

MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION

JOB INFORMATION LIST

FOREIGN LANGUAGE EDITION • DECEMBER 2005

CONTENTS

Accessing the Electronic JIL	inside front cover
Information for Candidates	i
MLA Annual Convention	iii
List of Administrations Censured by the AAUP	v

Departmental Job Listings

Foreign Language Positions (by language)	1
Department Chairs/Deanships	52
Comparative Literature	57
Linguistics and ESL	59
Foreign Language Education	62
Multiple Competencies	62
Nonacademic Listings	68
Postdoctoral Listings	68

Published by the Modern Language Association in cooperation with the Association of Departments of Foreign Languages

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The print version of the Job Information List is published four times during the academic year—in October, December, February, and April. Listings are solicited from two- and four-year colleges and universities for all issues. The cost of an online-only subscription is $38. The cost of a print-only subscription is $50 in the United States and Canada and $70 elsewhere. The cost of a subscription to both online and print versions is $70 in the United States and Canada and $90 elsewhere. The List is sent by first-class mail to subscribers in the United States and Canada and by airmail to all other areas; delivery should be shortly after the publication dates listed below. Please note, however, that these are projected dates only and are subject to change without notice. A subscription form is available at www.mla.org.

October issue	14 October 2005
December issue	15 November 2005
February issue	15 February 2006
April issue	14 April 2006

Further inquiries should be directed to Roy Chustek, Editor, Job Information List, MLA, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004 (646 576-5133; rchustek@mla.org).

ACCESSING THE ELECTRONIC JIL

An online version of the Job Information List is available for searching by individuals who have subscribed to the electronic JIL as well as by job seekers in ADE- and ADFL-member departments. A user name and password are required to search the database. To find your user name and password, follow these directions:

If you are an individual subscriber: If you already have a user name and password, use them. If you do not, you may retrieve them online at the MLA Web site (www.mla.org). Follow the link to the JIL page and click on the appropriate "Search" button; when the password prompt appears, scroll down and enter your e-mail address in the appropriate box and click "E-mail me." Your user name and password will be sent to the e-mail address that you specified when you subscribed. You have the option to change your user name and password whenever you choose by logging in at the JIL page and then clicking the "Subscriber Information" button at the top of the search form and following the instructions for changing your user name and password.

If you are a job seeker in an ADE- or ADFL-member department: Graduate students and faculty members in departments that are current paid members of ADE or ADFL have access to the online JIL as a benefit of their department's ADE or ADFL membership. You must access the JIL through the ADE or ADFL home pages (www.adefl.org; www.adfl.org). Information on how to access the online JIL on this basis is available from your department chair.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

In This Issue

The December issue contains descriptions of approximately 375 definite and possible vacancies. Readers should note that departments are not encouraged to repeat listings. If a notice that appeared in the October issue is not readvertised, you should not assume that the position is no longer available. The only reliable guide to application is to check the deadline reported in the original notice or a current announcement in this List. The December listings are broken down by language as follows: French, 45 definite, 1 possible; Spanish, 159 definite, 3 possible; German, 33 definite; Italian, 13 definite; Slavic, 5 definite; Romance languages, 10 definite; multiple language fields, 30 definite; and linguistics, Middle Eastern and Asian languages, comparative literature, and other language fields, 86 definite, 2 possible.

Guide for Using the Job Information List

US and Canadian Departments

The main body of the List, arranged in alphabetical order by language, contains information on definite or possible vacancies and notices from departments that expect no vacancies but would nevertheless like to keep vitae on file.

Read through this section item by item to see which departments would welcome your letter of application or inquiry at this time. Send letters only to departments expressing an interest in a person with your qualifications. If a notice states that no vacancies are expected but that the department would like to maintain a file of prospective candidates, you must decide in each case whether it is worthwhile to write.

Multiple Competencies

These are notices in which the language field is open, as well as notices of single positions calling for expertise in more than one language (e.g., associate professor of Spanish and German).

Comparative Literature and Linguistics and ESL Sections

Notices in these fields have been separated from the main body of the issue and placed under the appropriate heading.

General Advice for Candidates

Be sure that your dossier (transcript, letters of recommendation, and other material) is ready to be sent out by your placement bureau to any department that requests it. Prepare and duplicate a one-page vita to enclose with any letters of application or inquiry. In your letter of application, it is probably wise to express a willingness to be interviewed at the department's convenience. Professional meetings provide a convenient opportunity for such interviews (see MLA convention information on p. iii).

Although it is important to begin to search for a position immediately, you should be aware that hiring goes on all year. Surveys indicate that only about half of all English and foreign language departments have begun recruiting by the end of December and that the majority of departments do not complete the recruiting process until spring, in some cases until summer.

Bear in mind that the candidate who has not limited his or her search for a new position to a particular geographic area or kind of institution is most likely to find a position. Do not discount the small colleges, where one often has the opportunity to teach a wide selection of courses to students of varied backgrounds.

Notice on Tenure Policies

The Modern Language Association recommends that department administrators and their representatives inform candidates before or during the interview about prospects for tenure in the specific position under consideration and about the tenure policies and practices in their departments and institutions. If the information is not offered, candidates are urged to inquire about these policies.

Acknowledgment of Applications

Acting on a recommendation from the MLA Delegate Assembly, the MLA Executive Council has adopted a policy calling for departments to acknowledge all applications for announced positions either by letter or by self-addressed postcards provided by applicants.

MLA Policy on the Reimbursement of Job Seekers

The following policies were recommended by the Delegate Assembly in December 1999 and approved by the MLA Executive Council in February 2000.

It is MLA policy that:

- Departments that require that job applicants send their application materials by express carrier reimburse those applicants for the cost of such shipment; and
- Departments that require multiple copies of writing samples and other application materials from job applicants reimburse applicants for the cost of duplicating their writing samples and other materials; and
- Departments that require books will return them to the applicant; and
- Departments that invite job applicants for on-campus interviews reimburse those applicants who accept such invitations for the costs of travel and accommodations incurred when visiting the campus for interviews.

MLA Guide to the Job Search

The MLA Guide to the Job Search (New York: MLA, 1997) contains much useful information and advice to assist candidates in organizing their job searches confidently and competently. Copies of the Guide are available to JIL subscribers for $5.00 and no shipping and handling charge. The regular price of the Guide is $10.00 ($8.00 for MLA members), plus $3.00 for shipping and handling. To order a copy, write, enclosing a check, to MLA Member and Customer Services, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004-1789.

MLA ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Modern Language Association will be held in Philadelphia, 27–30 December 2004. The Job Information Center will be located in the Pennsylvania Convention Center, Ballroom A, ballroom level, for both English and foreign languages. Job candidates, departmental administrators, and representatives who wish to use the facilities of the Job Information Center must be registered for the convention. The following services will be provided:

- (1) Interviewer's Sign-In Desk for Departments. Departmental administrators or representatives who plan to hold job interviews during the convention, whether in their own hotel rooms or in the Interview Area of the Job Information Center, should sign in (name, institution, hotel, and room number) at the Job Information Center, so that candidates with whom they have set up interviews will be able to locate them. Although an interviewer's name may appear in "Who's Where," for security reasons hotel switchboards will not give out guests' room numbers—and are in any case extremely busy. A brief stop at the sign-in desk by a thoughtful interviewer can save much confusion and worry for candidates. The sign-in desk will be open from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on 30 December. There will be no telephone interview location service.
- (2) Counseling Service. The Job Information Center counseling service affords job seekers the opportunity to discuss individual employment problems with experienced department administrators. Although counselors cannot help candidates obtain interviews, they can and will offer objective, concrete advice on such matters as the appropriate content and presentation of vitae and letters of application, the kinds of institutions to which candidates might most profitably apply, and realistic approaches to job interviews. Counselors will be on hand at the center to speak with interested candidates from 10:15 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. on 28 and 29 December. Appointments can be arranged through the staff member on duty in the interview area of the job center.
- (3) Interview Area. For the convenience of departmental representatives and candidates, there will be an interview area for English and foreign languages within the Job Information Center. Interviewers who wish to use this area should schedule their own interviews either by letter before the convention or by leaving messages at the message center. Table assignments in the interview area, which will be open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon on 30 December, will be given to departmental representatives on a first-come, first-served basis. MLA staff members will be on duty in the area to assist interviewers and candidates.
- (4) Vacancy Notices. A list of job openings received too late to be included in the December Job Information List will be posted on bulletin boards in the Job Information Center. Departmental representatives who have last-minute vacancies should submit detailed descriptions of these to an MLA staff member in the center, who will see that they are posted on the boards. Such notices may also appear in the February Job Information List so that candidates who do not attend the convention will have an opportunity to apply.
- (5) Message Center. Open from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. on 27 December, from 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on 28 December, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on 29 December, and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on 30 December, the message center will help candidates and interviewers who have corresponded before the convention establish specific interview times and places. The message center will not be useful to those who leave messages at random for persons who may not even be in attendance at the convention. Such messages are not picked up, and they serve only to defeat the purpose of the center.

Although every effort will be made to assist candidates and interviewers in the Job Information Center, it should be noted that the MLA does not have the facilities for introducing candidates and interviewers who have not corresponded before the convention.

THERE IS VERY LITTLE OPEN INTERVIEWING AT THE CONVENTION. JOB CANDIDATES WHO DO NOT HAVE PREARRANGED INTERVIEWS SHOULD NOT PLAN TO ATTEND FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

Meetings of Interest to Job Candidates and Interviewers at the MLA Convention

Howard Figler Job Clinic. Monday, 26 December, 4:00 p.m., Omni Shoreham. Continues 27 December; concludes 28 December, 12:00 noon. Separate fee and registration required.

1. A Preconvention Workshop for Job Seekers: The Job Search in English. Tuesday, 27 December, 3:30–4:45 p.m., Blue Room Prefunction, Omni Shoreham.

2. A Preconvention Workshop for Members of Search Committees. Tuesday, 27 December, 3:30–4:45 p.m., Forum, Omni Shoreham.
3. A Preconvention Workshop for Job Seekers in Foreign Languages. Tuesday, 27 December, 3:30–4:45 p.m., Congressional A & B, Omni Shoreham.
66. Light at the End of the Job-Search Tunnel: Perspectives from Successful Candidates. Tuesday, 27 December, 7:00–8:15 p.m., Georgetown East, Washington Hilton.
82. A Mock Interview for Job Seekers in Foreign Languages. Tuesday, 27 December, 8:45–10:00 p.m., Hemisphere, Washington Hilton.
267. Alternative Careers for PhDs and Graduate Students: Opportunities in High School Education. Wednesday, 28 December, 3:30–4:45 p.m., Delaware Suite A, Marriott.
424. A Call for Creative Collaborations and Border Crossings: Preparing Faculty Members to Teach in Two-Year Colleges. Thursday, 29 December, 12:00 noon–1:15 p.m., McKinley, Marriott.
439. How to Negotiate: A Workshop for Women. Thursday, 29 December, 12:00 noon–1:15 p.m., Wilson A, Marriott.
606. Career Opportunities in Two-Year Colleges. Thursday, 29 December, 7:15–8:30 p.m., Park Tower Suite 8216, Marriott.

LIST OF ADMINISTRATIONS CENSURED

BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS

*Note: The following list and accompanying explanatory note are reprinted from Academe by permission of the American Association of University Professors and in accordance with the action of the MLA Delegate Assembly.*

Investigations by the American Association of University Professors of the administrations of the institutions listed below show that, as evidenced by a past violation, they are not observing the generally recognized principles of academic freedom and tenure endorsed by this Association, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and more than 150 other professional and educational organizations. The 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure may be found in the May-June 1990 issue of Academe.

This list is published for the purpose of informing Association members, the profession at large, and the public that unsatisfactory conditions of academic freedom and tenure have been found to prevail at these institutions. Names are placed on or removed from this censure list by vote of the Association's Annual Meeting.

Placing the name of an institution on this list does not mean that censure is visited either upon the whole of the institution or upon the faculty, but specifically upon its present administration. The term "administration" includes the administrative officers and the governing board of the institution. This censure does not affect the eligibility of nonmembers for membership in the Association, nor does it affect the individual rights of members at the institution in question.

Members of the Association have often considered it to be their duty, in order to indicate their support of the principles violated, to refrain from accepting appointment to an institution so long as it remains on the censure list. Since circumstances differ widely from case to case, the Association does not assert that such an unqualified obligation exists for its members; it does urge that, before accepting appointments, they seek information on present conditions of academic freedom and tenure from the Association's Washington office and prospective departmental colleagues. The Association leaves it to the discretion of the individual, possessed of the facts, to make the proper decision.

The censured administrations, with dates of censuring, are listed below. Reports were published as indicated by the Bulletin or Academe citations in parentheses following each listing. Reference should also be made to "Developments Relating to Censure by the Association" and to the "Report of Committee A," each of which appears annually in Academe.

Grove City College (Pennsylvania) (March 1963, 15–24)	1963
Frank Phillips College (Texas) (December 1968, 433–38)	1969
Concordia Seminary (Missouri) (April 1975, 49–59)	1975
Murray State University (Kentucky) (December 1975, 322–28)	1976
University of Osteopathic Medicine and Health Sciences (Iowa) (April 1977, 82–87)	1977
State University of New York (August 1977, 237–60)	1978
Phillips County Community College (Arkansas) (May 1978, 93–98)	1978
Nichols College (Massachusetts) (May 1980, 207–12)	1980
Yeshiva University (New York) (August 1981, 186–95)	1982
American International College (Massachusetts) (May-June 1983, 42–46)	1983
Metropolitan Community Colleges (Missouri) (March-April 1984, 23a–32a)	1984
Westminster College of Salt Lake City (November-December 1984, 1a–10a)	1985
Talladega College (Alabama) (May-June 1986, 6a–14a)	1986
Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico (May-June 1987, 33–38)	1987
Husson College (Maine) (May-June 1987, 45–50)	1987
Hillsdale College (Michigan) (May-June 1988, 29–33)	1988
Maryland Institute, College of Art (May-June 1988, 49–54)	1988
Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (North Carolina) (May-June 1989, 35–45)	1989
The Catholic University of America (September-October 1989, 27–40)	1990
Dean College (Massachusetts) (May-June 1991, 27–32)	1992
Baltimore City Community College (May-June 1992, 37–41)	1992
Loma Linda University (California) (May-June 1992, 42–49)	1992

Clarkson College (Nebraska) (May-June 1993, 46–53)	1993
North Greenville College (South Carolina) (May-June 1993, 54–64)	1993
Savannah College of Art and Design (May-June 1993, 65–70)	1993
University of Bridgeport (November-December 1993, 37–45)	1994
Benedict College (South Carolina) (May-June 1994, 37–46)	1994
Nyack College (New York) (September-October 1994, 73–79)	1995
Bennington College (March-April 1995, 91–103)	1995
Alaska Pacific University (May-June 1995, 32–39)	1995
Essex Community College (Maryland) (May-June 1995, 40–50)	1995
St. Bonaventure University (New York) (July-August 1995, 65–73)	1996
National Park Community College (Arkansas) (May-June 1996, 41–46)	1996
Saint Meinrad School of Theology (Indiana) (July-August 1996, 51–60)	1997
Minneapolis College of Art and Design (May-June 1997, 53–58)	1997
Brigham Young University (September-October 1997, 52–71)	1998
University of the District of Columbia (May-June 1998, 46–55)	1998
Lawrence Technological University (May-June 1998, 56–62)	1998
Johnson & Wales University (Rhode Island) (May-June 1999, 46–50)	1999
Albertus Magnus College (Connecticut) (January-February 2000, 54–63)	2000
Charleston Southern University (January-February 2001, 63–77)	2001
University of Dubuque (September-October 2001, 62–73)	2002
Tiffin University (Ohio) (January-February 2002, 53–63)	2002
Philander Smith College (Arkansas) (January-February 2004, 57–68)	2004
Virginia State University (May-June 2005, 47–62)	2005
University of the Cumberlands (Kentucky) (March-April 2005, 99–113)	2005
Meharry Medical College (Tennessee) (November-December 2004, 56–78)	2005

DEPARTMENTAL JOB LISTINGS

Note: An [R] at the end of a listing indicates that the department offering this position reimburses candidates for expenses and returns sample materials in accordance with MLA policy (see pp. i-ii).

ARABIC

Boston U

Mod For Langs & Lits, 718 Commonwealth Av Boston MA 02215

Lecturer in Arabic

1172

<http://lang.bu.edu>

Lecturer, non-tenure track, pending approval. Direct and teach in Boston University's growing program in Arabic language. M.A. or Ph.D. in an area of applied linguistics, linguistics, or literature relevant to Arabic language teaching. Native or near-native fluency in Modern Standard Arabic and teaching experience in Arabic as a foreign language at the college level. This is a non-tenure-track renewable appointment. Please send curriculum, recent teaching evaluations and at least three letters of reference to Christopher Maurer, Chair, Department of Modern Foreign Languages and Literatures, Boston University, 718 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA 02215. Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled, but should preferably be received before December 1. Boston University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. [R]

Brandeis U

Near Eastern & Judaic Studies, PO Box 549110, MS 054 Waltham MA 02454

Arabic Instructor

1213

<http://www.brandeis.edu/departments/nejs>

Full-time Arabic Instructor. The Department of Near Eastern and Judaic Studies at Brandeis University announces a full-time position in Arabic beginning in Fall 2006; rank and term will depend on experience. The position is outside the tenure track. Applicants should have solid teaching experience. Responsibilities include three courses per semester at the beginner, intermediate, and advanced levels. Fluency in Modern Standard Arabic is required and native or near native fluency in an Arabic dialect is desirable. MA or PhD in Arabic language and literature or applied linguistics is also desirable. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. First consideration will be given to applications received by November 15, 2005. Brandeis University is an equal opportunity employer, committed to building a culturally diverse intellectual community, and strongly encourages applications from women and minorities. Send letter of interest (including a brief description of teaching philosophy and methodology), teaching evaluations, and curriculum vitae, and have at least two letters of recommendation sent directly to Marc Z. Brettler, Chair of Department of Near Eastern and Judaic Studies, MS 054, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02454-9110 [R]

Brigham Young U

Asian & Near Eastern Langs, 3064 JFSB Provo UT 84602

Program Coordinator, Middle East Language Resource Center

1131

Qualifications: Prefer master's degree with significant relevant work experience. Experience in running complex organization, including overseeing budgets and tracking progress of projects. Ability to work well with people. Familiar with issues involved in learning and teaching less-commonly-taught languages. International experience, preferably in the Middle East. Excellent technical skills, ideally in developing electronic educational training materials. Must have excellent English verbal and writing skills. Bachelor's degree and two years related work experience required.

Duties/Responsibilities: Assist Center director and associate directors in carrying out NMELRC projects and programs. Oversee day-to-day operations of Center. Assist in design, development, and evaluation of education materials and programs. Assume primary responsibility for writing reports and grant proposals.

The position will remain open until filled. Applicants can obtain more information about the position and apply online by going to: <https://yjobs.byu.edu>

More information about the National Middle East Language Resource Center can be found at: <http://www.nmelrc.org/>

BYU, an equal opportunity employer, requires all faculty to observe the university's honor code and dress and grooming standards. Preference is given to qualified members in good standing of the affiliated church, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Cornell U

Near Eastern Studies, 413 White Hall Ithaca NY 14853

Lecturer in Arabic Language

1223

<http://www.arts.cornell.edu/nes/index.html>

Department of Near Eastern Studies, College of Arts and Sciences, invites applications for a full-time permanent position as Lecturer or Senior Lecturer in Arabic language beginning the academic year 2006-07. The position will be renewable for 3 to 5 year terms dependent upon performance review. Minimum requirements are:

1. Master's degree or equivalent in Arabic language, literature, linguistics, or language pedagogy
2. Native or near native fluency in Arabic: oral fluency in a spoken Arabic dialect and written fluency in Modern Standard Arabic
3. Proficiency in spoken and written English
4. Recognition of colloquial Arabic as a legitimate linguistic form, and willingness to teach colloquial Arabic and Modern Standard Arabic in the same course
5. Familiarity with and commitment to innovative methods of language teaching
6. Long-term professional commitment to language teaching
7. Willingness to work as a member of a small team of language instructors

Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of Arabic teaching philosophy, and the names of three references by November 18, 2005 to: Dr. Munther Younes, Director, Arabic Language Program, Near Eastern Studies, 409 White Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY 14853. Screening for the position will take place at MESA-2005 in Washington, D.C. For an appointment, please contact Dr. Munther Younes at may2@cornell.edu. Cornell University is an equal opportunity employer. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply.

US Naval Acad

Lang Studies, 589 McNair Rd Annapolis MD 21402

Assistant Professor of Arabic

1204

<http://www.usna.edu>

The Language Studies Department of the United States Naval Academy invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position in Arabic language at the assistant professor level to begin August 2006. PhD or ABD with dissertation completed by June 2006. The successful candidate must be strongly committed to teaching at the undergraduate level, and will be expected to teach all levels of Modern Standard Arabic, as well as Media Arabic, Conversation and Composition, and at least one major dialect. Candidates with specialties in Arabic Linguistics, Pedagogy, and Literature and Culture are welcome to apply. Research in an appropriate field and institutional service are expected. The Language Studies department at the Naval Academy offers six other languages: Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Russian and Spanish, and employs fifteen full-time faculty members. The Arabic program at the Naval Academy is relatively new, with one other full-time instructor, but is rapidly expanding. U.S. Naval Academy civilian faculty members are federal government employees.

Candidates should send curriculum vitae, and a concise description of teaching methodology and of research interests to: Arabic Search Committee, Language Studies Department, U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD 21402, and should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent to the same address.

Deadline for application is December 1, 2005. However, applications received before November 15, 2005 may allow for preliminary interviews at MESA.

The U.S. Naval Academy is committed to identifying minority persons and women with the appropriate qualifications and is an EO/AA employer. This agency provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities [R]

Virginia Military Inst

Modern Languages and Cultures, Scott Shipp Hall Lexington VA 24450

Assistant Professor of Arabic

305

<http://www.vmi.edu/>

Assistant Professor of Arabic. Tenure-track. Ph.D. The successful candidate will teach Modern Standard Arabic language, and Middle Eastern history/culture in the target language. Instructional technology valuable. Virginia Military Institute is a state-supported undergraduate military college of liberal arts, engineering, and the sciences. Salary and benefits are competitive. Dossiers including letter of application, official transcripts, and three recent letters of recommendation to: Dr. Kathleen Bulger-Barnett, Chair of Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages and Cultures, Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, VA 24450

VMI is an EEO employer. [R]

CHINESE

Carnegie Mellon U

Mod Langs, Baker Hall 160 Pittsburgh PA 15213

Assistant Professor in Chinese Studies

1094

The Department of Modern Languages invites applications for a possible Assistant Professor-level position in the tenure track in Chinese Studies beginning in August 2006. Preference will be given to candidates who have native speaker level proficiency in Chinese, and expertise in one or more of the following areas—history and civilization across a broad chronological period, cultural anthropology, literary theory, cultural studies or sociolinguistics. Successful candidates will have a doctorate in an appropriate area of Chinese studies and teaching experience. Multimedia experience is also desirable. Salary is commensurate with qualifications.

Applicants should send a letter of application (indicating, among other things, whether they plan to attend the ACTFL meeting in Baltimore, or the MLA meeting in Washington), resume, statements of teaching, research and curricular interests, and three (3) letters of recommendation (which may be included with the packet or sent directly by referees). Representative publications may also be included.

Are there other relevant meetings to mention?

The materials should be sent to: Chair, Chinese Studies Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages, Baker Hall 160, Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890; and should arrive not later than October 28, 2005. Carnegie Mellon University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. The funding for this position is dependent upon final administrative approval.

Central Washington U

For Langs, 400 E University Way Ellensburg WA 98926

Assistant Professor of Chinese

1410

<http://www.cwu.edu/~forlang/>

The Department of Foreign Languages at Central Washington University invites applications for an Assistant Professor of Chinese position. This is a tenure-track, full-time, nine month appointment. The main responsibility of the person chosen for this position will be to develop and teach undergraduate courses in the Chinese language; advise undergraduate students; serve on department, college and university committees; collaborate with other programs within the university; and teach Asia Pacific Studies courses. Qualifications: Ph.D. in Chinese language or literature, or related field; native or near-native proficiency and previous experience in teaching Chinese language required. An academic background in Chinese language and pedagogy is strongly desired. Screening for this position begins on 11/15/05. For complete information about this position, the department and the university, please see our web-site at www.cwu.edu/~forlang/forlanghome.htm [R]

Stanford U

Asian Langs, Bldg 50, Main Quad Stanford CA 94305

Assistant Professor of Early Chinese Literature

788

<http://www.stanford.edu/dept/asianlang/>

The Department of Asian Languages at Stanford University invites applications for an Early Chinese Literature position at the rank of tenure-track Assistant Professor, beginning September 1, 2006. Early Chinese literature covers a period from the beginning to the 6th century A.D., and is broadly defined to include Chinese civilization and sinological studies as well as literature. All candidates must hold the Ph.D. by the time of appointment. Candidates will be expected to teach courses at both the graduate and undergraduate level and to contribute to the development of cross-disciplinary research and teaching in Chinese culture at the university. The deadline for applications is December 1, 2005. Please send a letter of application; your CV; one sample of scholarly research such as a chapter or an article; a statement of research and teaching interests; and three letters of reference to: Chinese Literature Search Committee, Department of Asian Languages, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305-2034, Phone: 650-725-2742, Fax: 650-725-8931 [R]

U of Illinois at Chicago

English, 601 S Morgan, MC 162 Chicago IL 60607

Asst. Prof of Chinese and Applied Linguistics

1284

<http://www.uic.edu/depts/engl/index.html>

Assistant Professor, Chinese and Applied Linguistics, beginning, Fall 2006. Candidate will teach courses in Chinese and Applied Linguistics and/or Linguistics, as assigned. Candidate will also coordinate Chinese basic language program and supervise any other instructors. Candidates must have Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics or related field, a record of research, and experience teaching Chinese at the university level. Position begins August 16, 2006. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue through December 2, 2005 or until the position is filled. Send a CV, the names of three references with contact information, and two brief statements: (1) description of research agenda, (2) statement of teaching history and ideas for Chinese language instruction at an urban, public university to Jessica Williams, Chair, Chinese Search, Dept of English (162), 601

S. Morgan Rm 2027, Chicago IL 60607. No publications or letters of reference are needed at this time. For fullest consideration, send application by November 1, 2005. The University of Illinois is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

U of San Francisco

Modern & Classical Languages, 2130 Fulton St San Francisco CA 94117

Chinese Language & Literature

1221

The Department of Modern and Classical Languages at the University of San Francisco invites applications for a tenure-track position in Chinese at the Assistant Professor level to begin in the fall of 2006. Salary and benefits are competitive.

Qualifications include a Ph.D. in Chinese language or linguistics, university teaching experience, a strong research and publication record or agenda, knowledge of language pedagogy, excellent communication skills in English and native or near-native proficiency in Chinese.

The candidate will be expected to develop and direct a strong undergraduate Chinese program, teach courses in Chinese language and culture, demonstrate active scholarship in his/her discipline, coordinate the Chinese language courses in the MAPS (Masters in Asia Pacific Studies) program, contribute to the undergraduate program in Asian Studies, serve as a liaison to the broader Chinese community in the Bay Area, and be actively involved in foreign language associations.

Teaching Responsibilities include two courses per semester with an additional third course every fourth semester.

Applicants must submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts, statement of teaching philosophy, copies of teaching evaluations, and three letters of recommendation by December 5, 2005 to: Noriko Nagata, Chair, Department of Modern and Classical Languages, University of San Francisco, 2130 Fulton St., San Francisco, CA 94117

Completed applications for all positions must be received by December 5, 2005, in order to ensure full consideration.

The University of San Francisco is a private, Catholic and Jesuit institution and particularly welcomes candidates who will positively contribute to such an environment. USF is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer, and will provide reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities upon request. We particularly encourage minority and women applicants for all positions.

US Naval Acad

Lang Studies, 589 McNair Rd Annapolis MD 21402

Assistant Professor of Chinese

1206

<http://www.usna.edu>

The Language Studies Department of the United States Naval Academy invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position in Chinese language and culture at the assistant professor level to begin August 2006. PhD or ABD with dissertation completed by June 2006. Native or near-native proficiency. The successful candidate must be strongly committed to teaching at the undergraduate level, and will be expected to teach all levels of undergraduate Mandarin as well as courses on Chinese culture and society. Research in an appropriate field and institutional service are expected. Experience administering study abroad programs is helpful. The Language Studies department at the Naval Academy offers six other languages: Arabic, French, German, Japanese, Russian, and Spanish, and employs fifteen full-time faculty members. U.S. Naval Academy civilian faculty members are federal government employees.

Candidates should send curriculum vitae, a cover letter including a concise description of teaching philosophy and research interests, and proof of US citizenship to: Chinese Search Committee, Language Studies Department, U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD 21402, and should arrange for three recommendation letters to be sent directly to the same address. Deadline for application is December 1, 2005. However, applications received before November 10, 2005 may allow for preliminary interviews at CLTA.

The United States Naval Academy is committed to identifying minority persons and women with the appropriate qualifications and is an EO/AA employer. This agency provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. [R]

Valparaiso U

For Langs & Lits, 112 Meier Hall Valparaiso IN 46383

Assistant Professor of Chinese

1295

<http://www.valpo.edu>

Valparaiso University invites applications for a full-time position in Chinese language at the Instructor/Assistant Professor level starting in August 2006. Candidates should be ABD or possess Ph.D. in Chinese language, linguistics, or literature, and have native or near-native fluency in Mandarin and English. Candidates should have a record of excellence in university-level teaching. Responsibilities include teaching 3-4 courses of language and Chinese Studies courses each semester, primarily in a new M.A. program in Chinese Studies. Valparaiso is a comprehensive university of 3800 students, 50 miles from Chicago. Candidates should be sympathetic to the values embodied in the tradition of Valparaiso as a Lutheran community. Send letter of application, CV including official transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Randa Duvick, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, 112 Meier Hall, Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, IN 46383 by November 8, 2005. [R]

FRENCH

SEE ALSO ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Amherst C

French, Box 2255 Amherst MA 01002

Lecturer in French

137

<http://www.amherst.edu/~deanfac/facultypositions.html>

The Amherst College French Department is seeking a Lecturer for fall 2006-spring 2009 to teach two second-year language courses in the fall semesters and three first-year language courses in the spring semesters, when (s)he would also be responsible for supervising the work of three French Teaching Assistants. Candidates should have significant teaching experience at the college level, as well as training in second-language acquisition and relevant technology. Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Send application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation to Professor Paul Rockwell, Chair, Department of French, AC #2255, Amherst College, Amherst, MA 01002-5000. e-mail applications will be neither accepted nor acknowledged.

Amherst is a private undergraduate liberal arts college for men and women, with 1,600 students and 190 faculty members. Located in the Connecticut River Valley of western Massachusetts, Amherst participates with Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts in the Five-College Consortium.

Amherst College is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer and encourages women, persons of color, and persons with disabilities to apply. The administration, faculty, and student body are committed to attracting qualified candidates from groups presently underrepresented on our campus. [R]

Ashland U

For Langs, 401 College Av, 308 Patterson Tech Ctr Ashland OH 44805

Associate or Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages (French)

1367

<http://www.ashland.edu>

Tenure-track position, beginning August 2006. Ph.D., generalist, with native or near-native fluency in French. Demonstrated excellence in teaching with strong commitment to undergraduate education. Four courses per semester: basic language courses, literature surveys, civilization, and phonetics. Leadership potential and OPI experience desirable. Send a letter of application, resume, 3 letters of recommendation, and transcripts to Dr. William R. Cummins, Chair, Foreign Languages, 401 College Av, Ashland, OH 44805. Applications must be post-marked by October 24. The department will acknowledge by letter the receipt of applications. www.ashland.edu [R]

Augsburg C

Mod Langs, 2211 Riverside Av Minneapolis MN 55454

French Instructor

1535

<http://www.augsburg.edu>

Augsburg College, a private college affiliated with the ELCA, offers a liberal arts education grounded in Christian values, a diverse campus community, and an exciting metropolitan setting in the Twin Cities in Minnesota. The Department of Modern Languages seeks candidates for a one-year, full-time appointment in French, to begin September 1, 2006.

Responsibilities include teaching six undergraduate French at all levels, and may include courses in the Weekend College program. Qualifications: Ph.D. preferred, M.A. required in French with a specialization in French literature and culture, or second language acquisition, with native or near-native fluency.

Send letter of application, CV, and names of three professional references by November 11, 2005 to Augsburg College, 2211 Riverside Ave., Box 136, Minneapolis, MN 55454, attn: Judi Green, Office of the Provost. For additional information about this position and the College visit <http://www.augsburg.edu> EOE [R]

Boston U

Mod For Langs & Lits, 718 Commonwealth Av Boston MA 02215

Assistant Professor of French

1171

<http://lang.bu.edu>

Boston University invites applications for an assistant professor of French with specialization in medieval or Renaissance literature (position approval is pending). Applicants should have a strong record of scholarship in the field, demonstrated teaching ability, and commitment to undergraduate and graduate teaching and advising. Interested candidates should send a letter of application, recent teaching evaluations, and dossier including at least three letters of recommendation to: Professor Jeffrey Mehlman, French Search Chair, Department of Modern Foreign Languages and Literatures, Boston University, 718 Commonwealth Ave, Boston, MA 02215. Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled, but should preferably be received before November 15. AA/EOE [R]

C of Charleston

French, 66 George St Charleston SC 29424

Assistant Professor of French

1275

<http://http://www.cofc.edu/~french/>

The department of French at the College of Charleston seeks applications for a full-time, tenure-track position in French, beginning fall 2006. Must have expertise in contemporary French and Francophone literature and cultures. Native or near native command of French and English, strong commitment to excellence in teaching and liberal arts education. Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment. Workload will be the equivalent of 12 hours per semester (a 4/4 load), plus other departmental and college functions. Must be able to teach all levels of French language, literature and culture, especially, francophone literature and culture, and/or French for Business. Interest and/or experience in directing semester abroad program desired. Please send a letter of application outlining your teaching philosophy and research interest, curriculum vitae, transcripts, and three current letters of recommendation to Dr. Godwin Okebaram Uwah, Chair, Department of French, The College of Charleston, 66 George Street, Charleston, SC, 29414. Deadline: November 11, 2005. Possible interview at MLA. Electronic submission is discouraged. Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

C of the Holy Cross

Mod Langs & Lits, 1 College St Worcester MA 01610

Assistant Professor of French

1258

Candidates with specialization in film (French and Francophone). The position also entails teaching textual analysis and language at all levels. Candidates are expected to have expertise in language pedagogy and experience with multimedia and web-based applications in the classroom. We are particularly interested in candidates with demonstrated success at the lower levels (first and second year of language learning), as well as evidence of effective and innovative teaching in the advanced levels (third and fourth year of language learning). Commitment to undergraduate teaching and related extracurricular activities a must. Ph.D. at time of appointment. Native or near-native fluency in French and English required. Please send letter of application, CV and statement of teaching philosophy as well as official transcript and three letters of recommendation by November 15 to Prof. Gago-Jover, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA 01610.

The College of the Holy Cross is a Jesuit, liberal arts, undergraduate college. The College is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer and complies with all Federal and Massachusetts laws concerning Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action in the workplace. [R]

Central C

Modern Foreign Languages, 812 University St Pella IA 50219

Assistant or Associate Professor of French

1234

<http://www.central.edu>

Central College invites applications for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor to begin August 2006 for the fall semester. The department seeks a French generalist with an ability to teach all levels of language, civilization and literature. Qualifications include a Ph.D., evidence of superior undergraduate language teaching, and experience with proficiency-based language instruction. Preference will be given to candidates with potential to serve as chair of the Modern Languages Department, a background in Francophone studies, language for the professions or translation, and/or OPI certification.

The department offers majors in French, Spanish and German, and service courses in Chinese; most students complete the college language proficiency requirement in one of these languages. The department seeks a candidate with superior communication and organizational skills, leadership in curriculum development and a record of success in recruiting language majors.

Candidates should send (1) a letter of application (2) a curriculum vita (3) a one page statement of teaching philosophy (4) a copy of undergraduate and graduate transcripts and (5) letters from 3 references to: Dr. Paul Naour, Provost, Central College, 812 University, Pella, Iowa 50219. Review of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Central College is an independent liberal arts college in an ecumenical Christian tradition serving over 1600 students. The college maintains a long-standing commitment to international education with nationally recognized residential programs in nine locations: Paris; London and Colchester, England; Vienna; Granada, Spain; Leiden; Bangor, Wales; Merida, The Yucatán, Mexico; and Hangzhou, China. Founded in 1853, the college is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America and NCAA Division III athletics. Please visit the college website at www.central.edu.

