SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The print version of the Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of a print-only or online subscription is $35 in the United States and Canada and $47 elsewhere. The cost of a subscription to both online and print versions is $55 in the United States and Canada and $67 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas; delivery should be shortly after the publication dates listed below. Please note, however, that these are projected dates only and are subject to change without notice. A subscription form is available at www.mla.org.

February issue 16 February 2001

April issue 16 April 2001

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004 (646 576-5133; rchustek@mla.org).

ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is available for searching by individuals who have subscribed to the electronic JIL as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, locate the address label on the back cover of your Job Information List. Your current online user name is the number located in the upper right-hand side of the address label. Your password is your zip code or the first five letters of your country (capitalized) if you live outside the United States. This user name and password will give you initial access to the electronic JIL. The online JIL can be found at the MLA's World Wide Web site (www.mla.org); follow the Job Information link to the JIL page, where you will find information on how to search the JIL. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by going to the JIL page, clicking on either of the "Search" buttons, giving your current user name and password at the prompt, and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.adefl.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

In This Issue

The February issue contains descriptions of approximately 200 definite and possible vacancies. The February listings are broken down by language as follows: French, 19 definite, 2 possible; Spanish, 80 definite, 8 possible; German, 11 definite, 1 possible; Italian, 13 definite; Slavic, 4 definite; Romance languages, 7 definite, 4 possible; multiple language fields, 16 definite; and linguistics, Middle Eastern and Asian languages, comparative literature, and other language fields, 34 definite.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

US and Canadian Departments

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by state, contains information on definite or possible vacancies, comments on notices published in past issues (e.g., that a previously announced position has been filled), and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep résumés on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Comparative Literature and Linguistics and ESL Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated out from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita sheet to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. iii).

While it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographical area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Policy on the Reimbursement of Job Seekers

The following policies were recommended by the Delegate Assembly in December 1999 and approved by the MLA Executive Council in February 2000.

It is MLA policy that:

- Departments that require that job applicants send their application materials by express carrier reimburse those applicants for the cost of such shipment; and
- Departments that require multiple copies of writing samples and other application materials from job applicants reimburse applicants for the cost of duplicating their writing samples and other materials; and
- Departments that require books will return them to the applicant; and
- Departments that invite job applicants for on-campus interviews reimburse those applicants who accept such invitations for the costs of travel and accommodations incurred when visiting the campus for interviews.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $8.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004-1789.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

DEPARTMENT CHAIRS/DEANSHIPS

Marist C

Humanities Division, 3399 North Rd Poughkeepsie NY 12601

Dean, Division of Humanities

<http://www.marist.edu>

Dean of Division of Humanities Marist College Marist College is seeking a visionary leader for the position of Dean of the Division of Humanities with the mandates to move a strong group of programs to new levels of academic excellence, and to highlight the place of the Core Liberal Studies Program, in which the Division plays a foundational role, as the manifest expression of the College mission. The Division includes the Departments of English, History, Modern Languages, Political Science, Philosophy, and Religious Studies and the Paralegal Studies Program. The Division is located in the brand-new Fontaine Hall which overlooks the Hudson River, and houses state of the art multimedia classrooms and a Black Box Theatre. The Division has more than 160 full and part-time faculty and more than 700 majors. The Humanities faculty have strong ties to the FDR Library in nearby Hyde Park and offer a wide range of student internship opportunities. The Division sponsors the ICONS laboratory, the Model UN, and is connected with the Marist Institute for Public Opinion which has provided the region and the country with a wide range of highly respected polls and analyses. The Division also sponsors Women's, Catholic, and Jewish Studies programs. The most recent programmatic addition is the Institute for the Study of the Hudson River Valley, which will foster multidisciplinary studies and research on the Hudson Valley region. Marist College has developed a very strong commitment to the integration of technology in the learning and teaching process. There is deep commitment to the use of multi-media and innovative instructional technologies in the classroom and research. The College has recently inaugurated the library of the future with the dedication of the James A. Canavino Library which integrates traditional collections with a state of the art technological infrastructure. The Dean of Humanities reports directly to the Vice President of Academic Affairs and is a member of the President's Cabinet. Candidates for the position of dean must be eligible for an appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor in one of the disciplines traditionally associated with the humanities. In addition to having a strong administrative track record, the successful candidate will have experience in undergraduate teaching, commitment to scholarship, demonstrated leadership in interdisciplinary teaching and learning, strong interest in emerging teaching and learning technologies, and a commitment to collaborative and collegial decision-making. Marist College is a comprehensive, independent, liberal arts institution located in Poughkeepsie, New York on the banks of the Hudson River, midway between Albany and New York City. It enrolls over 3,800 full-time and 600 part-time undergraduates and 800 graduate students. Visit our home page at <http://www.marist.edu>. The review of applications will begin in November, 2000 and continue until a candidate is selected. The appointment will be effective on or before August 1, 2001. Applications should include a current curriculum vitae, a letter of interest in the position, a list of 5 references, and should be addressed to: Dr. Artin H. Arslanian, Dean of Faculty/Academic Vice President, MPO-905/MLA, Marist College, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601. An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.
