Dean, College of Arts & Sciences

2606

Nominations and applications are invited for the position of Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. The University of Massachusetts Dartmouth is located in the Town of Dartmouth, approximately 60 miles south of Boston and 30 miles east of Providence, Rhode Island. It is a comprehensive university, located on a modern campus of 700 acres and serves 5,500 full-time commuter and resident students and 2,000 part-time students. The 300 full-time, unionized faculty offer baccalaureate and master degrees in five colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business and Industry, Engineering, Nursing and the Visual and Performing Arts. The University of Massachusetts includes campuses in Amherst, Boston, Dartmouth, Lowell and Worcester. Further information is available at the UMass Dartmouth web site at WWW.UMASSD.EDU. The Dean is the chief academic and administrative officer of the College and reports to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. The college is composed of thirteen departments: Biology, Chemistry & Biochemistry, Economics, Education, English, Foreign Literature and Languages, History, Mathematics, Medical Laboratory Science, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology and Sociology/Anthropology. In addition, there are specialized centers. Masters degrees are offered in the departments of Biology, Chemistry, English and Psychology and the Master of Arts in Teaching. Additional graduate programs at the masters and doctoral level are being planned. The Dean is expected to promote quality and diversity in the faculty, staff and students of the college. The Dean, in consultation with the department chairpersons, provides leadership and direction in the selection and retention of faculty and staff; the development and implementation of curriculum, research, and scholarly activities of the faculty; and intellectual leadership; and plans, directs and coordinates the administrative, budgetary, and academic activities of the College. The Dean is a member of the Council of Academic Deans and responsibilities include the development of cooperative interactions with other units on campus and surrounding communities. Candidates must have a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in one of the disciplines of the College from an accredited institution and a distinguished record of scholarly research and teaching appropriate for a faculty appointment within one of the departments of the College; successful experience in progressively responsible levels of university administration; a record of shared governance; and demonstrated commitment and success in furthering the principles of equal opportunity, affirmative action and cultural diversity. The preferred candidate will also have experience with graduate level education, knowledge of external funding opportunities for scholarly and/or creative activities, an understanding of higher education issues, fiscal management procedures, service as a department chairperson and exceptional interpersonal and communication skills. Applicants should submit a letter of interest, not to exceed two pages, summarizing their accomplishments and philosophy relative to the above stated objectives and suitability for the position; a current vita; and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of four references. Applications, nominations, or requests for additional information should be sent to: Dean, College of Arts & Sciences Search Committee, Office of Human Resources. The review of applications will begin April 10, 2000 and will continue until the position is filled. Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer applications are encouraged from women, minorities and disabled individuals.

ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is now available for searching by JIL subscribers as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.ade.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a subscription is $35.00 in the United States and Canada and $47.00 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas. This April List is the last regularly scheduled issue for 1999–2000; however, a special Summer Supplement containing last-minute notices of vacancies will be mailed to all 1999–2000 subscribers (both full-year and half-year) on 26 June. Renewal forms for 2000–01 will be included in the supplement.

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003 (212 614-6321; joblist@mla.org).

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The April issue contains descriptions of approximately 85 definite and possible vacancies. The listings are broken down by language as follows: French, 15 definite; Spanish, 37 definite, 4 possible; Italian, 1 definite; Slavic, 1 definite; Romance Languages, 2 definite; multiple language fields, 18 definite; and linguistics, Middle Eastern and Asian languages, comparative literature, and other language fields, 10 definite.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by language, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Multiple Language Listings

Notices in which the language field is open, as well as notices of single positions calling for expertise in more than one language (e.g., associate professor of Spanish and German).

Comparative Literature, Linguistics and ESL, and Other Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

Comments on Previous Listings

This section contains statements submitted by departments commenting on entries in the October List (e.g., announcing a new application deadline, reporting an address correction, etc.).

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. ii).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.