Central College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer dedicated to creating a diverse community. Individuals from underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply. [R]

Christopher Newport U

Mod & Classical Langs & Lit, 1 University Place Newport News VA 23606

Assistant Professor of French

1185

<http://www.cnu.edu>

Christopher Newport University seeks applications for tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of French. Successful candidate must hold Ph.D. in French by 8/1/06. Native or near-native fluency in French required. Preferred primary field of specialization is nineteenth or twentieth centuries; however, successful candidate must be prepared to teach variety of courses in French language, culture, and literature at both upper and lower levels. Successful candidate must also be prepared to create and teach courses in English in CNU's liberal learning core, including first-year seminars. The willingness to teach departmental courses offered in English dealing with foreign literature and culture will be considered a strong asset. Applications enhanced by a demonstrated commitment to undergraduate education and an interest in scholarship and publication. CNU, a selective, public, liberal arts and sciences university of approximately 4,800 students, is located in Newport News on the Virginia Peninsula between Williamsburg and Virginia Beach. A commitment to liberal learning and excellence in undergraduate teaching and learning is a hallmark of the University. For further information on CNU, please visit our web site at www.cnu.edu. To apply, send letter of application, current resume, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, statement on teaching philosophy, and letters of support from three people familiar with your teaching to: Director of EO and Faculty Recruitment, French Faculty Search #8326, Christopher Newport University, 1 University Place, Newport News, VA 23606. Review of applications begins 11/15/05. Applications received after 11/1/05, will be accepted but considered only if needed. Representatives from CNU will be available at MLA Convention in Washington D.C. However, attendance at MLA Convention is not required for consideration as a candidate for this position. CNU, an EOE, is fully committed to Access and Opportunity. [R]

Columbia U

French & Rom Philology, 1150 Amsterdam Av, 515 Philos, MC 4902 New York NY 10027

Three professorial positions in French, rank open

773

<http://www.columbia.edu/cu/french/>

The Department of French seeks to fill three positions in the field of French literature and culture, with rank and specialization open. Applicants at the assistant professor level must hold the Ph.D. at the time of the appointment. Applicants at the senior level must also have broad teaching and research interests, a strong publication record, and a proven commitment to teaching and advising at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Ph.D.s in fields other than French (e.g. History, Philosophy, or Anthropology) are welcome. Cross-departmental appointments are possible. Applications will be reviewed starting November 1, 2005 and accepted until the positions are filled. Send letter and CV to Professor Pierre Force, Chair, Department of French, 515 Philosophy Hall, MC 4902, Columbia University, 1150 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, NY 10027. Columbia University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply. [R]

Columbia U

French & Rom Philology, 1150 Amsterdam Av, 515 Philos, MC 4902 New York NY 10027

Associate in French

1292

<http://www.columbia.edu/cu/french>

Associate in language, M.A. in French literature, linguistics, or civilization. Must have native-like command of French and be qualified to teach grammar and conversation, as well as advanced composition; must also be qualified to coordinate cultural programs at the Maison Française. Deadline: November 15th. Send letter, CV and placement dossier to Dr. Pascale Hubert-Leibler, Director of the Language Program, Department of French, 515 Philosophy Hall, MC 4902, Columbia University, 1150 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, NY 10027. Columbia University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply. [R]

Concordia U

French, 1455 Blvd De Maisonneuve W MontrTal, QC Canada H3G 1M8

Assistant Professor

1597

<http://www.concordia.ca>

Le département d'Études françaises sollicite des candidatures à trois postes éventuels menant à la permanence.

1-Rédaction professionnelle et création littéraire

2-Littérature française du 19e siècle

3-Traduction du français vers l'anglais

Les qualifications recherchées sont, selon le poste, un diplôme de troisième cycle obtenu ou en voie d'obtention, une expérience diversifiée de l'enseignement, des publications ou du potentiel de recherche, une aptitude au travail d'équipe et une connaissance du milieu.

Les candidates retenues pour le poste en rédaction professionnelle et création littéraire auront un doctorat en linguistique du texte, en littérature ou dans un domaine connexe; une expérience dans la pratique ou l'enseignement de la rédaction professionnelle et de la création littéraire ainsi qu'un intérêt pour la littérature de langue française.

Les candidates retenues pour le poste en littérature française auront un doctorat en littérature française du XIXe siècle et démontreront un intérêt pour la théorie littéraire.

Les candidates retenues pour le poste en traduction du français vers l'anglais, orienté vers la traduction générale et spécialisée, auront, en plus d'une expérience pertinente de l'enseignement, un intérêt marqué pour la théorie.

Sous réserve d'approbation budgétaire, ces postes, en principe au rang de professeure adjointe, devraient être comblés le 1er juillet 2006. L'étude des dossiers débutera le 15 novembre 2005, et se poursuivra jusqu'à ce que les postes soient comblés. Les candidates doivent envoyer une lettre d'intention, un curriculum vitae, des copies de leurs publications récentes, une présentation de leurs intérêts d'enseignement et de leurs objectifs, et trois lettres de recommandation. Nous encourageons la candidature de toutes les personnes qualifiées. La priorité sera toutefois accordée aux citoyens canadiens et aux résidents permanents. L'Université Concordia souscrit au principe de l'équité en matière d'emploi.

Ollivier Dyens, Ph.D., Directeur, département d'Études françaises, Université Concordia, 1455, de Maisonneuve O, Montréal, Qc, H3G 1M8, odyens@alcor.concordia.ca [R]

Concordia C

French & Russian, 901 S 8 St Moorhead MN 56562

Assistant Professor of French

774

<http://www.cord.edu/humres/>

Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota, a residential four-year liberal arts college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, invites applications for a tenure eligible position in French beginning Fall 2006. Rank and salary will be commensurate with experience. Requirements: Ph.D. in French, a commitment to undergraduate education, and an interest in scholarship. Preferred areas of interest are international business, Francophone literature and culture, or education. Demonstrated administrative abilities could lead to consideration as Department Chair. Candidates must show sympathy with the mission of a liberal arts college of the ELCA. Send letter of application, vita, official transcripts and three letters of recommendation to Professor Madelyn Burchill, Search Committee Chair, Department of French and Russian, Concordia College, 901 South 8th Street, Moorhead, MN 56562. Review of applicants will begin January 9, 2006 and will continue until the position is filled. EOE. Detailed position description is available on-line at: <http://www.cord.edu/humres/>. [R]

Dickinson C

French & Ital, PO Box 1773 Carlisle PA 17013

Assistant Professor of Dramatic Literature and French

1117

Tenure-track Assistant Professor of Dramatic Literature in French. We seek a Ph.D. with teaching experience to integrate theater at the intermediate level, to teach dramatic literature at the advanced level, and French language courses. Secondary fields might include film studies, cultural studies, or semiotics. Opportunities for collaboration with active undergraduate theater program. We are an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer with a strong commitment to racial, cultural, and gender diversity. Please send letter of application by November 15, 2005 to Dominique Laurent, Chair, Dept. of French and Italian, Dickinson College, P.O. Box 1773, Carlisle, PA 17013-2896. Dossiers and writing samples will be requested well in advance of the MLA interviews.

Duke U

Rom Studies, Box 90257 Durham NC 27708

Associate or Full Professor, Francophone Studies

1158

Tenured Associate or Full Professor of Francophone Studies (Advanced Assistant Professors with a strong publication record will be considered). Focus on the Maghreb, Sub-Saharan, or Caribbean; ability to teach in French, strong critical perspective and strong record of publication. Beginning Fall 2006. Applications received by November 15, 2005, will be guaranteed consideration. Send application materials, including CV and statement of research plans and the names of three potential references to: Chair, Francophone Studies Search Committee, Department of Romance Studies, 205 Language Bldg., Box 90257, Duke University, Durham, NC 27708-0257. Duke University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. [R]

Florida SU

Mod Langs & Linguistics, 362 Diffenbaugh Tallahassee FL 32306

Assistant Professor of French

1252

Fall 2006. Assistant Professor of French (tenure-earning) with a specialization in an area or areas of 20th century French cultural studies and interest and experience directing teaching assistants. The direction of teaching assistants will be a major part of the successful candidate's duties. Ph.D. required, native or near-native fluency in French and English; proven excellence in undergraduate teaching and working with teaching assistants; strong commitment to research and publication. Applications will be reviewed beginning Nov. 1st, and the position will remain open until filled. Please send letter of application, CV and complete dossier by Oct. 31, 2005 to Prof. William Cloonan, Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics, Code 1540, Tallahassee, FL 32306. Florida State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, committed to diversity in hiring, and a Public Records Agency. [R]

Georgia Inst of Tech

Mod Langs, 613 Cherry Street Atlanta GA 30332

Associate or Full Professor of French

1075

<http://www.modlangs.gatech.edu>

The School of Modern Languages in the Ivan Allen College at Georgia Tech announces an opening for a tenure-track appointment as advanced Associate or Full Professor of French, to begin August 2006. The appointment is contingent upon final budget approval. We seek candidates with a PhD in French language and literature or other related fields with an established scholarly record, excellent teaching skills and strong leadership potential. Experience with the innovative application of technology to language learning plus a strong interest in cross-cultural education and content-based or applied language learning in such interdisciplinary fields as cultural studies, French politics, French for Business and Economics are desirable.

The School of Modern Languages emphasizes interactive learning and the interdisciplinary application of language, literature and culture studies. We offer two joint majors: in International Affairs and Modern Languages and in Global Economics and Modern Languages. Interdisciplinary collaboration with faculty in the other language groups in Modern Languages as well as faculty from other Schools in the Ivan Allen College and across campus is highly encouraged.

The Georgia Institute of Technology consistently ranks in the top 10 best national public universities by U.S. News and World Reports. Located in Atlanta, Georgia, one of the most international-oriented metropolitan areas in the United States, Georgia Tech attracts students and faculty of the highest caliber.

Applicants should forward a letter of interest, a dossier including a CV, and (3) letters of recommendation to Prof. Phil McKnight, Chair, School of Modern Languages, Georgia Institute of Technology, 613 Cherry Street, Atlanta, GA 30332-0375. Deadline is November 30, 2004. Georgia Tech is an Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer. [R]

Grand Valley SU

Mod Langs & Lits, 1 Campus Dr Allendale MI 49401

Assistant Professor of French

1563

<http://www.gvsu.edu>

Beginning Fall 2006. Generalist with undergraduate teaching, and one of the following areas: Foreign Language Pedagogy, Second Language Acquisition, or Applied French Linguistics. Interest in translation studies and OPI certification a plus. Successful candidate will teach introductory and intermediate language courses, as well as those in her/his field. Participation in extra-curricular activities, such as the French Club and overseas study and other section activities required. Native or near native proficiency required. Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment. Commitment to excellence and to a balance among teaching, scholarship, and service. Salary is competitive and dependent on qualifications and experience. Excellent benefits package. Some research assistance available, as well as travel funds to deliver professional papers.

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures offers undergraduate majors and French, German, Russian Studies (minor in Russian language) and Spanish, and programs in other languages. Forty full-time faculty and some part-time.

Send letter of Application, current C.V., graduate transcripts and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Anne Caillaud, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, Grand valley State University, Allendale, MI 49401. Faxes may be sent to Dr. Caillaud at (616) 331-3025. Deadline Date for Applications: Friday December 9, 2005. [R]

Grinnell C

French, 1226 Park St Grinnell IA 50112

Assistant Professor of French

1556

<http://www.grinnell.edu>

One-year leave replacement position in French. Area of specialization: nineteenth or twentieth century. Assistant Professor (Ph.D.) preferred; Instructor (ABD) possible. Ability to teach language, literature, and culture at all levels of a rigorous undergraduate curriculum. Native or near-native fluency required. Must demonstrate excellence in teaching. In their letters of application, candidates should discuss their interest in developing as a teacher and scholar in an undergraduate, liberal-arts environment that emphasizes close student-faculty interaction and values diversity. To be assured of full consideration, all application materials should be received by November 22. Send letter, resume, copies of transcripts, and letters of recommendation to David Harrison, Search Committee Chair, Department of French, Grinnell College, Grinnell, IA 50112 [FrenchSearch@grinnell.edu]; (-641-269-4803). Grinnell College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer committed to attracting and retaining highly qualified individuals who collectively reflect the diversity of the nation. No applicant shall be discriminated against on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, religion, creed, or disability. [R]

Idaho SU

For Langs, PO Box 8067 Pocatello ID 83209

Assistant Professor of French

1071

<http://www.isu.edu/foreign>

The Department of Foreign Languages invites applications for a tenure-track position to begin Fall 2006. Ph.D. to be completed by time of appointment. Teaching load: 3/3. Field: literature, civilization and culture of post-revolutionary France; knowledge of Francophone literature and culture desirable. Evidence of scholarship, demonstrated teaching ability, commitment to undergraduate teaching and advising. Fluency in both English and French. Ability to teach another language advantageous. Salary competitive. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts and three recent letters of recommendation to: Professor James Fogelquist, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages, Idaho State University, Campus Box 8067, Pocatello, ID 83209. Application deadline: November 15, 2005. AA/EOE. Veterans are encouraged to apply.

Indiana U Southeast

School of Arts & Letters, 4201 Grant Line Rd New Albany IN 47150

Assistant Professor of French

1551

<http://www.ius.edu>

Asst. Prof. in French, tenure-track, beginning fall semester, 2006. Course load: three courses per semester plus research. Possibility of summer teaching. IUS is a campus of Indiana University located in the Louisville, Kentucky, metropolitan area. The appointment requires a Ph.D. in French completed no later than December 2005, commitment to scholarly achievement, and evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching. Near native fluency required. Successful candidate will be responsible for the French program. Send application letter, vita, a copy of official graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation by December 15, 2005 to French Search Committee, Human Resources, Indiana University Southeast, New Albany, IN 47150. IU Southeast is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Contact Human Resources (-812-941-2356) should you need any accommodations during job application process due to a disability. [R]

Iowa SU

For Langs & Lits, 300 Pearson Hall Ames IA 50011

Assistant Professor of French

1033

<http://www.iastate.edu>

Assistant Professor with primary scholarly specialization in Twentieth-Century French Cultural Studies. The successful candidate will teach French language, literature, and culture courses at all levels of the undergraduate curriculum. Proposed start date 08/16/2006.

Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in French, French Studies, or related field. Dissertation and interdisciplinary research program in Twentieth-Century French Cultural Studies. Native or near-native fluency in French. Effective communication in English. Successful teaching experience.

Preferred Qualifications: Interest in instructing and developing courses in languages and cultures for professions (Business French, contemporary French culture, internship coordination); and ability to instruct and develop courses in Film Studies, Women's Studies, or other interdisciplinary fields.

Application deadline: postmarked by November 1, 2005. Send cover letter, CV, transcripts, three recent letters of recommendation, and recent, representative teaching evaluations to: Chair, French Search Committee, 300 Pearson Hall, Iowa State University, Ames, IA, 50011. Candidates who are being considered for an MLA interview will be subsequently asked to submit a writing sample and a syllabus for a French Cultural Studies course to be taught in English. Incomplete applications will not be considered. ISU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

Loyola U Chicago

Mod Langs & Lits, 6525 N Sheridan DH 302 Chicago IL 60626

Lecturer of French

1205

<http://www.luc.edu/modernlang/>

The Department of Modern Languages & Literatures of Loyola University Chicago invites applications for a non-tenure-track four-year appointment in French, to begin in Fall 2006. Fields of specialization include all levels of language, computer-assisted foreign language technologies, culture & civilization, and business/legal French. Requires M.A. or above, native or near-native fluency in French and English, evidence of effective teaching, and commitment to foreign-language program development and undergraduate education.

Please send letter, CV, three current letters of recommendation, and dossier to Susana Cavallo, Chair, Dept. of Modern Languages & Literatures, Loyola University Chicago, 6525 N. Sheridan Rd., Chicago, IL, 60626. Loyola University is an AA/EO employer. Women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and veterans are strongly encouraged to apply. [R]

Nebraska Wesleyan U

Mod Langs, 5000 Saint Paul Av Lincoln NE 68504

Assistant Professor of French

1362

<http://www.nebrwesleyan.edu>

The Department of Modern Languages at Nebraska Wesleyan University seeks applications for a full-time tenure-track position in French. The Department seeks a generalist with a Ph.D. in French, prepared to teach all levels of undergraduate French and committed to excellence in teaching. Area of specialization is open. Candidates must demonstrate native/near native fluency in French and provide a plan for recruiting students to build the program. Preference will be given to candidates who also have the ability and willingness to teach courses in another language. The successful candidate will demonstrate interest in working across disciplinary lines in a liberal arts setting. The normal teaching load is 4 courses (12-13 credit hours) per semester. Salary is $40,000 plus benefits.

Applicants should submit a CV, statement of teaching philosophy, transcripts and three letters of reference to: French Search Committee, c/o Jo Ann Fuess, Chair, Modern Languages Department, Nebraska Wesleyan University, 5000 St. Paul Ave., Lincoln, NE 68504

At least one of the letters of reference should address classroom teaching. Please enclose a self-addressed postcard for acknowledgement of receipt. Applications received by November 11, 2005 will receive full consideration; however, all applications will be considered until the position is filled. Preliminary interviews may be by telephone. Candidates should also indicate their availability for an interview at the MLA convention in Washington D.C.

Nebraska Wesleyan University is an equal opportunity employer and supports diversity among its faculty and staff. [R]

Rochester Inst of Tech

Lang, 92 Lomb Memorial Dr Rochester NY 14623

Assistant Professor of French

1228

<http://www.rit.edu>

Foreign Language and Culture/French: Rochester Institute of Technology invites applications for the tenure-track position of Assistant Professor of French in the Department of Foreign Languages, College of Liberal Arts. The position begins September 2006. Required are the Ph.D. and native or near-native fluency in French and English. The successful candidate will be responsible for developing the French program. S/he must have commitment to and demonstrable excellence in the teaching of language courses using proficiency-oriented methodologies. Expertise in technology-based pedagogy expected. Commitment to fostering global awareness highly desirable. Other responsibilities include teaching all levels of language courses, developing upper-level culture courses in areas of interest and expertise, scholarly work and publication, and collegial involvement. We offer concentrations, minors, and electives to all RIT students as part of the Liberal Arts curriculum, and we contribute to a degree program in International Studies. The Department is located in a new, state-of-the-art, Foreign Language Technology Center. Deadline of application: November 20. Send letter, curriculum vitae, dossier, and a statement of teaching philosophy and research interests to Professor Diane Forbes, Chair of the French Search Committee, College of Liberal Arts, Rochester Institute of Technology, 92 Lomb Memorial Drive, Rochester, NY 14623-5604.

RIT is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, actively looking for individuals with an ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the Institute's commitment to cultural diversity and pluralism. [R]

Tennessee Tech U

For Langs, PO Box 5061 Cookeville TN 38505

Assistant Professor of French

1394

<http://www.tntech.edu/fl/main.htm>

Full-time, tenure-track academic appointment to begin August 1, 2006

QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. is required in either French or in Romance Languages (with a major concentration in French and a minor in Spanish) (ABD near final stage of dissertation will be considered at the instructor level for one year, but Ph.D. is required for continuing appointment). Candidates must have a professional-level command of French and English and be willing to teach a variety of French courses at all levels, including French culture and civilization in English. Candidates must also be able to teach Spanish at the elementary level.

A strong commitment to excellence in undergraduate instruction, ability and interest in scholarly research, and a willingness to participate in professional service and student-oriented activities are all essential. Candidates must possess excellent collegial, communication, and interpersonal skills and be able to interact effectively in a multi-language department.

Candidates must submit a curriculum vitae, copy of official transcript for the highest degree earned, three (3) letters of recommendation (at least one of which must include an assessment of the candidate's teaching), and a TTU Faculty Application Form (refer to <http://www.tntech.edu/jobs>). Send all materials to: Dr. Colleen Hays, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages, Box 5061, Tennessee Tech University, Cookeville, TN 38505-0001.

Qualified applicants will be asked to submit an audio cassette, CD, or audio file on which passages in French and Spanish (supplied by the Search Committee) are to be read. The cassette, CD, or audio must also include a description of the candidate's qualifications and interests in French if the candidate's native language is English; in English if the candidate's native language is French and in both English and French if the candidate's native language is neither English nor French.

A complete position summary is available at www.tntech.edu/jobs. Screening of applications begins November 15, 2005; open until filled. AA/EEO [R]

Tennessee SU

Langs, Lit, & Philos, 3500 John A Merritt Blvd Nashville TN 37209

Assistant / Associate Professor of French

1066

<http://www.jobs.tnstate.edu>

Tennessee State University invites applications for the position of Assistant/Associate Professor of French. PhD in French of related doctorate required by date of appointment. Requires demonstrated commitment and background for teaching beginning and intermediate classes and upper level classes in French literature and culture. Position requires scholarship, service, and fulfillment of other responsibilities of a faculty appointment. Please visit our website at www.jobs.tnstate.edu for full description and information on applying for this position.

Deadline for application: October 31, 2005

TSU is an EO/AA/M/F Employer

Texas Christian U

Mod Langs & Lit, TCU Box 297210 Fort Worth TX 76129

Instructor of French

1484

<http://www.mola.tcu.edu>

M. A. required, Ph. D. desirable. Full-time, non tenure track position, renewable yearly. Beginning Fall 2006. Native or near-native proficiency in French and English expected. Candidate must be prepared to teach a variety of French language, culture, and literature courses. Specialization open, although evidence of expertise in second language acquisition desirable. Strong commitment to undergraduate teaching and student engagement. Please submit letter of application, CV, and dossier by December 1, 2005, to Dr. Sharon L. Fairchild, Chair, Department of Modern Languages & Literatures, Texas Christian University, TCU Box 297210, Fort Worth, TX 76129. TCU is an EEO/AA Employer. [R]

U of Central Florida

Mod Langs & Lits, PO Box 161348 Orlando FL 32816

Assistant Professor of French

1080

<http://www.cas.ucf.edu/forlang/>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at the University of Central Florida invites applications for a tenure track faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor. Specialization in early modern French literature and culture and North American francophone literature and culture. The successful candidate must show: 1) Evidence of excellence in teaching, and a commitment to research and publication; 2) Native fluency in French and native or near native fluency in English; 3) Ph.D. in hand by the time of appointment Native or near native fluency in both French and English required. Finalists will be asked for a significant writing sample. Please submit a letter of application, a statement expressing academic and teaching philosophy, a CV, an official transcript, and the names of three references to: Paolo Giordano, Department Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Central Florida, PO Box 16138, Orlando, FL 32816-1348. The search committee will begin evaluating dossiers November 15, 2005. Women and minorities are especially invited to apply. As an agency of the State of Florida, UCF makes all application materials available for public review upon request. AA/EOE employer [R]

U of Mary Washington

Mod For Langs, 1301 College Av Fredericksburg VA 22401

Assistant Professor of French

1134

<http://www.umw.edu>

The University of Mary Washington invites applications for a tenure-track position as Assistant Professor to begin fall 2006. Candidates must have PhD. in hand by August 15, 2006. Candidates must also have native or near native fluency in both French and English and experience in teaching all levels of language, culture and/or literature to undergraduate students and a specialization in pre-modern French literature and culture. Normal teaching load is 12 hours per semester. Candidates must also be able to enhance the growth of the program through departmental and college-wide service and leading students in summer study abroad. Please send letter of application, vita, letters of reference, and graduate transcripts by 5 p.m. December 1, 2005 to French Search Chair, Department of Modern Foreign Languages, University of Mary Washington, 1301 College Avenue, Fredericksburg, VA 22401-5358. Postmarks will not be honored. The University of Mary Washington is a public, coeducational, liberal arts institution in Fredericksburg, Virginia, fifty miles south of Washington, D.C. Visit our website at www.umw.edu. In a continuing effort to enrich its academic environment and provide equal educational and employment opportunities, the University of Mary Washington actively encourages women and minorities to apply. [R]

U of Massachusetts, Dartmouth

Foreign Literature & Languages, 285 Old Westport Road North Dartmouth MA 02747

Assistant Professor of French

1078

<http://www.umassd.edu>

Entry level, tenure track Assistant Prof. of French beginning 9/1/06.

Required qualifications: PhD, native-like fluency in French, ability to teach all levels of undergraduate French language, literature, and culture courses. Preference given to candidates with (a) a proven commitment to undergraduate teaching, (b) a demonstrable record of contributing to the building of a strong and vibrant French major, (c) a record of excellence in teaching, and (d) scholarly publications. The ability to contribute to multidisciplinary programs will also be a plus. Send letter, vita, philosophy of teaching, names of references to Dr. Lew Kamm, Office of the Dean, Arts & Sciences, UMass Dartmouth, N. Dartmouth, MA 02747. ATTN: French Search. Application Deadline is December 1, 2005. AA/EOE Employer. [R]

U of Miami

For Langs & Lit, PO Box 248093 Coral Gables FL 33124

Assistant Professor of French-Second Language Acquisition (SLA) 1424
<http://www.miami.edu/fl>

Tenure-Track. Field of specialization: French second language acquisition and pedagogy. Proficiency in French and solid command of English required. Responsibilities will include scholarly research and publication as well as teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Additional duties will include directing the basic language program in French and, in collaboration with the director of the basic language program in Spanish, the language acquisition component of other languages taught in the department. The directors of the basic language programs work with the Director of the Language Lab and the faculty to provide computer-assisted language instruction and to oversee the theoretical and practical training of graduate students in language pedagogy. Candidates must demonstrate strong scholarly promise and have Ph. D. in hand by August 1, 2006. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to:

Dr. Maria Galli-Stampino, Chair, Search Committee, University of Miami, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, P.O. Box 248093, Coral Gables, FL 33124-2074

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer [R]

U of New Mexico

For Langs & Lits, 229 Ortega Hall Albuquerque NM 87131

Assistant Professor of French 1298
<http://www.unm.edu/~fl>

Probationary position leading to tenure decision. Position begins August 14, 2006. Specialization in Nineteenth-Century French Literature and/or Culture.

Minimum requirements include: Ph.D. in hand by date of appointment, specialization in Nineteenth-Century French Literature and/or Culture, demonstrable strength in an area of Comparative Literature/Cultural Studies, and native or near-native fluency in French and English. Preferred qualifications include: potential for scholarly distinction, ability to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in area of specialization, evidence of teaching excellence, collegiality.

Candidates should send a signed letter of interest, CV, sample of scholarly work, teaching portfolio, and three letters of reference to: Walter Putnam, Chair of Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, MSC03 2080, 1 University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001

For best consideration, applications must be received by November 9, 2005. The position will remain open until filled. Nominations are encouraged. UNM is an EEO/AA employer and educator.

U of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Romance Languages, CB# 3170, 238 Dey Hall Chapel Hill NC 27599

Assistant Professor in French 1569
<http://www.unc.edu/depts/roml>

Full-time, tenure-track assistant professorship in French to begin July 1, 2006. Ph.D. in hand, native or near-native fluency in both French and English. We are seeking a colleague in 18th-century French specializing in the novel and Enlightenment philosophy. The candidate should have a strong background in narratology, cultural theory, and/or interdisciplinary studies, and also solid competence in the 19th-century novel. Expectations of the appointee include excellence in undergraduate and graduate teaching, a significant and ongoing research record, ability to offer graduate courses in areas of specialization and to develop new courses with an interdisciplinary approach. Teaching load for research-active faculty is two courses per semester. Please submit letter of application, curriculum vitae, four letters of recommendation, teaching portfolio, and one sample publication or writing sample to Erika Lindemann, c/o Search Committee, Department of Romance Languages, CB# 3170 Dey Hall, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3170. Application deadline is 12/01/05. A description of the Department is at <http://www.unc.edu/depts/roml>. Preliminary interviews may be held at the MLA Convention in Washington, DC. The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is an Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

U of Richmond

Mod Lang & Lit, 28 Westhampton Way Richmond VA 23173

Assistant Professor of French 859
<http://www.mll.richmond.edu>

The Department of Modern Literatures and Cultures at the University of Richmond invites applications for an Assistant Professor of French, tenure-track, with a specialization in 19th century literature and cultural studies, to begin August 2006. We are particularly interested in candidates with secondary interests in areas such as art, visual culture, gender studies, regional cultures or other interdisciplinary work. The ability to teach commercial French is an asset. The successful candidate should have native or near-native fluency in French, outstanding scholarly promise, a strong commitment to teaching at all levels in an undergraduate liberal arts curriculum, and PhD in hand by Fall 2006. The University of Richmond is a highly selective private institution dedicated to excellence in both teaching and scholarship.

To be considered for MLA interviews, applicants should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, and separate statements of (1) teaching philosophy and experience and (2) research interests and plans to: Dr. Kasongo M. Kapanga, Chair of the Search Committee, Department of Modern Literatures and Cultures, University of Richmond, VA 23173. Applicants should also arrange for three letters of recommendation, including at least one that addresses teaching potential, to be sent directly to the same address. The review of applications begins November 15, 2005, and continues until the position is filled. The University of Richmond is committed to developing a diverse workforce and student body, and to modeling an inclusive campus community which values the expression of difference in ways that promote excellence in teaching, learning, personal development, and institutional success. Our academic community strongly encourages applications that are in keeping with this commitment. [R]

U of Tennessee at Knoxville

Mod For Langs/Lits, 701 McClung Tower Knoxville TN 37996

Assistant Professor of French 475
<http://web.utk.edu/~mfl/>

Tenure-track position in French Applied Linguistics, Second Language Acquisition, or Foreign Language Education., to begin Fall 2006. Ph.D. (or ABD with promise of completion by August 2006). Native or near-native fluency in French and English essential; strong interest in teaching and in scholarly research required. Ability to teach full range of graduate and undergraduate French courses, including graduate courses in Teaching Methodology and other areas of expertise. Ability to teach Phonetics, Romance Linguistics, and Descriptive Linguistics highly desirable. Qualifications and/or experience in Second Language Acquisition, Teaching Methodology, CALL and directing multi-section courses employing teaching assistants, lecturers and full-time faculty and the ability to publish in the areas named will strengthen the application. Qualifications and/or experience in Second Language Acquisition, Teaching Methodology, CALL and directing multi-section courses employing teaching assistants, lecturers and full-time faculty and the ability to publish in the areas named will strengthen the application. Appointment to tenure-track assistant professorship requires Ph.D.; without Ph.D., appointment will be as non-tenure track instructor until degree is completed, with conversion to tenure-track assistant professor upon completion. Salary competitive. Review of applicants will begin November 1, 2005. The university welcomes and honors people of all races, creeds, cultures, and sexual orientations, and values intellectual curiosity, pursuit of knowledge, and academic freedom and integrity. Please send letter of application, complete dossier, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to Professor Mary McAlpin, French Search Committee Chair, Modern Foreign Languages and Literatures, 701 McClung Tower, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN 37996-0470; (865) 974-2312. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.

UT Knoxville is an EEO/AA/Title VI/Title IX/Section 504/ADA/ADEA institution in the provision of its education and employment programs and services. [R]

U of Toronto

Cinema Studies Program (at Innis College), 2 Sussex Ave Toronto, Ontario M5S 1J5 Canada

Assistant Professor (Cinema Studies/French)

1244

<http://www.utoronto.ca>

The University of Toronto's Cinema Studies Program (at Innis College) and the Department of French invite applications for a tenure stream appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor. The Cinema Studies Program at Innis College and the Department of French are seeking applicants with an extensive knowledge of French cinema, film theory and/or contemporary cultural theory. Knowledge of other French-language cinemas (such as Quebec cinema, African, and/or Caribbean cinema) would be an asset. The successful candidate will teach film courses at undergraduate, introductory, and advanced levels in the Innis College Cinema Studies Program, and at the graduate level in the Department of French. As well, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in supervising individual students, pursuing scholarship, and participating in the affairs of the College and the Department. In their publications, dissertation, and course work, candidates must exhibit evidence of strong research in film. A record of teaching experience in cinema studies is also required. Applicants must also be able to teach in both English and French. A Ph.D. in Film or French (film stream) preferred. Salary to be commensurate with qualifications and experience. The expected start date for the position is July 1, 2006.

Duplicate letter of application, CV's, transcripts, along with a recent publication (either published or submitted) should be sent to: Principal, Innis College, University of Toronto, 2 Sussex Ave., Toronto, Ontario M5S 1J5. Candidates should also arrange to have three letters of reference sent by referees directly to the address above. The deadline for applications is November 1, 2005.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. More information on the University of Toronto, Innis College and the Department of French can be found on the University's web site: <http://www.utoronto.ca>.

U of Toronto

French, Odette Hall, 50 St. Joseph Street Toronto ON M5S 1J4 Canada

Assistant or Associate Professor

1439

<http://www.chass.utoronto.ca/french>

University of Toronto

Department of French

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The University of Toronto invites applications for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor in French commencing July 1, 2006. The Department of French is seeking applicants in the area of Nineteenth Century French Literature. Candidates should also have knowledge of literary theory. An interest in the history of the book and print culture would be an asset. Duties will include teaching at both the Graduate and Undergraduate levels. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applicants must have a Ph.D. in French Studies or a closely related discipline and an established record of high quality scholarly research and publication. Applicants must also have a strong teaching record and native or near-native fluency in the French language, as well as a working knowledge of English. Applicants should ask three referees to send a letter of recommendation under separate cover to the address below. These letters must be received by the deadline for receipt of applications. Applicants should also send their curriculum vitae, a teaching dossier, a copy of recent publications, and a statement outlining current and future research interests to: Professor Parth Bhatt, Chair, Department of French, University of Toronto, 50 St. Joseph Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M5S 1J4. The closing date for receipt of applications is December 16th 2005.

The University of Toronto offers the opportunity to teach, conduct research and live in one of the most diverse cities in the world. We offer opportunities to work in a range of collaborative programs including Aboriginal, Book History and Print Culture, Book and Media Studies, Canadian, African, Caribbean, ethno-cultural, sexual diversity, gender and women's studies.

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. [R]

U of Western Ontario

French, UC 138b London ON N6A Canada

Poste en littérature française de l'Ancien Régime

1115

<http://uwo.ca/french>

Le Département de français à la Faculté des lettres, arts et sciences humaines de l'université Western Ontario, est à la recherche d'une professeure de littérature française de l'Ancien Régime (avec préférence pour le XVIIe ou le XVIIIe siècle) pour un poste probatoire, au rang de professeure adjointe (Assistant Professeur). Les fonctions du poste incluent l'enseignement et l'encadrement des étudiantes aux trois cycles universitaires. Le candidat ou la candidate idéale aura de l'expérience dans l'enseignement, un doctorat ou PhD, et un excellent dossier de publications dans le domaine mentionné. Une expertise en littérature de la francophonie, études du cinéma, didactique des langues ou un autre champ interdisciplinaire serait un atout. Les candidates devront avoir une parfaite maîtrise du français. Date d'entrée en fonctions: le 1er juillet 2006. Ce poste est sujet à approbation budgétaire. Veuillez adresser un curriculum vitae et trois lettres de recommandation envoyées directement des répondants au Dr. Jeff Tennant, Directeur, Département de français, Université Western Ontario, London (Ontario), N6A 3K7, avant le 15 novembre, 2005 (dossiers de candidature acceptés par courrier électronique: jtennant@uwo.ca). Les candidates devraient pouvoir communiquer en anglais parlé et écrit. Toutes les candidates qualifiées sont encouragées à postuler, toutefois la priorité sera accordée aux citoyennes et aux résidentes permanentes du Canada. L'université Western Ontario s'engage à respecter l'équité en matière d'emploi. Pour promouvoir la diversité dans le lieu de travail, elle encourage toute candidature provenant de femmes et hommes qualifiés, y compris les membres de minorités visibles, les autochtones, et les personnes handicapées. [R]

U of the South

French, 735 University Av Sewanee TN 37383

Visiting Assistant Professor of French

993

<http://www.sewanee.edu/French>

A one-year appointment (beginning August 2006) with the possibility of consecutive renewals for up to three additional years, at the Visiting Assistant Professor level, for a series of sabbatical leave replacements. A generalist to teach at the 100, 200, and 300 levels. Teaching load will be 3 courses per semester. Applicants should have Ph.D. in hand at the time of application. The candidate must demonstrate native or near-native proficiency in French and English. Send full dossier, including three letters of reference, to Laurie Ramsey, Chair, Dept. of French and French Studies, Sewanee: The University of the South, 735 University Ave., Sewanee, TN 37383. We will begin reviewing applications Nov. 15. Sewanee is a Title IX/Section 504/ADA/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Utah Valley SC

For Langs, 800 W University Pkwy, MS 167 Orem UT 84058

Assistant Professor of French

1348

<http://uvsc.edu>

Candidates currently being sought for an anticipated tenure-track faculty position in French beginning fall 2005, pending funding. Requires graduation from an accredited university with a Ph.D. in French (or a Master's Degree in French plus significant work [ABD] toward completion of the Ph.D.) plus two years of full-time teaching experience (or equivalent). Must be fluent in both French and English and show preparation in basic language teaching pedagogy. Position requires teaching courses in both lower and upper division. All applicants must submit verification of employment eligibility (identity documents). Further information and application details available at College website (uvsc.edu). Anticipated initial screening date 11-7-05. [R]

Wartburg C

English & Mod Lang, 222 9th St NW Waverly IA 50677

Assistant Professor of French

1449

<http://www.wartburg.edu/hr>

The Department of English and Modern Languages invites applications for a tenure-track position, to begin fall 2006. Required are the Ph.D. in French by September 1, 2006, and native or near-native fluency. Preferred qualifications: successful college-level teaching experience in French language and literature; training in foreign language teaching methodologies; interest in advising and recruiting language majors and minors; interest in teaching a business French course; ability to contribute to first-, second-, and third-year interdisciplinary general education courses; and willingness to conduct courses to French-speaking countries. Responsibilities include teaching seven undergraduate courses per year (fall, winter, and May terms) including language, literature, and cultural studies at all undergraduate levels. Expectations include scholarship and service appropriate to a liberal arts college.

Please send letter of application, unofficial transcripts, curriculum vitae, and three current letters of reference to Jane Juchems, Director of Human Resources, Wartburg College, 100 Wartburg Blvd., Waverly, IA 50677-1003. Screening of applications begins November 15 and continues until position is filled.

Wartburg College is a college of the Lutheran Church (ELCA). See <http://www.wartburg.edu> for more information. As an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution, Wartburg College actively seeks applications from women and members of ethnic and minority groups. [R]

Williams C

Rom Langs, 995 Main St, Weston Hall Williamstown MA 01267

Visiting Assistant Professor of French

416

<http://www.williams.edu/CFLang/>

Visiting Assistant Professor in Francophone language and literature. Beginning September 2006 until June 30th 2007. Area of specialization open, though preference given to specialists in sub-Saharan literature. Commitment to and experience in language teaching a must. Teaching load of two courses per semester. Application deadline November 30th. Send letter, vita, and dossier to Leyla Rouhi, Chair, Romance Languages, 995 Main Street, Williams College 01267 MA. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer, Williams College especially welcomes and encourages applications from women and minority candidates. [R]

GERMANIC AND SCANDINAVIAN

Alma C

Mod Langs, 614 W Superior Alma MI 48801

Assistant Professor of German

1318

<http://www.alma.edu>

Full-time, one-year position in German Language and Culture with the possible creation of a tenure-track position thereafter. Preference will be given to qualified candidates who complete a Ph.D. by June 2006, who can demonstrate prior teaching experience—especially superior teaching that motivates and engages students—and who have demonstrated evidence of scholarly potential. Candidates must be committed to undergraduate liberal arts education, to a scholarly agenda, and to institutional service. Send a letter of application, vita, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Julie Arnold, Modern Language Chair, Alma College, 614 W. Superior St., Alma, MI 48801 by November 18, 2005. Pre-arranged interviews will be conducted at the Washington, D.C. MLA meeting. [R]

Bowdoin C

German, 7700 College Station Brunswick ME 04011

Assistant Professor

297

<http://www.bowdoin.edu>

The German Department at Bowdoin College invites applications for a tenure-track position beginning fall of 2006. Strong commitment to and recent experience in undergraduate teaching at all levels of language, literature, and culture expected. Proven success as teacher of undergraduates and commitment to ongoing curricular development are essential. Scholarly record or promise commensurate with the goals of an undergraduate curriculum. Near native fluency in German is required as well as excellent command of English for literature/culture courses in translation. Load: Two preparations (6–9 hours) per semester. Specialty open with a preference for late-19th, post-1945, and 21st century German-language literature and culture. Interest in such areas as European Studies, Theater, Film Studies, Gender Studies, Transnational Literatures and Cultures, or Popular Culture is desirable. Ph.D. preferred, ABD considered.

