ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is now available for searching by JIL subscribers as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.ade.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The print version of the Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a subscription is $35.00 in the United States and Canada and $47.00 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas; delivery should be shortly after the publication dates listed below. Please note, however, that these are projected dates only and are subject to change without notice.

October issue	18 October 1999
December issue	15 November 1999
February issue	18 February 2000
April issue	14 April 2000

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003 (212 614-6321; roy.chustek@mla.org).

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The December issue contains descriptions of approximately 230 definite and possible vacancies. Readers should note that departments are not encouraged to repeat listings. If a notice that appeared in the October issue is not readvertised, you should not assume that the position is no longer available. The only reliable guide to application is to check the deadline reported in the original notice or a current announcement in this List. The December listings are broken down by language as follows: French, 28 definite, 3 possible; Spanish, 99 definite, 12 possible; German, 14 definite, 1 possible; Italian, 4 definite, 1 possible; Slavic, 8 definite; Romance languages, 4 definite; multiple language fields, 15 definite; and linguistics, Middle Eastern and Asian languages, comparative literature, and other language fields, 44 definite, 5 possible.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by language, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Multiple Language Listings

Notices in which the language field is open, as well as notices of single positions calling for expertise in more than one language (e.g., associate professor of Spanish and German).

Comparative Literature, Linguistics and ESL, and Other Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

Comments on Previous Listings

This section contains statements submitted by departments commenting on entries in the October List (e.g., announcing a new application deadline, reporting an address correction, etc.).

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. ii).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981.

MLA ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Modern Language Association will be held in Chicago, 27–30 December 1999. The Job Information Center will be located in the International Ballroom, level 2, Fairmont Chicago, for both English and foreign languages. Job candidates, departmental administrators, and representatives who wish to use the facilities of the Job Information Center must be registered for the convention. The following services will be provided:

- (1) Interviewer's Sign-In Desk for Departments. Departmental administrators or representatives who plan to hold job interviews during the convention, whether in their own hotel rooms or in the Interview Area of the Job Information Center, should sign in (name, institution, hotel, and room number) at the Job Information Center, so that candidates with whom they have set up interviews will be able to locate them. Although an interviewer's name may appear in "Who's Where," for security reasons hotel switchboards will not give out guests' room numbers—and are in any case extremely busy. A brief stop at the sign-in desk by a thoughtful interviewer can save much confusion and worry for candidates. If supplied with a list of candidates with whom the department has scheduled interviews, the MLA staff will release room information only to these people. The sign-in desk will be open from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on 30 December.
- (2) Telephone Service. Job candidates with whom hiring departments have arranged convention interviews may retrieve information about the location of interviews by telephone as well as in person at the Job Information Center. Job candidates may dial the following telephone number for this information: 312 565-6653. Telephone service will be available from 12:00 noon to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on 30 December. Job candidates who need TDD service may call 312 565-6656.
- (3) Counseling Service. The Job Information Center counseling service affords job seekers the opportunity to discuss individual employment problems with experienced department administrators. While counselors cannot help candidates obtain interviews, they can and will offer objective, concrete advice on such matters as the appropriate content and presentation of vitae and letters of application, the kinds of institutions to which candidates might most profitably apply, and realistic approaches to job interviews. Counselors will be on hand at the center to speak with interested candidates from 10:15 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. on 28 and 29 December. Appointments can be arranged through the staff member on duty in the interview area of the job center.
- (4) Interview Area. For the convenience of departmental representatives and candidates, there will be an interview area for English and foreign languages within the Job Information Center. Interviewers who wish to use this area should schedule their own interviews either by letter before the convention or by leaving messages at the message center. Table assignments in the interview area, which will be open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on 30 December, will be given to departmental representatives on a first-come, first-served basis. MLA staff members will be on duty in the area to assist interviewers and candidates.
- (5) Vacancy Notices. A list of job openings received too late to be included in the December Job Information List will be posted on bulletin boards in the Job Information Center. Departmental representatives who have last-minute vacancies should submit detailed descriptions of these to an MLA staff member in the center, who will see that they are posted on the boards. Such notices may also appear in the February Job Information List so that candidates who do not attend the convention will have an opportunity to apply.
- (6) Message Center. Open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on 30 December, the message center will help candidates and interviewers who have corresponded before the convention to establish specific interview times and places. The message center will not be useful to those who leave messages at random for persons who may not even be in attendance at the convention. Such messages are not picked up, and they serve only to defeat the purpose of the center.

While every effort will be made to assist candidates and interviewers in the Job Information Center, it should be noted that the MLA does not have the facilities for introducing candidates and interviewers who have not corresponded prior to the convention.

