SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The print version of the Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a print-only or online subscription is $35 in the United States and Canada and $47 elsewhere. The cost of a subscription to both online and print versions is $55 in the United States and Canada and $67 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas; delivery should be shortly after the publication dates listed below. Please note, however, that these are projected dates only and are subject to change without notice. A subscription form is available at www.mla.org.

October issue	19 October 2000
December issue	15 November 2000
February issue	16 February 2001
April issue	16 April 2001

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004 (646 576-5133; roy.chustek@mla.org).

ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is available for searching by individuals who have subscribed to the electronic JIL as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.adefl.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

In This Issue

The December issue contains descriptions of approximately 300 definite and possible vacancies. Readers should note that departments are not encouraged to repeat listings. If a notice that appeared in the October issue is not readvertised, you should not assume that the position is no longer available. The only reliable guide to application is to check the deadline reported in the original notice or a current announcement in this List. The December listings are broken down by language as follows: French, 31 definite, 1 possible; Spanish, 118 definite, 9 possible; German, 22 definite, 1 possible; Italian, 11 definite, Slavic, 8 definite; Romance languages, 1 definite; multiple language fields, 19 definite, 1 possible; and linguistics, Middle Eastern and Asian languages, comparative literature, and other language fields, 78 definite, 4 possible.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

US and Canadian Departments

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Comparative Literature and Linguistics and ESL Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. iii).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Policy on the Reimbursement of Job Seekers

The following policies were recommended by the Delegate Assembly in December 1999 and approved by the MLA Executive Council in February 2000.

It is MLA policy that:

- Departments that require that job applicants send their application materials by express carrier reimburse those applicants for the cost of such shipment; and
- Departments that require multiple copies of writing samples and other application materials from job applicants reimburse applicants for the cost of duplicating their writing samples and other materials; and
- Departments that require books will return them to the applicant; and
- Departments that invite job applicants for on-campus interviews reimburse those applicants who accept such invitations for the costs of travel and accommodations incurred when visiting the campus for interviews.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004-1789.

MLA ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Modern Language Association will be held in Washington, DC, 27–30 December 2000. The Job Information Center will be located in the Ambassador Ballroom, lobby level, Omni Shoreham, for both English and foreign languages. Job candidates, departmental administrators, and representatives who wish to use the facilities of the Job Information Center must be registered for the convention. The following services will be provided:

- (1) Interviewer's Sign-In Desk for Departments. Departmental administrators or representatives who plan to hold job interviews during the convention, whether in their own hotel rooms or in the Interview Area of the Job Information Center, should sign in (name, institution, hotel, and room number) at the Job Information Center, so that candidates with whom they have set up interviews will be able to locate them. Although an interviewer's name may appear in "Who's Where," for security reasons hotel switchboards will not give out guests' room numbers—and are in any case extremely busy. A brief stop at the sign-in desk by a thoughtful interviewer can save much confusion and worry for candidates. If supplied with a list of candidates with whom the department has scheduled interviews, the MLA staff will release room information only to these people. The sign-in desk will be open from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on 30 December.
 - (2) Telephone Service. Job candidates with whom hiring departments have arranged convention interviews may retrieve information about the location of interviews by telephone as well as in person at the Job Information Center. Job candidates may dial the following telephone number for this information: 202 756-5297. Telephone service will be available from 12:00 noon to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on 30 December. Job candidates who need TDD service may call 202 756-5296.
 - (3) Counseling Service. The Job Information Center counseling service affords job seekers the opportunity to discuss individual employment problems with experienced department administrators. While counselors cannot help candidates obtain interviews, they can and will offer objective, concrete advice on such matters as the appropriate content and presentation of vitae and letters of application, the kinds of institutions to which candidates might most profitably apply, and realistic approaches to job interviews. Counselors will be on hand at the center to speak with interested candidates from 10:15 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. on 28 and 29 December. Appointments can be arranged through the staff member on duty in the interview area of the job center.
 - (4) Interview Area. For the convenience of departmental representatives and candidates, there will be an interview area for English and foreign languages within the Job Information Center. Interviewers who wish to use this area should schedule their own interviews either by letter before the convention or by leaving messages at the message center. Table assignments in the interview area, which will be open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon on 30 December, will be given to departmental representatives on a first-come, first-served basis. MLA staff members will be on duty in the area to assist interviewers and candidates.
 - (5) Vacancy Notices. A list of job openings received too late to be included in the December Job Information List will be posted on bulletin boards in the Job Information Center. Departmental representatives who have last-minute vacancies should submit detailed descriptions of these to an MLA staff member in the center, who will see that they are posted on the boards. Such notices may also appear in the February Job Information List so that candidates who do not attend the convention will have an opportunity to apply.
 - (6) Message Center. Open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on 30 December, the message center will help candidates and interviewers who have corresponded before the convention to establish specific interview times and places. The message center will not be useful to those who leave messages at random for persons who may not even be in attendance at the convention. Such messages are not picked up, and they serve only to defeat the purpose of the center.
- While every effort will be made to assist candidates and interviewers in the Job Information Center, it should be noted that the MLA does not have the facilities for introducing candidates and interviewers who have not corresponded prior to the convention.
- THERE IS VERY LITTLE OPEN INTERVIEWING AT THE CONVENTION. JOB CANDIDATES WHO DO NOT HAVE PREARRANGED INTERVIEWS SHOULD NOT PLAN TO ATTEND FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

*Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.*

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

Wabash C

Dean of the College, PO Box 352 Crawfordsville IN 47933

Owen Duston Visiting Minority Assistant Professorship

1772

Wabash College invites expressions of interest in the Owen Duston Visiting Minority Assistant Professorship. The appointment is directed at encouraging ethnic minorities to consider teaching and research careers at small liberal arts colleges. The visiting appointments, typically beginning in the fall semester, are made for one or multiple years depending on the candidate's area of expertise and the current and future needs of the College. The appointments carry a reduced teaching load of two courses per semester, while allowing the visiting professor to engage in all aspects of the College community. The visiting professors are invited to participate in the work of The Center of Inquiry in the Liberal Arts, which is located on the Wabash campus. The positions are designed to accommodate scholars both early in their careers (including ABD candidates) as well as those at more senior levels. The position is open to all ethnic minorities, who are U.S. citizens, having Ph.D., ABD or terminal degree in one of the following areas: African American Studies, Art (studio or history), Computer Science, English, Ethnic Studies, History (also anthropology or non-classical archeology), Latino Studies, Mathematics, Music, Philosophy, Psychology, Religion, Speech (rhetorical studies), Teacher Secondary Education, and Theater. Candidates who have areas of expertise that span more than one are encouraged to apply. Wabash College, a small liberal arts college for men, has a fall 2000 entering class with a 19% minority population. There is an established campus organization for African American students, the Malcolm X Institute, which has been active on campus for the last thirty years. The College will begin construction on a new home for the MXI in the near future. Wabash also has a growing Hispanic student population, a new area of study in Latin American issues and a strong Asian Religion program. Students are able to pursue areas of concentration in both Multicultural American Studies and Latin American Studies. The College is located within an hour of Indianapolis and three hours of Chicago. It is within in easy driving distance to Purdue University, Indiana University, and the University of Illinois. Crawfordsville is a mid-western town with fine schools and a strong sense of community. See <http://www.wabash.edu> for more information. Send a letter of interest, CV, transcripts, and three recent letters of recommendation to Mauri A. Ditzler, Dean of the College, Wabash College, PO Box 352, Crawfordsville IN 47933-0352. EOE.

Position Description We are seeking applications for a full-time tenure-track position, to begin Fall, 2001, in Literature. We require a Ph.D. in English, Comparative Literature or other relevant literary field, in hand, by June 1, 2001, along with evidence of superior teaching ability at the college level and a promising record of scholarship and publications. Teaching duties will focus primarily on a yearlong sequence that concentrates on, but is not limited to, major works in the Western tradition as they are situated in their historical contexts. Candidates who can integrate non-European perspectives into these courses are desirable. The honors college seeks a scholar with an active research program consistent with this teaching focus. Preference will be given to applicants with experience in settings where expository writing and argument are prominent. The Robert D. Clark Honors College is a small liberal arts college of approximately 550 students nested within a larger AAU research university of about 17,000 undergraduate and graduate students. As one of the oldest Honors Colleges in the nation, it features a comprehensive four-year curriculum that combines a broad liberal arts education with a specialized major selected from among the university's departments. We are looking for faculty who will make significant intellectual contributions to the Honors College and who will engage scholars in their disciplines outside the college. The University of Oregon is an EO/AA institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act. Send Curriculum Vita, cover letter, and three recent letters of recommendation, all to arrive by December 1, 2000 to: Professor David A. Frank, Chair, Search Committee, Clark Honors College, 1293 University of Oregon Eugene, OR.97403-1293

Georgetown U

Arabic, PO Box 571046, Langs & Linguistics Sch Washington DC 20057

Associate or Full Professor of Arabic

1682

<http://www.georgetown.edu/departments/arabic>

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT Georgetown University welcomes applications and nominations for a senior-level appointment to chair its Department of Arabic Language, Literature and Linguistics. The Department, which has long been known for its graduate and undergraduate programs in Arabic language and linguistics, seeks to increase its attention to various aspects of Arabic and Islamic culture. To this end, the research focus of this senior appointment will be in the area of medieval Islamic thought as this is expressed in Arabic literary sources. As Chair of the Department of Arabic, this senior-level faculty member will work collaboratively with Georgetown University faculty in such cognate units as the Department of History (Middle East and North Africa concentration), the Center for Contemporary Arab Studies and the Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding. Additionally, outreach to the rich scholarly resources available in the Washington, DC area will enhance the operations of the Department within the University. The search committee will begin its review of applications after December 10, 2000 and will continue to accept applications until the position is filled. A letter of application together with representative reprints, curriculum vitae, and at least three letters of reference should be sent to: Professor Jane D. McAuliffe, Dean, Georgetown University, Box 571003, Washington, DC 20057-1003. Georgetown is a Catholic and Jesuit, student-centered research university and candidates are strongly recommended to read its mission statement on the university's webpage. Georgetown University is AA/EOE.