Bowdoin College is a liberal arts institution of 1670 students located two-and-a-half hours from Boston and a half-hour from Portland, ME. The German Department, consisting of three full-time faculty, offers a major that attracts 30–40 students. For more information about Bowdoin and the department see www.bowdoin.edu

Letters of application, C.V., and three letters of recommendation should be mailed to: Professor Steven R. Cerf, Department of German, 7700 College Station, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, ME. 04011

Review of Applications will begin October 10th. Bowdoin College is committed to equality through affirmative action and is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage inquiries from candidates who will enrich and contribute to the cultural and ethnic diversity of our college. Bowdoin College does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, creed, color, religion, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, veteran status, national origin, or disability status in employment, or in our education programs.

Centre C

For Langs, 600 W Walnut Danville KY 40422

Assistant Professor of German

1273

<http://www.centre.edu>

Centre College invites applications for a tenure track position in German Studies beginning August 2006. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in German (or an equivalent preparation) and be dedicated to the study of literature and to speaking German both inside and outside the classroom. Ability to teach in Centre's interdisciplinary freshman Humanities course is a plus, as is the willingness to direct study-abroad programs. Send letter of application, vita, and three letters of recommendation to Dean John Ward, Centre College, 600 W. Walnut St., Danville, KY 40422. Include a ten minute audio recording in German explaining ing how you might discuss a specific literary work with students. Review of applications begins November 21, 2005. Interviews possible at MLA. Centre College, a nationally ranked liberal arts institution, is an Equal Opportunity Employer determined to hire a diverse faculty of teacher/scholars. [R]

Denison U

Mod Langs, 100 West Loop Granville OH 43023

Visiting Assistant Professor of German

1154

<http://www.denison.edu/modlangs/>

Non-tenure track position as Visiting Assistant Professor of German (one-year contract with possibility for one-year renewal) in a liberal arts setting. Candidates should have a record of proven excellence as a teacher, should be familiar with the latest pedagogies in language instruction, and should demonstrate an ability to teach culture/literature classes for the German major and minor, as well as a readiness to teach possible first-year seminars and honors courses in English. The position begins in fall 2006 and calls for the teaching of three courses a semester. Minimum requirement ABD, PhD preferred. Native or near-native proficiency in both German and English. Send letter of application and complete dossier to Gabriele Dillmann, Chair of German Search Committee, by November 22, 2005. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the MLA. Denison is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and encourages women and minorities to apply.

Eastern Illinois U

Foreign Languages, 600 Lincoln Av, Coleman Hall Charleston IL 61920

Assistant Professor of German

223

<http://www.eiu.edu/~civil/employment.htm>.

Tenure track appointment beginning Fall 2006. PhD required at time of appointment. During on-campus interview, finalists must demonstrate superior proficiency level in German and English as defined by ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines. College level teaching experience required. Willingness and ability to teach all levels language, literature, culture. Preference will be given to candidates with ability to teach language teaching methodology and who have experience teaching at middle or high school level. Willingness to supervise extracurricular activities desirable. Evidence of scholarly potential. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled. Application deadline December 1, 2005. On-campus interviews projected to begin January 15, 2006. Send letter of application, CV, transcripts and 3 current letters of recommendation to Professor Shelley French, Chair of German Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages, Eastern Illinois University, 600 Lincoln Avenue, Charleston, IL 61920-3099. Letter of application and CV may be submitted electronically to cfsf@eiu.edu. Eastern Illinois University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer committed to achieving a diverse community. [R]

Gettysburg C

German, Campus Box 398 Gettysburg PA 17325

Assistant Professor of German

1605

<http://www.gettysburg.edu>

Gettysburg College announces a tenure-track position in German beginning in fall 2006. Applicants must have the Ph.D., a native or near-native command of German, and a demonstrable commitment to teaching and scholarship. Candidates should be well versed in German Studies with the ability to teach a broad range of German language, literature, culture, and civilization courses; have successfully implemented teaching technology, such as electronic portfolios, in the classroom; have some experience with undergraduate peer teaching projects which integrate student-centered learning with the teaching methods of our faculty; have experience with study abroad programs, especially ones designed for earlier than the junior year, and be willing to participate in our Cologne program on a regular basis. The normal teaching load is three courses per semester. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. Please send letter of application and dossier to Michael Ritterson, Acting Chair, Department of German, Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania 17325. Postmark deadline is January 10, 2006. Electronic applications are not accepted.

Gettysburg College is a highly selective liberal arts college located within 90 minutes of the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area. Established in 1832, the College has a rich history and is situated on a 220-acre campus with an enrollment of 2,500 students.

Gettysburg College celebrates diversity and invites applications from members of any group that has been historically underrepresented in the American academy. The College assures equal employment opportunity and prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, and disability. [R]

Grand Valley SU

Mod Langs & Lits, 1 Campus Dr Allendale MI 49401

Assistant Professor of German

1560

<http://www.gvsu.edu>

Beginning Fall 2006. Generalist with expertise in post-Baroque literature. Interest in teaching German Cinema and Contemporary German Culture and Civilization courses. Successful candidate will teach introductory and intermediate language courses, as well as those in her/his field. Participation in extra-curricular activities, such as the German Club and overseas study and other section activities required. Native or near native proficiency required. Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment. Commitment to excellence and to a balance among teaching, scholarship, and service. Salary is competitive and dependent on qualifications and experience. Excellent benefits package. Some research assistance available, as well as travel funds to deliver professional papers.

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures offers undergraduate majors and French, German, Russian Studies (minor in Russian language) and Spanish, and programs in other languages. Forty full-time faculty and some part-time.

Send letter of Application, current C.V., graduate transcripts and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Anne Caillaud, Chair, Department of Modern languages and Literatures, Grand valley State University, Allendale, MI 49401. Faxes may be sent to Dr. Caillaud at (616) 331-3025. Deadline Date for Applications: Friday December 9, 2005. [R]

Hunter C, CUNY

German, 695 Park Av New York NY 10021

German: Assistant or Associate Professor, Tenure-Track

1566

<http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/>

German: Assistant or Associate Professor, tenure-track position in German, starting Fall 2006. Ph.D. required at time of appointment. Also required are high levels of proficiency in German and in English, strong scholarly potential, demonstrated interest in and potential for outstanding teaching of language, literature and culture at all levels. Familiarity with ACTFL Scale, with Oral Proficiency Interviewing, and with assessment based teaching is desirable. Field of specialization is open but research interests in German or Austrian literature of the 19th and/or 20th centuries are desirable. Minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply. Send letter of application, copy of CV and three names of references to Annette Kym, Chair, German Department, Hunter College, 695 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021. Review of applications will begin November 15, 2005 and continue until position is filled. Applications received by December 2, 2005 will be considered for interviews at MLA Meeting in Washington, DC. Hunter College is an EEO/AA/ADA/IRCA employer.

Indiana U

Germanic Studies, 1020 E Kirkwood, BH 644 Bloomington IN 47405

Assistant Professor of Germanic Studies

1099

<http://www.indiana.edu/~germanic>

Assistant Professorship (tenure track) of Germanic Studies and Coordinator of the German Language Program, to begin August 2006. Outstanding research potential (preferably in 2nd-language studies), evidence of excellent teaching, and native or near-native German essential. Ph.D. in hand by August 2006. Deadline for full consideration 4 November 2005; however, applications will be considered until the position is filled. Please send application letter and complete CV to William Rasch, Chair, Germanic Studies, Indiana University, 1020 E. Kirkwood Ave., BH 644, Bloomington, IN 47405-7103. Tel: (812) 855-7947. Please do not submit recommendations or teaching documentation, or have full dossier sent, unless requested. Indiana University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

Indiana U

Germanic Studies, 1020 E Kirkwood, BH 644 Bloomington IN 47405

Assistant Professor of Germanic Studies

1100

<http://www.indiana.edu/~germanic>

Assistant Professor of Germanic Studies

Assistant Professor (tenure-track), German literature/culture 1740-present, to begin August 2006. Outstanding research potential, evidence of excellent teaching, and native or near-native German essential. Ph.D. in hand by August 2006. Deadline for full consideration 4 November 2005; however, applications will be considered until the position is filled. Please send application letter, vita, full dossier, and a brief writing sample to: William Rasch, Chair, Germanic Studies, Indiana University, 1020 E. Kirkwood Ave., BH 644, Bloomington, IN 47405-7103. Tel: (812) 855-7947. Indiana University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

Iowa SU

For Langs & Lits, 300 Pearson Hall Ames IA 50011

Assistant Professor of German

1032

<http://www.iastate.edu>

Assistant Professor with primary scholarly specialization in German Cultural Studies (post-1800). The successful candidate will teach German language and culture courses at all levels of the undergraduate curriculum. Proposed start date 08/16/2006.

Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in German, German Studies, or related field. Active and broad research program in German Cultural Studies (post-1800). Near-native fluency in German. Effective communication in English. Successful independent teaching experience.

Preferred Qualifications: Ability to instruct and/or develop courses in some or all of the following: Holocaust Studies; Women's Studies; German minority cultures; critical theory; globalization theory; languages and cultures for professions. Experience with program development.

Application deadline: postmarked by November 1, 2005 to assure full consideration. Letter of interest, C.V., transcripts, three letters of recommendation, statement of teaching philosophy, and representative teaching evaluations to: Chair, German Search Committee, 300 Pearson Hall, Iowa State University, Ames, IA, 50011. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Interviews will be conducted at the MLA convention. Review of applications will begin Nov. 1. ISU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

McGill U

German Studies, 688 Sherbrooke St W Montréal, QC Canada H3A 3R1

Assistant Professor German Studies

1417

<http://www.mcgill.ca/german>

The Department of German Studies at McGill University invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position commencing August 2006. Field of specialization is open; medievalists are encouraged to apply. Applicants should have a broad interdisciplinary perspective and a background in film studies, comparative literature, intercultural studies, women's studies, or German-Jewish Studies. The successful candidate will be a dynamic teacher of undergraduate and graduate students; essential are evidence of outstanding scholarly potential, excellence in teaching, and a strong involvement in professional matters. Native or near-native fluency in German and English; knowledge of French would be an asset; Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment. Budgetary approval is pending. In accordance with Canadian and Quebec Immigration requirements, this advertisement is directed first to Canadian citizens and permanent residents. McGill University is committed to equity in employment. Please send letters of application, CV, including a dossier with three letters of reference and a writing sample, to Search Committee, Department of German Studies, 688 Sherbrooke W., Suite 425, Montreal, Quebec H3A 3R1.

Application deadline: November 20, 2005. [R]

Middle Tennessee SU

For Lang, Box 79 Murfreesboro TN 37132

German Generalist

1342

<http://mtsujobs.mtsu.edu>

Middle Tennessee State University's Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track German Generalist (position Number 124040); Ph.D. in hand by August 2006. Native or near-native proficiency; ability to teach all levels of German language, literature, and culture; interest in teaching Business German a plus. Four course teaching load per semester; research and service expected.

To apply for this position, go to <http://mtsujobs.mtsu.edu> and follow the instructions on how to complete an application, attach documents, and submit your application online. If you have questions, please contact Dr. Hilary Stallings at 615-898-5986. Review of applications begins October 31, 2005 and will continue until the position is filled. Rank and salary commensurate with education and experience. Proof of U.S. citizenship OR eligibility for U.S. employment will be required prior to employment (Immigration Control Act of 1986). Clearly Act crime statistics for MTSU available at http://police.mtsu.edu/crime_statistics.htm. EO/AA employer. [R]

Mt Holyoke C

German Studies, 50 College St South Hadley MA 01075

Lecturer in German

1491

<http://mtholyoke.edu/acad/germ/>

3-year (renewable) Lecturer position focusing on language pedagogy, in the Department of German Studies, beginning fall 2006.

We seek a candidate with a professional interest and experience in language pedagogy or second language acquisition who will be instrumental in the design and direction of our language program. The candidate must demonstrate familiarity with current trends in language pedagogy, especially including innovative applications of technology in the foreign-language classroom. The new colleague will also exhibit a clear enthusiasm for teaching undergraduate students. Requirements: Ph.D., native or near-native fluency in German and English; demonstrated excellence in and commitment to language pedagogy; strong organizational and interpersonal skills. Preference will be given to candidates with multiple years of experience, background in curriculum development, theories of language acquisition, and integration of language instruction across the curriculum and as a core element of cultural/global studies. Teaching load: five courses per year including elementary and intermediate language courses as well as additional culture/literature courses as needed. The successful candidate will regularly manage section courses and supervise two undergraduate native-speaker T.A.s. Other responsibilities include advising and full participation in departmental activities and creative contributions to the growth of the department.

Application materials to be submitted by November 18, 2005, to Prof. Gabriele Wittig Davis, Chair, Search Committee (gdavis@mtholyoke.edu). To apply please click here: <https://jobsearch.mtholyoke.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=50339>

Initial interviews will be held at the MLA Conference in Washington D.C.

Mount Holyoke is an undergraduate liberal arts college for women with 2,000 students and 200 faculty. Half the faculty are women; one-fifth are persons of color. It is located about 80 miles west of Boston in the Connecticut River valley, and is a member of the Five College Consortium consisting of Amherst,

Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts. Mount Holyoke is committed to fostering multicultural diversity and awareness in its faculty, staff, and student body and is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and persons of color are especially encouraged to apply. [R]

New York U

Department of German, 19 University Place, 3rd Floor New York NY 10003

Associate Professor of German Literature

1606

<http://www.nyu.edu>

Faculty of Arts and Science

The Department of German in the Faculty of Arts and Science at New York University invites applications for a tenure-track or tenured position in German literature at the associate professor level, to begin September 1, 2006, pending administrative and budgetary approval. The Department is equally dedicated to in-depth study of German literature and thought since 1750, and also to the variety of theoretical approaches that arise out of and enliven that study. Applicants are expected to have native or near-native command of German and a demonstrable commitment to teaching, scholarship and administrative cooperation. We seek candidates whose fields of interest, both literary and theoretical, best complement those of our present faculty. Additional expertise desired in one or more of the following areas: 18th Century literature and thought, post-1945 literature, literary theory and philosophy, media and cinema studies.

Please send letter of application, CV, the names of five references and a writing sample, no later than December 15, 2005, to: Professor Ulrich Baer, Chair, Department of German, Faculty of Arts and Science, New York University, 19 University Place, 3rd Floor, New York, NY 10003.

NYU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

Northwestern U

German, 1880 Campus Dr, 2-375 Kresge Hall Evanston IL 60208

Assistant Professor

1011

<http://www.german.northwestern.edu/>

The Department of German at Northwestern University seeks a junior colleague (assistant professor, tenure-track) specializing in 19th or 20th century German literature, with complementary interests in comparative literary theory, cultural analysis, and/or intermediality. Applications—consisting of a letter describing research interests and teaching experience, a c.v., a representative chapter of the dissertation or a published article, and three letters of reference—are due by November 23, 2005. The Department prefers electronic submission to: Prof. Peter Hayes at p-hayes@northwestern.edu. Applications by mail should be addressed to Prof. Peter Hayes, Chair, Department of German, 2-375 Kresge Hall, Northwestern University, Evanston, IL 60208. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. AA/EOE

Ohio SU

Germanic Langs & Lit, 1775 College Rd., 498 Hagerty Hall Columbus OH 43210

Assistant or Associate Professor of German

897

<http://germanic.osu.edu>

The Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures invites applications for a tenure track/tenured position in German at the assistant or associate professor level to begin autumn 2006. We are seeking a colleague who will actively participate in the direction of a thriving undergraduate language and culture program and the expansion of a very successful Graduate Teaching Associate program. Applications from candidates with strong, demonstrated research qualifications in Second Language Acquisition and/or Applied Linguistics are highly desirable. Additional expertise complementing the strength of our present faculty is welcome and might include Technology-based Instruction, Media Studies, post-1750 German Literature and Culture, and Linguistics. Native or near-native command of German, demonstrated excellence in scholarship and teaching, leadership skills, and administrative cooperation are essential. We seek an engaged colleague who can enhance our role in OSU's newly established World Media and Culture Center and contribute to our outreach program. Please send a letter of application, CV, and three letters of recommendation for a position at the assistant level or the names of three references for a position at the associate level to the Search Committee, Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures, The Ohio State University, 498 Hagerty Hall, 1775 College Rd., Columbus, Ohio, 43210-1340. Review of applications will begin on November 1 and will continue until the position is filled. Applications received by November 15 will be considered for interviews at the ACTFL/AATG meeting in Baltimore; applications received by November 30 will be considered for interviews at the MLA meeting in Washington, DC. To build a diverse workforce, The Ohio State University encourages applications from individuals with disabilities, minorities, veterans, and women. EEO/AA employer. [R]

San Diego SU

European Studies, 5500 Campanile Dr San Diego CA 92182

Assistant Professor of German

1046

The Department of European Studies at San Diego State University is accepting applications for a Tenure Track Assistant Professor of German Studies, with demonstrated interest in European Studies, to begin in August 2006.

Applicants must provide evidence of outstanding teaching (including lower division German language courses), demonstrate a commitment to undergraduate education, and have a record of scholarly research and publication. Native or near-native fluency in German, Ph.D. in German in hand at time of application, and ability to work well with students from diverse cultural backgrounds required. Candidates with a record of interdisciplinary research and/or teaching are particularly encouraged to apply.

Send letters of application, vita and three letters of recommendation to: Chair of German Search Committee, Department of European Studies, San Diego State University, San Diego, CA 92182-7704; tel: 619-594-5111; fax: 619-594-8006; pmatthews@mail.sdsu.edu. Review of applications will begin on November 1, 2005 and continue until position is filled.

SDSU is a Title IX, Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, marital status, age, disability or veteran status, including veterans of the Vietnam era. [R]

U of California, Irvine

German, 400 Murray Krieger Hall Irvine CA 92697

Associate Professor of German

1113

<http://www.humanities.uci.edu/german/>

Tenured position at Associate Professor level beginning July 1, 2006. Field open. Focus on one or more of the following preferred: intellectual history, philosophy, cultural studies, critical theory, women's and gender studies, translation studies, Jewish studies. Established publishing and teaching record necessary. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, a sample publication, and sample course syllabi to John H. Smith, Chair, Department of German, University of California, Irvine, CA 92697-3150, by November 15, 2005.

The University of California, Irvine, is an equal opportunity employer committed to excellence through diversity.

U of Chicago

Germanic Studies, 1050 E 59th St Chicago IL 60637

Lecturer or Senior Lecturer in Yiddish

1429

The University of Chicago invites applications for a full-time position as Lecturer or Senior Lecturer in Yiddish for which the departmental home will be the Department of Germanic Studies with a co-appointment in the Committee on Jewish Studies. The successful candidate will teach a total of six courses each year—beginning and intermediate level language instruction and one or two literature courses in Yiddish or in translation. Applicants should already hold a Ph.D. in a field relevant to the teaching of Yiddish language and literature including, but not restricted to, Yiddish Studies, Germanic Studies, Jewish Studies, Linguistics, and Comparative Literature. Applicants should submit a cover letter and curriculum vitae, and ask three qualified individuals to submit letters of recommendation. Applications should be addressed to: Professor Eric Santner, Chair, Department of Germanic Studies, The University of Chicago, 1050 E. 59th Street, Chicago, Illinois 60637 USA.

The closing date for applications is November 30, 2005. The University of Chicago is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

U of Colorado

Germanic & Slavic Langs & Lits, Campus Box 276 Boulder CO 80309

Assistant Professor

474

<http://colorado.edu/germslav/>

Assistant Professor, tenure-track, starting August 2006. Ph.D. in Germanics or a closely related field, and native or near-native fluency in German. Any area of specialization is welcome, and we especially encourage applications from specialists in Jewish-German studies, gender studies, or film studies. The successful candidate will contribute to three interdisciplinary German degree programs: BA in Germanic Studies, concurrent BA/MA in Germanic Studies, and MA in Modern German Studies. Our selection will be guided by the interdisciplinarity of the candidate's research and the ability to strengthen links between our program and departments such as Comparative Literature/Humanities, History, Film Studies, and other units. Evidence of effective teaching and scholarly promise is essential. Salary competitive. Send letter of application, c.v., and dossier (with transcripts and at least 3 confidential letters of reference) to: Adrian Del Caro, German Search Chair, Germanic and Slavic LL, 276 UCB/McKenna 129, U. Colorado, Boulder, CO 80309. Review of applications will begin on November 15, 2005. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. The University of Colorado is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment.

U of Florida

German & Slavic Studies, PO Box 117430, 263 Dauer Hall, Gainesville, FL 32611

Open Rank

1014

<http://germslav.ufl.edu>

The Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies at the University of Florida invites applications for one open rank position in Germanic Studies, effective August, 2006. We are looking for a distinguished scholar from any area of specialization within the field of Germanic Studies to participate in a flourishing, multi and interdisciplinary, nationally and internationally recognized Department as it expands its programs and activities. The successful candidate will have a strong theoretical profile, broad interdisciplinary interests, innovative and original scholarship. International experience and an ability to interact with other disciplines, departments and programs are highly desirable. The Search Committee seeks to develop a diverse pool of candidates in regard to ethnicity and gender. Review of applications will begin on November 10, 2005. Salary and start-up costs will be competitive and commensurate with qualifications. Applicants should submit a letter outlining interest in the position, a full Curriculum Vitae, and contact information for four persons who can supply letters of reference.

Send the application to: Dragan Kujundzic, Chair, Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies, P.O. Box 117430, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL 32611-7430.

The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

U of Minnesota Morris

Humanities Division, 600 E 4th St Morris MN 56267

Assistant Professor or Instructor of German

1627

<http://www.morris.umn.edu>

Assistant Professor or Instructor of German; full-time, temporary, non-tenurable appointment with possibility of renewal up to five years, beginning August 14, 2006. We seek an individual with enthusiasm for teaching undergraduates in a small, residential, liberal arts college that has been recognized nationally for its high academic quality. Ph.D. in German by date of appointment preferred; ABDs in German will be considered. Appointment will be as assistant professor with Ph.D., as instructor with ABD. Native or near-native fluency in German and English and ability to teach German language and culture at all levels are required. Preferred specialization: Post-War German literature and culture; ability to teach Post-Wende German literature and film, as well as minority literature. Evidence of excellent teaching is essential. Teaching assignment will consist of five courses per academic year and includes all levels of undergraduate German instruction. A strong commitment to programmatic development in German is expected. Salary: Commensurate with experience. Send letter of application, vita, a transcript or a listing of all graduate courses, and credentials, including three recent letters of recommendation written within the last three years to: German Search Committee, Division of the Humanities, University of Minnesota, Morris, 600 East 4th Street, Morris, Minnesota 56267. Applications must reach us no later than January 17, 2006. The University of Minnesota is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, or sexual orientation. [R]

U of Mississippi

Mod Langs, Bondurant C-115 University MS 38677

Instructor of German

382

<http://www.olemiss.edu>

The Department of Modern Languages invites applications for a full-time instructor in German language and culture to begin August 2006. The successful candidate will hold a master's or doctoral degree in German or German Studies, possess native or near-native fluency in German, be familiar with current language teaching methodology, and demonstrate excellence in teaching. The instructor is expected to teach German language classes at any level, as well as culture courses or specialized courses such as Business German. Nine-month appointment, four-course load per semester. Salary range: $28,000-$32,000 depending on qualifications and experience.

To apply, visit <https://jobs.olemiss.edu/>. Please upload your CV, cover letter, list of three references with contact information, and statement on teaching philosophy. [R]

U of Montana

Mod & Classical Langs & Lits, 312 Liberal Arts Building Missoula MT 59812

Assistant Professor of German

1584

<http://www.umt.edu/mcll/>

The University of Montana welcomes applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor in contemporary German-language literature as well as German cultural studies and history. Teaching responsibilities include literature classes as well as language classes at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Willingness to teach at all levels of the undergraduate program, including first- and second-year classes, is expected. Participation in the regular rotation as director of the Study Abroad Program (spring semesters) to Germany and Austria and as director of the Summer Immersion Workshop is required.

Documentation of excellence in teaching and an active research agenda required. Native or near-native proficiency in German is essential. Familiarity with contemporary literary theories desired. Ph.D. in hand by August 2006. Qualified applicants should send materials (a letter of interest, current curriculum vitae, graduate transcript, and three current letters of reference, two of which must address teaching ability) to Linda W. Gillison, Chairperson; Modern & Classical Languages and Literatures; 312 Liberal Arts Building; The University of Montana; Missoula, MT 59812-6192. Web page: www.umt.edu/mcll/; Email: mcll@mso.umt.edu.

The Search Committee will begin reading complete dossiers November 15, 2005 and continue until it has selected candidates for possible preliminary interviews at the MLA. The University of Montana is an EOE/Affirmative Action employer. This position announcement can be made available in alternative formats upon request. [R]

U of North Dakota

Mod & Classical Langs & Lits, Box 8198 Grand Forks ND 58202

Visiting Assistant Professor of Norwegian

1494

<http://www.und.edu/dept/lang/>

Temporary, non-tenure track position. Ph.D. by 8/06 and native or near-native fluency required. College teaching experience desired. Teaching responsibilities include Norwegian language, literature, culture and history. Normal teaching load is three courses per semester. Other responsibilities include participation in UND's study abroad program in Moss, Norway. Reviewing will begin December 7, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. The University of North Dakota is an AA/ADA/EOE. Submit letter of application, c.v., and dossier to: S.M.Fleshman, Chair, Department of Modern & Classical Languages & Literatures, University of North Dakota, Box 8198, Grand Forks, ND 58202-8198.

U of North Dakota

Mod & Classical Langs & Lits, Box 8198 Grand Forks ND 58202

Visiting Assistant Professor of German

1495

<http://www.und.edu/dept/lang/>

Temporary, non-tenure track position. Ph.D. by 8/06 and native or near-native fluency required. College teaching experience desired. Teaching responsibilities include lower and upper division courses in literature, grammar, culture, phonetics, and communication skills; experience teaching Foreign Language Methodology a plus. Normal teaching load is three courses per semester. Reviewing will begin December 7, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. The University of North Dakota is an AA/ADA/EOE. Submit letter of application, c.v., and dossier to: S.M.Fleshman, Chair, Department of Modern & Classical Languages & Literatures, University of North Dakota, Box 8198, Grand Forks, ND 58202-8198.

U of North Dakota

Mod & Classical Langs & Lits, Box 8198 Grand Forks ND 58202

Rank open

1496

<http://www.und.edu/dept/lang/>

Tenure-track position, rank open. Ph.D. by 8/06 and native or near-native fluency required. College Teaching experience desired. Teaching responsibilities include lower and upper division courses in literature, grammar, culture, phonetics, and communication skills; experience teaching Foreign Language Methodology a plus. Normal teaching load is three courses per semester. Responsibilities include scholarly production and committee work. Reviewing will begin December 7, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. The University of North Dakota is an AA/ADA/EOE. Submit letter of application, c.v. and dossier to: S.M.Fleshman, Chair, Department of Modern & Classical Languages and Literatures, University of North Dakota, Box 8198, Grand Forks, ND 58202-8198. [R]

U of Pennsylvania

Germanic Langs & Lit, 255 South 36th Street Philadelphia PA 19104

Open Rank

1220

<http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/german>

Twentieth-Century German literature and culture. Rank open. High profile/promising research scholar and dynamic teacher, equally comfortable in American and European academic settings. Interdisciplinary interests welcome (e.g., history, politics, theory, cultural studies, women's studies, visual studies, Jewish studies, media, etc). Experience or interest in academic leadership. Advanced assistant professors with substantial publication record will be interviewed at MLA. Other candidates will be invited for on-campus interviews. Applications will begin to be reviewed on December 1 and will be considered until the position is filled. Please send cover letter and CV to: Search Committee, Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures, University of Pennsylvania, 745 Williams Hall, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6305. Applicants for an assistant professor position should also arrange for 3 letters of recommendation to be sent to the above address. The University of Pennsylvania is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

Union C

Mod Langs & Literatures, Union College Schenectady NY 12308

Assistant Professor of German

161

<http://www.union.edu/PUBLIC/MOLNDEPT/>

Union College seeks a generalist for a tenure-track position in German Cultural Studies, Ph.D. in hand, to begin September 2006. A specialization in the culture and literature of the 18th, 19th, or 20th century preferred. The candidate is expected to teach language, literature and culture at all levels (mostly in German); experienced, dynamic, creative, rigorous scholar-teacher committed to working in a liberal arts environment. Native or near-native fluency. Union College is an equal opportunity employer and is strongly committed to increasing the diversity of its workforce. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at MLA. Please send letter of interest, CV, three letters of recommendation, and graduate transcript to William García, Chair, by Nov. 25, 2005. Please do not submit materials electronically. [R]

Vassar C

German Studies, PO Box 256 Poughkeepsie NY 12604

Assistant Professor of German

1539

<http://german.vassar.edu/>

The Department of German Studies invites applications for a tenure-track appointment to begin in August 2006. The Department seeks a dedicated teacher and scholar eager to contribute to an innovative and active undergraduate program in a team environment. Vassar College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and is strongly and actively committed to diversity within its community. Applications from members of historically underrepresented groups are especially encouraged.

Qualifications: Applicants should demonstrate outstanding scholarly potential (subject of specialty open), an ability to teach language, literature and culture at all levels of the undergraduate curriculum, and experience with innovative pedagogical uses of technology in language teaching. The candidate must also be able to teach courses in one or more of Vassar's multidisciplinary programs (i.e. Jewish studies, international studies, women's studies, media studies, etc.) as well as freshmen writing courses. Native or near-native fluency in German and English required. PhD in hand by August 2006.

Please send letter of application, vita, and three letters of recommendation to Jeffrey Schneider, Chair. Closing date is December 1. Writing sample and teaching portfolio will be requested upon initial review of applications. [R]

Vassar C

German Studies, PO Box 256 Poughkeepsie NY 12604

Visiting Assistant Professor of German

1541

<http://german.vassar.edu/>

The Department of German Studies solicits applications for a one-year replacement position to begin in August 2006. The Department seeks a dedicated teacher and scholar to contribute to an innovative, and active undergraduate program in a team environment. Vassar College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and is strongly and actively committed to diversity within its community. Applications from members of historically underrepresented groups are especially encouraged.

Qualifications: Applicants should demonstrate an ability to teach language, literature and culture at all levels of the undergraduate curriculum, while also demonstrating strong scholarly promise (field open). Native or near-native fluency in German and English required with PhD in hand by August 2006. A strong interest in foreign language learning, applied linguistics, and innovative uses of technology is a plus.

Please send letter of application, vita, and three letters of recommendation to Jeffrey Schneider, Chair. Closing date is December 1. Writing sample and teaching portfolio will be requested upon initial review of applications. [R]

Washburn U of Topeka

Mod Langs, 1700 SW College Av Topeka KS 66621

Modern Languages Assistant Professor

1571

<http://www.washburn.edu/cas/ml/>

Washburn University's Modern Languages Department invites applications for tenure-track Assistant Professor in German beginning August 1, 2006. QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in German; native/near native German and English fluency; evidence of successful teaching all levels of language/culture/literature; scholarly potential required; experience with study abroad and an interest in interdisciplinary programs preferred. Application review begins November 15, 2005 and continues until a suitable candidate is identified. Send letter of application, C.V., dossier w/transcripts and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Miguel Gonzalez-Abellas, Co-Chair, Department of Modern Languages, Washburn University, Topeka, KS 66621. Washburn University is EOE. www.washburn.edu [R]

HEBREW

Duke U

Asian & African Langs & Lit, 2101 Campus Dr Durham NC 27708

Open rank position in Modern Hebrew Language, Literature and Israeli Cultural Studies

1103

<http://www.duke.edu/web/aall/>

The Department of Asian & African Languages & Literature at Duke University invites applications for an open rank position in Modern Hebrew Language, Literature and Israeli Cultural Studies to begin fall 2006. Native or near-native fluency in Hebrew is required. The desired specialization is in Modern Hebrew literature and Israeli cultural studies with emphases on identity, postcolonialism, film, gender, or theories of globalization. The successful candidate will be expected to teach courses in her/his area of expertise and Intermediate and Advanced Hebrew. The candidate will have a secondary appointment in Jewish Studies. The Ph.D. degree is required. Applications should include a curriculum vitae and the names, addresses and telephone/fax numbers of at least three scholars who can provide academic references. Application received by November 15, 2005, will be given full consideration. Duke is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Please send application to: Chair, Modern Hebrew Language, Literature and Israeli Cultural Studies Search Committee, AALL, 2101 Campus Dr., Box 90414, Duke University, Durham NC 27708-0414

Penn State U

Department of Comparative Literature, 311 Burrowes Building University Park PA 16802

Assistant, Associate, or Professor of Comparative Literature and Jewish Studies 646

<http://complit.la.psu.edu/>

Modern Hebrew Literature

Penn State announces a rank open, tenure-track position in modern Hebrew literature seen in its comparative and historical development from its revitalization in the 19th century to contemporary texts. Preferred start date Fall 2006. Position shared between the Department of Comparative Literature, where tenure will be located, and the Jewish Studies Program. While Penn State offers an Undergraduate Minor in Hebrew, in which this faculty member would participate, the responsibilities of the position are more broadly defined. They include: contribute to the instructional, research, and service missions of Jewish Studies; engage in the development of the Hebrew language curriculum; and participate in instruction, research, and service in the Comparative Literature graduate and undergraduate programs. Requirements: Ph.D. in Hebrew, Comparative Literature, Jewish Studies, or other relevant field; research specializations to include any aspect of modern Hebrew literature in its historical and comparative dimensions; relevant teaching experience; native or near-native command of Hebrew and English. Knowledge of one or more other literatures, such as Yiddish or Arabic, would also be welcome. Send letter of application, c.v., and the names and addresses of 3 references to Ms. Cindy Bierly, Box G, Department of Comparative Literature, 311 Burrowes Building, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802-6203, USA. Applications may also be sent by e-mail to: cqb2@psu.edu or by FAX to: (814) 863-8882. Screening of applications will begin November 15, 2005, though all applications will be considered until the position is filled. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity and the diversity of its workforce. [R]

ITALIAN

SEE ALSO ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Dartmouth C

French & Italian, 6087 Dartmouth Hall Hanover NH 03755

Two-year, non tenure-track position in Italian language with possibility of renewal.

1073

<http://www.dartmouth.edu>

Native or near-native command of Italian; excellence in teaching; MA, ABD or Ph.D. Expected to teach Italian language courses at all levels and introductory Italian culture and literature. Possibility of teaching at the Dartmouth Rome Center for a term in 2007-2008. Send letter of application with c.v., dossier, and student course evaluations, postmarked by February 15, 2006 at the latest, to: Search Committee Chair, Dept. of French and Italian, 6087 Dartmouth Hall, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH 03755-3511. AA/EOE. [R]

Emory U

French & Ital, 537 Kilgo Circle-Callaway N405 Atlanta GA 30322

Lecturer in Italian

1127

<http://www.french.emory.edu>

A three year position, renewable, beginning Fall 2006. Ph.D. preferable. Native or near native fluency expected. Specialization sought in Foreign Language Pedagogy, Second Language Acquisition, Italian linguistics, and semiotics. Evidence of excellent teaching and student relations required. Duties include teaching five first year language courses per year, plus participation in new textbook development. Send letter of application, C.V. and three letters of recommendation to Prof. Judy Raggi Moore, Department of French and Italian, Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322.

Review begins November 30, 2005. Emory is an AA/EO Employer [R]

Hofstra U

Rom Langs & Lits, 338 Calkins Hall Hempstead NY 11549

Assistant Professor in Italian

1532

<http://www.hofstra.edu>

Hofstra University's Department of Romance Languages & Literatures seeks for September 2006, an Assistant Professor in Italian. The successful candidate should have the doctorate in Italian, with a 19th-century specialization preferred; demonstrated interest in developing Italian Studies courses; strong commitment to language teaching; desire to direct study abroad program; native or near-native fluency in both Italian and English. Teaching responsibilities also include culture and generalist literature courses in Italian and English. Preliminary interviews to be conducted at MLA Convention in Washington, D. C. Please send, no later than 1st December 2005, a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, recent teaching evaluations, writing sample, and three letters of recommendation, to: Dr. David A. Powell, Chair, Romance Langs & Lits, 107 Hofstra, Hempstead, NY, 11549. EOE

James Madison U

For Langs & Lit, Keezell 301, MSC 1802 Harrisonburg VA 22807

Assistant Professor of Italian

1592

<http://www.jmu.edu/forlang>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at James Madison University announces a tenure-track position in Italian. Native or near native fluency in both English and Italian. Primary responsibilities will include teaching upper-level courses in grammar, conversation, and Applied Linguistics. Fluency in another language, preferably in Spanish, and willingness to teach in the field of comparative literature, will be an advantage.

Salary is competitive. Ph.D. in hand by August 2006.

For application information, please visit <http://joblink.jmu.edu>, posting number 0400373

Review of applications will begin November 15, 2005.

James Madison University is an equal opportunity/Affirmative Action/equal access employer and especially encourages applications from minorities, women, and persons with disabilities.