THERE IS VERY LITTLE OPEN INTERVIEWING AT THE CONVENTION. JOB CANDIDATES WHO DO NOT HAVE PREARRANGED INTERVIEWS SHOULD NOT PLAN TO ATTEND FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censoring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

Asst. Prof., Islam: Religion, Culture and Society 1630
<http://www.cohums.ohio-state.edu/nelc/nelc.htm>

The Ohio State University, Department of Near Eastern Languages and Cultures (NELC) seeks to make a junior level tenure-eligible appointment. The successful candidate will have near-native fluency/textual competence in at least one of the languages of Islam, as well as reading proficiency in another. One of these languages must be Arabic. Period of scholarly specialization is open but the successful candidate will be expected to teach general courses on Islam. Topics of research and teaching interest could include: textuality and society, intellectual institutions, orthodoxies and heterodoxies, legal studies, etc. Interest in comparative religious studies and comparative theoretical perspectives that reach beyond the Middle East region as conventionally defined are welcome. Undergraduate and graduate teaching duties may include some supervision of language-teaching program. Interest or experience in innovative teaching methods and materials is welcome. Salary is competitive. Send CV, writing sample (approx. 20-50 pp.), statement of research and teaching goals, and names and addresses of three referees to Prof. Sabra Webber, Chair, Islamic Studies Search Committee, NELC Dept., The Ohio State University, 203 B & Z Bldg., 1735 Neil Ave., Columbus, OH 43210-1293. If you plan to attend MESA or AAR annual meetings, please indicate this in your cover letter. Review of applications will begin October 30 and continue until position is filled. OSU is an AA/EEO. Women, minorities, persons in categories underrepresented in the discipline, Vietnam-era veterans, disabled veterans and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

CHINESE

Carnegie Mellon U

Mod Languages, Baker Hall 160 Pittsburgh PA 15213

Lecturer in Chinese 1613
<http://ml.hss.cmu.edu/ml/>

The Department of Modern Languages invites applications for a three-year renewable position as Lecturer in Chinese (Mandarin) beginning in August 2000. This appointment results, in part, as a consequence of a continuing university commitment to increased internationalization. Preference will be given to candidates who have native speaker level competency in Mandarin, expertise in proficiency-oriented instruction, Multimedia experience, a Ph.D. in an appropriate area of Chinese studies, and teaching experience. Salary is commensurate with qualifications.

Applicants should send a letter of application (indicating whether they intend to attend the ACTFL meeting in Dallas or the MLA meeting in Chicago), vita, statement of teaching and research interests, three (3) letters of recommendation, and any representative publications by November 30, 1999 to: Chair, Chinese Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages, Baker Hall 160, Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890. Carnegie Mellon University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. This position is subject to final budget approval expected in February 2000.

New York University's Faculty of Arts & Science seeks applications for the Directorship of its center in Madrid. Over 40 years old, NYU in Madrid has been a pioneering study-abroad program. Building on this tradition and the considerable research strengths of its Spanish & Portuguese department and NYU's King Juan Carlos I Center, the Faculty of Arts & Science is searching for a Director who will help develop an academic environment of the highest caliber for students and faculty. NYU in Madrid offers two master's degrees in Hispanic literature and in Hispanic culture. The undergraduate program provides opportunities for study through Spanish or English on a semester, year-long, or summer term basis; all students are required to study Spanish while in residence. Students are selected from NYU as well as major research universities and four-year liberal arts colleges throughout the United States.

Reporting to the Dean of the College of Arts and Science and in collaboration with the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, the Director serves as the academic and administrative head of NYU in Madrid. He/she will be primarily responsible for shaping the intellectual life of students by designing curriculum, staffing courses, developing and implementing co-curricular activities such as lectures, excursions, and internships, advising students on academic matters, and teaching one course per semester. The Director is also responsible for overseeing all aspects of student life including housing and orientation sessions and will represent NYU to Spanish universities, government agencies, and the U.S. Embassy. Requirements: A Ph.D. (or equivalent) in the Humanities or Social Sciences, fluency in Spanish and English, teaching experience at both the graduate and undergraduate levels, and familiarity with the educational systems of both Spain and the United States are required. A proven record of scholarship and excellence in the candidate's field of expertise is highly preferred. Experience managing and promoting study abroad programs is desirable. Excellent benefits package includes free NYU tuition for self and eligible family members, generous holidays, vacation, health, dental and pension plans. NYU encourages applications from women and members of minority groups. Submit application letter, resume, and a list of three references by December 31 to: Ms. Elizabeth Robinson, Director of Human Resources, Faculty of Arts & Science, New York University, 6 Washington Square North, New York, New York 10003.