Georgia Inst of Tech

Modern Languages, 613 Cherry Street Atlanta GA 30332-0375

Chair of Modern Languages

<http://www.iac.gatech.edu>

The Ivan Allen College—the liberal arts college of Georgia Tech—is seeking a dynamic leader for Modern Languages to expand the role of foreign languages in global education at Georgia Tech. Founded in 1904, Modern Languages currently offers instruction in Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Russian, and Spanish language, literature and culture, with an emphasis on interactive learning and the interdisciplinary application of language for business and the professions. Modern Languages sponsors Georgia Tech's Language for Business and Technology Program, an intensive summer program in French, German, Japanese, and Spanish, which couples immersion in the language with overseas seminars. The unit currently offers the B. S. degree in International Affairs and Modern Languages in cooperation with the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, and is poised to broaden its degree offerings.

We seek a full professor with a strong record of scholarship, administrative experience, and commitment to pedagogical innovation, preferably with experience in applied and/or content-based language instruction. The successful candidate will be expected to expand linkages between the Modern Languages group and other schools within the Ivan Allen College, as well as the Georgia Tech Colleges of Architecture, Computing, Engineering, Science and Management. The Chair reports directly to the Dean of the Ivan Allen College and is responsible for faculty recruitment and development, delivery of the curriculum, budget management and fund-raising, and representation of Modern Languages within Georgia Tech and in the wider academic, business and international communities. The Georgia Institute of Technology was recently ranked as the 8th best national public university by U.S. News and World Reports. Located in Atlanta, Georgia, one of the fastest-growing metropolitan areas in the United States, Georgia Tech enjoys the setting of a thriving international business community and attracts students and faculty of the highest caliber.

Applicants should forward a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the names and contact information (including e-mail addresses) for three references to the Co-Chairs of the Search Committee: Dr. Vicki Galloway, Professor of Spanish and Dr. Linda Brady, Professor of International Affairs, Co-Chairs, Modern Languages Chair Search Committee, Office of the Dean, Ivan Allen College, 781 Marietta St., Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, Georgia 30332-0525; vicki.galloway@modlangs.gatech.edu. www.iac.gatech.edu

References will not be contacted without the applicant's permission. Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2000, and will continue until the position is filled. The anticipated starting date for this position is August 1, 2001. Georgia Tech is an Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer.

Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship at UCLA

<http://www.humnet.ucla.edu/humnet/consortium>

The Humanities Consortium of the University of California, Los Angeles, will appoint 3 Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellows for a 2-year tenure beginning in the fall of 2001. Fellows must have earned their doctorates no earlier than September 1, 1998, and must have the doctorate in hand by September 1, 2001. The Fellowship carries a stipend of $35,000 per year. All Fellows are required to be in residence and to participate in the Consortium's Mellon Seminar and Conference. Fellows will also teach, through relevant departments or programs, 1 course in their first year and 2 in their second, and will be expected to participate in the intellectual life of these programs. One Fellow will be appointed in each of three historical periods: A. D. 600 to 1600; 1600 to 1800; and 1800 to the present. These Fellowships are part of a 3-year program, 2001-2004, devoted to the theme "Nations and Identities." The topic for 2001-2002 is "Between Culture and State." (Subsequent yearly topics are "Technologies and Knowledge" and "Minorities and Majorities: the Question of a Civil Society.") Early in the twentieth century, Friedrich Meinecke distinguished between the Kultur-nation, or "largely passive cultural community," and the Staatsnation, or "active self-determining political nation," that is, nation as cultural or ethnic affiliation versus nation as political state. This distinction also implies two enduring ways of understanding the rise of the nation-state. One emphasizes the way deeply rooted components of cultural history—such as language, myth, and religion—remain indispensable to understanding modern national identity. Such a history would include the empires, nations, and peoples of antiquity, the composition of medieval universities and Church councils, the Renaissance city-state, Romantic notions of the "folk," and 19th-century theories of race. The other way underlines the often invented character of tradition and the dependence of the nation-state, from the 18th century onward, instead on the machinery of modern social organization: industrial production, communications infrastructures, developed markets, and evenly applied legal rights. Moreover, while many scholars locate the origins of the modern nation-state in the West, how should national identity be understood from the perspective of classical Indian or Chinese cultural community and dynastic rule? Is the nation-state form that has emerged today in much of Africa and Asia a natural (or necessary) development, or an accident of Western political hegemony? Applicants should address these or related issues. There is no application form. Applicants should send a cover letter, a description (no more than 1500 words) of a scholarly project relevant to the year's topic, a CV, and three letters of recommendation by February 1, 2001, to: Mellon Fellowship Program, UCLA Humanities Consortium, 310 Royce Hall, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1461.