Rutgers U

Ital, 84 College Av, Fac of A&S New Brunswick NJ 08901

Assistant Professor of Italian

1166

<http://www.italian.rutgers.edu>

Tenure-track three-year renewable appointment, beginning July 1, 2006 available at the Asst. Prof. level in the Dept. of Italian. Specialization in Nineteenth-Century Literature with additional research interests in the Twentieth Century. Requirements include Ph.D. in Italian, fluency in Italian, strong commitment to scholarly research, teaching excellence, and interdisciplinary studies. Send application, CV, and dossier with three letters of recommendation to Chair, Dept of Italian, Rutgers University, 84 College Ave., New Brunswick, NJ 08901-8542 by Nov. 15, 2005.

Rutgers University encourages applications from women and members of minority groups. AA/EOE [R]

Saint Joseph's U

For Langs & Lits, 5600 City Av Philadelphia PA 19131

Assistant Professor of Italian

491

<http://www.sju.edu>

Saint Joseph's University seeks a dynamic Assistant Professor of Italian for a tenure-track position beginning August 2006. Applicants must have a thorough knowledge of proficiency-oriented, communicative methods of second language instruction and familiarity with the use of technology. We seek a generalist. The area of specialization is open. Ph.D. in hand by May 2006. Native or near-native fluency in Italian and English and the ability to teach beginning to advanced level courses in Italian language, literature and culture are required. Interest in teaching interdisciplinary courses, knowledge of multidisciplinary approaches to literature and media-rich approaches to culture are desirable. Teaching load is 3/3. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to contribute to a rapidly growing Italian Program by developing courses that support the Italian major and minor as well as the study abroad program.

Saint Joseph's University is a Catholic and Jesuit University firmly committed to the liberal arts and to a person-centered vision of education. As such, the university requires foreign language study as part of its general education curriculum. Saint Joseph's University is a private, Catholic and Jesuit institution and expects members of its community to be knowledgeable about its mission and to make a positive contribution to that mission. AA/EOE M/F/D/V. Please apply on-line at www.sju.edu/hr, click on Employment, and follow the guide. Please attach your letter of interest, vita, statement of teaching philosophy and samples of your writing in both Italian and English by November 28 to be considered for an MLA Convention Interview. In addition, please send a hard copy along with 3 letters of reference to Dr. Thomas J. Donahue, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Saint Joseph's University, 5600 City Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19131-1395. Pending final budgetary approval.

Texas Tech U

Classical & Modern Languages & Literatures, PO Box 42071 Lubbock TX 79409

Instructors of Italian

1548

The Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures at Texas Tech University is seeking two graduate part-time instructors to teach Elementary and Intermediate Italian. Candidates should have demonstrable teaching experience of Italian language and culture at the University level. Candidates should be native speakers of Italian or should have the equivalent fluency. Preference will be given to candidates who wish to enroll in the Masters program in Applied Linguistics at Texas Tech University.

Academic year appointments will be available with continued support considered on the basis of academic and teaching effectiveness. The successful candidates will be expected to enroll in a minimum of three graduate courses per semester.

Please send your cover letter, resume, three letters of recommendation addressing your teaching abilities, and course evaluations to the attention of: Italian Search, c/o Ms. Kari Gates, Texas Tech University, Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures, P.O. Box 42071, Lubbock, Texas, 79409-2071.

The deadline to apply for these positions is January 15, 2005. Interviews will be conducted over the phone and the selected candidates will receive a notice of the search outcome by mid-February.

U of California, Berkeley

Ital Studies, 6303 Dwinelle Hall, MC 2620 Berkeley CA 94720

Assistant, Associate or Full Professor of Italian Studies

424

<http://italian.berkeley.edu/indexhome.html>

The Department of Italian Studies invites applications for a tenured or tenure-track position, with preference for a candidate within twelve years of receiving the Ph.D. Specialization in the literature and culture of contemporary Italy (from World War II on), with the ability to contribute to a curriculum that ranges over eight centuries of Italian history and culture. Subspecializations may include immigrant culture, regional culture, Italy in European, Mediterranean and/or global contexts, media studies and popular culture. To begin July 1, 2006, pending budgetary approval. Ph.D. required. Appointments for preliminary interviews at the 2005 MLA convention in Washington, D. C. will be made in mid-December. Send letter of application, a complete dossier (including CV and at least three recommendations; refer potential reviewers to the UC Berkeley Statement of Confidentiality found at: <http://apo.chance.berkeley.edu/evaltr.html>), and writing sample (maximum 25 pages) to Barbara Spackman, Department Chair, Italian Studies, 6303 Dwinelle, UC Berkeley, Berkeley, CA, 94720-2620. Postmark deadline for completed application is November 26, 2005. Minorities and women strongly encouraged to apply. The University of California at Berkeley is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

U of Minnesota Twin Cities

French & Ital, 9 Pleasant St SE, 260 Folwell Hall Minneapolis MN 55455

Director of Lower Division Italian Language Program

1487

<http://frit.umn.edu/>

The Department of French and Italian, in the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Minnesota, announces an opening for the position of Director of Language Instruction in Italian. This is a 100%, nine-month position, 8/28/06-5/27/07, and is annually renewable. The salary for this position will be in the high thirties, depending on qualifications. The position includes health insurance and other benefits. Duties and responsibilities include: teaching 4 lower-division Italian language courses annually (first and second year); coordinating the administration and teaching of all lower-division Italian language courses; supervising a coordinator, teaching specialists, lecturers, and graduate instructors. Applicants must have an M.A. or Ph.D. (preferred) or foreign equivalent by 8/28/06 in one of the following areas: second language acquisition; Italian language, literature or culture, applied linguistics (or related field); at least two years of college-level teaching experience; and native or near-native proficiency in Italian and English. Preferred qualifications include: expertise in TA training and supervision, curriculum development, and program administration. To apply, send a letter of application, a complete curriculum vitae, 3 letters of recommendation, and a statement of teaching philosophy to: Chair, Italian DLI Search, Department of French and Italian, University of Minnesota, 9 Pleasant St. SE, 260 Folwell Hall, Minneapolis, MN 55455. For full consideration, completed applications must be postmarked by November 21, 2005. Applications will be accepted until position is filled. The University of Minnesota is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its programs facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status or sexual orientation.

U of Pennsylvania

Rom Langs, 521 Williams Hall Philadelphia PA 19104

Senior Position in Italian/Tenured Appointment

1246

<http://www.upenn.edu/roml>

The Department of Romance Languages at the University of Pennsylvania is seeking applications/nominations for a senior appointment in Italian. Open field (Renaissance to modern preferred); tenured appointment, associate professor or professor, endowed Chair possible. The Search Committee seeks candidates with the following qualifications: scholarly accomplishments at the highest level, ongoing research engagement, strong commitment to both undergraduate and graduate teaching, ability to teach courses across an intellectual and historical range suited to an Italian program housed in a Department of Romance Languages and affiliated with the University's interdisciplinary Center For Italian Studies, willingness to participate in Italian program development, administrative experience and/or potential at both the program and departmental levels. Send applications (including CV and cover letter) to the Head of the Italian Search Committee, Department of Romance Languages, 521

Williams Hall, 255 S. 36th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6305. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. AA/EOE. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply.

U of Wisconsin-Madison

French & Ital, 618 Van Hise Madison WI 53706

Assistant Professor of Italian

1072

<http://frit.lss.wisc.edu/frit>

Assistant Professor of Italian with a specialization in the literature and culture of the Italian Renaissance. Native or near-native proficiency in Italian. Applicants must have a strong interest in literary and cultural studies, promise of scholarship, and demonstrated teaching abilities in language and/or literature courses. Duties include teaching courses in Italian language and literature at all levels. Requirement: Ph.D. or equivalent in Italian prior to start of appointment. Please send letter of interest, complete curriculum vitae, transcripts, and three letters of reference to Professor Aliko Songolo, Chair, Department of French and Italian, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 618 Van Hise Hall, 1220 Linden Drive, Madison, WI 53706. To ensure full consideration, applications must be received by November 19, 2005. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Unless confidentiality is requested in writing, information regarding the applicants must be released upon request. Finalists cannot be guaranteed confidentiality. UW-Madison is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. [R]

Wayne SU

Rom Langs & Lits, 906 W Warren Av, 487 Manoogian Detroit MI 48202

Assistant/Associate Professor of Italian

1282

<http://www.langlab.wayne.edu/romance/index/html>

Tenure-track position in Medieval/Renaissance Italian literature at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor for Fall 2006. Teaching courses from origins through the Baroque; ability to teach required course on Dante is essential. Familiarity with critical theory and Italian cinema and/or interest in teaching in Wayne in Abruzzo summer program desirable. Ph.D. in hand at time of appointment, native or near-native fluency in Italian and English required. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate culture courses in English or Italian, and Italian language and literature courses at all levels. Apply at jobs@wayne.edu, position number 032298, by attaching a letter of application and a C.V. Also please arrange for three reference letters to be sent to Dr. Margaret E. Winters, Chair; deadline is 28 November 2005 or until filled. Wayne State University is an EO/AA employer. [R]

Wayne SU

Rom Langs & Lits, 906 W Warren Av, 487 Manoogian Detroit MI 48202

Assistant/Associate Professor of Italian

1286

<http://www.langlab.wayne.edu/romance/index.html>

Tenure-track position in Italian at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor for Fall 2006, specialization in the literature and culture of 19th and/or 20th century. Familiarity with critical theory and Italian cinema and interest in teaching in the Wayne in Abruzzo summer program are desirable. Ph.D. in hand at time of appointment and native/near-native fluency in Italian and English required. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate culture courses in English, and Italian language courses at all levels. Please apply at jobs@wayne.edu, position number 032300, by attaching a letter of application and a C.V. Also please arrange for three reference letters to be sent to Dr. Margaret E. Winters, Chair (etc.); deadline is 28 November 2005 or until filled. Wayne State University is an EO/AA employer. [R]

JAPANESE

Amherst C

Asian Langs & Civs, PO Box 5000, Webster Hall Amherst MA 01002

Assistant Professor Japanese Literature

1389

<http://www.amherst.edu/~asian>

The Department of Asian Languages and Civilizations seeks applications for a tenure-track position in Japanese Literature, at the Assistant Professor level, to begin July 1, 2006. Responsibilities include teaching Japanese literature of all periods in translation, directing senior theses, and teaching in interdisciplinary courses. The candidate is expected to possess near native fluency in the Japanese language and must have a strong commitment to scholarly research and publishing and to undergraduate teaching and advising. The candidate's area of research may be any field of classical or modern Japanese literature. Candidates must have completed the Ph.D. or show evidence that it will be completed by September of 2006. Salary is competitive. Send letter of application, current curriculum vitae, official transcripts showing the highest degree completed, two samples of written works, and at least three letters of recommendation to Chair, Japanese Literature Search Committee, Department of Asian Languages and Civilizations, Box 2242, Amherst College, Amherst, MA 01002-5000. Review of applications will begin November 1 and continue until the position is filled. Amherst College is a private undergraduate liberal arts college for men and women, with 1,600 students and 190 faculty members. Located in the Connecticut River Valley of western Massachusetts, Amherst participates with Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts in the Five-College Consortium.

Amherst College is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and encourages women, persons of color, and persons with disabilities to apply. The administration, faculty, and student body are committed to attracting qualified candidates from groups presently underrepresented on our campus. [R]

California SU, Monterey Bay

College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, 100 Campus Ctr, Bldg. 46/114 Seaside CA 93955

Assistant professor of Japanese language, culture, and literature

1387

Required: Ph.D. in Japanese Language & Culture; Native or near native in Japanese and English; sensitivity to the educational goals of a diverse and multicult-tural population; demonstrated excellence in teaching undergraduates; ability to teach courses in Japanese language, culture and/or literature; scholarly achievement or promise; Experience with information technology and technology-mediated instruction.

Primary responsibilities: 24 units of instruction annually, teaching Japanese language, culture, and literature classes; advise WLC (Japanese) majors and minors; participate in SWLC governance, curricular and programmatic development. Help implement the University Vision and address needs of a diverse student population. Participation in College and University-wide committee work and scholarly/professional activities is essential for RTP

SALARY: Commensurate with background and experience. Includes attractive employee benefits package and access to on-campus housing.

For further information and on-line application please visit <http://uhr.csumb.edu/jobs/db/fac/>. [R]

Penn State U

Department of Comparative Literature, 311 Burrowes Building University Park PA 16802

Assistant, Associate, or Professor of Comparative Literature & Japanese 77
<http://complit.la.psu.edu/>

Rank Open, Tenure-Track or Tenured Faculty Position in Comparative Literature & Japanese

Penn State is seeking candidates for a tenure-line or tenured position in Comparative Literature and Japanese (Assistant, Associate, or Professor according to qualifications). Tenure-track or tenured according to rank and qualifications. Starting date: August 2006 preferred. Help develop our major in Japanese within a Comparative Literature context. Participate in the undergraduate and graduate programs in Comparative Literature. Areas of specialization may include, but are not limited to: modern Japanese literature; film and media studies; East-West or regional or global relations; classical Japanese; culture and gender studies; a literary field plus second language acquisition. Native or near-native ability in Japanese (ability to teach Japanese at all levels of the curriculum) and relevant teaching experience required. Ph.D. in Comparative Literature, Japanese, or related field required. Applications received by November 15, 2005, will receive full consideration; however, all applications will be considered until the search is concluded. Salary competitive. Send letter, c.v., and names of 3 references to: Japanese Faculty Search Committee, c/o Ms. Cindy Bierly, Box M, Department of Comparative Literature, 311 Burrowes Building, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802-6203, USA. Applications may also be sent by e-mail to: cqb2@psu.edu or by FAX to: (814) 863-8882. Visit our Web sites (<http://complit.la.psu.edu>) and (<http://complit.la.psu.edu/japanese/index.html>). Penn State is committed to Affirmative Action, equal opportunity and the diversity of its workforce. [R]

U of Georgia

Comp Lit, 131 Brown Hall Athens GA 30602

Post Doctoral Franklin Fellowship 1248
<http://uga.edu>

Japanese/Comparative Literature: University of Georgia, Post Doctoral Franklin Fellowship in Comparative Literature to begin January 6, 2006. Ten months, full-time appointment ending May, 2006; salary $34,009.00 with possibility of summer supplement; renewable for two additional years.

The University of Georgia Comparative Literature Department invites applications for a full-time non-tenure-track post-doctoral Franklin Fellow in Comparative Literature. Duties include teaching five courses per academic year in Japanese/East Asian literature and cultures. Fellows participate in a comprehensive program of professional development directed by the UGA Institute of Higher Education.

Qualifications: Ph.D. in Japanese Language and Literature or Comparative Literature with specialization in Japanese literature. Experience teaching East Asian literature and culture; native or near-native fluency in English and Japanese; an active research interest in Japanese studies. Emphasis on classical literature desirable. Application deadline: To guarantee full consideration, applications must be received by November 25, 2005. Send letter of interest, curriculum vitae, teaching portfolio, including sample syllabi and student evaluations if available and three recent letters of recommendation to Masaki Mori, Chair, Search Committee, Comparative Literature Department, University of Georgia, 228 Joseph E. Brown Hall, Athens, Georgia 30602-6204. The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer.

U of Illinois

East Asian Langs & Cultures, 608 S Mathews Av Urbana IL 61801

Assistant Professor, Pre-Modern Japanese Literature 1130
<http://www.ealc.uiuc.edu/>

The Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, seek to make a full-time, tenure-track appointment in pre-modern Japanese language and literature, at the assistant professor level, effective August 16, 2006. A completed doctorate in hand by the appointment date, good evidence of strong scholarly potential, and relevant teaching experience are required. Genre and methodological approach are open, but priority will be given to candidates who can engage in interdisciplinary dialogues. Salary is commensurate with experience. To ensure full consideration, a letter of application, curriculum vitae and three letters of reference must be received by November 15, 2005 to Chair, East Asian Literature and Culture Search Committee, c/o Yvonne Knight, 3072A FLB, 707 S. Mathews Ave., Urbana, IL 61801. Tel. (217) 244-8242. The UIUC is an AA/EOE. [R]

US Naval Acad

Lang Studies, 589 McNair Rd Annapolis MD 21402

Assistant Professor of Japanese 1207
<http://www.usna.edu>

The Language Studies Department of the United States Naval Academy invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position in Japanese language at the assistant professor level to begin August 2006. PhD or ABD with dissertation completed by June 2006, in the fields of Japanese language and linguistics. Native or near-native proficiency. The successful candidate must be strongly committed to teaching at the undergraduate level, and will be expected to teach all levels of Japanese language, culture, and communication. Candidates with successful full-time teaching experience at U.S. colleges and experience in administering a study abroad program are preferred. Research in an appropriate field and institutional service are expected. The Language Studies department at the Naval Academy offers six other languages: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Russian and Spanish, and employs fifteen full-time faculty members. U.S. Naval Academy civilian faculty members are federal government employees.

Candidates should send curriculum vitae and a concise description of teaching methodology and of research interests to: Japanese Search Committee, Language Studies Department, U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD 21402, and should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent to the same address.

Deadline for application is December 1, 2005.

The U.S. Naval Academy is committed to identifying minority persons and women with the appropriate qualifications and is an EO/AA employer. This agency provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. [R]

Wesleyan U

Asian Langs & Lits, 262 High St, Fisk Hall Middletown CT 06459

Japanese literature/culture and language 1260
<http://www.wesleyan.edu>

Wesleyan University invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track faculty position in Japanese language and modern/contemporary literature/culture beginning July 1, 2006. Ph.D. in hand or very near completion, ongoing scholarship in a relevant field, native or near-native fluency in Japanese and English, and a strong commitment to teaching undergraduates are all required. Responsibilities include teaching intermediate-level Japanese, and one literature/culture course each semester, for a total of four courses per year. The successful applicant is expected to participate in a flourishing East Asian Studies program. Please send letter of application, CV, three letters of recommendation, example of scholarship, and sample syllabi to Japanese Search Committee, Department of Asian Languages and Literatures, 301 Fisk Hall, Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT 06459. Applications must be received by November 15, 2005. Fax and email applications not accepted. Wesleyan University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

KOREAN

U of Virginia

Asian and Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures, PO Box 400781
Charlottesville VA 22904

Lecturer of Korean

1119

<http://www.virginia.edu/amelc/>

The Department of Asian and Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures at the University of Virginia invites applications for a full-time lecturer in Korean beginning Fall 2006. We seek candidates with an M.A. or higher in foreign language education, applied linguistics, pedagogy, Korean, Korean Studies or other related field, with evidence of high quality college-level teaching. Ph. D preferred. Native or near-native fluency in Korean (both written and spoken) and an excellent command of English are required. Send a letter of application, current vita, three letters of recommendation, a statement of teaching philosophy to: Chair, Korean Lecturer Search Committee, AMELC, B-27 Cabell Hall, P.O. Box 400781, UVA, Charlottesville, VA 22904-4781.

Preliminary screening will take place at MLA, Washington, DC, December 27-30.

An electronic application may be sent to the following address: koreansearch@virginia.edu.

Review of applications will begin November 30, 2005; however, the position will remain open until filled. [R]

PORTUGUESE

SEE ALSO ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Columbia U

Spanish and Portuguese, 612 W 116th St. New York NY 10027

Assistant Professor of Portuguese Studies

1583

<http://www.columbia.edu/cu/spanish/>

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Columbia University invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor of Luso/Brazilian Studies, to begin in fall of 2006. Ph.D. required and in hand by the time of appointment. The selectee will be expected to teach courses at the undergraduate and graduate level and contribute to teaching in the College's core curriculum. Candidates must have an excellent scholarly and teaching record, a wide-ranging critical background, and a willingness to contribute to a varied cultural studies curriculum. Please send dossier and writing sample by November 30, 2005 to Carlos J. Alonso, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Columbia University, 612 West 116th Street, New York, NY 10027. Columbia University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.

U of Missouri-Columbia

Rom Langs & Lits, 143 A&S Columbia MO 65211

Assistant Professor of Portuguese

1297

<http://www.missouri.edu/~romance/>

The Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Missouri-Columbia seeks an Assistant Professor of Portuguese to teach elementary, intermediate, and advanced language, as well as literature and civilization, beginning August 2006. Candidates must have Ph.D. in hand at the time of appointment and demonstrate native/near-native fluency in Portuguese.

Applicants must send, by November 30, 2005, a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation to Magdalena Garcia Pinto, Search Committee Chair, Romance Languages & Literatures, 143 Arts & Science Building, Columbia, MO 65211. Review of applications will begin in mid-November to select candidates for interviews at MLA. The University of Missouri, a Carnegie Doctoral/Research-Extensive Institution, is strongly committed to fostering cultural diversity and multi-cultural awareness among its faculty, students, and staff and is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Applications from members of under-represented groups are invited and encouraged. To request ADA accommodations, please contact our ADA Coordinator at (573) 884-7278 (V/TTY).

U of North Carolina at Charlotte

College of Arts and Sciences, 9201 University City Blvd Charlotte NC 28223

Assistant Professor of Portuguese

1067

<http://www.languages.uncc.edu/index.htm>

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte seeks a tenure-track assistant professor of Portuguese with research and teaching interests in Brazilian Studies, to begin August 2006. Required qualifications: Ph.D. in Portuguese or related field by the time of appointment; teaching experience in Portuguese language, and research focus on Brazil. Candidates should demonstrate a strong interest in participating in UNC Charlotte's undergraduate and projected master's level curriculum in Latin American Studies. The successful candidate will teach beginning and intermediate Portuguese as well as courses in the Latin American Studies program. Send c.v. and cover letter to Brazilian Studies Search Committee, Department of Languages and Culture Studies, UNC Charlotte, Charlotte, NC 28223. AA/EOE. Review of applications will begin on November 15, 2005 and will continue until the position is filled.

ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Baruch C, CUNY

English, 1 Bernard Baruch Way New York NY 10010

Assistant Professor/Spanish

1350

<http://www.baruch.cuny.edu/>

Department of Modern Languages and Comparative Literature
(Tenure-Track)

Baruch College/CUNY is seeking an assistant professor to teach Spanish, French and Comparative Literature. A Ph.D. is required. The successful candidate will have expertise in Contemporary Spanish Literature and be qualified to teach French and Comparative Literature as well. He/she is expected to maintain an active research program; must have excellent teaching skills. Salary is competitive. Please send curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and reprints/preprints by December 1, 2005 to Elena M. Martinez, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Comparative Literature, Baruch College/CUNY, One Bernard Baruch Way, Box B6-280, New York, NY 10010.

Baruch College is an AA/EO/IRCA/ADA employer, and encourages applications from minorities and women [R]

Caldwell C

For Langs, 9 Ryerson Ave Caldwell NJ 07006

Assistant Professor of French/Spanish or French/Italian

1445

<http://www.caldwell.edu>

Tenure track position, beginning September 2006, for a generalist who must be able to teach all levels of undergraduate French, especially literature, and lower levels of Spanish or Italian. Required: (1) Ph.D.; (2) successful teaching experience at the college level; (3) native or near-native fluency. Ability to integrate technology in the classroom, a plus. Expected to teach 4 courses per semester and to participate in academic mentoring as well as in college committee life.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled.

Candidates must support the Dominican, Catholic, liberal arts mission of the College. Situated on a 70-acre wooded campus just 20 miles from Manhattan, with a student/faculty ratio of 13 to 1, the college offers a rewarding experience for students and instructors alike.

Mail or fax letter of application, CV, transcripts, three letters of recommendation and a list of contact information for three professional references to: Caldwell College, Executive Director, HR, 9 Ryerson Avenue, Caldwell, NJ 0706, Fax: 973-618-3358

Caldwell College is an EOE [R]

Indiana U East

Humanities, 2325 Chester Blvd Richmond IN 47374

Assistant Professor/Lecturer-Spanish and French Languages

1253

<http://www.iue.edu/jobs>

The Humanities and Fine Arts Division of Indiana University East invites candidates to apply for a position in Spanish and French beginning August 15, 2006. The successful applicant will be able to teach beginning and intermediate courses in Spanish and French and also courses in Spanish and French culture. This position supports five degree programs and is an integral part of our Hispanic Studies Certificate. The successful applicant will be hired either as a tenure-track assistant professor or as a renewable lecturer.

Qualifications: Ph.D. required in Spanish or related field with a proven ability to teach French and a solid teaching record will be considered for tenure-track position. The teaching load for tenure-track is 3/4. Service and research required. ABD or MA degree in Spanish or related field with a proven ability to teach French and a solid teaching record will be considered for lecturer position. The teaching load for lecturer is 4/4 with service expected. Lecturers who acquire the PhD can be converted to tenure-track.

Indiana University East is a four-year, baccalaureate institution located in Richmond, Indiana, a small city with a population of 38,000, conveniently located a short distance from Indianapolis and Dayton and Cincinnati, Ohio. Indiana University East serves 2400 students from a nine county rural area.

All full time positions are eligible for the benefit plans of Indiana University. Visit <http://www.indiana.edu/~uhrs/benefits/neweeo.html> to learn more about our benefit programs.

Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the names and phone numbers of three professional references to: Human Resources, Indiana University East, 2325 Chester Blvd., Richmond, IN 47374, e-mail applications to ieuhr@indiana.edu with attachments in Microsoft Word format.

Review of applications will begin November 1 and continue until the position is filled.

Indiana University East is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institution www.iue.edu. [R]

Presbyterian C

Mod Langs, 503 S Broad St Clinton SC 29325

Visiting Professor or Instructor of French and Spanish

1578

<http://www.presby.edu>

Two-Year appointment Visiting Assistant Professor or Instructor of French and Spanish, beginning in August 2006. MA or Ph.D. Teach seven beginning and intermediate French and Spanish courses per academic year. Native or near native fluency in French, Spanish and English. For full consideration, completed application should be postmarked on or before December 1, 2005. MLA interviews. Minorities and women encouraged to apply. Presbyterian College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Please submit a cover letter, CV, transcripts, and three current letters of recommendation to: Dr. Chad Helms, Chair French and Spanish Search Committee, Presbyterian College, 503 South Broad St, Clinton, SC 29325.

SU of New York, C at Oneonta

For Langs & Lits, 300 Schumacher Hall Oneonta NY 13820

Assistant Professor of French with Italian

1409

<http://www.oneonta.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages at SUNY-Oneonta invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor with a start date of August 2006. This is a continuing position with an initial appointment of two years. The expectation includes instruction, research, student advisement, college service, and continuing professional development. Duties: Teaching language and literature at all levels. Qualifications Required: Ph.D. in French at time of appointment; ability to teach elementary and intermediate Italian; native or near-native fluency in English and French; excellent Italian; demonstrated classroom effectiveness; commitment to teaching and scholarly research. Preferred: Extended residence in a Francophone country and/or Italy. Review of applications begins immediately and continues until position is filled. To Apply: Send application letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, copies of graduate transcripts, and have three professional references send letters to: Dr. E. Small, Search Committee Chair, Box MLA #1038-H, Dept. Foreign Languages & Literatures, SUNY-Oneonta, Oneonta NY 13820-4015

SUNY Oneonta is an EEO/AA/ADA employer. Women, minorities, and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Sacred Heart U

Eng & Mod For Lang, 5151 Park Av Fairfield CT 06825

Asst Professor French and/or Italian/Tenure track

1624

<http://www.sacredheart.edu>

Sacred Heart University, a dynamic, independent, coeducational Institution of Catholic higher education that is committed to excellence in academics and to the Catholic and liberal arts tradition, seeks a to fill a position in French and/or Italian in an expanding department. Ph.D. in hand or very near completion. Ability to teach all levels of language, literature, and culture. Evidence of strong pedagogy. Specialty in Medieval/Renaissance preferred. Budget pending. Candidates should submit a letter of interest, a vita, a statement of teaching and research interests, graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Claire J. Paolini, Dean, College of Arts & Sciences, Sacred Heart University, Fairfield, CT 06825-1000 Deadline: Dec 15, 2005. We will interview at MLA.

Sacred Heart University is an EO/AEE. Minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

Salve Regina U

Mod & Classical Langs, 100 Ochre Point Av, O'Hare Acad Ctr Newport RI 02840

Assistant Professor-Modern Languages

1609

<http://www.salve.edu>

Modern Languages-With expertise in French/Italian. The candidate must be academically prepared to teach linguistics as well as elementary and intermediate level courses in the second language. Ph.D. required; proven teaching experience with a background in current methodology. This 10-month tenure-track position involves teaching, student advising and assisting with grants, committees and professional development.

The position will be available beginning September 1, 2006. Application materials must be received by December 31, 2005. For consideration, send your letter of intent indicating the position desired, along with your curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts and the names/numbers of 3 references to: Office of Vice President for Academic Affairs, Salve Regina University, 100 Ochre Point Avenue, Newport, RI 02840-4192. Additional information is available online at www.salve.edu. Salve Regina University offers generous benefits to eligible employees including: health and dental coverage, life insurance, long-term disability, 403B plan, tuition benefits and more.

Salve Regina University is an EO/AA Employer. Minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

U of Colorado

Spanish & Port, 278 UCB Boulder CO 80309

Assistant Professor of Spanish and Portuguese

866

<http://www.colorado.edu/spanish/>

PhD or ABD (PhD by August 2006) specializing in Luso-Brazilian and Spanish American Literatures. The successful candidate will be expected to teach four courses per academic year. Required: 1) native or near-native proficiency in Portuguese, Spanish and English; 2) excellence in both scholarship and teaching; 3) strong commitment to teaching upper-division classes in language and literature, and graduate seminars. Please send letter of application, CV, a writing sample and a minimum of three letters of recommendation to Prof. Ricardo Landeira, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 278 UCB, McKenna Languages Building, Room 126, Boulder, CO 80309-0278. To ensure full consideration, applicants are encouraged to have all materials on file by December 9, 2005. Position is open until filled. The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time the appointment is scheduled to begin. The University of Colorado at Boulder is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment. [R]

U of Richmond

Mod Lang & Lit, 28 Westhampton Way Richmond VA 23173

Assistant Professor of French and Italian

861

<http://www.mll.richmond.edu>

The Department of Modern Literatures and Cultures at the University of Richmond invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor of French and Italian, tenure-track, with a specialization in Early Modern literary and cultural studies (pre-1600). We are seeking candidates whose primary focus is in French, but who would be equally prepared and willing to contribute to a growing program in Italian language, literature, and culture. We are particularly interested in candidates whose research and teaching agendas include an interdisciplinary component, such as art and visual culture; commerce, exploration, and trade; colonialism; cartography; urbanization; the history of science; gender and sexuality. Experience in teaching Commercial French would be an asset. The successful candidate should have native or near-native fluency in French and Italian, outstanding scholarly promise, a strong commitment to teaching at all levels of the undergraduate liberal arts curriculum, and PhD in hand by Fall 2006. The University of Richmond is a highly selective private institution dedicated to excellence in both teaching and scholarship.

To be considered for MLA interviews, applicants should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, separate statements of (1) teaching philosophy and experience and (2) research interests and plans to: Julie Candler Hayes, Chair of the Early Modern Search Committee, Department of Modern Literatures and Cultures, University of Richmond, VA 23173. Applicants should also arrange for three letters of recommendation, including at least one that addresses teaching potential, to be sent directly to the same address. The review of applications begins November 15, 2005 and continues until the position is filled. The University of Richmond is committed to developing a diverse workforce and student body, and to modeling an inclusive campus community which values the expression of difference in ways that promote excellence in teaching, learning, personal development, and institutional success. Our academic community strongly encourages applications that are in keeping with this commitment. [R]

Yale U

Spanish & Port, PO Box 208204 New Haven CT 06520

Assistant Professor

1416

Fall 2006. Opening for an Assistant Professor in Brazilian/Spanish American literature and culture. Native or near-native fluency in Portuguese and Spanish. Ph.D. required. We seek a comparatist dedicated to teaching and research integrating Brazil and Latin American Studies. Secondary comparative interests in Luso-Hispanic and Luso-American areas welcome. Yale University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Yale values diversity among its faculty, students, and staff and especially encourages applications from women and underrepresented minority scholars. The Department will begin reviewing applications on November 10, 2005, and they should be sent to Rolena Adorno, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Yale University, P.O.Box 208204, Ne Haven, CT 06520. [R]

RUSSIAN AND SLAVIC

Duke U

Slavic Langs & Lit, PO Box 90259, 315 Langs Durham NC 27708

Full Professor of Slavic and/or Eurasian Studies

1153

<http://www.duke.edu/web/slavic>

Duke University, Department of Slavic and Eurasian Studies. Position for full professor rank with tenure and open area of specialization to begin in August 2006. The department seeks a specialist in Slavic and/or Eurasian studies with strong interests in one or more of the following: cognitive linguistics, contemporary society (including social science approaches), critical theory, cultural history, discourse analysis, film, gender, language and culture, literary history, literature, second language acquisition, and sociolinguistics.

Nominations and applications including letter, c.v. and writing sample received by November 1, 2005 will be guaranteed consideration. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Duke University is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer.

All nominations and applications should be sent to: Slavic and Eurasian Search Committee, Department of Slavic and Eurasian Studies, Duke University, Box 90259, 316 Languages Building, Durham, NC 27708

Kent SU

Mod & Classical Lang Studies, PO Box 5190 Kent OH 44242

Assistant Professor of Russian

1328

<http://www.kent.edu>

Assistant Professor of Russian. Full-time tenure track Assistant Professor of Russian to begin August 2006. Qualifications: PhD completed by date of hire. Ability to teach upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in Russian language, including courses in language for special purposes (Business), literature, and translation. Native or near-native proficiency in Russian and English. Research specialization open, but experience in the teaching and practice of translation is highly desirable. Interest in community outreach and growing the undergraduate program is also a plus. The successful candidate will work within a large, multi-language department with concentrations in literature/culture, pedagogy, and translation. Application deadline: December 1, 2005. Send letters of application, current vita, graduate transcripts, and three current and confidential letters of recommendation to Gregory Shreve, Chair, Department of Modern and Classical Language Studies, Kent State University, Kent, OH 44242. Kent State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Reed C

Russian, 3203 SE Woodstock Blvd Portland OR 97202

Assistant Professor of Russian

1053

<http://web.reed.edu>

Reed College invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor in Russian, tenure-track, beginning fall 2006. Seeking a Ph.D. in Slavic Languages and Literatures with a specialization in Russian and a research focus on Jewish Russian culture and literature; native or near native command of Russian and English; outstanding teaching credentials at the college-level; promise of scholarly excellence. We expect the Ph.D. to be in hand or near completion by the start of the appointment. The Assistant Professor level is preferred but applications from more advanced candidates may be considered. Teaching responsibilities will include courses in (a) the literature and cultural history of Russian Jews, (b) Russian literature and language; directing senior thesis research; possible participation in College Humanities courses. Reed College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Please send dossier including c.v., three letters of reference, and a representative writing sample (30 pages maximum) to: Prof. Evgenii Bershtein, Chair, Russian Search Committee, Reed College, 3203 S.E. Woodstock Blvd., Portland, OR 97202. Review of applications will begin on December 7 and interviews will be conducted at the AATSEEL Meeting in Washington, D.C. Deadline: December 7, 2005 or until position is filled. [R]

U of California, Berkeley

Slavic Langs & Lit, PO Box 2979, 6303 Dwinelle Hall Berkeley CA 94720

Assistant Professor of Slavic Languages and Literature 421
<http://ls.berkeley.edu/dept/slavic/index.html>

The Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position with a specialization in Russian literature. Preference will be given to those with teaching and research interests in 19th-century prose. Expertise in a second field desirable, such as another literature (Czech or English) or other media (art). To begin 1 July 2006, pending budgetary approval. Send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and a three letters of recommendation to: Professor David Frick, Russian Search: Attn. Debra Downey, Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720-2979. Applications should be postmarked by 23 November 2005. Interviews will be held at AATSEEL in Washington, D.C. (December 2005). The University of California is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer.

U of Kansas

Slavic Langs & Lits, 1445 Jayhawk Blvd, Rm 2133 Lawrence KS 66045

Assistant Professor of Slavic Languages & Literatures, specialist in West Slavic 1356
<http://www.ku.edu/~slavic>

Assistant Professor of Slavic Languages & Literatures, tenure track, specialist in West Slavic languages and literatures, to begin August 18, 2006. Duties include: teach Polish and, if possible, Czech language; teach undergraduate surveys of West Slavic and/or Slavic/Central European literature and culture in translation (with elements of film, text, or folklore); build the West Slavic program of the University (including study abroad initiatives, student recruitment and retention, extracurricular activities); engage in LCTL language-pedagogy initiatives and collaborate with other related programs in department and College; engage in a coherent research program related to the position; provide service to department, College, profession. Required qualifications: PhD in an appropriate field at time of appointment (e.g., Slavic, linguistics, comparative literature, or other related field); ability to teach Polish language; native or near-native ability in English and either Polish or Czech; strong commitment to language pedagogy; ability to teach surveys of West Slavic literatures and cultures. Preferred qualifications: Strongly preferred: ability to teach Czech. Familiarity with American university system. Demonstrate promise to contribute to climate of diversity in the College, including a diversity of scholarly approaches. Salary range: $45,000—50,000. Application materials include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, teaching evaluations, a short research sample, and three current letters of recommendation. Initial review of applications begins November 15, 2005 and continues until the position is filled. Interviews at AATSEEL. Send materials to: Marc L. Greenberg, Chair, Dept. of Slavic Languages & Literatures, University of Kansas, 1445 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 2134, Lawrence, KS 66045-7590; e-mail: mlg@ku.edu; phone: (785) 864-3313. EO/AA Employer. Paid for by KU. [R]

SPANISH

SEE ALSO ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Amherst C

Spanish, PO Box 5000 Amherst MA 01002

Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor 121
<http://www.amherst.edu/>
 Caribbean Literatures and Cultures

The Department of Spanish seeks a specialist in Caribbean literatures and cultures. The rank for this full-time professorial appointment is open, but preference will be given to candidates with demonstrated evidence of scholarship, and experience teaching Spanish language and literature to undergraduates. An appointment with tenure would be contingent upon tenure review. A junior appointment would be tenure-track. The ideal candidate would have a rich understanding of the pervasiveness and influence of Hispanic, African, and/or indigenous cultures in the Americas, encompassing colonialism, racial relations, censorship, criticism, and cultural politics. The Caribbean should be his or her primary focus. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish is a requirement. Candidates should have a strong commitment to undergraduate and interdisciplinary teaching in a liberal arts context and a well-articulated plan for sustained research. Consideration of applications will begin November 15, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Interviews may be held at the MLA Convention in Washington, so candidates should inform Professor Rosbottom if they will attend. This is not a requirement for candidacy. Please send credentials, with a cover letter that addresses research and teaching strategies, to Professor Ronald C. Rosbottom, Acting Chair, Spanish Department, AC# 2255, P.O. Box 5000, Amherst, MA 01002-5000. Please ask two colleagues to send a letter of recommendation, with special attention to this appointment, and include names of others we might contact. All applications will be acknowledged.

