportunities and practical approaches to the job search. Dr. Figler really helped build my confidence and change my frame of mind to a more positive attitude. I especially appreciated that Dr. Figler's own background and the slant given to the seminar were pertinent to my own specific situation as an academic in transition." The clinic will assist in learning about career options and marketable skills, preparing effective resumes, locating jobs, and improving interviewing and negotiation skills. It will consist of five sessions that begin at 4:00 p.m. on 26 December (one day before the formal opening of the convention) and conclude at noon on 28 December. There should be minimal conflict with other convention sessions. The cost is $215 in addition to the convention registration fee; enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars when information becomes available next fall, write or e-mail (rchustek@mla.org) with your name and complete mailing address, to the MLA Job Information Service.