Amherst is a private undergraduate liberal arts college for men and women, with 1,600 students and 190 faculty members. Located in the Connecticut River Valley of western Massachusetts, Amherst participates with Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts in the Five-College Consortium.

Amherst College is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and encourages women, persons of color, and persons with disabilities to apply. The administration, faculty, and student body are committed to attracting qualified candidates from groups presently underrepresented on our campus. [R]

Amherst C

Spanish, PO Box 5000 Amherst MA 01002

Lecturer in Spanish 1152
<http://www.amherst.edu/~spanish/>

The Department of Spanish seeks a Lecturer to teach three language courses (beginning to advanced) a semester beginning in fall 2006. The Lecturer will also share responsibility for supervising the work of our Spanish Teaching Assistants. The appointment is for one year and is renewable, upon satisfactory reviews, for two more years. Candidates should have significant teaching experience at the college level and training in second-language acquisition, learning, and teaching, as well as its relevant technology. Ph.D. in hand at the time of employment preferred. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Interviews may be held at the MLA meeting in Washington, so please let Professor Rosbottom know if you plan to attend. Send application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation, specifically addressing our criteria, to Professor Ronald C. Rosbottom, Chair, Department of Spanish, AC# 2255, Amherst College, Amherst, MA 01002-5000. Email applications will not be accepted, but queries will be acknowledged.

Amherst is a private undergraduate liberal arts college for men and women, with 1,600 students and 190 faculty members. Located in the Connecticut River Valley of western Massachusetts, Amherst participates with Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts in the Five-College Consortium.

Amherst College is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and encourages women, persons of color, and persons with disabilities to apply. The administration, faculty, and student body are committed to attracting qualified candidates from groups presently underrepresented on our campus. [R]

Arkansas Tech U

Foreign Lang, 402 West O Street Russellville AR 72801

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1365

<http://lfa.atu.edu/foreign>

Spanish. Arkansas Tech University invites applications for two nine month tenure track Assistant Professors of Spanish beginning August 15, 2006. PhD in Spanish preferred, ABD required. Candidate for the first position should have specialization in Mexican and Latino studies, and candidate for second position should have specialization in Latin American studies. Candidates should have native or near native command of Spanish, and will teach introductory, upper level and graduate level Spanish courses. Arkansas Tech is a mid-sized regional university, emphasizing teaching and undergraduate education, with developing masters' programs in the liberal arts. Closing date is November 28, 2005, or until filled. Send letter of application, resume, copies of transcripts and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Ursula Chandler, Head, Department of Foreign Languages and International Studies, Dean 116, Arkansas Tech University, Russellville, AR, 72801. AA/EOE. [R]

Auburn U

For Langs & Lits, 6030 Haley Ctr Auburn University AL 36849

Assistant Professor of Spanish Linguistics

270

<http://www.auburn.edu>

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF SPANISH LINGUISTICS

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Auburn University invites applications for a tenure-track position, Assistant Professor in Spanish Linguistics, with demonstrated interest in second language acquisition, starting Fall Semester 2006. Women and Minorities are Encouraged to Apply.

The selected candidate's main duties will be to coordinate the Elementary Spanish Program and to train our graduate teaching assistants, and to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Spanish language and linguistics (normal load, 1 course per semester).

Required qualifications: ABD, PHD in Spanish Linguistics, with specialization in second language acquisition (candidate must have PHD by August 15, 2006); strong academic background; native or near-native fluency; evidence of successful teaching at the college level, preferably in the field of specialization; evidence of potential for successful research and scholarly/professional activities; interest in Business Spanish; willingness to participate in section and departmental activities, familiarity with current technologies in second language acquisition.

Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and sample teaching evaluations to: Z. David Zuwiyya, Chair of Search Committee, Spanish Linguistics Position, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, 6030 Haley Center, Auburn University, AL 36849-5204. Applications and supporting materials submitted by email will not be accepted.

The candidate selected for this position must meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time of appointment and must be able to communicate fluently in English and Spanish. For further information about Auburn University and our department visit www.auburn.edu.

Review of applications will begin November 28, 2005.

Auburn University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Auburn U

For Langs & Lits, 6030 Haley Ctr Auburn University AL 36849

Assistant Professor of Spanish

894

<http://www.auburn.edu/forlang>

Assistant Professor of Spanish Post Civil War Literature

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Auburn University invites applications for a tenure-track position, Assistant Professor in Post Civil War Spanish Peninsular literature starting Fall Semester 2006. Women and Minorities are Encouraged to Apply.

Teaching load is 3-2; assignments in undergraduate language courses, Spanish Peninsular literature and civilization, and graduate courses in the field of specialization.

Required qualifications: ABD, PHD in Spanish, with specialization in Post Civil War Spanish Peninsular Literature (candidate must have PHD in hand by August 15, 2006); strong academic background; native or near-native fluency; evidence of successful teaching at the college level, preferably in the field of specialization; evidence of potential for successful research and scholarly/professional activities; interest in Business Spanish; willingness to participate in section and departmental activities. Interest in AU Study Abroad programs is desirable.

Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and sample teaching evaluations to: Chair of Search Committee, Post Civil War Spanish Peninsular Position, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, 6030 Haley Center, Auburn University, AL 36849-5204. Applications and supporting materials submitted by email will not be accepted.

The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time of appointment and must be able to communicate fluently in English and Spanish. For further information about Auburn University and our department visit www.auburn.edu.

Review of Applications will begin November 28, 2005

Auburn University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Auburn U

For Langs & Lits, 6030 Haley Ctr Auburn University AL 36849

Assistant Professor of Colonial Spanish American Literature

271

<http://www.auburn.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Auburn University invites applications for a tenure-track position, Assistant Professor in Colonial Spanish-American Literature starting Fall Semester 2006. Women and Minorities are Encouraged to Apply.

Teaching load is 3-2; assignments in undergraduate language courses, Spanish American literature and civilization, and graduate courses in the field of specialization.

Required qualifications: ABD, PHD in Spanish, with specialization in Colonial Spanish-American Literature (candidate must have PHD in hand by August 15, 2006); strong academic background; native or near-native fluency; evidence of successful teaching at the college level, preferably in the field of specialization; evidence of potential for successful research and scholarly/professional activities; interest in Business Spanish; willingness to participate in section and departmental activities. Interest in AU Study Abroad programs is desirable.

Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and sample teaching evaluations to: Z. David Zuwiyya, Chair of Search Committee, Colonial Spanish-American Literature Position, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, 6030 Haley Center, Auburn University, AL 36849-5204. Applications and supporting materials submitted by email will not be accepted.

The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time of appointment and must be able to communicate fluently in English and Spanish. For further information about Auburn University and our department visit www.auburn.edu.

Review of applications will begin November 28, 2005

Auburn University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Augsburg C

Mod Langs, 2211 Riverside Av Minneapolis MN 55454

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1534

<http://www.augsburg.edu>

Augsburg College, a private college affiliated with the ELCA, offers a liberal arts education grounded in Christian values, a diverse campus community, and an exciting metropolitan setting in the Twin Cities in Minnesota. The Department of Modern Languages seeks candidates for a tenure track, full-time position teaching Spanish to begin September 1, 2006.

Responsibilities include teaching six undergraduate Spanish courses per year at all levels, and may include courses in the Weekend College program. Candidates should be able to provide evidence of teaching excellence at the college level in beginning, intermediate and advanced levels of Spanish. Qualifications: Ph.D. in Spanish preferred, ABD considered with a specialization in Latin American literature and culture or second language acquisition, with native or near-native fluency.

Send letter of application, CV, and names of three professional references by November 11, 2005 to Augsburg College, 2211 Riverside Ave., Box 136, Minneapolis, MN 55454, attn: Judi Green, Office of the Provost. For additional information about this position and the College visit <http://www.augsburg.edu> EOE [R]

Beloit C

Mod Langs & Lit, 700 College St Beloit WI 53511

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1235

<http://www.beloit.edu/%7Emll/>

Tenure-track position in Spanish at the Assistant Professor level starting August 2006. Ph.D. in hand preferred but applicants in late stages of completing the dissertation considered. Teaching experience strongly preferred. We seek a generalist in Hispanic literature willing to commit to teaching pre-19th-Century Hispanic literature. Experience teaching Spanish in applied contexts is a plus. Teaching responsibilities include all levels of Spanish language, as well as courses on Golden Age and Spanish-American Colonial literature. The successful candidate will also contribute to all-college programs (e.g., first-year seminars, interdisciplinary studies, writing program, and international education). The teaching load is three courses per semester. Native or near-native proficiency in both English and Spanish is required. Qualified candidates should send a letter describing teaching and research interests, CV, and three letters of reference, at least one of which addresses the candidate's performance as a teacher in the classroom, to Professor Oswaldo Voysest, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, Beloit College, Beloit, WI 53511. Interview will be conducted at the December 2005 MLA convention. Application deadline: November 15, 2005. Beloit College is committed to the educational benefits of diversity and urges all interested individuals to apply. AA/EEO Employer. [R]

Boise SU

Mod Langs & Lits, 1910 University Dr Boise ID 83725

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1179

<http://modlang.boisestate.edu/index.htm>

Tenure-track. Latin American generalist. 3-3 teaching load. Evidence of teaching excellence, commitment to research and publication, and dedication to program building. Native or near-native fluency. Ph.D. in hand by August 1, 2006. Research area open. Teaching responsibilities include: Latin American literature, cinema and culture, Advanced Spanish Conversation and Composition, Introduction to Literature, Senior Seminar. Expertise in new technologies and proficiency-oriented methodology. Send letter of application, CV, copies of transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Teresa Boucher, Chair, Dept. of Modern Languages & Literatures, Boise State University, 1910 University Dr., Boise, ID 83725-1530. To guarantee consideration, the application must be postmarked by November 1, 2005.

Boise State University is strongly committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The University actively encourages applications and nominations of women, persons of color, and members of other underrepresented groups. EOE/AA Institution. Veterans' preference may be applicable. [R]

C of the Atlantic

Humanities, 105 Eden St Bar Harbor ME 04609

Faculty Member in Foreign Languages: Spanish and Second Language Acquisition

1308

<http://www.coa.edu>

College of the Atlantic seeks a full-time faculty member in Spanish and Foreign Languages to begin in August 2006. The successful candidate must have experience teaching Spanish, and they will be primarily responsible for teaching Spanish language at the intermediate and advanced levels to help students deepen their mastery of the language. A second important responsibility will be developing a model for second and third language acquisition appropriate to student interests and research projects. Given the student-driven and individually-designed nature of the College's curriculum, this component will require the language faculty member to provide leadership in the design of a flexible but focused support system for multiple language learning. The model developed might include student to student tutoring, self-instruction, immersion models, or other appropriate pedagogies. The ability to support student interests in less commonly taught languages is central. This position involves teaching five classes a year (or the equivalent in tutorials) advising students, and directing final projects and independent studies.

Two to three classes a year will be Spanish courses, and the balance of teaching responsibilities will be met by developing and implementing a model for second and third language acquisition. Preference will be given to candidates with knowledge of languages relevant to the College's international studies curriculum. Candidates should be willing to participate in and/or directly support the College's ongoing programs in Mexico and Guatemala. Additional responsibilities include: collaborating with a visiting Spanish professor associated with the College's Yucatan Winter Term Program; developing a vision for a new language training facility, and developing student-to-student language tutoring sessions using students proficient in languages other than English. This position requires: evidence of excellent language teaching skills and fluency in Spanish and another language. A Ph.D. in foreign languages or a closely related field is strongly preferred. College of the Atlantic (COA) is a small, accredited, private college offering the B.A. and M.Phil. in Human Ecology. Faculty organization is non-departmental, and the College has a system of democratic self-governance. The College's innovative curriculum includes: self-directed, interdisciplinary study; team teaching; involvement of undergraduates in research; and a commitment to prepare students to address social, political and environmental problems. A new faculty initiative at the College seeks to engage students in teaching and learning about global citizenship, advocacy, service, and activism. Applicants are encouraged to learn more about COA by visiting our web page at www.coa.edu.

Send a cover letter, a statement of teaching philosophy, C.V., a proposal for a course on second or third language acquisition, and three letters of reference to: Language Search Committee, Attn: Barbara Carter, College of the Atlantic, 105 Eden St., Bar Harbor, ME 04609. Review of applications will begin in late November and continue until the position is filled. Applicants should indicate whether they will be available for interviews at the MLA meetings in Washington, D. C.

College of the Atlantic is committed to academic excellence, cultural diversity, and multicultural education. COA is an AA/EEO employer. Applications are especially encouraged from persons who would enhance the ethnic, gender, and cultural diversity of the College. [R]

California SU, Monterey Bay

College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, 100 Campus Ctr, Bldg. 46/114 Seaside CA 93955

Assistant professor of Spanish linguistics/Spanish literature & culture 1386

Required: A Ph.D. in Spanish linguistics with background in Peninsular literature and culture; ACTFL Superior fluency in Spanish and fluent in English; Sensitivity to the educational goals of a diverse and multicultural population; ability to teach a broad range of courses in Spanish language and culture courses; demonstrated excellence in teaching undergraduates; scholarly achievement or promise; Experience with information technology and technology-mediated instruction important.

Primary responsibilities: 24 units of instruction annually; advise SWLC students; participate in SWLC governance, curricular and programmatic development; help implement the University Vision and address needs of a diverse student population. Participation in College and University-wide governance, and scholarly/professional activities essential for RTP.

SALARY: Commensurate with background and experience. Includes attractive employee benefits package and access to on-campus housing.

For further information and on-line application please visit <http://uhr.csumb.edu/jobs/db/fac/>. [R]

California S Polytechnic U, Pomona

English & Foreign Languages, 3801 W Temple Ave Pomona CA 91768

Assistant Professor, Hispanic Literature

753

<http://www.csupomona.edu/~academic/faculty/positions/index.h>

The Department of English and Foreign Languages invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Hispanic Literature (specialty open) effective September 2006. Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in an appropriate discipline by July 1, 2006; native-speaker fluency in Spanish; evidence of effective teaching; experience and willingness to teach Spanish language, composition, civilization and literature courses; willingness to participate in development of a Spanish Teaching Credential program; evidence of scholarly potential; demonstrated ability to respond to the educational equity goals of the University and its increasing ethnic diversity and international character. Date of Appointment: The University seeks to fill this position by Fall 2006. The university is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. For expanded position description and application, call (909) 869-3940, e-mail mpaguiar@csupomona.edu, or visit the Website at <http://www.csupomona.edu/~academic/faculty/positions/index.htm>

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply, including minorities and women. The University is an AA/EOE. [R]

California SU, Sacramento

For Langs, 6000 J St Sacramento CA 95819

Assistant Professor of Spanish Linguistics

744

<http://www.csus.edu/fl>

Assistant Professor of Spanish, tenure-track, with proven specialization in Applied Linguistics/Second Language Acquisition. Ph.D. requirements must be completed by August 1, 2006. Interested candidates must have solid teaching experience in Spanish, preferably at all levels. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate courses in Spanish language, Phonetics, and Advanced Grammar, as well as graduate seminars in Applied Linguistics and a related field. Salary range: $45,000 to $52,000. The regular teaching assignment is 12 units per semester. The ideal candidate would be interested in participating in our summer MA program in Spain and Latin America. Formal review of applications begins on November 1, 2005 and continues until the position is filled. Please send cover letter, CV, all graduate transcripts, and letters of recommendation (including telephone numbers of at least three references who can address the professional qualifications of the applicant) to Prof. Marjorie Gelus, Chair. Sacramento State is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. [R]

California SU, Los Angeles

Mod Langs & Lits, 5151 State University Dr Los Angeles CA 90032

Assistant or Associate Professor of Spanish

565

<http://www.calstatela.edu/academic/ml>

Three tenure-track positions, beginning September 2006. Ph.D. or ABD in Spanish or related fields (such as Romance languages and literatures) from an accredited institution of higher education. Doctorate is required for tenure and for appointment at Associate level. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and strong communication skills in English. Experience or training in proficiency-oriented teaching methods as well as willingness to teach lower-division language courses and upper-division writing courses. Potential for or record of research, scholarly and/or creative activity involving students whenever possible. Demonstrated potential for effective teaching or teaching experience using a variety of methodologies. Substantial record of effective teaching, research, and publication required for appointment at Associate Professor rank. Demonstrated ability and/or interest in working in a multiethnic, multicultural environment.

Position 1: Specialization in Golden Age literature with competence in Medieval literature. Ability and willingness to teach survey courses in Peninsular civilization and literature, literary analysis, and/or literary theory, as well as General Education classes.

Position 2: Specialization in contemporary Mexican literature; competence in Caribbean and/or Central American literature as a secondary field desirable. Ability and willingness to teach survey courses in Spanish American literature, literary analysis, and/or literary theory, as well as General Education classes.

Position 3: Specialization in contemporary Spanish American novel and/or short story; competence in Spanish American poetry, theater, or essay desirable. Ability and willingness to teach Spanish-American literature survey courses, culture and civilization, literary analysis, and/or literary theory, as well as General Education classes.

For all three positions, ability and desire to direct plays in Spanish/English in cooperation with other departments is desired.

Initial salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Employment contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States and completion of the University's Application for Employment form. Address a letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, and official transcripts (required for each position) and/or request for information to: Dr. Sachiko Matsunaga, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, California State University, Los Angeles, 5151 State University Drive, Los Angeles, California 90032-8112. Review of applications will begin on November 20, 2005. The position may be closed when an adequate number of qualified applications are received. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Title IX employer. [R]

California SU, Fresno

Mod & Classical Langs & Lits, 2320 E San Ramon Av, M/S 96 Fresno CA 93740

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1184

<http://www.csufresno.edu/aps>

Assistant Professor of Spanish Linguistics. Preference will be given to those candidates with a Ph.D. in hand by appointment date. Required: 1) Ph.D. in Spanish Linguistics with a background in Teacher Preparation, Pedagogy and Methodology; 2) Native or near native proficiency in Spanish and English; 3) Experience in proficiency-based instruction; 4) Proven excellence in lower-division language teaching and ability to teach upper-division classes in language (composition and grammar), as well as graduate courses in field of expertise; 5) proven ability or demonstrated potential to pursue relevant research; 6) ability to interact and work positively with others. Highly desirable: 1) experience in the design of modern language curriculum, assessment, and computer-based instruction; 2) ability to teach translation courses; 3) experience in distance learning.

The University especially seeks individuals who will contribute to both their chosen disciplines and to the University's significant commitments to teacher preparation and linguistics education. Candidate should submit a vita, placement file, references and student evaluations to Dr. Saúl JimTnez-Sandoval, Chair. Department of Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures, California State University, Fresno, 2320 E. San Ramon Ave., M/S EE96, Fresno, CA 93740-8030. To ensure full consideration, file completed application by 28 November 2005. AA/EOE.

California SU, San Bernardino

World Languages and Literatures, 5500 University Pky San Bernardino
CA 92407

Assistant Professors of Spanish

1398

http://academic-affairs.csusb.edu/personnel/positn_2006_2007.htm

Ph.D. Spanish Generalist with interest in 2 or more of the following: Linguistics, Peninsular or Latin American Literature, Language Acquisition, Pedagogy, Trans-Atlantic or Hispanic Studies. The department is looking for energetic, enterprising candidates who will contribute to the growth of the department while teaching Spanish at all levels, including MA courses. Native or near native proficiency in Spanish is required. Experience in student-centered teaching and the ability to relate well to a diverse, multi-ethnic student body is essential. Preference will be given to candidates with an interest in student recruitment and a record of successful professional development. [R]

Carnegie Mellon U

Mod Langs, Baker Hall 160 Pittsburgh PA 15213

Lecturer in Hispanic Studies

1093

The Department of Modern Languages invites applications for a possible position in the Teaching track, a three-year renewable position as Lecturer in Hispanic Studies beginning in August 2006. Preference will be given to candidates who have native speaker level proficiency in Spanish, expertise in communicatively-oriented instruction, a doctorate in an appropriate area of Hispanic studies and teaching experience. Multimedia experience is also desirable. Salary is commensurate with qualifications. The Teaching track at Carnegie Mellon is a professional track with provision for retention and promotion to Associate Teaching Professor and Teaching Professor based upon pedagogical excellence, curricular leadership and contributions to the profession.

Applicants should send a letter of application (indicating, among other things, whether they plan to attend the ACTFL meeting in Baltimore, or the MLA meeting in Washington), resume, statements of teaching, research and curricular interests, and three (3) letters of recommendation (which may be included with the packet or sent directly by referees). Representative publications may also be included.

The materials should be sent to: Chair, Hispanic Studies Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages, Baker Hall 160, Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890; and should arrive not later than October 28, 2005. Carnegie Mellon University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. The funding for this position is dependent upon final administrative approval.

Centre C

For Langs, 600 W Walnut Danville KY 40422

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1212

<http://www.centre.edu>

Tenure-track opening in Spanish beginning August 2006. The successful candidate will be someone committed to excellent liberal arts teaching and dedicated to teaching a range of undergraduate Spanish courses—from beginning to advanced courses in language, literature, and culture. Applicants must have a Ph.D. with a speciality in contemporary Latin American literature and culture. Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish. We are especially interested in those who wish to direct the Centre study abroad program in Mexico and/or teach an interdisciplinary freshman humanities course. Centre College, a nationally ranked liberal arts institution, is an Equal Opportunity Employer determined to hire a diverse faculty of teacher/scholars. Interviews at MLA. Send letter of application, vita, and three letters of recommendation to Dean John Ward, Centre College, 600 W. Walnut St., Danville, KY 40422. Review of applications begins November 15, 2005. [R]

Christian Brothers U

Lit & Lang, 650 E Parkway S Memphis TN 38104

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1226

<http://cbu.edu/>

The Department of Literature and Languages at Christian Brothers University is seeking to fill a tenure track position in Spanish for the academic year 2005–2006. The Department is particularly interested in someone who can teach Spanish Courses, both conversation and literature at all levels. The successful applicant should have a Ph.D. in Spanish, and she/he should also have some teaching experience. The course load is 12 hours per semester.

Christian Brothers is a Catholic institution of higher education in the tradition of the Christian Brothers. It is a private, comprehensive university, which emphasizes excellence in teaching and attention to the whole person in a values-oriented, interfaith educational community. An E0/AA University. Website: <http://www.cbu.edu/>

Send letter of application, CV, and letters of reference to: Languages search Committee, c/o Human Resources Office, Christian Brothers University, 650 East Parkway South, Memphis, TN 38104. Deadline for application, November 15, 2005. [R]

Christopher Newport U

Mod & Classical Langs & Lit, 1 University Place Newport News VA 23606

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1070

<http://www.cnu.edu>

Christopher Newport University seeks applications for tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of Spanish. Successful candidate must hold Ph.D. in Spanish by 8/1/06. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish required. Primary area of specialization is Latin American literature and culture before the 20th century and in a genre other than theater. Successful candidate must also be prepared to teach variety of language courses at upper and lower levels and contribute to CNU's first-year seminars and liberal learning core. Preference given to candidates who also have training in pedagogy, methodology, and second-language acquisition and who would be prepared to teach a foreign language methods course at undergraduate and graduate levels. Willingness to teach departmental courses offered in English dealing with foreign literature and culture will be considered a strong asset. Applications enhanced by a demonstrated commitment to undergraduate education and an interest in scholarship and publication. CNU, a selective, public, liberal arts and sciences university of approximately 4,800 students, is located in Newport News on the Virginia Peninsula between Williamsburg and Virginia Beach. A commitment to liberal learning and excellence in undergraduate teaching and learning is a hallmark of the University. For further information on CNU, please visit our web site at www.cnu.edu. To apply, send letter of application, current resume, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, statement on teaching philosophy, and letters of support from three people familiar with your teaching to: Director of EO and Faculty Recruitment, Spanish Faculty Search #8325, Christopher Newport University, 1 University Place, Newport News, VA 23606. Review of applications begins 11/15/05. Applications received after 11/15/05, will be accepted but considered only if needed. Representatives from CNU will be available at MLA Convention in Washington D.C. However, attendance at MLA Convention is not required for consideration as a candidate for this position. CNU, an EOE, is fully committed to Access and Opportunity. [R]

Christopher Newport U

Mod & Classical Langs & Lit, 1 University Place Newport News VA 23606

Assistant Professor of Spanish (Latin American Cultural Studies)

1186

<http://www.cnu.edu>

Christopher Newport University seeks applications for tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of Spanish (Latin American Cultural Studies). Successful candidate must hold Ph.D. in Spanish by 8/1/06. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish required. Primary area of specialization is Latin American Cultural Studies, but successful candidate must also be prepared to teach variety of Spanish language courses at upper and lower levels, as well as contribute courses to CNU's first-year seminars and liberal learning core. Preference will be given to candidates who also have an interest in creating a variety of upper-level topics courses such as U.S.-Latino Studies, Pop Culture, Gender Studies, and socio-political issues. The willingness to teach departmental courses offered in English on cross-cultural awareness will be considered a strong asset. Applications enhanced by a demonstrated commitment to undergraduate education and an interest in scholarship and publication. CNU, a selective, public, liberal arts and sciences university of approximately 4,800 students, is located in Newport News on the Virginia Peninsula between Williamsburg and Virginia Beach. A commitment to liberal learning and excellence in undergraduate teaching and learning is a hallmark of the University. For further information on CNU, please visit our web site at www.cnu.edu. To apply, send letter of application, current resume, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, statement on teaching philosophy, and letters of support from three people familiar with your teaching to: Director of EO and Faculty Recruitment, Spanish (Latin American Cultural Studies) Faculty Search #8327, Christopher Newport University, 1 University Place, Newport News, VA 23606. Review of applications begins 11/15/05. Applications received after 11/15/05, will be accepted but considered only if needed. Representatives from CNU will be available at MLA Convention in Washington D.C. However, attendance at MLA Convention is not required for consideration as a candidate for this position. CNU, an EOE, is fully committed to Access and Opportunity. [R]

Coe C

For Langs, First Av NE Cedar Rapids IA 52402

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1594

<http://www.coe.edu>

Coe College, a selective Midwestern liberal arts college with approximately 1300 students, seeks a tenure-track Assistant Professor of Spanish, with special emphasis in Iberian culture. Teaching responsibilities will include Spanish language (all levels) and peninsular literature and culture as well as occasional contributions to the General Education Program, Gender Studies Program, or an interdisciplinary field of the candidate's interest. PhD, native or near-native proficiency, and demonstrated success in the classroom required. Submit vita, graduate transcripts, three letters of reference, and a brief statement of teaching philosophy and research interests to Dr. Marc Roy, Dean of the Faculty, Spanish Search, Coe College, 1220 First Ave NE, Cedar Rapids, IA 52402. To ensure full consideration, application materials must be received by December 2, 2005. Coe College is an EO/AA employer. Coe College is committed to increasing the diversity of the campus community and especially encourages applications that will fulfill that mission. [R]

Colby C

Spanish, 4677 Mayflower Hill Waterville ME 04901

Assistant Professor or Instructor of Spanish

1045

<http://www.colby.edu>

Assistant Professor or Instructor of Spanish, non-tenure-track three-year position, renewable for a second three-year term, starting September 1, 2006. Ph.D. or advanced ABD in Spanish (literature or linguistics). Applicants must have native or near-native command of Spanish and extensive experience and demonstrated excellence in language teaching. Principal responsibilities include teaching 5 language courses per academic year. Send letter of application, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, and dossier (including three letters of recommendation) to: Professor Jorge Olivares, Chair, Department of Spanish, Colby College, Waterville, ME 04901. Review of applications will begin 28 November 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Interviews of selected candidates will be held at the MLA meeting. Colby is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, committed to excellence through diversity, and strongly encourages applications and nominations of persons of color, women, and members of other under-represented groups. For more information about the College, please visit the Colby Web site: <http://www.colby.edu>. [R]

Columbia U

Spanish and Portuguese, 612 W 116th St. New York NY 10027

Tenured Professor of Spanish Studies

1581

<http://http://www.columbia.edu/cu/spanish/>

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Columbia University invites applications for a tenured position in twentieth-century Peninsular studies at the Associate or Full Professor level, to begin in fall of 2006. Ph.D. required. The selectee will be expected to teach courses at the undergraduate and graduate level and contribute to teaching in the College's core curriculum. Candidates must have an outstanding scholarly and teaching record that reflects a strong commitment to cultural studies, critical theory, and eagerness to contribute to graduate and undergraduate education. Please send curriculum vitae by November 30, 2005 to Carlos J. Alonso, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Columbia University, 612 West 116th Street, New York, NY 10027. Columbia University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.

Columbia U

Spanish and Portuguese, 612 W 116th St. New York NY 10027

Tenured Professor of Early Modern/Colonial Studies

1582

<http://http://www.columbia.edu/cu/spanish/>

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Columbia University invites applications for a tenured position in Early Modern Spanish and/or Colonial Studies at the Associate or Full Professor level, to begin in fall of 2006. Ph.D. required. The selectee will be expected to teach courses at the undergraduate and graduate level and contribute to teaching in the College's core curriculum. Candidates must have an outstanding scholarly and teaching record that reflects the field's contemporary critical developments (including a transatlantic perspective), and a desire to work closely with graduate and undergraduate students. Please send curriculum vitae by November 30, 2005 to Carlos J. Alonso, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Columbia University, 612 West 116th Street, New York, NY 10027. Columbia University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.

Columbus SU

Lang & Lit, 4225 University Av Columbus GA 31907

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1420

<http://www.colstate.edu>

An earned doctorate in Spanish is required, with a specialty in Peninsular literature and culture. Highly desirable: a record of successful teaching experience with communicative based approaches; having worked or studied in a Spanish speaking country; experience with computer-assisted instruction. In addition, the successful candidate must be able to work effectively as a team member within the Department of Language and Literature, be committed to teaching Spanish at all levels (1000 to 4000 level courses), and be prepared to assist with the coordination of all lower division Spanish courses and study abroad. Although teaching and mentoring are the primary responsibilities of the position, professional service and scholarly activity are also expected of tenure-track faculty.

Columbus State University is accepting applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Spanish with specialization in Peninsular Studies is required as well as native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English. CSU has recently established a program in Spanish with teacher certification and is seeking to expand this program and its offerings.

To guarantee consideration, application materials must be postmarked by December 15, 2005. As part of its educational mission, CSU strongly encourages applications from women and minorities. A complete application includes: a letter of application addressing the candidate's qualifications, teaching philosophy, and scholarship activity; a current curriculum vitae; three letters of reference; official graduate transcripts.

Send all materials to: Alyce Cook, Chair of the Search Committee, Department of Language and Literature, Columbus State University, 4225 University Avenue, Columbus, GA 31907. [R]

Columbus SU

Lang & Lit, 4225 University Av Columbus GA 31907

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1421

<http://www.colstate.edu>

An earned doctorate in Spanish is required, with a specialty area in linguistics. Highly desirable: a record of successful teaching experience with communicative based approaches; having worked or studied in a Spanish speaking country; experience with computer-assisted instruction. In addition, the successful candidate must be able to work effectively as a team member within the Department of Language and Literature, be committed to teaching Spanish at all levels (1000 to 4000 level courses), and be prepared to assist with the coordination of all lower division Spanish courses and study abroad. Although teaching and mentoring are the primary responsibilities of the position, professional service and scholarly activity are also expected of tenure-track faculty.

Columbus State University is accepting applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Spanish with specialization in Peninsular Studies is required as well as native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English. CSU has recently established a program in Spanish with teacher certification and is seeking to expand this program and its offerings.

To guarantee consideration, application materials must be postmarked by December 15, 2005. As part of its educational mission, CSU strongly encourages applications from women and minorities. A complete application includes: a letter of application addressing the candidate's qualifications, teaching philosophy, and scholarship activity; a current curriculum vitae; three letters of reference; official graduate transcripts.

Send all materials to: Alyce Cook, Chair of the Search Committee, Department of Language and Literature, Columbus State University, 4225 University Avenue, Columbus, GA 31907. [R]

Dickinson C

Span & Port, PO Box 1773, College & Louthers Sts Carlisle PA 17013

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1311

<http://www.dickinson.edu/departments/span>

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Dickinson College, a highly selective liberal arts institution that prizes a multidisciplinary and global perspective, invites applications for a full time assistant professor. TENURE TRACK. We seek a Latin Americanist, preferably one whose primary area of specialization is Caribbean Studies. Additional areas of interest that would complement our program include Film Studies and/or contemporary Latin American poetry. Native or near native fluency in Spanish and English. Ph.D. expected by time of appointment. A letter of application, CV, and three letters of reference, along with scholarly agenda and evidence of excellence in teaching, should be sent to Prof. Mark Aldrich, Chair, Dept. of Spanish and Portuguese, Dickinson College, P.O. Box 1773, Carlisle, PA 17013-2896. All materials must be postmarked no later than November 10th. Dickinson College is an affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Drury U

Langs, 900 N Benton Av Springfield MO 65802

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1142

<http://www.drury.edu>

Drury University invites applications for two full-time tenure-track positions in Spanish at the rank of Assistant Professor.

Position #1

Assistant Professor of Spanish with a specialization in Peninsular language, literature or culture.

Teaching responsibilities will include all levels of Spanish language, culture and literature. In addition the position will require active teaching participation in the Global Perspectives interdisciplinary curriculum, including a general education Freshman seminar.

Preference will be given to candidates whose teaching and/or research focuses on Peninsular language, literature or culture. Minimum qualifications at time of application include Ph.D. or ABD in Spanish and commitment to teaching at the undergraduate level.

Applicants should have Ph.D. in hand by start of appointment.

Please submit cover letter, CV and three letters of reference to: Languages Department Search #1, Dr. Elizabeth G. Nichols, Chair, Search Committee, Drury University, 900 N. Benton Ave., Springfield, MO 65802 by Nov. 1, 2005. EOE/AA [R]

Drury U

Langs, 900 N Benton Av Springfield MO 65802

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1144

<http://www.drury.edu>

Drury University

Assistant Professor of Spanish (2)

Drury University invites applications for two full-time tenure-track positions in Spanish at the rank of Assistant Professor.

Position #2

Assistant Professor of Spanish, specialization open.

Teaching responsibilities will include all levels of Spanish language, culture and literature. In addition the position will require active teaching participation in the Global Perspectives interdisciplinary curriculum, including a general education Freshman seminar.

Specialization is open, applications encouraged from any area of Hispanic language, literature or culture, second language acquisition or linguistics. Minimum qualifications at time of application include Ph.D. or ABD in Spanish and commitment to teaching at the undergraduate level.

Applicants should have Ph.D. in hand by start of appointment.

Please submit cover letter, CV and three letters of reference to: Languages Department Search #2, Dr. Elizabeth G. Nichols, Chair, Search Committee, Drury University, 900 N. Benton Ave., Springfield, MO 65802 by Nov. 1, 2005. EOE/AA [R]

Duke U

Rom Studies, Box 90257 Durham NC 27708

Open-rank, Latin American Studies

1157

Tenured Associate or Full Professor in Latin American Studies (Advanced Assistant Professors with a strong publication record will be considered). We seek a distinguished scholar with special interest in one or more of the following fields: Transcultural Studies; Afro-Andean, Latino/a, and extended Caribbean literature and culture (including music, film, and video). Transformative approaches to the humanities are highly desirable. Ability to Teach in Spanish and/or Portuguese. Appointment to begin Fall 2006. Applications received by November 15, 2005 will be guaranteed consideration. Send application materials, including CV and statement of research plans and the names of three potential references to: Chair, Latin American Studies Search Committee, Department of Romance Studies, 205 Language Bldg., Duke University, Box 90257, Durham, NC 27708-0257. Duke University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. [R]

Eastern Connecticut SU

Mod & Classical Langs, 223 Webb Hall Willimantic CT 06226

Assistant Professor—Modern Languages

689

<http://www.easternct.edu>

Tenure-track position.

Qualifications: Generalist with Ph.D. in Spanish Literature or Spanish Linguistics. ABD near completion considered.

Native or near-native fluency in Spanish; able to teach Spanish at all undergraduate levels; ability to teach introductory French highly desirable.

Send cover letter and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Kin Chan, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Modern and Classical Language Studies, 223 Webb Hall, Eastern Connecticut State University, Willimantic, CT 06226 [R]

Eckerd C

Comp Cultures, PO Box 12560 St Petersburg FL 33711

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1188

<http://www.eckerd.edu/>

Assistant Professor of Spanish, tenure-track position, to start in September, 2006. Ph.D. required. Liberal Arts College experience a plus. Area of specialization: Latin American Literature. Teach seven courses per academic year, including beginning & intermediate language. Willingness to take students abroad for intensive language/culture immersion program during Winter Term (January). Candidates must be eligible to work in the U.S. at time of application.

Participation in an interdisciplinary, values-oriented general education program is required, including a regular rotation in the two-semester freshman program Eckerd College, the only national liberal arts college in Florida, has a tradition of innovative education and teaching/mentoring excellence. Send cover letter, vita, sample teaching evaluations, statement of teaching philosophy, graduate transcripts, and three current letters of recommendation by Dec. 1 to Prof. Thomas J. DiSalvo, Eckerd College, 4200 54th Avenue South, St. Petersburg, FL 33711. No electronic submissions, please. [R]

Emporia SU

Mod Langs & Lits, 1200 Commercial St Emporia KS 66801

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1554

<http://www.emporia.edu>

Spanish/Latin American studies: Full-time tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of Spanish to begin fall 2006. Generalist with principal interest in Latin American culture and literature. Near-native fluency in Spanish and Ph.D. expected by start date for tenure-track appointment. Will teach undergraduate courses in Spanish at all levels, as well as Latin American literature and culture. Interest and experience in study abroad programs desirable. Salary is competitive, dependent upon credentials and experience. Screening of applications begins December 1, 2005, and continues until position is filled. Initial interviews at MLA desired. Please send letter of application, c.v., and full placement file including unofficial transcripts and three letters of reference to Dr. William H. Clamurro, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages & Literatures, Emporia State University, 1200 Commercial, Campus Box 4024, Emporia, KS 66801-5087; e-mail: clamurw@emporia.edu; phone: 620-341-5424. An AA/EOE institution, Emporia State University encourages minorities and women to apply. Paid for by ESU. [R]

Fairfield U

Mod Langs & Lits, 1073 N Benson Rd Fairfield CT 06824

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1601

<http://www.fairfield.edu>

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at Fairfield University invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track faculty position as Assistant Professor of Spanish. Requirements include: an earned Ph.D.; a Generalist in Peninsular Literature and Civilization; college-level experience and publications in the field required; evidence of excellence in teaching intermediate-level Spanish; ability to teach Spanish language at all levels. Desirable: Familiarity with ACTFL guidelines, experience in teaching language methodology, using technology in the curriculum, and native/native-like command of English and Spanish for translation course. Candidates with an interest in interdisciplinary teaching and research are especially encouraged to apply. Job requirements also include advising and mentoring students and participating in departmental and University committees. Commitment to teaching excellence, responsiveness to student needs, and effective communication skills are expected.

Fairfield University is a comprehensive Jesuit, Catholic university with an active and pluralistic faculty located in southern Connecticut, approximately 50 miles from New York City and 30 minutes from New Haven.

Please submit cover letter with teaching philosophy and information that addresses the above requirements and preferences, CV, transcript of graduate courses with conferral of degree, referee e-mail and telephone contact information, three recent letters of recommendation, and two peer teaching evaluations to: Dr. Joel Goldfield, Chair, Dept. of Modern Languages and Literatures, Spanish Search Committee, Fairfield University, 1073 N. Benson Rd., Fairfield, CT 06824-5195. Review of applications begins on Nov. 14th and will continue until the position is filled. MLA interviews.

Fairfield University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities and persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. [R]

Florida Intl U

Mod Langs, DM 499 University Park Miami FL 33199

Assistant Professor of Modern Spanish Literature

1572

<http://www.fiu.edu>

Florida International University announces a tenure-track Assistant Professor position with a specialization in modern Spanish Peninsular literature, beginning in Fall 2006. The successful candidate will teach primarily upper division undergraduate Spanish language and literature, as well as graduate literature courses in our Master's and doctoral programs.

A Ph.D. in Spanish is required. We seek candidates with a strong commitment to teaching and research. Publication record and ability to teach modern Spanish poetry, is a plus. Please send a letter, dossier, and writing sample to Ricardo Castells, Search and Screen Committee, Department of Modern Languages, Florida International University, Miami, Florida 33199.

The writing sample can be either a published article or a thesis chapter. Postmark deadline is November 15, 2005. Interviews of selected candidates will be held at the MLA convention in Washington, D.C. Florida International University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Francis Marion U

English, Mod Langs & Philosophy, PO Box 100547 Florence SC 29501

Assistant Professor of Spanish-06-19

1242

<http://www.fmarion.edu/about/hr>

Assistant Professor of Spanish. Tenure-Track. Position No. 06-19. Ph.D. in Spanish with area of concentration open and native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English. Seeking a generalist to teach all levels of Spanish language, culture, and literature. The ability to teach lower division French is highly desirable. Departmental responsibilities include: willingness to participate in language lab, language clubs, curriculum development, etc.

Materials Needed: Letter of interest (referencing position #06-19), curriculum vitae, and FMU Faculty Application. (Official transcripts will be required of the successful candidate.)

Send Application Packet to: Dr. Christopher Johnson, Chair, Department of English, Modern Languages, and Philosophy, Francis Marion University, PO Box 100547, Florence, SC 29501-0547.

Minorities and women are strongly encouraged to apply. Position to begin August 2006. Screening of applicants will begin November 1, 2005 and will continue until position is filled. Interviews at MLA.

Please visit the Human Resources webpage at www.fmarion.edu/about/hr. Faculty applications can be obtained from this site.

An Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institution

Fresno Pacific U

School of Humanities, Religion & Social Sciences, 1717 S Chestnut Ave
Fresno CA 93702

Faculty in Spanish/Latin American Literature & Culture 1283
<http://www.fresno.edu/dept/personnel>

Fresno Pacific University, a fully accredited private Christian university in California's Central Valley, seeks to fill a full-time position in Spanish/Latin American Literature & Culture. FPU is known for its academic excellence and strong sense of community, and serves a diverse population of religious, ethnic and national traditions. See the FPU website at www.fresno.edu/dept/personnel for the Announcement of Vacancy and a downloadable application. [R]

George Washington U

Rom Langs & Lit, 801 22nd St NW, T513 Academic Ctr Washington DC 20052

Associate Professor in Spanish and Deputy Director of the Language Center 1392
<http://www.gwu.edu/~rl>

The Department of Romance, German and Slavic Languages and Literatures of George Washington University invites applications for a 5 year renewable contract position as Associate Professor in Spanish and Deputy Director of the Language Center to begin Fall 2006.

Qualifications: Ph.D., evidence of scholarly achievement, excellence and experience in teaching all levels of language, coordination and supervision of courses, curriculum development, as well as knowledge of a variety of teaching methodologies, language learning technology, and expertise in testing. Candidates should have native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English.

Duties spanning the Spanish program and the Language Center include teaching, development of materials and assessment tools, coordination and supervision, teacher training, and administration.

Review of applications will begin on November 21, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Letters of application, together with C.V., recent teaching evaluations, sample publications, and at least three letters of reference should be sent to: Associate Professor Margaret Gonglewski, Chair of Search Committee, Department of Romance, German and Slavic Languages and Literatures, Phillips Hall 513, George Washington University, 801 22nd Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20052, e-mail: margaret@gwu.edu

The George Washington University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and Minorities are encouraged to apply.

Georgetown U

Spanish & Port, PO Box 571039 Washington DC 20057

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1259
<http://www.georgetown.edu/departments/spanport/>

Primary area of specialization: Modern Latin America, to join the faculty of the Literature and Cultural Studies program. The program includes Comparative Literature (Spanish, and Luso/Brazilian), Ethnography, Film, Latin American Literature (Modern and Colonial), and Peninsular Literature (Medieval, Early Modern, Nineteen and Contemporary). Applicants should possess native or near-native proficiency in Spanish, strong command of English, proven excellence in teaching, active research agenda, strong commitment to both undergraduate and graduate education, and interdisciplinary interests. Send letter of application, full CV, sample of recent scholarship, and at least three letters of reference to Dr. Alfonso Morales-Front, Chair, Department of Spanish & Portuguese, Box 571039, Georgetown University, Washington DC, 20057. Deadline for receipt of all application materials: November 17. Interviews at MLA 2005. Georgetown is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. [R]

Georgia SU

Modern & Classical Languages, P.O. Box 3970 Atlanta GA 30302

Assistant Professor in Foreign Language Education/Spanish 1305
<http://www.gsu.edu>

Anticipated tenure-track position for candidate of outstanding potential as teacher and scholar. Specialization: foreign language education/pedagogy and/or second language acquisition, ability to supervise field experience courses and evaluate teacher candidate portfolios and work samples, competence in using technology to enhance foreign language learning, experience in teaching and/or supervising at the P-12 level, current certification to teach Spanish preferred; familiarity with national standards and teacher candidate assessment. Ph.D. in Foreign Language Education or related field with a B.A. or equivalent in Spanish or near native ability in Spanish. Ph.D. in hand by August 1, 2006. Send letter of application and dossier, including three recent letters of reference and related portfolio to: Chair, Search Committee at above address, postmarked by October 25. GSU is an AA/EO employer. [R]

Georgia Southern U

For Langs, PO Box 8081 Statesboro GA 30460

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1026
<http://www.georgiasouthern.edu>

Spanish. Tenure track at rank of assistant professor. Ph.D. required at time of application. Salary dependent upon qualifications. Specialization in medieval Spanish Peninsular literature and/or Spanish linguistics. Expertise in both areas is required. Duties will include teaching elementary and intermediate Spanish language courses and upper and graduate level courses in linguistics and medieval peninsular literature and civilization. A potential for scholarship is required. Expertise in one or more of the following areas is preferred: applications of technology in language instruction, including computer assisted learning and Internet applications; Spanish translation and interpretation for the professions. Preference may also be given to candidates having expertise teaching a highly diverse student body. Send letter of application addressing job qualifications, a curriculum vitae, and names of three references with complete addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses to Professor Michael J. McGrath, Search Chair, Search Committee #51175, Department of Foreign Languages, Georgia Southern University, P.O. Box 8081, Statesboro, GA 30460-8081. The names of applicants and nominees, curriculum vitae, and other general non-evaluative information may be subject to public inspection under the Georgia Open Records Act. Georgia Southern is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity institution. Persons who need reasonable accommodations in the search process under the ADA should notify the search chair. [R]

Gettysburg C

Spanish, Gettysburg PA 17325

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1278
<http://www.gettysburg.edu>

Assistant Professor of Spanish beginning August 2006. Tenure Track. Area of specialization: Spanish linguistics. Must teach all levels of language, culture and linguistics. Will have the opportunity to shape new linguistics program. Native or near-native fluency required. Dedication to and excellence in teaching at the undergraduate level essential, as is an interesting and productive research program. Experience with language technology a plus. Ph.D. preferred, ABD considered. Recommendations must be sent by the recommender or by placement center. Electronic applications are discouraged. Gettysburg College is a highly selective liberal arts college located within 90 minutes of the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area. Established in 1832, the College has a rich history and is situated on a 220-acre campus with an enrollment of 2500 students. Gettysburg College celebrates diversity and especially invites applications from members of any group that has been historically underrepresented in the American academy. The College assures equal employment opportunity and prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, and disability. Send letter of application and c.v., and have complete dossier sent to Nancy Cushing-Daniels, Chair of the Spanish Department by November 1, 2005 [R]

Grand Valley SU

Mod Langs & Lits, 1 Campus Dr Allendale MI 49401

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1565

<http://www.gvsu.edu>

Spanish for the Professions/Translation Studies or Chicana/Chicano Literature.

Tenure-track Assistant Professor of Spanish, beginning Fall 2006. Preference given to candidates with expertise in teaching Spanish for the Professions (business, legal, health), OR to those who specialize in Chicana/Chicano literature. Interest in translation studies and OPI certification a plus. Successful candidates will teach language courses and our third year Conversation and Composition sequence, as well as develop courses in the areas of interest. Commitment to excellence and to a balance among undergraduate teaching, scholarship, and service. Native or near-native proficiency required. Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment. Salary is competitive and dependent on qualifications and experience. Good benefits package. Some research assistance available, as well as travel funds to deliver professional papers. The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures offers undergraduate majors in French, German, Russian Studies (minor in Russian language), and Spanish, and programs in other languages. Thirty-nine full-time faculty plus some part-time. See GVSU's web site at <http://www.gvsu.edu>. Send letter of application, current C.V., graduate transcripts and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Anne Caillaud, Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, Grand Valley State University, Allendale, MI 49401. Faxes may be sent to Prof. Caillaud at (616) 895-3025. Deadline for filing applications Friday, December 9, 2005. Grand Valley State University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution. [R]

Guilford C

For Langs, 5800 W Friendly Av Greensboro NC 27410

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1106

<http://www.guilford.edu>

Guilford College seeks applications for a tenure-track position in Spanish for a Latin American specialist with particular expertise in the area of Mexican, Caribbean and/or Central American Studies and knowledge and experience with the most recent and effective methods of teaching a second language. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in applied linguistics and language methodology, as well as genuine enthusiasm and proven excellence in teaching undergraduates. The position entails teaching Spanish language, culture and literature at all levels, occasional linguistics and language methods courses for K-12 licensure in foreign languages, some interdisciplinary courses in English for the general curriculum, and contributing to an adult education evening program. Native or near-native Spanish and Ph.D. required. Licensure preferred. Guilford College is a selective coeducational liberal arts college founded in 1837 by the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) with about 1350 traditional and Early College students and about 1300 students enrolled in Continuing Education. Guilford College seeks applications representative of diversity based on age, race, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities, ethnicity, religion, national origin, career and life experiences, socio-economic background, geographic roots, as well as members of the Society of Friends. EOE/AA. Send cover letter, curriculum vitae, dossier, most recent official transcript, and a statement of educational philosophy to Sylvia Trelles, Chair of Spanish Search Committee, c/o Fred Devine, Director of Human Resources, Guilford College, 5800 W. Friendly Ave., Greensboro, NC 27410. For more information about the college see our Website at www.guilford.edu. Deadline for complete applications: Nov. 15. We will interview at MLA [R]

Hamilton C

Spanish, 198 College Hill Rd Clinton NY 13323

Tenure-track Open-rank Position in Spanish Golden Age

1418

Hamilton College invites applications for a tenure-track position in Hispanic Studies to begin July 1, 2006. This is an open rank search; while an entry-level appointment is likely, appointment at higher rank is possible and senior scholars are encouraged to apply. We seek a Golden Age Peninsular generalist. We would be especially interested in candidates with literary, cultural and/or feminist perspectives, and/or a strong interest in Hispanic film. Interdisciplinary approaches encouraged. Participation in Hamilton's academic Program in Spain is expected. Candidates must show evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching, must have a lively interest in teaching literary and/or culture studies and language to undergraduate students, and must demonstrate a vigorous commitment to scholarship. Additionally, candidates should be committed to providing college and departmental service at various levels. Native to near-native proficiency in Spanish and English is required. Teaching load is five courses per year. Hamilton College provides excellent research support to faculty, including generous travel and start-up funding. Hamilton provides domestic partner benefits. Candidates should send letter of application, CV, publication samples, sample teaching evaluations (if available), and three letters of recommendation to Santiago Tejerina-Canal, Chair, Department of Hispanic Studies, Hamilton College, 198 College Hill Road, Clinton, NY 13323. Consideration of applications will begin in early December and continue until the position is filled. Hamilton College is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer and is committed to diversity in all areas of the College community. Applications from women and underrepresented groups are encouraged. [R]

Hampden-Sydney C

Mod Langs, College Rd Hampden-Sydney VA 23943

Assistant Professor of Spanish

362

<http://www.hsc.edu/academics/modlangs/>

Latin American literature or linguistics. Candidates must be dedicated to undergraduate teaching and be willing to teach all levels of language. The College will conduct preliminary interviews at the MLA meeting in December. Preference will be given to those holding a Ph.D. Hampden-Sydney College is a four-year traditional liberal arts college for men located in a picturesque setting 60 miles southwest of Richmond, VA. Please send letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference. Review of applications will begin November 15, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Contact Prof. Jana DeJong, Chair, Dept. of Modern Languages. Telephone (434) 223-6211; FAX (434) 223-6347; e-mail jdejong@hsc.edu; www.hsc.edu/academics/modlangs/

AA/EOE [R]

Hanover C

Langs, PO Box 890 Hanover IN 47243

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1531

<http://www.hanover.edu>

Tenure-track position for Spanish-Americanist (Andean or XIX Century areas preferred) to teach all levels of language, culture, literature. Begins Aug. 2006. Ph. D. and native or near native fluency and strong commitment to innovative teaching in a liberal arts undergraduate environment required. Participation in interdisciplinary courses expected. Competence in CAI or language lab technologies desirable. Willingness to participate in departmental activities for students and lead study abroad courses as needed are essential. Salary, faculty development support, benefits and teaching load are very competitive. Send letter of application, evidence of excellence in teaching, 3 letters of reference, CV and transcripts by December 10, 2005 to Dr. Eduardo Santa Cruz, Chair, Spanish Search Committee, c/o Christine Wilcox, Hanover College, P.O. Box 108, Hanover, IN 47243-0180. Review of applications begins immediately. Indicate availability to interview at the MLA Conference. EOE. Minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

High Point U

Modern Foreign Languages, Montlieu Avenue High Point NC 27262

Assistant Professor of Spanish

320

<http://www.highpoint.edu>

Spanish. Tenure track position in Spanish beginning August, 2006. Ph.D. required. Peninsular generalist. Ability to teach all levels of Spanish language and courses required for Spanish major. Strong commitment to teaching in a private liberal arts institution. Send resume, transcripts, and three letters of reference to: Dr. Carole Head, Chair, MFL Department, High Point University, University Station-Montlieu Avenue, High Point, NC 27262. Deadline: November 25, 2005. Review will begin upon receipt of materials. EOE [R]

Indiana U-Purdue U Indianapolis

World Langs & Cultures, 425 N University Blvd, CA 501H Indianapolis IN 46202

Assistant Professor of Spanish

900

<http://www.iupui.edu>

Tenure-track appointment at rank of Assistant Professor of Spanish in Department of World Languages & Cultures at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). We seek a candidate interested in civic engagement and community service-learning, who possesses an expertise in Latino/a cultural and/or literary studies. Specialty in Caribbean or Mexican culture and/or literature will also be considered. Interest in mentoring and recruiting Latino/a students, and working in a culturally diverse urban environment is expected. Applicants should be committed to developing partnerships between university and Latino community with assistance of campus offices. Minimum qualifications: Ph.D. in Spanish or equivalent in hand by start of appointment, August 2006; native or near-native proficiency in Spanish; and promise of outstanding research, teaching, and service accomplishment. For full consideration and possible interview at MLA, send cover letter, complete dossier, and supporting materials by Dec. 2, 2005 to Prof. Enrica Ardemagni, Dept. of WLAC, IUPUI, 425 University Blvd., Indianapolis, IN 46202. IUPUI is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer and eagerly welcomes applications from women and minorities. [R]

James Madison U

For Langs & Lit, Keezell 301, MSC 1802 Harrisonburg VA 22807

Assistant Professor Of Spanish

1382

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at James Madison University announces a tenure-track position in Spanish. Native or near native fluency in both English and Spanish. Primary responsibilities will include teaching upper-level courses in grammar, conversation, and Applied Linguistics. Willingness to teach literature will be an advantage.

Salary is competitive. Ph.D. in hand by August 2006.

For application information, please visit <http://joblink.jmu.edu>, posting number 0400356.

Review of applications will begin November 15, 2005.

James Madison University is an equal opportunity/Affirmative Action/equal access employer and especially encourages applications from minorities, women, and persons with disabilities.

Kent SU

Mod & Classical Lang Studies, PO Box 5190 Kent OH 44242

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1331

<http://www.kent.edu>

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor of Spanish: Ph.D. in Spanish required by August 2006, with specialization in Latin American culture and literature, Portuguese highly desirable, to teach all levels of undergraduate language, upper-division and graduate courses (through the M.A.) in culture, civilization and literature, and to coordinate the Latin American Studies program. Interest in working with a large, multi-language department with concentrations in literature-culture, pedagogy, and translation. Application deadline: December 1, 2005, or until filled. Position is available pending final budget approval. Send letters of application, current vita, graduate transcripts, and three current and confidential letters of recommendation to Gregory Shreve, Chair, Department of Modern and Classical Language Studies, Kent State University, Kent, OH 44242. Kent State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Kenyon C

Mod Lang & Lit, Ascension Hall Gambier OH 43022

Assistant Professor of Spanish

898

<http://www.kenyon.edu>

Kenyon College seeks to fill a tenure-track position in Spanish, beginning in the fall of 2006. Ph.D. in hand by August, 2006. Specialization in pre-Twentieth Century Peninsular literature. The successful candidate will have native or near-native command of Spanish and English, scholarly potential, and demonstrated teaching excellence in both language (at all levels) and literature. Course load is 3/2. Kenyon College offers competitive salaries and an excellent benefits package, including spouse and domestic partner benefits. Please send cover letter, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, transcript, and three letters of recommendation to Prof. Linda Metzler, Chair, Spanish Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, Kenyon College, Gambier, OH 43022. Review of applications will begin December 1 and continue until the position is filled. Interviews will be conducted at the MLA convention in Washington, D.C. An EOE, Kenyon College welcomes diversity and encourages the applications of women and minority candidates. [R]

Louisiana SU & A&M C

For Langs & Lit, 222 Prescott Baton Rouge LA 70803

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1360

Assistant Professor (Spanish/Tenure-track). Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in Spanish or related field; strong commitment to research and undergraduate teaching; knowledge of applied linguistics; experience in teacher preparation; native or near-native fluency in Spanish. A.B.D. candidates may apply, but title and salary will depend on Ph.D. status at time of appointment. Responsibilities: researches in the field; prepares secondary Spanish teachers; collaborates with the College of Education and local schools in the certification process; teaches courses related to the preparation of teachers including Spanish phonetics, advanced Spanish grammar and composition and Spanish for Special Purposes. Anticipated hire date is August 2006. Application deadline is November 30, 2005 or until candidate is selected. An offer of employment is contingent on a satisfactory pre-employment background check. Submit letter of application, vita (including e-mail address), and three letters of recommendation to: Emily Batinski, Chair, Foreign Languages and Literatures; 316 Hodges Hall; Louisiana State University; Ref: #030339 Baton Rouge, LA 70803; e-mail: slbati@lsu.edu

LSU IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/EQUAL ACCESS EMPLOYER

Loyola U Chicago

Mod Langs & Lits, 6525 N Sheridan DH 302 Chicago IL 60626

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1203

<http://www.luc.edu/modernlang/>

The Department of Modern Languages & Literatures of Loyola University Chicago invites applications for a tenure track position at the Assistant Professor level in Spanish to begin in Fall 2006. Fields of specialization include 19th century Spanish and Latin American literature and culture, and all levels of language. Sub-specializations may include Latino/a studies, computer and web-based course enhancement, and literature in translation. Ph.D. required by start of 2006-2007 academic year. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English, evidence of effective teaching, commitment to undergraduate education, and an active scholarly agenda.

Publications, a summary letter describing the candidate's qualifications, a CV, three current letters of recommendation, and dossier should be directed to Dr. Susana Cavallo, Chair, Dept. of Modern Languages & Literatures, Loyola University Chicago, 6525 N. Sheridan Rd., Chicago, IL, 60626. Loyola University Chicago is an AA/EEO employer. Women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and veterans are strongly encouraged to apply. [R]

Luther C

Mod Langs & Lit, Decorah IA 52101

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1060

<http://www.luther.edu>

Two tenure-eligible positions in Spanish at the level of Assistant Professor to begin August 2006. Required: Ph.D.; specialization in Latin American or U.S. Latino literatures or cultural studies; teaching experience; superior level of proficiency in Spanish and English; ability to teach courses in language, literature and culture at all levels; proficiency in current language-teaching methodology and technology; strong commitment to teaching in a liberal arts setting. Desirable: expertise in film studies, linguistics, service learning or language training for medical/business professionals. Full-time teaching duties: 3 courses each fall, 3 courses each spring, and 2 out of every 3 January-Term courses. Annual teaching responsibilities include courses in language, literature and culture. Rotating study-abroad courses in January-Term. Salary commensurate with academic qualifications and professional experience. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, 3 recent letters of recommendation, and official undergraduate and graduate transcripts by November 15, 2005 to Chair, Spanish Search Committee, Dept. of Modern Languages and Literatures, Luther College, 700 College Dr., Decorah, IA 52101. An EEO employer; persons of diverse ethnic backgrounds and women are encouraged to apply.

Lynchburg C

Mod Langs & Lit, 1501 Lakeside Dr Lynchburg VA 24501

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1587

<http://www.lyncburg.edu>

Assistant Professor of Spanish, tenure track, beginning August: AY 2006. Candidates must have special interest and experience in teaching elementary, intermediate and composition courses in Spanish. Ability to teach French language courses with 18 hours graduate work in French is desirable. 4/3 teaching load. Ph.D. preferred: ABD with 2006 completion date is acceptable. Near native fluency in Spanish is required. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, vita, evidence of teaching effectiveness and three letters of reference to be received by November 20, 2005 to be considered for interviews at MLA in Washington, D.C to: Dr. Bruce H. Mayer, Program Coordinator, Modern Languages and Literature. LC values diversity and is committed to providing equal career opportunities to all: EOE.

Marist C

Lib Arts, 3399 North Rd Poughkeepsie NY 12601

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1637

<http://www.marist.edu>

The School of Liberal Arts and the Department of Modern Languages and Cultures at Marist College seeks applications for a full-time tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor of Spanish to begin in fall 2006. Candidates must have a Ph.D., native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English, and a strong commitment to teaching and research at the undergraduate level. We seek a generalist; however, peninsularists with an expertise in the Golden Age and Latin American scholars will be given strong consideration. Undergraduate teaching experience and demonstrated knowledge of instructional technology are desirable. Teaching responsibilities include four courses per semester.

Marist College is a nationally recognized, comprehensive, independent, liberal arts institution, committed to teaching excellence. It is located in Poughkeepsie, New York on the banks of the Hudson River, 75 miles north of New York City.

The College enrolls 4,300 full-time undergraduate, 530 part-time undergraduate, and 850 graduate students.

Marist College is strongly dedicated to the principle of diversity. We are especially interested in receiving applications from members of ethnic minorities, women, disabled individuals and other under-represented groups.

To apply, please send a cover letter, curriculum vita, a one page statement of teaching philosophy and goals, and the names and contact numbers (e-mail and phone) of three references. Formal review of applications will begin on November 15, with interviews at the MLA Convention in Washington D. C. Please send application materials via e-mail to: human.resources@marist.edu.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER [R]

Marquette U

For Langs & Lit, PO Box 1881 Milwaukee WI 53201

Assistant Professor of Spanish

711

<http://www.marquette.edu/foia>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Marquette University invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor generalist position in Spanish beginning August 2006. Candidates must have Ph.D. in hand by 8/15/06. Areas of Specialization or teaching experience that will be considered: Early Spanish literature, Early Colonial Latin American literature, Spanish for the professions (medical, business or translation), or Spanish for heritage speakers. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. The teaching load is 3/3 per semester primarily consisting of higher levels of language and composition, introduction to literary analysis, culture and civilization, and survey courses with the opportunity to teach upper division and graduate courses in area of specialization on a rotation basis. Solid scholarship in area of specialization, excellence in teaching, and service to the Department and University are expected. Send letter of application, CV, transcripts of graduate work, statements of teaching and research philosophies, and three recent letters of recommendation postmarked by 11/18/2005 to Dr. Belén S. Castañeda, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Marquette University, P.O. Box 1881, Milwaukee, WI 53201-1881. Indicate if available for an MLA interview. Marquette is an EEO/AA. [R]

Maryville C

Hum Div, 502 E Lamar Alexander Pwy Maryville TN 37804

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1402

<http://www.maryvillecollege.edu>

Tenure track, full-time appointment, fall 2006. Ph.D. in Spanish required; significant college teaching experience preferred. Candidates will be broadly trained, able to lead a developing program in Spanish, have an understanding of and commitment to strong teaching in the liberal arts tradition. Applicants should be prepared to teach all levels of Spanish: language courses, introductory Spanish Literature, survey courses of Contemporary Latin American Literature, Peninsular Spanish Literature from the Middle Ages through the Golden Age, Peninsular Spanish Literature of the 19th and 20th centuries, and will teach in the College's nationally-recognized general education (core) curriculum. Founded in 1819, Maryville College is one of the oldest baccalaureate-granting institutions of higher learning in the South. Consistently ranked in the top tier of Southern colleges in national magazines, the College is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, USA and appears on the John Templeton Foundation's guide to [R]

Maryville C

Hum Div, 502 E Lamar Alexander Pwy Maryville TN 37804

Instructor of Spanish

1403

<http://www.maryvillecollege.edu>

Non tenure-track, full-time position in Spanish, fall 2006. M.A. in Spanish required and significant college teaching experience preferred. Candidates will be well versed in foreign language acquisition, have a proven ability to teach and motivate students at the elementary and intermediate levels, may have experience supervising an inter-active conversational laboratory program for first-year students and/or coordinating a first-year program, and will teach in the College's nationally-recognized general education (core) curriculum. An understanding of and commitment to strong teaching in the liberal arts tradition required. Founded in 1819, Maryville College, one of the oldest baccalaureate-granting institutions of higher learning in the South, is consistently ranked in the top tier of Southern colleges in national magazines, is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, USA, and appears on the John Templeton Foundation's guide to [R]

Mercer U

Foreign Languages & Literatures, 1400 Coleman Avenue Macon GA 31207

Assistant Professor, Spanish (Applied Linguistics) 1393

<http://www.mercer.edu>

Seeking tenure-track position with specialization in Applied Linguistics starting Fall 2006, pending final budgetary approval. Position will teach all levels of language, culture, literature, and First Year Seminar. Candidates must demonstrate superior proficiency in Spanish and excellence in teaching in order to facilitate maximum student proficiency and to communicate and promote Hispanic literary and cultural heritage. The successful candidate should demonstrate expertise in current instructional pedagogy and technology and should be able to teach Spanish for professional purposes, as well as, First Year Seminar, an interdisciplinary course taught in English that teaches the skills of analysis, interpretation, discussion and writing. PhD preferred; ABD considered, from an accredited college/university. Interested candidates should submit an online application at www.mercerjobs.com. Deadline for applications is December 10, 2005. AA/EOE/ADA

Mesa SC

Langs, Lit & Communications, 1100 North Av Grand Junction CO 81501

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1427

<http://www.mesastate.edu>

Full-time, tenure-track position, beginning August, 2006. Responsibilities: Teaching assignment includes beginning through advanced college-level courses (four 3-credit hour courses per semester). Specialization: Applied Linguistics/Education. Education & Experience: Required: 1) Ph.D. in Spanish by August 2006. 2) Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English. 3) Secondary areas: Professional Spanish and Culture Studies. 4) Extracurricular leadership. Strengths and experience: Teaching Spanish as a second language for secondary-school teachers. Salary commensurate with qualifications. Review of completed applications will begin November 21, 2005. Position will remain open until filled. Submit a letter of application and dossier, including curriculum vitae, three recent letters of recommendation, college transcripts and representative (published or unpublished) scholarly work to: Chair of Search Committee, Department of Languages, Literature, and Communications, Mesa State College, 1100 North Avenue, Grand Junction, CO 81501-3122. Phone: 970 248-1687; Fax: 970 248-1199

AA/EOE.

Messiah C

Mod Langs, Box 3037 Grantham PA 17027

Assistant Professor Spanish Language and Literature 1138

<http://www.messiah.edu>

The Department of Modern Languages at Messiah College invites applications for a term-tenure-track assistant professorship in Spanish Language and Literature beginning August 2006. Generalist sought with Ph.D. and native or near-native fluency in Spanish required. Teaching responsibilities include literary and cultural theory, and all levels of Spanish language. Familiarity with technology-based instruction and ability to teach in cross-disciplinary contexts are highly desirable. Evidence of strong commitment to teaching undergraduates in the liberal arts tradition and to scholarly research is expected. To apply, please send two sets each of the following: cover letter explaining your teaching and research interests, detailed curriculum vitae, transcripts, a brief description of courses prepared to teach, and three letters of recommendation to the address below. Review of applications begins November 15, 2005. Dr. John Beaney, Chair, Department of Modern Languages, Box 3037, Messiah College, Grantham, PA 17027 jbeaney@messiah.edu

Messiah College is located in a suburb of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The college is committed to an embracing evangelical spirit rooted in the Anabaptist, Pietist, and Wesleyan traditions of the Christian church.

Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply.

Messiah College is a Christian college of the liberal and applied arts and sciences and does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, ethnic/national origin, disability, race or gender in its education programs, admissions or employment policies.

Metropolitan SC of Denver

Mod Langs, PO Box 173362 Denver CO 80217

Spanish Tenure Track 1370

Please go to <http://www.msdc.edu/news/jobs.htm> for information on the following position and application instructions.

#104 F135

303-556-2908

doerrrr@msdc.edu or garcirod@msdc.edu

Metropolitan State College of Denver is an equal opportunity employer and encourages women and minorities to apply.

Miami U

Spanish & Port, 500 E High St, 268 Irvin Hall Oxford OH 45056

Assistant/Associate Professor of Spanish 742

<http://www.muohio.edu/spanport>

Assistant/Associate Professor of Applied Spanish Linguistics with a specialization in Second Language Acquisition, native-or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. We seek an individual actively involved in research and publication with the vision and energy to maintain excellence in the basic language sequence in Spanish and to participate in a proposed minor in Spanish Linguistics as part of the Department's newly revised curriculum. Duties include: coordination of basic level sequence (100-and 200); teaching language, composition and linguistics at both the BA and MA levels; maintaining an active research agenda; and contributing productively to the Department, College, and University. Requirements: For appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor, Ph. D. in hand by August, 2006, and evidence of successful college-level teaching; for appointment at the rank of Associate Professor, Ph. D., appropriate documented experience, a substantive research record and evidence of successful coordination.

Please submit letter, cv and dossier to Dr. Charles V. Ganelin, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 268 Irvin, Miami University, Oxford, OH 45056. Review of applications begins November 15 and continues until the position is filled. Please indicate if you will attend the MLA convention. Miami University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and offers same-sex partner benefits. Women and Minorities are encouraged to apply.

For further details, please consult our website. [R]

Miami U

Spanish & Port, 500 E High St, 268 Irvin Hall Oxford OH 45056

Assistant Professor of Spanish 743

<http://www.muohio.edu/spanport>

Assistant Professor of Latin American Literature with a specialization in theater/film. Preference will be given to candidates specializing in Mexico and/or the Caribbean. We seek an individual actively involved in research and publication and eager to develop further the Department's growing video collection and newly revised curriculum. Miami's library houses the Rodolfo Usigli archives, which contain a wealth of documentation about Mexican intellectual history of the twentieth century. Secondary field of interest may include, but is not limited to, Colonial literature, cultural studies, literary theory, Brazilian studies. Duties include: teaching composition, literature and film at both the BA and MA levels; maintaining an active research agenda; and contributing productively to the Department, College, and University. Requirements: Ph. D. in hand by August, 2006; evidence of successful college-level teaching; native or near-native ability in Spanish and English.

Please submit letter, cv and dossier to Dr. Charles V. Ganelin, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 268 Irvin, Miami University, Oxford, OH 45056. Review of applications begins November 15 and continues until the position is filled. Please indicate if you will attend the MLA convention. Miami University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and offers same-sex partner benefits. Women and Minorities are encouraged to apply.

For further details, please consult our website. [R]

Millsaps C

Mod Lungs, 1701 N State St, Box 150130 Jackson MS 39210

Assistant Professor of Spanish/Director of Language Resource Center 1454
http://www.millsaps.edu/

Tenure-track position starting August, 2006. Ph.D. in Spanish preferred but ABD considered. Native/near native fluency in Spanish and English required. We are looking for a generalist with strong commitment to creative teaching, at all levels, of language, literature and culture courses. Evidence of outstanding language teaching required. Sustained research and publication program necessary for tenure. Teaching responsibility of 2/2, in addition to the management of the LRC. Responsibilities as LRC Director include: administer the daily operations, staff (Student Lab Assistants), and multiple functions of the LRC; collaborate with faculty in applying technology to foreign language instruction (mainly French, German, Spanish); serve as a resource person for faculty teaching language and literature. Qualifications sought: organizational, administrative, and communication skills; experience working with equipment relevant to language learning/teaching; knowledge of foreign language pedagogy and familiarity with the applications of instructional technology to the teaching and learning of languages. Review of applications begins December 10, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Please indicate availability for interviews at the MLA and NECTFL conventions. Send CV, dossier with three letters of recommendation, transcripts, sample syllabi and teaching evaluations to Claudine Chadeyras, Chair, Modern Languages. EOE; women and minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

Missouri Southern SU

Foreign Languages, 3950 E Newman Rd Joplin MO 64801

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1411
http://www.mssu.edu

Missouri Southern State University, a teaching institution with a mission in international education, invites applications for a tenure-track position of Assistant Professor of Spanish with a specialization in Latin American Literature. The candidate must possess a Ph.D. or be ABD in Spanish and have a willingness to teach all levels of Spanish. The successful applicant will have native/near-native fluency in English and Spanish, and must be lawfully eligible to work in the United States. This appointment will be contingent upon the availability of funds. Send a cover letter, vita, three letters of recommendation, and transcripts by December 1, 2005 to: Dr. Pedro Talavera-Ibarra, Department of Foreign Languages, Missouri Southern State University, 3950 East Newman Road, Joplin, MO 64801-1595. EEO/AA. [R]

Moravian C

For Lungs, 1200 Main St Bethlehem PA 18018

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1307
http://moravian.edu

Full-time tenure-track position, beginning August 2006. Ph.D. in Spanish with a concentration on Medieval/Golden Age and Colonial Literature is preferred. Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English is required. Teaching responsibilities will include all levels of Spanish language and introduction to literature (both Peninsular and Latin American). The successful candidate must demonstrate expertise in current instructional pedagogy and teaching methodologies. On occasion, the new faculty member will have the opportunity to offer courses in English within a multi-disciplinary general education curriculum. Normal teaching load is three courses per semester. In seeking candidates for positions, the College looks for those who can contribute to one or more of its strategic goals, including whole student development, creative teaching, and global engagement. The College is committed to increasing the diversity of the College community and the curriculum.

Candidates who can contribute to that goal are encouraged to apply and to identify their strengths or experiences in this area. Moravian is an equal opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Send letter, C.V., and three letters of reference to Dr. Jean-Pierre Lalande, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages, Moravian College, 1200 Main St., Bethlehem, PA 18018-6650. Materials should be postmarked by December 5, 2005.

Moravian College (www.moravian.edu) is a selective liberal arts and sciences college in the scenic Lehigh Valley of Pennsylvania with 18 academic departments and 117 full-time faculty. It typically enrolls 1500 students in its regular session. Founded in 1742, Moravian College is the 6th oldest college in the country. Moravian College's proximity to New York and Philadelphia presents unusual opportunities for professional and cultural enrichment. [R]

Morgan SU

For Lungs, 1700 E Cold Spring Ln Baltimore MD 21251

Open Rank 1485

The College of Liberal Arts at Morgan State University announces a full-time, tenure-track position in SPANISH. Native or near native fluency and solid command of English required. Rank open, depending on the candidate's qualifications and experience.

Area of specialization open, although preference will be given to candidates with expertise in 19–20th century Peninsular literature (ability to teach a second language other than French and German a plus). Ph. D. in Spanish in hand by the time of appointment. College-level teaching experience required; demonstrated excellence in teaching, research, and advising at the university level; experience in, and commitment to interdisciplinary approaches to the liberal arts. Experience teaching at a minority or urban university preferred. To ensure full consideration, applicants are encouraged to have all materials on file by November 21, 2005. Please send letter of application, CV, three letters of recommendation, and official transcripts to: Dr. Burney J. Hollis, Dean, College of Liberal Arts, HO 231, Morgan State University, Baltimore, MD 21251

Mt Holyoke C

Spanish, 50 College St. South Hadley MA 01075

Senior Professor of Spanish 980
http://www.mtholyoke.edu

The Department of Spanish at Mount Holyoke College invites applications for a position at the level of either associate or full professor. The field of specialization is open. Candidates should have a distinguished record of ongoing research and publication. Evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching is a must. College teaching expectation is 2–2.

The Department of Spanish is currently composed of young faculty with strong research agendas and a commitment to innovative, interdisciplinary teaching. A new senior member should be a dynamic individual with a collaborative style who could lead the department to be one of the strongest small college departments in the country.

Candidates should send a letter of application, and c.v. to Chair of Spanish Search Committee, Office of the Dean of Faculty, Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, MA 01075. If reference letters are not possible for you to include at this time, please name three individuals who might serve as references. We will not contact them without first asking you. Application review will begin on November 4, 2005 and will continue until the position is filled.

Mount Holyoke is an undergraduate liberal arts college for women with 2,000 students and 200 faculty. Half the faculty are women; one-fifth are persons of color. It is located about 80 miles west of Boston in the Connecticut River valley, and is a member of the Five College Consortium consisting of Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts. Mount Holyoke is committed to fostering multicultural diversity and awareness in its faculty, staff, and student body and is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and persons of color are especially encouraged to apply. [R]

New York U

Spanish & Port, 19 University Pl, Rm 400 New York NY 10003

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1467

Faculty of Arts and Science

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at New York University invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor of Spanish position to begin September 1, 2006, pending budgetary and administrative approval. Specialization in Mexican/Central American literatures and cultures OR Andean literatures and cultures, period open. Interdisciplinary research with fields such as anthropology, film studies, history, or performance studies highly desirable. Strong commitment to teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Send application letter, CV and 3 letters of recommendation or complete dossier by November 15, 2005 to Professor Kathleen Ross, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, New York University, 19 University Place, 4th Floor, New York, NY 10003-4556. NYU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. [R]

Northern Illinois U

For Lang & Lit, De Kalb IL 60115

Assistant Professor of Spanish, Mexican Literature Specialist

1039

<http://www.forlangs.net>

Beginning Fall, 2006. Tenure-track, Ph.D. in Spanish in hand at time of appointment. Assistant Professor of Spanish, Mexican Literature specialist able to teach Chicano Literature written in Spanish. Additional expertise in Literature and Film and/or Cono Sur desirable. Duties include teaching a broad range of courses in Spanish major/minor, including graduate and upper-level courses in Mexican Literature and Spanish-Language Chicano Literature. Evidence of a research program and excellence in teaching required. Native/Near-native fluency in Spanish. The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires the University to inform you that we can only employ U.S. citizens and aliens lawfully authorized to work in the U.S. Each new employee is required to present documentation verifying identity and right to accept employment. Members of protected class groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Complete applications must be received by November 11, 2005. We plan to interview at the MLA, December 27–30, 2005. Send letter of application, curriculum vita, and dossier (including three current letters of recommendation) to: Anne L. Birberick, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL 60115. AA/EEO Institution.

Northwestern U

English Department, 1897 Sheridan Rd Evanston IL 60208

Tenure-Line Assistant Professor in Latino Studies

1361

<http://www.northwestern.edu>

Applications are sought from literary scholars and social scientists for a position in Latino Studies to begin September 1, 2006. The successful candidate will hold an appointment in the appropriate disciplinary department (e.g. English). The primary research and teaching focus must be on U.S. Latino Studies, although scholars conducting comparative work with other Ethnic Studies fields, in borderlands research or in diaspora research are also welcome. Applications—letter of interest, cv, names of three references and a writing sample—should be sent to: Latino Studies Search Committee, 1918 Sheridan Road, Evanston, IL 60208. Review of applications will begin on Nov. 1 and continue until the position is filled. Minority and women scholars are encouraged to apply. AA/EOE [R]

Northwestern C

Mod For Langs, 101 Seventh St SW Orange City IA 51041

Assistant Professor of Spanish

371

<http://www.nwciowa.edu>

Beginning August 2006, teaching assignments include beginning and intermediate language and culture courses, plus upper-level courses in Hispanic literature, language and culture. Additional responsibilities include advising students, scholarship, and departmental/committee tasks. Preference will be given to candidates with a doctorate or nearly completed doctorate in Hispanic literature, native fluency, and proven excellence in teaching. Northwestern College seeks faculty who are evangelical in theology with a Reformed perspective, and who are committed to the distinctives of a Christian liberal arts education. The Department of Modern Foreign Languages has 5 full-time and 3 part-time faculty members who teach French, German, Spanish, ESL and TESL. A growing program, there are currently approximately 50 students majoring in Spanish. Applications, including curriculum vitae and copies of transcripts, should be submitted to: Dr. Jasper Lesage, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Northwestern College, Orange City, IA 51041 vpaa@nwciowa.edu. NWC is an Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Northwestern U

Spanish & Portuguese, 1860 Campus Dr, Crowe Hall 1–141 Evanston IL 60208

Latin American Literature & Culture (Tenured position)

1148

<http://www.cas.northwestern.edu/spanish-portuguese>

Associate or Full Professor. Specialization in Latin American literature and culture. Demonstrated expertise in a complementary field of the humanities or the arts (e.g., art history, Brazilian literature, comparative literature, film, theater) highly desired. Ph.D. required. Evidence of outstanding scholarly achievement and excellent teaching essential; native or near-native fluency in Spanish. Women and minority candidates are urged to apply. Please send letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of research interests and teaching experience, and a representative publication to: Lucille Kerr, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Northwestern University, 1860 Campus Drive, Crowe Hall 1–141, Evanston, IL 60208–2161. Search committee review of applications is ongoing; search process will continue until position has been filled AA/EOE [R]

Old Dominion U

For Lang & Lit, 5215 Hampton Blvd Norfolk VA 23529

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1030

<http://www.odu.edu>

Tenure-track position to begin August, 2006. Ph.D. in Spanish required. Area of scholarly specialization open. Willingness to teach at all levels of Spanish program, including linguistics courses, is expected. Native or native-like fluency and demonstrated excellence in teaching required. Sustained research and publication program necessary for contract renewal and tenure. Send complete dossier, including cover letter, curriculum vitae, and three recent reference letters to: Dr. Frederick Lubich, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA 23529–0085.

Review of applicants will begin November 15, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. Old Dominion University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution and requires compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. [R]

Pacific U

World Langs & Lits, 2043 College Way Forest Grove OR 97116

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1088
<http://www.pacificu.edu>

Assistant Professor of Spanish. Full-time, tenure track, beginning August '06. We are looking for a generalist who enjoys teaching all levels of Spanish language and literature at a small liberal arts college. Expertise in Cultural Studies desirable. Opportunities available for teaching occasional Humanities course(s) in English. Ph.D. by time of appointment. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. Send application, C.V., transcripts, recent teaching evaluations, and three current letters of recommendation to Dr. Víctor M. Rodríguez Otero by 12/1/05 at the latest. However, we will begin reviewing applications on 11/15/05. EOE

Dr. Víctor M. Rodríguez Otero, Dept. of World Languages, Pacific University, 2043 College Way, Forest Grove, OR 97116, tel. 503-352-2861 email: rodriguvm@pacificu.edu

University website: www.pacificu.edu [R]

Presbyterian C

Mod Langs, 503 S Broad St Clinton SC 29325

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1577
<http://www.presby.edu>

Tenure-track Assistant Professor of Spanish, beginning in August 2006. Ph.D. required. Generalist. Special preference given to Latin Americanists who can teach Portuguese. Teach seven courses per academic year, including beginning and intermediate language. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to, depending on interests, further develop the Portuguese program, and teach courses in Interdisciplinary Studies, including Latin American Studies, Women's Studies, Film Studies, etc. Native or near native fluency in Spanish and English. For full consideration completed application should be postmarked on or before December 1, 2005. MLA interviews. Minorities and women encouraged to apply. Presbyterian College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Please submit a cover letter, CV, transcripts, and three current letters of recommendation to: Dr. Mark R. Cox, Chair Spanish Search Committee, Presbyterian College, 503 South Broad St, Clinton, SC 29325.

Roanoke C

For Lang, 221 College Ln Salem VA 24153

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1249
<http://www.roanoke.edu>

Tenure track. Ph.D. in Spanish required, with native or near-native fluency. Responsibilities include teaching all levels of Spanish language, courses in Spanish American literature and culture, and coordination of the first-year language program. 3/3 teaching load. Commitment to and evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching; interest in computer-assisted language learning an asset. Willingness to design occasional May study abroad courses. Must have ability to promote foreign language study successfully; excellent communication skills and ability to work effectively within the department; scholarly potential and commitment to continued professional growth. Roanoke College, a nationally ranked residential liberal arts college affiliated with the Lutheran Church (ELCA), is an equal opportunity employer and actively seeks diversity among its faculty, staff, and students; members of under-represented groups are especially encouraged to apply. Send a cover letter, cv, and dossier to: Dr. Lynn K. Talbot, Department of Foreign Languages, Roanoke College, Salem VA 24153. Deadline: November 25, 2005. [R]

SU of New York, C at Oneonta

For Langs & Lits, 300 Schumacher Hall Oneonta NY 13820

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1408
<http://www.oneonta.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages at the College at Oneonta invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor with a start date of August 2006. This is a continuing position with an initial appointment of two years. The expectation includes instruction, research, student advisement, college service, and continuing professional development. Area of specialization: any period of Peninsular literature, but Golden Age preferred. Duties: Teaching language and literature at all levels. Qualifications Required: Ph.D. at time of appointment; demonstrated classroom effectiveness; native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English; commitment to teaching and to scholarly research. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled. To apply: Send application letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, copies of graduate transcripts, and have three professional references send letters to: Dr. E. Small, Search Committee Chair, Box MLA #1038-G, Dept. Foreign Languages & Literatures, SUNY-Oneonta, Oneonta NY 13820-4015.

SUNY Oneonta is an EEO/AA/ADA employer. Women, minorities, and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Sacred Heart U

Eng & Mod For Lang, 5151 Park Av Fairfield CT 06825

Ast. Professor of Spanish/Tenure track 1625
<http://www.sacredheart.edu>

Sacred Heart University, a dynamic, independent, coeducational Institution of Catholic higher education that is committed to excellence in academics and to the Catholic intellectual and liberal arts tradition, seeks to fill a position in Spanish in an expanding department. Ph.D. in hand or very near completion. Ideal candidate will have the ability to teach all levels of language literature, and culture. Evidence of strong pedagogy and commitment to research. Specialty in Latin American literature and/or cultural studies preferred. Budget pending. Candidates should send a letter of interest, a vita, a statement of teaching and research interests, graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Claire J. Paolini, Dean, College of Arts & Sciences, Sacred Heart University, Fairfield, CT 06825-1000. Deadline Dec. 15, 2005. May interview at MLA.

Scared Heart University is an EO/AEE. Minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

Saint Anselm C

Mod Langs & Lit, 100 St Anselm Dr Manchester NH 03102

Assistant Professor of Spanish 366
<http://www.anselm.edu>

Seeking candidate to fill a tenure-track position in Spanish with specialization in Colonial literature beginning Fall 2006. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in the appropriate area of Spanish Studies and be willing to teach Spanish language at the Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced levels; spoken Spanish must be at native or near-native fluency. Interviews will be held at the MLA Convention in Washington, D.C. in December. Please send letter of application and dossier to Dr. George B. von der Lippe, Chair, Saint Anselm College, Department of Modern Languages & Literatures, Manchester, NH 03102. Application materials must be postmarked no later than Friday, December 2, 2005. Applicants must be willing to support this Catholic liberal arts college's mission with its emphasis on quality teaching. Saint Anselm College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

San Diego SU Imperial Valley

Arts & Sciences Div, 720 Heber Av Calexico CA 92231

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1189

<http://www.ivcampus.sdsu.edu>

The Spanish Department at San Diego State University-Imperial Valley Campus invites applications for a tenure-track, assistant professor appointment to begin Fall 2006. Applicants are required to have a Ph.D. in Spanish by the start date. The position is a joint appointment to the Imperial Valley Campus in Calexico, CA., and the Spanish Department in San Diego, CA. The primary assignment is to the Imperial Valley Campus.

Position Responsibilities:

1. Teaching-The Spanish Department at the Imperial Valley Campus is looking for applicants with broad backgrounds prepared to meet the diverse teaching needs of predominantly nontraditional, first generation university students. Responsibilities will include teaching courses in the following areas: Spanish literature and culture, including Cervantes' Don Quijote; secondary interest in Spanish language methodology preferred.

2. Professional Growth-A professional growth agenda that includes research and publications in refereed journals; presentations at regional, national and international conferences; participation in grant development and/or special projects; maintaining currency in areas of expertise; and developing additional areas as needed to meet professional goals and needs of the Spanish Department.

3. Service-Service to the University, community and discipline, including advising, willingness to participate in curriculum development, participating in committees, special projects, and other tasks that sustain and advance the work of the Spanish Department at SDSU-IV Campus and the University.

The Imperial Valley Campus (IVC) is a branch campus of SDSU enrolling about 800 students, with a student population that is predominantly Hispanic and female. Located 120 miles east of San Diego in an agricultural valley, the Imperial Valley Campus is six blocks from California's border with Mexicali, Baja California, Mexico. Our proximity to the Mexican border and close links with Mexican universities in Baja California, many ties to the community and the cultural diversity of the local population provide substantial opportunities for multilingual/multicultural and cross-national research.

Review of completed applications will begin on November 7, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

To apply send a letter of application indicating the position sought, vita and three references to: Dr. Stephen A. McNett, Spanish Search, San Diego State University-Imperial Valley Campus, 720 Heber Avenue, Calexico, CA., 92231.

For further information regarding IVC or the position, please visit our website: <http://www.ivcampus.sdsu.edu>

SDSU is a Title IX equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, marital status, age, disability or veteran status, including veterans of the Vietnam era.

Seton Hall U

Mod Langs, 400 South Orange Av South Orange NJ 07079

Assistant Professor of Spanish and Latino/Latin American Studies

1568

<http://shu.edu>

Pending budgetary approval, the Department of Modern Languages anticipates hiring in the following area: Assistant Professor of Spanish and Latino/Latin American Studies. Tenure-Track, starting Fall 2006. Recent Ph.D. in Spanish with specialization in Latino/Latin American Studies. Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish. The applicant will be responsible for teaching a combination of language courses in the Department of Modern Languages and cultural studies courses for the major in Latino/Latin American Studies or in the interdisciplinary University core curriculum that is currently under development. Preference is given to candidates with expertise in any of the following areas: Mexico and Central America, the Andean, or Southern Cone regions. Demonstrated record of excellence and strong commitment to undergraduate foreign language teaching. Evidence of and commitment to research and publication. Please submit a letter of application, CV, dossier with at least three letters of reference, and a copy of your graduate transcript to: Dr. Daniel Zalacafn, Chair Department of Modern Languages, Seton Hall University, South Orange, NJ 07079. Deadline for application is December 2, 2005. Applications will be acknowledged by e-mail. Finalists will be interviewed at the MLA Convention. SHU, a diocesan Roman Catholic University, is an EO/AA Employer. [R]

Seton Hill U

Humanities, Box 507 Greensburg PA 15601

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1074

<http://www.setonhill.edu/>

Seton Hill University seeks to fill a full-time, tenure-track position in Spanish language acquisition. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish required, along with experience in teaching basic and advanced courses in Spanish language. The curriculum embraces proficiency-based instruction. Other areas of expertise that are highly desirable: background in Latin American literature; ability to teach French, Italian, or Portuguese through the intermediate level. Because many Spanish majors at SHU seek teacher certification, the Spanish faculty work closely with education faculty and K-12 educators in recruiting and developing competent teachers.

Seton Hill University is a Catholic, liberal arts university serving undergraduate, adult and graduate populations. Seton Hill is located in Greensburg, 35 miles east of Pittsburgh on a 200 acre campus.

PhD and teaching experience at undergraduate level required. The teaching load is four courses each semester. Send letter, c.v., transcripts, statement of teaching philosophy, and three letters of reference to Dr. John Spurlock, Box 507, Seton Hill University, Greensburg, PA 15601 by October 30. Interviews at MLA. Seton Hill University is committed to have a faculty and student body that reflects the racial diversity of our culture. AA/EOE. [R]

Slippery Rock U of Pennsylvania

Mod Langs & Cultures, 105 Carruth Rizza Slippery Rock PA 16057

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1272

<http://www.sru.edu>

Slippery Rock University invites applications for full time, tenure-track Spanish Assistant Professor in Modern Languages and Cultures Department beginning August 2006.

Duties include teaching beginning, intermediate, and advanced Spanish language, literature and civilization courses.

ABD in Spanish required (Ph.D. preferred). Doctorate must be completed December 2006. Candidates specializing in Peninsular literature and/or civilization with experience in proficiency based language teaching and testing as well as computer assisted language learning preferred. Native or near native ability in Spanish and English and experience in college level teaching are required. Successful performance in an on-campus interview, including a teaching demonstration, is also required. The candidate must demonstrate a commitment to the education of diverse populations.

Send letter of application, resume, undergraduate and graduate transcripts (official copies will be required before hiring), along with the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three (3) references to: Dr. Deb Cohen, Chairperson of Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages and Cultures, 105 Carruth Rizza Hall, Slippery Rock University, Slippery Rock, PA 16057

Review of applications will begin by November 20, 2005 and continue until the position is filled.

Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania is a member of the State System of Higher Education and is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer building a diverse academic community and encourages minorities, women, veterans and persons with disabilities to apply. Visit us on our web page at www.sru.edu. AA/EOE [R]

South Dakota SU

Mod Langs, NEA 121A Brookings SD 57007

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1575

<http://www.sdstate.edu>

Assistant Professor of Spanish, Department of Modern Languages. South Dakota State University invites applicants for two 9-month, tenure-track positions of Assistant Professor in Spanish. Earned Ph. D. in Spanish or a related field by August 15, 2006, and a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching at all levels required. Effective written communication skills in both English and Spanish, potential for excellence in teaching, familiarity with current teaching methodology and technology in the classroom, and potential for service and scholarship are also expected. The ability to teach French, a teaching methods course or business Spanish is also desired. For full list of qualifications and information, visit <http://jobs.sdstate.edu> or call (605) 688-5101. To apply, send letter of application, curriculum vitae, copies of transcripts and three current letters of recommendation by November 20, 2005 to: Dr. Maria Spitz, Department of Modern Languages, SDSU, NFA 121, Box 2275, Brookings, SD 57007. Maria.Spitz@sdstate.edu. SDSU is an AA/EEO employer. [R]

Southeast Missouri SU

For Langs & Anthropology, 1 University Plaza, MS4150 Cape Girardeau MO 63701

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1542

<http://www.semo.edu>

Full-time, tenure track position to begin August 2006. Review of applications begins December 1, 2005 and continues until position filled. Teach undergraduate courses (12 hours/4 courses per semester) in Spanish language, culture, and literature and in foreign language pedagogy, and coordinate foreign language education program. Conduct research and publish in area(s) of expertise. Advise undergraduate students. Participate in committee work, public service and professional organizations. Willingness to coordinate and participate in department study abroad/exchange programs. Qualifications: Required: Earned Ph.D. in Spanish by March 1, 2006 with a minor in foreign language pedagogy. Native or near native fluency, university teaching experience, demonstrated teaching excellence, and evidence of scholarly potential required. Demonstrable commitment to the teacher/scholar model, public and university service, to a culturally diverse learning environment, to working with multicultural populations, and an awareness of issues affecting women and minorities. Preferred: Generalist in Spanish language, culture and literature. Study/travel in Spanish-speaking countries. High school teaching experience. Experience with modern interactive/multi-media language lab. For more information, call (573) 651-2146, fax (573) 651-2977, or e-mail djedan@semo.edu. To apply, send a letter of application, resume, copies of transcripts, and three recent letters of reference, including telephone and FAX numbers to: Dr. Dieter Jedan, Chairperson, Department of Foreign Languages & Anthropology, MS4150, Southeast Missouri State University, One University Plaza, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701-4799. [R]

Texas A&M U

Hispanic Studies, Academic 219, MS 4238 College Station TX 77843

Associate or Assistant Professor of Hispanic Studies

786

<http://hisp.tamu.edu>

The Department of Hispanic Studies at Texas A&M University announces a position for an associate or assistant professor with research and teaching interests in U.S. Latino and/or Chicano literature or with a specialty in cultural or bicultural studies. Candidates must demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching at the graduate and undergraduate levels, must show evidence of a research agenda consistent with our program, and have native or near-native command of Spanish. The candidate will join a doctoral program which supports the university's strategic plan in aggressively seeking to bring Hispanic Studies towards national prominence. The Department of Hispanic Studies receives support for projects such as the Cervantes online bibliography and the Picasso online Comprehensive Illustrated Catalogue. The department houses the HISPANIC POETRY RE-VIEW devoted exclusively to criticism of poetry written in Spanish. Scholars can advance their scholarship through the support provided by Texas A&M University's Glasscock Center for Humanities Research. The complete file will include a letter of application, vita, three letters of recommendation, and a representative publication. Review of applications will begin upon receipt. Send applications to: Dr. Eduardo Espina, Search Committee Chair, Department of Hispanic Studies, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-4238.

Texas A&M University is especially interested in candidates strongly committed to building a culturally diverse educational environment through research, teaching, and service involving diverse student and community populations. Texas A&M University is an "Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer." Minorities and women are strongly encouraged to apply. [R]

Texas A&M U-Commerce

Literature & Languages, PO Box 3011 Commerce TX 75429

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1447

<http://www.tamu-commerce.edu/litlang>

Spanish. Assistant Professor (two positions) Tenure track. Begin August 2006. Teach entry-level and advanced Spanish courses and one or two graduate courses per year. 4/4 load (course reductions for research available). Requirements: PhD by hire date; native or near-native fluency; strong commitment to teaching excellence and research; interest in teaching Spanish for the professions desirable. Salary commensurate. Screening begins November 1. Open until filled. Will interview at MLA. Letter of application, c.v., 3 recent letters of recommendation, one-page statement of teaching philosophy, transcripts to: Bill McCarron, Interim Head, Dept. of Literature and Languages, Texas A&M-Commerce, Commerce, Texas 75429. EEO/AA Employer.

Texas SU-San Marcos

Mod Langs, 601 University Dr San Marcos TX 78666

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1084

<http://www.modlang.txstate.edu>

Tenure track Assistant Professor: Fall 2006, Ph.D. or ABD in Spanish or equivalent field. Near-native fluency. Specialization: Spanish Linguistics or Spanish Applied Linguistics, computer-assisted language learning preferred. Experience teaching lower-division Spanish language classes. Strong commitment to teaching and research. Send CV, (unofficial) transcript, and three reference letters to Chair, Spanish Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages, 214 Centennial Hall, Texas State University, 601 University Drive, San Marcos, TX 78666. Deadline for receipt of materials: 11 November 2005. [R]

Texas Woman's U

English, Speech, & For Langs, PO Box 425829 Denton TX 76204-5829

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1655

bkrajewski@twu.edu

Tenure-track Assistant Professor of Spanish, starting Fall 2006. Ph.D. is required. Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish is also required. A commitment to teaching excellence at the undergraduate level is essential. Scholarly expectations include research, professional publications, and presentations. Preference may be given to those who can teach other foreign languages, online courses, Spanish and Spanish-American literature, linguistics, and Spanish for Heritage Speakers. Departmental, University, and professional service expected. Before applying, candidates should read the full advertisement available at the departmental web site: <http://www.twu.edu/as/engspfl/>. Dr. Martha Garza-Randeri is Chair of the Search Committee. Screening begins 15 November 2005.

Towson U

Mod Langs, Baltimore MD 21252

Assistant Professor of Spanish

581

<http://www.towson.edu>

Spanish tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level beginning August 2006. Position entails teaching all levels of Spanish, including language, culture/civilization and Latin American literature. Specialization in Latin American literature open, although preference will be given to candidates who are able to integrate new technologies into the teaching of foreign languages and have experience in teaching Spanish for the health care professional. Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment and native or near-native fluency in Spanish required. Commitment to teaching excellence and scholarship essential. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the MLA Convention by prearranged appointment. Send letter of application, CV, three letters of recommendation and official graduate transcripts to: Dr. Salvatore Zumbo, Chair, Department of Modern Languages, Towson University, Towson, MD 21252. Applications received by December 2, 2005 will receive full consideration. Towson University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and has a strong institutional commitment to diversity. Women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply. [R]

U of Aberdeen

C of Arts & Social Sciences, University Office-Kings College Aberdeen AB24 3FX Scotland

Senior Lecturer/Reader/Chair in Hispanic Studies

1596

<http://www.abdn.ac.uk>

The programme in Hispanic Studies at the University of Aberdeen seeks to appoint a senior scholar in the area of Spanish and/or Latin-American Studies. The area of specialty is open, though we will favour candidates with significant breadth and an interest in intellectual history. Other areas of interest might include political thought, history of art, or other cross-disciplinary interests that intersect with the research initiatives of Aberdeen's distinguished Centre for Early Modern Studies, or its new Centre for Modern Thought. The successful candidate will have a distinguished record of publication and a strong research programme. A willingness to play an active role in teaching and administration will be essential. The post will become available as from September 2006.

Applications should include at least two letters of reference.

Online application forms and further particulars are available from www.abdn.ac.uk/jobs. Alternatively email jobs@abdn.ac.uk or telephone (01224) 272727 (24-hour answering service) quoting reference number FSP104A for an application pack.

The closing date for the receipt of applications is 12 December 2005.

Promoting Diversity and Equal Opportunities throughout the University [R]

U of Alabama

Mod Langs & Classics, PO Box 870246 Tuscaloosa AL 35487

Assistant Professor

1353

<http://www.bama.ua.edu/~mlc/>

The Department of Modern Languages and Classics at the University of Alabama invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin August 16, 2006. The candidate must have Ph.D. in hand by August 15, 2006; preference will be given to recent Ph.D.s. We are seeking a specialist in 20th/21st Century Peninsular Literature and Culture, to teach Peninsular Culture and Literature at the Ph.D., M.A., and B.A. levels, as well as language courses. The candidate should possess native or near-native fluency in Spanish and be able to demonstrate excellence in and commitment to undergraduate teaching. The candidate must show an active interest in developing curricula that integrate literature, culture, and language in the program. Interest in the contemporary literary scene and contemporary critical theories as well as familiarity with technology are desirable as is evidence of an active research program. Teaching load is 6–9 credit hours per semester. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three recent letters of recommendation to: Spanish Search Committee, Modern Languages and Classics, University of Alabama, Box 870246, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0246. The search will remain open until position is filled. The University of Alabama is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. This position is subject to availability of funding.

U of Arizona

Spanish & Port, PO Box 210067 Tucson AZ 85721

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1312

<http://w3.coh.arizona.edu/spanish/>

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese invites applications for an appointment at the assistant professor level for a position in Latin America with particular expertise in Colonial and Post Colonial Studies. The position requires regular teaching of undergraduate and graduate classes in Spanish for majors and minors and participation in the University's general education curriculum. Candidates should have demonstrable evidence of cross-disciplinary work, strong preparation in critical and cultural theory, evidence of scholarly achievement or significant scholarly potential, and evidence of teaching excellence. The Department is particularly interested in candidates whose research and teaching are focused on transatlantic topics. Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish is required.

Review of candidates will begin on November 15, 2005.

To apply, submit on-line application for job #33592 at <http://www.uacareertrack.com> Be prepared to attach a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and writing sample.

The University of Arizona is an EEO/AA Employer—M/W/D/V [R]

U of Arizona

Spanish & Port, PO Box 210067 Tucson AZ 85721

Assistant Professor of Hispanic Linguistics

1314

<http://w3.coh.arizona.edu/spanish/>

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at the University of Arizona invites applications for a tenure-system position in Hispanic Linguistics to begin in Fall 2006 with a focus on acquisition of Spanish as a second language and Spanish for Heritage Learners. Expertise in Spanish of the Southwest is desirable. Duties will include: teaching courses in Hispanic linguistics at the undergraduate and graduate level, administering the Department's program of Spanish for Heritage Learners, contributing to the Department's new doctoral major in Border Studies, teaching in the University of Arizona's core curriculum, and outreach to the local heritage learners' teaching community. The Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Hispanic linguistics at the time of appointment, evidence of teaching excellence and scholarly achievement or significant scholarly potential. Native or near-native proficiency in Spanish is required. Review of candidates will begin on November 15, 2005. To apply, submit on-line application for job #33591 at <http://www.uacareertrack.com> Be prepared to attach a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and writing sample.

The University of Arizona is an EEO/AA Employer—M/W/D/V [R]

U of California, Davis

Spanish & Classics, 1 Shields Av Davis CA 95616

The Russell and Jean Fiddym Latin American Studies Distinguished Chair 99<http://langlitapply.ucdavis.edu>

The Department of Spanish and Classics at the University of California at Davis announces the availability of the Russell and Jean Fiddym Distinguished Chair position in Latin American Literature and Culture. The holder of this chair must be qualified to occupy a senior professorial position by having an outstanding record of scholarly, professional and teaching achievement; an ongoing program of original research; and the academic distinction for appointment at the Full Professor rank. Strong commitment to both undergraduate and graduate education, and demonstrated expertise in Latin American literature and culture are essential. We are looking for candidates eager to play an active role in departmental as well as interdisciplinary activities. Salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications. Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2005. Applicants should submit a cover letter including a statement of research and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and the names and addresses of at least three professional references to: Professor Emilio Bejel, Chair, Fiddymont Chair Search Committee, University of California, Department of Spanish and Classics, 612B Sproul Hall, One Shields Avenue, Davis, CA 95616 or may apply online at <http://langlitapply.ucdavis.edu/>.

The University of California, Davis, is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of diversity among its faculty and staff. [R]

U of Central Florida

Mod Langs & Lits, PO Box 161348 Orlando FL 32816

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1076

<http://www.cas.ucf.edu/forlang/>

The Department of Foreign Languages at the University of Central Florida is seeking to fill a tenure track position in Spanish Linguistics. Strong interest in Applied Linguistics is desired. The successful candidate will teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Requirements: 1) Evidence of excellence in teaching, and a commitment to research and publication; 2) Native fluency in Spanish and native or near native fluency in English; 3) Ph.D. in hand by the time of appointment. Finalists will be asked for a significant writing sample. Please submit a letter of application, a statement expressing academic and teaching philosophy, a CV, an official transcript, and the names of three references to: Paolo Giordano, Department Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Central Florida, PO Box 16138, Orlando, FL 32816-1348. The search committee will begin evaluating dossiers November 15, 2005. As an agency of the State of Florida, UCF makes all application materials available for public review upon request. AA/EOE employer. [R]

U of Central Florida

Mod Langs & Lits, PO Box 161348 Orlando FL 32816

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1077

<http://www.cas.ucf.edu/forlang/>

The Department of Modern Languages at the University of Central Florida is seeking to fill a tenure track position in 20th Century Spanish Peninsular literature of. The successful candidate will teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Requirements: 1) Evidence of excellence in teaching, and a commitment to research and publication; 2) Native fluency in Spanish and native or near native fluency in English; 3) Ph.D. in hand by time of appointment. Finalists will be asked for a significant writing sample. Please submit a letter of application, a statement expressing academic and teaching philosophy, a CV, an official transcript, and the names of three references to: Paolo Giordano, Department Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Central Florida, PO Box 16138, Orlando, FL 32816-1348. The search committee will begin evaluating dossiers November 15, 2005. Women and minorities are especially invited to apply. As an agency of the State of Florida, UCF makes all application materials available for public review upon request. AA/EOE employer. [R]

U of Cincinnati

Rom Langs & Lit, ML 0377 Cincinnati OH 45221

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1041

<http://asweb.artsci.uc.edu/rll/>

Tenure-track, specialist in 20th Century and Contemporary Spanish Narrative, beginning September 1, 2006. Ph.D. must be conferred by time of appointment and spoken Spanish must be native or near-native fluency. Responsibilities include teaching both undergraduate and graduate courses in Spanish Narrative and Peninsular Studies; ability to teach in other relevant areas such as film, theory, creative writing, or cultural studies is advantageous. Salary is commensurate with qualifications. Please send a letter of application, a current vita, one copy of an article prepared for publication, and three recent letters of recommendation to Professor Lowanne E. Jones, Department Head, Romance Languages and Literatures, ML 0377, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, OH 45221.

Materials must be received by November 15, 2005 for full consideration.

The University of Cincinnati is an Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Institution. [R]

U of Colorado

Langs & Cultures, 1420 Austin Bluffs Pky, PO Box 7150 Colorado Springs CO 80933

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1400

<http://www.uccs.edu>

The Department of Languages and Cultures at UCCS seeks a Generalist with a specialization in U.S. Latino literature/culture, showing demonstrated commitment to undergraduate education, program building and an interest in teaching across disciplines (humanities, ethnic/women's studies, film studies). Applicants should have Ph.D. completed by date of appointment, a demonstrated record of excellence in teaching and native-level fluency in Spanish and English. Pending funding, the position is tenure-track and will begin August 2006. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled. Send letter of application, CV and three letters of recommendation to Prof. Robert von Dassanowsky, Chair, Spanish Search Committee, Dept. of Languages and Cultures, DW2, University of Colorado, P.O. Box 7150, Colorado Springs, CO 80933-7150. The University of Colorado at Colorado Springs is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment.

U of Colorado

Spanish & Port, 278 UCB Boulder CO 80309

Assistant Professor of Spanish

862

<http://www.colorado.edu/spanish/>

PhD or ABD (PhD by August 2006) specializing in Hispanic Colonial Literature. The successful candidate will be expected to teach four courses per academic year in language, culture, and literature. Required: (1) native or near native proficiency in Spanish and English; (2) excellence in both scholarship and teaching; (3) strong commitment to teaching upper-division classes in language and literature as well as graduate seminars. Advanced Assistant Professors are encouraged to apply. Please send a letter of application, CV, a writing sample and a minimum of three letters of recommendation to: Prof. Ricardo Landeira, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 278 UCB, McKenna Languages Building, Room 126, Boulder, CO 80309-0278. To ensure full consideration, applicants are encouraged to have all materials on file by December 9, 2005. Position is open until filled. The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time the appointment is scheduled to begin. The University of Colorado is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment. [R]

U of Colorado

Spanish & Port, 278 UCB Boulder CO 80309

Assistant Professor of Spanish

864

<http://www.colorado.edu/spanish/>

PhD or ABD (PhD by August 2006). Specialty in 20th and 21st Century Peninsular literature. Genre and period open. The successful candidate will be expected to teach four courses per academic year in language, culture, and literature. Required: (1) native or near native proficiency in Spanish and English; (2) excellence in both scholarship and teaching; (3) strong commitment to teaching upper-division classes in language and literature as well as graduate seminars. Please send a letter of application, CV, a writing sample and a minimum of three letters of recommendation to: Prof. Ricardo Landeira, Chair, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 278 UCB, McKenna Languages Building, Room 126, Boulder, CO 80309-0278. To ensure full consideration, applicants are encouraged to have all materials on file by December 9, 2005. Position is open until filled. The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time the appointment is scheduled to begin.

uled to begin. The University of Colorado is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment. [R]

U of Delaware

For Langs & Lits, Smith Hall Rm 326 Newark DE 19716

Assistant Professor of Spanish/Foreign Language Pedagogy 1358
<http://www.flt.udel.edu>

Continuing non-tenure-track assistant professor position, full-time, beginning September 1, 2006. Required are completed PhD by the time of appointment, native or near-native fluency in both Spanish and English. Incumbent must be prepared to teach Spanish language courses at all levels as well as undergraduate- and graduate-level courses in foreign language pedagogy (e.g., methods of teaching foreign languages, syllabus design, testing). Expertise in technology-assisted instruction is highly desirable. Send letter of application, CV, three letters of recommendation, telephone numbers, and e-mail address to: Spanish/FL Pedagogy Search Committee, Dept. of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Delaware, Newark, DE 19716-2550. Deadline: November 14, 2005.

The University of Delaware is an equal opportunity employer, which encourages applications from minority group members and women.

U of Evansville

For Langs, 1800 Lincoln Av Evansville IN 47722

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1169
<http://www.evansville.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages is seeking candidates for a full-time, tenure-track appointment in Spanish beginning August 2006. We are seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic professional who is willing to assist in the development of an innovative and future oriented curriculum. A specialist in applied linguistics with expertise in history of the language is preferred. Teaching duties will include courses in linguistics, all levels of Spanish language and participation in the World Cultures program (a required first-year humanities sequence). The successful candidate will have a PhD in hand by August 1st 2006, native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and a record of teaching excellence. An active agenda of scholarly activity is required. Candidates for the position should submit a letter of application, current vita, a statement of teaching philosophy, teaching evaluations, transcripts of graduate work and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Roger Pieroni, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages, University of Evansville, 1800 Lincoln Avenue, Evansville IN 47722. Materials must be received by November 15, 2005. The University of Evansville is a selective, student-centered, private university of 2,400 full-time undergraduates, noted for excellence in its core College of Arts and Sciences and in professional colleges of business administration, education and health sciences, and engineering and computer science. The university is a leader in study abroad and operates a campus in Harlaxton, England. Applications from minorities and females are strongly encouraged. Please visit us at www.evansville.edu for additional information. [R]

U of Idaho

For Langs & Lit, PO Box 443174 Moscow ID 83844

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1580
<http://www.hr.uidaho.edu/>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures invites applications for a Tenure-track position in Spanish with the rank Assistant Professor, beginning August 2006; specialization in Modern Latin American Literature and Culture, with preference for a focus on Mexico and Central America. Teaching duties include a three course teaching load per semester, with the possibility of assignment to teach in an interdisciplinary core curriculum for freshman students. Required qualifications: Ph.D in Spanish or related field, degree in hand by August 2006; strong commitment to undergraduate teaching; evidence of potential for success in a program of scholarly research; native or near-native command of Spanish. Desired qualifications include any combination of the following: knowledge of the U.S. Latino experience; interest/experience teaching advanced Spanish for business and the professions; background in language pedagogy and assessment and/or new educational technologies and their application in language instruction; background of travel, work, study and/or residency abroad in a Spanish-speaking country. Interested applicants should apply through the University's online application system at <http://www.hr.uidaho.edu/> and submit a letter of interest/application, including a statement of teaching and research interests, curriculum vitae or placement dossier, and three current letters of recommendation to: Dr. James Reece, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Idaho, P.O. Box 443174, Moscow, ID 83844. The screening of applications will begin January 30, 2006 and continue until the position is filled. To enrich education through diversity, the University of Idaho is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and underrepresented minorities are encouraged to apply. [R]

U of La Verne

Mod Langs, 1950 Third St La Verne CA 91750

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1633
<http://www.ulv.edu>

The University of La Verne is seeking a full-time Assistant Professor of Spanish with specialization in Peninsular literature. A linguistics background and ability to teach ESL are highly desirable. This is an academic, ten-month, tenure track position to begin September 2005, pending approval. A Ph.D. in Spanish is required. Candidates will be expected to demonstrate evidence of teaching excellence and a strong commitment to liberal arts education, as well as to pedagogical innovation and scholarship. Teaching experience at the college or university level is required. The position will entail teaching all levels of Spanish, including introductory courses, Spanish civilization, culture and literature. This position also includes student advising and service on university committees.

Hiring rate is dependent upon qualifications and departmental equity. A comprehensive benefits plan is included. Please send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, and at least three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Ann K. Hills, Chair, Department of Modern Languages, Miller Hall 203, University of La Verne, 1950 Third Street, La Verne, CA 91750. The application deadline is December 1, 2005. Please direct inquiries to Melanie Brown at (909) 593-3511 ext. 4361.

The University of La Verne is an equal opportunity employer. Please visit our website at www.ulv.edu. [R]

U of Mary Washington

Mod For Langs, 1301 College Av Fredericksburg VA 22401

Assistant Professor of Spanish 1135
<http://www.umw.edu>

The University of Mary Washington invites applications for a tenure-track position as Assistant Professor to begin fall 2006. Candidates must have PhD. in hand by August 15, 2006. Candidates must also have native or near native fluency in both Spanish and English and experience in teaching all levels of language, culture and/or literature to undergraduate students. Normal teaching load is 12 hours per semester. Interest in U.S. Hispanic culture and literature preferred. Candidates must also be able to enhance the growth of the program through departmental and college-wide service and leading students in summer study abroad. Please send letter of application, vita, letters of reference, and graduate transcripts by 5 p.m. December 1, 2005 to Spanish Search II Chair, Department of Modern Foreign Languages, University of Mary Washington, 1301 College Avenue, Fredericksburg, VA 22401-5358. Postmarks will not be honored. The University of Mary Washington is a public, coeducational, liberal arts institution in Fredericksburg, Virginia, fifty miles south of Washington, D.C. Visit our website at www.umw.edu. In a continuing effort to enrich its academic environment and provide equal educational and employment opportunities, the University of Mary Washington actively encourages women and minorities to apply. [R]

U of Mary Washington

Mod For Langs, 1301 College Av Fredericksburg VA 22401

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1136

<http://www.umw.edu>

The University of Mary Washington invites applications for a tenure-track position as Assistant Professor to begin fall 2006. Candidates must have PhD. in hand by August 15, 2006. Candidates must also have native or near native fluency in both Spanish and English and experience in teaching all levels of language, culture and/or literature to undergraduate students. Normal teaching load is 12 hours per semester. Expertise in colonial Latin American literature and/or Spanish Golden Age preferred. Candidates must also be able to enhance the growth of the program through departmental and college-wide service and leading students in summer study abroad. Please send letter of application, vita, letters of reference, and graduate transcripts by 5 p.m. December 1, 2005 to Spanish Search I Chair, Department of Modern Foreign Languages, University of Mary Washington, 1301 College Avenue, Fredericksburg, VA 22401-5358. Postmarks will not be honored. The University of Mary Washington is a public, coeducational, liberal arts institution in Fredericksburg, Virginia, fifty miles south of Washington, D.C. Visit our website at www.umw.edu. In a continuing effort to enrich its academic environment and provide equal educational and employment opportunities, the University of Mary Washington actively encourages women and minorities to apply. [R]

U of Maryland Baltimore County

Mod Langs & Linguistics, 1000 Hilltop Cir, ACIV Rm 146 Baltimore MD 21250

Assistant Professor of Intercultural Communication

1276

The Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) is filling a tenure-track position in intercultural communication and Spanish, pending funding. Candidates should have a PhD in hand in intercultural communication or a related field, experience in intercultural training, and native or near-native proficiency in Spanish. The selected candidate will supervise theses in the department's interdisciplinary MA program in Language, Literacy, and Culture. Teaching responsibilities will include courses in intercultural training, other areas of intercultural communication, and Spanish courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Send letter of application and CV and arrange to have graduate transcripts and three letters of reference sent to:

Dr. Edward Larkey, Graduate Program Director, Search Committee Chair, Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics, University of Maryland, Baltimore County, 1000 Hilltop Circle, Baltimore, MD 21250

Preference will be given to applications received by December 9, 2005. However, the search will continue until the position is filled.

Members of minority groups, women and individuals with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. UMBC is an AA/EOE employer. Visit our website at <http://www.umbc.edu>.

U of Massachusetts Boston

Hispanic Studies, 100 Morrissey Blvd Boston MA 02125

Assistant Professor

1406

<http://www.umb.edu>

The Department of Hispanic Studies at the University of Massachusetts Boston is seeking a Tenure Track Assistant Professor in Latin American Literature and Culture to start September, 2006. PhD in Latin American Literature required. Area of specialization open. Prepared to teach a variety of courses focusing on Caribbean geographic areas and Latin American narrative, essay, poetry and women writers. Expected to contribute to the University of Massachusetts Boston General Education program. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English required. Candidates must demonstrate a strong commitment to scholarship and to teaching excellence in an urban public university. Applications should contain a cover letter, a current CV, 3 letters of recommendation, and a brief statement about your scholarship and teaching philosophy. Please include the position number(460c) and send completed applications by December 1, 2005, indicating if you plan to attend this year's MLA Convention. Address applications to Clara Estow, Chair; Hispanic Studies Department, position number 460c; University of Massachusetts; 100 Morrissey Blvd.; Boston, MA 02125.

U of Massachusetts Boston

Hispanic Studies, 100 Morrissey Blvd Boston MA 02125

Assistant Professor

1407

<http://www.umb.edu>

The Department of Hispanic Studies at the University of Massachusetts Boston is seeking a tenure-track Assistant Professor in Spanish Linguistic to start September, 2006. PhD required. Prepared to teach specialized courses, such as translation studies, language arts, syntax, and grammar and composition for native speakers. Knowledge of current linguistic theory as it relates to Spanish as a first and second language. Expected to contribute to UMass Boston's General Education program. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English required. Candidates must demonstrate a strong commitment to scholarship and to teaching excellence in an urban public university. Applications should contain a cover letter, a current CV, 3 letters of recommendation, and a brief statement about your scholarship and teaching philosophy. Please send completed application, along with position number (475b), by December 1. Please indicate if you plan to attend this year's MLA Convention.

Address your application to Clara Estow, Chair; Hispanic Studies Department, position number 475b; University of Massachusetts; 100 Morrissey Blvd.; Boston, MA 02125, position number 475b.

UMass Boston is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Title IX employer.

U of Memphis

Foreign Languages & Literatures, 375 Dunn Hall Memphis TN 38152

Instructor of Spanish

1490

<http://www.memphis.edu>

Non-tenure track appointment, beginning August 2006 with the possibility of renewal. M.A. in Spanish required, native or near native fluency in Spanish. Successful teaching experience in lower and upper-division courses as demonstrated by recent student and supervisor evaluations. Ability to teach Portuguese desirable. Deadline: must be postmarked by December 31, 2005, or may continue until the position is filled. Please send a curriculum vitae, an official transcript, and at least three letters of recommendation to Professor JosT Freire, Chair, Spanish Instructor Search Committee, The University of Memphis, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, 375 Dunn Hall, Memphis, TN 38152-3240. The University of Memphis, A Tennessee Board of Regents Institution, An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University. [R]

U of Miami

For Langs & Lit, PO Box 248093 Coral Gables FL 33124

Assistant Professor of Spanish-Second Language Acquisition (SLA)

1425

<http://www.miami.edu/fl>

Tenure-Track. Field of specialization: Spanish second language acquisition and pedagogy. Proficiency in Spanish and solid command of English required. Responsibilities include scholarly research and publication as well as teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Additional duties will include directing the basic language programs in Spanish and, in collaboration with the director of the basic language program in French, the language acquisition component of other languages taught in the department. The directors of the basic language programs work with the Director of the Language Labs and the faculty to provide computer-assisted language instruction and to oversee the theoretical and practical training of graduate students in language pedagogy. Candidate must demonstrate strong scholarly promise and have Ph. D. in hand by August 1, 2006. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Anne J. Cruz, Chair, University of Miami, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, P.O. Box 248093, Coral Gables, FL 33124-2074

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer [R]

U of Miami

For Langs & Lit, PO Box 248093 Coral Gables FL 33124

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1426

<http://www.miami.edu/fl>

Tenure-Track. Field of specialization: Afro-Latin Americanist with special interest in the greater Caribbean basin. Secondary areas may include: poetry, Latino studies, media studies, film studies and/or popular culture. Proficiency in Spanish and solid command of English required. Responsibilities will include scholarly research and publication as well as teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Candidate must demonstrate strong scholarly promise and have Ph. D. in hand by August 1, 2006. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Lillian Manzor, Chair, Search Committee, University of Miami, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, P.O. Box 248093, Coral Gables, FL 33124-2074

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer [R]

U of Michigan

Rom Langs & Lits, 812 E Washington, 4108 MLB Ann Arbor MI 48109

Spanish Program Director

1038

<http://www.lsa.umich.edu/rll>

The Department of Romance Languages and Literatures seeks qualified applicants for a Lecturer III to fill the position of Spanish Language Program Director to begin September 1, 2006. This is not a tenure track position, but is renewable indefinitely. MA required, PhD in Second Language Acquisition or equivalent work experience preferred. Native/near native fluency in Spanish and English. Responsibilities include management of first- and second-year Spanish language curriculum, supervision of course coordinators and instructors, hiring of instructors, and teacher training. Experience in course coordination and supervision, evidence of excellent teaching, and involvement in related professional activities required. Send letter, CV, and placement file (including three letters of recommendation) to Professor Peggy McCracken, Chair, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures, The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1275. Preference will be given to applications received by December 1, 2005. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. The University of Michigan is a non-discriminatory, affirmative action employer.

U of Michigan

Rom Langs & Lits, 812 E Washington, 4108 MLB Ann Arbor MI 48109

Lecturer I in Spanish

1436

<http://www.lsa.umich.edu/rll/>

The Department of Romance Languages and Literatures invites applications for a one semester Lecturer I position in Spanish during Winter term 2006, with a teaching load of 3 classes in literature and culture. Demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching as well as scholarly distinction required. PhD or ABD required. Please send C.V. and 3 letters of recommendation to Professor Enrique Garcia, Department of Romance Languages & Literatures, University of Michigan, 812 E. Washington St., Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1275 by October 28, 2005. This position is subject to collective bargaining between UM and LEO. [R]

U of Missouri-Columbia

Rom Langs & Lits, 143 A&S Columbia MO 65211

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1294

<http://www.missouri.edu/~romance/>

The University of Missouri-Columbia invites applications for two tenure-track positions in Spanish-American literature. Appointment for both positions will begin in August 2006. Minimum requirements: PhD at the time of application, ability to teach a wide range of courses in Spanish-American literature and language; potential for productive scholarly enterprise; native-or near native command of Spanish and English. Field of specialization: open. For full consideration, address a letter of candidacy, complete curriculum vitae and three letters of reference (including one that specifically addresses teaching) to: Professor Ed Mullen, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures, 143 Arts and Science Building, University of Missouri-Columbia, Columbia MO, 65211. Application deadline for receipt of all materials is Nov. 30, 2005. Initial screening of applicants is to be conducted at MLA.

The University of Missouri is strongly committed to fostering cultural diversity and multi-cultural awareness among its faculty, students and staff and is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Applications from members of underrepresented groups are invited and encouraged. To request ADA accommodations, please contact our ADA Coordinator at (573) 884-7278 (V/TTY).

U of Nebraska at Omaha

For Langs, 6001 Dodge St Omaha NE 68182

Assistant Professor of Spanish

23

<http://www.unomaha.edu>

Tenure-track. REQUIRED: PhD or ABD in Latin-American literature; native or near-native fluency in Spanish; demonstrated teaching competence; evident interest in research. PREFERRED: Civilization/culture. MLA interviews; competitive salary; 12 hour load, three hour release for research possible. To apply for this position go to <http://careers.unomaha.edu>. No paper applications accepted. Apply by 11/11/05 for best consideration. The university and department have a strong commitment to achieving diversity among faculty and staff. We are particularly interested in receiving applications from members of underrepresented groups and strongly encourage women and persons of color to apply for this position.

U of Nevada, Las Vegas

For Langs, PO Box 455047, 4505 Maryland Pky Las Vegas NV 89154

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1562

<http://www.unlv.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, invites applications for a full-time, 9-month, tenure-track assistant professorship in Spanish with a specialty in Linguistics to begin August 2006. Ph. D. required in Spanish or Linguistics from an accredited college or university. The successful candidate will have native or near native fluency in Spanish and English as well as the ability to teach CALL or Technology Enhanced Language Learning at the graduate level. The appointee will teach Spanish linguistics at the undergraduate and graduate levels as well as other courses based on departmental need. Applicants must have evidence of an active scholarly agenda, a documented record of teaching excellence, and a strong commitment to service on the department, college, and university levels. The review of materials will begin immediately; please indicate in your letter of interest if you are planning to attend the MLA convention.

Applications details may be obtained at <http://hr.unlv.edu/Jobs>. EEO/AA employer. [R]

U of Nevada, Las Vegas

For Langs, PO Box 455047, 4505 Maryland Pky Las Vegas NV 89154

Associate Professor of Spanish

1564

<http://www.unlv.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas invites applications for an Associate professorship in Spanish, with expertise in Translation Studies and/or Literature in Translation, to begin August 2006. This is a full-time, 9-month, tenured position. Ph.D./Doctorate required from an accredited college or university in Spanish, Translation, or a related field. The successful candidate will have native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English.

Responsibilities will include teaching courses for the Graduate Certificate in Spanish Translation, along with courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels based on candidate's (sub)-specialty and departmental need. The successful candidate is also expected to maintain an active research program and to participate in service at the department, college, and university levels. Applicants must have a publication record commensurate with the rank of Associate Professor with tenure, a documented record of teaching excellence, and a strong commitment to service. The review of materials will begin immediately and will continue until position is filled; please indicate in your letter of interest if you are planning to attend the MLA convention. Application details may be obtained at <http://hr.unlv.edu/Jobs>. EEO/AA employer. [R]

U of Nevada, Reno

For Langs & Lit, Reno NV 89557

Assistant Professor of Spanish

145

<http://jobs.unr.edu>

College of Liberal Arts, University of Nevada, Reno, is seeking a full time Assistant Professor of Spanish in Foreign Languages and Literatures, tenure-track, academic year. DUTIES INCLUDE: Primary assignment in teaching language, literature, and culture courses to undergraduate and graduate students. Duties commence July 1, 2006. DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS are: Ph.D. degree in Spanish with specialization in Latin American Literature, focus on Colonial, Indigenous, and/or Cultural Studies a plus. Serious commitment to research. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English, proven teaching ability. Interest in community outreach desirable. Rank and salary commensurate with experience. TO APPLY: send a letter of application, c.v., a writing sample, and three letters of recommendation. Complete position announcement and requirements available on these websites: <http://jobs.unr.edu> and <http://www.unr.edu/cla/fl/employment.htm>. Applications must be received no later than December 1, 2005. SEND TO: Dr. Darrell B. Lockhart, Search Committee Chair, Foreign Languages and Literatures. Mail Stop 100, University of Nevada, Reno NV 89557-0034. (775)-784-6055 x327; e-mail: lockhart@unr.edu.

EEO/AA

U of New Brunswick

Culture & Lang Studies, Box 4400 Fredericton, NB Canada E3B 5A3

Assistant Professor, Spanish

1505

http://www.unb.ca/Culture_Lang

The Department of Culture & Language Studies at the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton invites applications for a full-time tenure-track position in Spanish at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning July 1, 2006.

The successful candidate will hold a Ph.D or equivalent in Spanish by the date of appointment, and will show evidence of excellence in university teaching as well as demonstrated excellent in research and publication. Preference will be given to candidates who can teach and develop courses at the intersection of Hispanic Studies and Film since this position not only supports the Department's programs but a growing interdepartmental program in Film Studies as well. He or she will also teach Spanish Language acquisition from beginner to advanced levels, and contribute to our innovative program in World Literature and Culture Studies through teaching, research and curriculum development. This position is subject to budgetary approval.

Applicants should send a letter of application, along with a complete curriculum vitae, teaching dossier, including teaching evaluations, and a sample of scholarly work, and request three referees to send letters of recommendation directly to: Dr. Allan Reid, Chair, Department of Culture and Language Studies, University of New Brunswick, P.O. Box 4400 (19 Macaulay Lane, Carleton Hall 333), Fredericton, NB, E3B 5A3, russky@unb.ca

Review of applications will begin January 9, 2006.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Applicants should indicate current citizenship status.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK IS COMMITTED TO THE PRINCIPLE OF EMPLOYMENT EQUITY [R]

U of North Carolina at Greensboro

Rom Langs, PO Box 26170 Greensboro NC 27402

Assistant / Associate / Full Professor of Spanish Applied Linguistics / Director of Language Instruction

1280

<http://www.uncg.edu/rom>

Rank negotiable. Candidates must hold or anticipate a Ph.D. in Spanish Linguistics or a related discipline by August 1, 2006.

Area of specialization: Spanish Linguistics specializing in second language acquisition, pedagogy, and/or other relevant area of applied linguistics. Native or near-native competence in Spanish and English. Evidence of strong teaching and ongoing research program. Evidence of creative application of technology to teaching.

The successful candidate will be able to teach at all levels, from beginning language to Master's courses in language, methodology and all areas of linguistics. Will direct the beginning and intermediate Spanish language program; coordinate training for faculty teaching language courses, and serve as liaison with School of Education. Experience in developing curriculum for heritage speakers a plus. Coordination duties include a reduced teaching load. The DLI would teach 2-2; additional course reductions for research may be available.

We seek a strong commitment to excellence in scholarship, teaching and service. Send application letter, C.V., transcripts and 3 letters of recommendation to:

Dr. Mark Smith-Soto, Search Committee Chair, Dept. of Romance Languages, P.O. Box 26170, UNCG, Greensboro, NC 27402-6170. Review of applications will begin on November 14th and continue until the position is filled.

For e-mail inquiries: mismiths@uncg.edu

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro is a Carnegie doctoral intensive institution with a strong commitment to faculty research and professional development. We have a diverse student body of approximately 16,000 students and an increasing international enrollment. The city of Greensboro is centrally located within an hour of Raleigh-Durham and Chapel Hill; two hours to the mountains and three hours to the beach. Greensboro has a varied selection of cultural offerings including a symphony orchestra and an opera company, as well as numerous theaters with regular visits from national music and theatrical touring companies.

EEO/AA [R]

U of Pennsylvania

Rom Langs, 521 Williams Hall Philadelphia PA 19104

Senior Position in Hispanic Studies / Tenured Appointment

1247

<http://www.upenn.edu/roml>

The Department of Romance Languages at the University of Pennsylvania is seeking applications/nominations for a senior appointment in Hispanic Studies. Open field (expertise in Latin American Studies especially welcome); tenured appointment, associate professor or professor, endowed Chair possible. The Search Committee seeks candidates with the following qualifications: scholarly accomplishments at the highest level, ongoing research engagement, strong commitment to both undergraduate and graduate teaching, ability to teach courses across an intellectual and historical range suited to an Hispanic Studies program housed in a Department of Romance Languages, interest in participating in the journal Hispanic Review, willingness to participate in Spanish program development, administrative experience and/or potential at both the program and departmental levels. Send applications (including CV and cover letter) to the Head of the Hispanic Studies Search Committee Department of Romance Languages, 521 Williams Hall, 255 S. 36th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6305. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. AA/EOE. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply.

U of Pittsburgh

Hispanic Languages & Literatures, 1309 Cathedral of Learning Pittsburgh PA 15260

Associate or Full Professor of Latin American Literature

128

<http://www.pitt.edu/~hispan>

The Department of Hispanic Languages and Literatures is seeking applicants for a tenured appointment as Associate or Full Professor in Latin American Literature. The appointment would begin in Fall 2006, pending budgetary approval. Field of specialization is open. Areas we are interested in include (but are not limited to): Latin American Baroque and Neo-Baroque; 19th Century literature; Boom and Post-Boom; Latin American essay; US Latino literature. Ability to incorporate Brazilian materials in any or all of these areas is a plus, but not essential. The department is known for its focus on Latin American literary and cultural studies and corresponding issues in contemporary critical theory. A strong publication record related to that focus and evidence of impact of the candidate's work on the field are essential. Though it has an undergraduate component, the position would involve a major commitment to the department's graduate program, particularly in teaching graduate courses and directing PhD dissertations. Evidence of experience in graduate advising is therefore welcome. Applications will be received until December 5, 2005. Send letter of application, CV, three letters of recommendation, and publication samples to John Beverley, Chair 1309 Cathedral of Learning, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260. Phone (412) 624-6382; Fax (412) 624-8505; e-mail: brq@pitt.edu. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply.

U of Pittsburgh

Hispanic Languages & Literatures, 1309 Cathedral of Learning Pittsburgh PA 15260

Lecturer

131

<http://www.pitt.edu/~hispan>

The Department of Hispanic Languages and Literatures is seeking applicants for a Lecturer qualified to teach all levels of Spanish at the undergraduate level. This position is outside the tenure stream and would begin in Fall 2006, pending budgetary approval. The initial appointment will be made for a one-year period and will be renewable. Subsequent appointments may be for periods up to three years. ABD or PhD and native or near native fluency in Spanish are required. The teaching load is six courses per academic year, including (but not limited to) Spanish 3 and 4, Conversation, Grammar and Composition, Introduction to Hispanic Literary and Cultural Studies, and Advanced Composition and Stylistics. Experience teaching upper-level grammar and writing courses and using instructional technology (such as Blackboard, Audio Recorder, internet tools) desirable. Responsibilities may also include assuming significant undergraduate major advising duties, including supervision of Study Abroad (the course load will be reduced accordingly). Applications will be received until December 5, 2005. Send letter of application, CV, graduate transcripts, three letters of recommendation, and publication samples to Elizabeth Monasterios and Beatrice DeAngelis, Co-Chairs, Lecturer Search, 1309 Cathedral of Learning, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260. Phone (412) 624-2709 or (412) 624-5487; e-mail elm15@pitt.edu, brtd43@hotmail.com. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply.

U of Pittsburgh

Hispanic Languages & Literatures, 1309 Cathedral of Learning Pittsburgh PA 15260

Mellon Professor of Modern Languages

129

<http://www.pitt.edu/~hispan>

The Department of Hispanic Languages and Literatures is seeking applicants for the position of Andrew W. Mellon Professor of Modern Languages. Specialization is open. The Mellon Professorships are the most prestigious positions in the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pittsburgh. The appointment could begin as early as Fall 2006, pending budgetary approval. The department is known for its focus on Latin American literary and cultural studies and corresponding issues in contemporary critical theory. Candidates should have strong publication record related to that focus, and a strong presence in Latin American literary/cultural criticism and visibility in the broader field of the literary humanities generally. Evidence of experience in directing PhD dissertations is important. Application deadline is open. Send letter of application, CV, three letters of recommendation, and publication samples to John Beverley, Chair 1309 Cathedral of Learning, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260. Phone (412) 624-6382; Fax (412) 624-8505; e-mail: brq@pitt.edu. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply.

U of South Alabama

For Languages & Literatures, 307 University Blvd 322 Humanities Bldg Mobile AL 36688

Assistant Professor in Spanish

1503

<http://usouthal.edu/languages/>

Applications are invited for a tenure-track assistant professorship in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures in the area of Spanish beginning Fall 2006; Ph.D. required. Specialization open. Latin American literature, foreign language education desirable. The candidate must demonstrate native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English and excellence in teaching at all levels; must also be willing to direct the Department's Self-Instructional Language Program. Active scholarship expected, as is rotating participation in the department's summer program in Xalapa, Mexico. Current average teaching load in the department among tenure-track faculty with research expectations is three courses per semester (9 contact hours). Located in a metropolitan area of 500,000 on the northern Gulf of Mexico, the University has 13,000 undergraduate and graduate students. Send letter of application and CV to Dr. Calvin Jones, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, HUMB 322, University of South Alabama, Mobile, Alabama 36688, and have official transcripts and three current letters of recommendation sent directly by the references to the same address (official university placement files acceptable). Please indicate availability for possible MLA interview. Review of applications will begin November 15, 2005, and continue until the position is filled. AA/EEO/M/F/D. [R]

U of South Carolina

Languages, Literature & Composition, 800 University Way Spartanburg SC 29303

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1504

<http://www.uscupstate.edu>

The University of South Carolina Upstate Department of Languages, Literature & Composition invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor in Spanish to begin August 16, 2006. The successful candidate will be a generalist with specialty in translation and interpretation. Responsibilities include teaching elementary, intermediate and upper level courses (4 sections per semester). Native or near native fluency and a terminal degree in Spanish or Spanish education required at the time of appointment. Excellence in teaching and scholarship is expected. USC Upstate (www.uscupstate.edu) is a comprehensive public university, located between Charlotte and Atlanta, with 4,500 students. Review of applications begins January 15, 2006, and continues until the position is filled. Position subject to funding. Letter of application, vita, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation are required. Send materials to Dr. Richard Predmore, Chair, Department of Languages, Literature & Composition, University of South Carolina Upstate, 800 University Way, Spartanburg, SC 29303 (rpredmore@uscupstate.edu). USC Upstate is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity and institutional diversity. [R]

U of Texas at El Paso

Languages & Linguistics, 500 W University El Paso TX 79968

Assistant or Associate Professor of Spanish

984

Advanced Assistant or Associate Professor of Spanish (field open), with substantial experience in translation/interpretation studies. Ph.D. in Spanish and solid record of publications required. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. Responsibilities include, but not limited to, administration and further development of degree programs in translation/interpretation studies. Commitment to research and teaching, as well as to development of innovative, interdisciplinary curricula. Normal teaching three courses per semester, with reduced load for significant administrative duties. Salary competitive and commensurate with academic qualifications and professional experience. The Department offers a BA in Spanish, French and Linguistics, as well as the MA in Spanish and Linguistics. It also is a major participant in the University's initiative in bilingualism and language acquisition. The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP), which sits on the border with Mexico, has an enrollment of nearly 20,000 students and is nationally recognized as the only doctoral-research university in the United States with a majority Mexican-American student population. With some 700,000 people, the city of El Paso is a major cultural and economic presence in the Southwest and on the US/Mexico border.

Send letter of interest, CV and three current letters of recommendation to: Kirsten F. Nigro, Chair, Department of Languages and Linguistics, 137 Liberal Arts Building, University of Texas at El Paso, El Paso, TX 79968-0531. Applications acknowledged by letter and reviewed beginning October 15, until position filled. Incomplete or electronic applications not considered. Interviews at 2005 MLA Convention, or earlier.

The University of Texas at El Paso does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation in employment or the provision of services. [R]

U of Texas at El Paso

Langs & Linguistics, 500 W University El Paso TX 79968

Assistant or Associate Professor of Spanish

988

Advanced Assistant or Associate Professor of Spanish (field open), with substantial experience in translation/interpretation studies. Ph.D. in Spanish and significant publications record required. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, administration and further development of degree programs in translation/interpretation. Commitment to teaching, research and development of innovative interdisciplinary curricula. Normal teaching three courses per semester, with reduced load for significant administrative duties. Salary competitive and commensurate with academic qualifications and professional experience. The Department offers a BA in Spanish, French and Linguistics, as well as the MA in Spanish and Linguistics. It also is a major participant in the University's initiative in bilingualism and language acquisition. The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP), which sits on the border with Mexico, has an enrollment of nearly 20,000 students and is nationally recognized as the only doctoral-research university in the United States with a majority Mexican-American student population. With some 700,000 people, the city of El Paso is a major cultural and economic presence in the Southwest and on the US/Mexico border.

Send letters of interest, CV and three current letters of recommendation to: Kirsten F. Nigro, Chair, Department of Languages and Linguistics, 137 Liberal Arts Building, University of Texas at El Paso, El Paso, TX 79968-0531. Applications acknowledged by letter and reviewed beginning October 15, 2005, until position filled. Incomplete or electronic applications not considered. Interviews at 2005 MLA Convention, or earlier.

The University of Texas at El Paso does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation in employment or the provision of services. [R]

U of Washington, Tacoma

Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences, 1900 Commerce St Tacoma WA 98402

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1525

<http://www.tacoma.washington.edu/>

Assistant Professor of Spanish, Tenure Track. Seeking broadly trained scholar with strong commitment to interdisciplinary investigation and teaching excellence. Ph.D. in Spanish required, with emphasis in one or more of these fields: US Latino/Chicano Studies, US-Mexico Border Studies, Afro-Hispanic Literature and Culture, Contemporary Spanish Peninsular Literature and Culture,

Second Language Acquisition, and Spanish Language Methodology. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. Will teach wide range of Spanish language courses (100-400 level), including Spanish for the professions, Spanish for heritage speakers, translating/interpreting, composition/conversation, civilization and literature classes, and occasional cultural studies classes taught in English for non-majors. Young, dynamic program with opportunities to design and implement innovative Spanish curriculum. Appointment to begin Fall 2006. For information about UWT, see website at <http://www.tacoma.washington.edu/>

To apply, submit electronically to tfaculty@u.washington.edu a letter delineating interests and qualifications; description of research interests and teaching philosophy; curriculum vitae; writing sample of chapter/article length; list of courses you would teach w/sample syllabus for one course; evidence of teaching effectiveness; and three letters of reference. Hard copies of placement files with letters of recommendation may be submitted to: Cynthia Duncan, Spanish Search, c/o Finance and Administration, University of Washington, Tacoma, 1900 Commerce Street, Tacoma, WA 98402.

Screening of credentials will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applications received by Nov. 15 will be given priority.

We are an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. Applications from women, minorities, individuals with disabilities and covered veterans are encouraged. [R]

U of Washington

Spanish & Portuguese Studies, Box 354360 Seattle WA 98195

Assistant Professor of Spanish (Latin American Colonial Literature)

748

<http://depts.washington.edu/spanport/>

Tenure-track assistant professor of Latin American Colonial literature and cultural studies, or of Transatlantic Studies with an emphasis on Latin American Colonial literature. Appointment to begin Fall 2006. Ph.D. degree required. Native or near-native command of Spanish and English. Strong research profile, dynamic classroom teacher, and energetic colleague. Teaching load: five literature, culture and grammar courses a year (over three quarters). Ability and willingness to direct study-abroad program in Cadiz desirable. Candidates in final stages of Ph.D. program may be considered for appointment on acting basis. Letter, c.v., transcripts, three academic letters of recommendation, three recent sets of student teaching evaluations (where applicable), and a writing sample to: Anthony L. Geist, Chair, Division of Spanish and Portuguese Studies, University of Washington, Box 354360, Seattle, WA 98195-4360

Applications received by November 15 will be given priority.

We are an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Applications from women and members of sexual and ethnic minorities encouraged. [R]

U of Washington

Spanish & Portuguese Studies, Box 354360 Seattle WA 98195

Assistant Professor of Spanish (Spanish Language Program)

750

<http://depts.washington.edu/spanport/>

Tenure-track assistant professor and director of a Spanish language program that teaches 5000 students each year. Specialization in applied linguistics and second language acquisition. Responsibilities include TA training and coordinating first through third year Spanish. Appointment to begin Fall 2006. Ph.D. degree required. Native or near-native command of Spanish and English. Strong research profile, dynamic classroom teacher, and energetic colleague. Teaching load: three courses a year (over three quarters). Under exceptional circumstances candidates at the rank of Associate and Full Professor may be considered. Letter, c.v., transcripts, three academic letters of recommendation, three recent sets of student teaching evaluations (where applicable), and a writing sample to: Anthony L. Geist, Chair, Division of Spanish and Portuguese Studies, University of Washington, Box 354360, Seattle, WA 98195-4360

Applications received by November 15 will be given priority. We are an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Applications from women and members of sexual and ethnic minorities encouraged. [R]

U of West Georgia

Foreign Languages & Literatures, 1601 Maple St Carrollton GA 30118

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1218

<http://www.westga.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of West Georgia, invites applications for a tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of Spanish. Field of specialization is open but ability to teach Linguistics a must. The successful candidate will demonstrate a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching and a willingness to teach a variety of courses. Evidence of excellence in teaching and scholarly potential required. Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English. Ph.D. in hand by August, 2006. Competitive salary and benefits. Send cover letter, CV, original transcripts, 3 letters of recommendation, and evidence of outstanding teaching ability to Dr. Denise Overfield, Chair, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, UWG, Carrollton, GA postmarked by November 10, 2005. The University of West Georgia is an equal opportunity employer encouraging academic excellence through diversity. [R]

U of the West Indies

Department of Literatures in English, Mona Kingston 7 Jamaica W.I.

Senior Lecturer/Lecturer in Spanish Language

1237

<http://www.mona.uwi.edu/modlang>

QUALIFICATIONS:

PhD, but competent applicants with an MA will be considered.

DEPARTMENTAL PROFILE:

The department offers Spanish Language and Literature courses to undergraduate students majoring in Spanish and to students in other disciplines. The objective of the language programme is the development of students' communicative competence within the context of the Caribbean and Latin American region. Detailed information about our programme and courses may be viewed at our website: <http://www.mona.uwi.edu/modlang>

DUTIES:

These include teaching Spanish Language courses at all 3 levels of the Bachelors degree programme (communicative grammar activities, translation into Spanish, written expression, reading and listening comprehension, conversation)

LANGUAGE COMPETENCE:

Spanish: native or near native; English: good working knowledge.

AREA OF SPECIALISATION:

Any of the following: Linguistics, Foreign Language Teaching, Philology, Translation Studies.

The successful applicant would be expected to assume duties by 31 January 2006, or as soon as possible thereafter.

Detailed application and curriculum vitae including full particulars of qualification, experience, marital status, date of birth, nationality, names and full addressees of three referees and certified copies of degrees may be submitted in Spanish or English by regular mail, as an e-mail attachment or by fax no later than 31 October 2005 to: Senior Assistant Registrar, Staffing and Employee Development, University of the West Indies, Mona Campus, Kingston 7, Jamaica, West Indies, Fax: (+1 876) 927-2215, e-mail: hrmd.sed@uwimona.edu.jm

Union C

Mod Langs & Literatures, Union College Schenectady NY 12308

Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish

162

<http://www.union.edu/PUBLIC/MOLNDEPT/>

Union College seeks a one-year sabbatical replacement in Spanish to begin September 2006; PhD preferred. This position will involve teaching Spanish language courses at all levels, as well as upper-division courses in literature and culture. Background preferred in Latin American poetry or theater, or in Spanish Peninsular narrative. Candidates must have native or near-native fluency in Spanish, familiarity with current teaching methodology, and have demonstrated potential for excellent teaching. We seek a colleague who will actively contribute to a thriving undergraduate language, literature and culture program with a newly revised curriculum. Union College is an equal opportunity employer and is strongly committed to increasing the diversity of its workforce. Please send letter of interest, vita, three letters of recommendation, and graduate transcript to William García, Chair, by 11/25/05. Please do not submit materials electronically. [R]

Utah Valley SC

For Langs, 800 W Universty Pky, MS 167 Orem UT 84058

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1345

<http://uvsc.edu>

Candidates currently being sought for a tenure-track, Assistant Professorship in Spanish beginning fall 2006. Requires graduation from an accredited university with a Ph.D. in Spanish (or a Master's Degree in Spanish plus significant work [ABD] toward completion of the Ph.D.) plus two years of full-time teaching experience (or equivalent). Candidates must be fluent in both Spanish and English, prepared in basic language teaching pedagogy, and able to teach upper division courses associated with a Spanish major. Specializations in literature, linguistics, pedagogy or translation are welcomed. All applicants must be able to submit verification of employment eligibility (identity documents). Further information and application details are available at College website (uvsc.edu). Anticipated initial screening date 11-07-05.

Valdosta SU

Modern Classical Languages, 1500 N Patterson St Valdosta GA 31698

Assistant Professor-Spanish

1156

<http://valdosta.edu>

The Department of Modern and Classical Languages in the College of Arts and Sciences invites applications for a ten-month, tenure track faculty position. Appointment date is August 1, 2006. Native or near native fluency in Spanish and English. Will teach Spanish language, literature, and culture courses at all levels. Specialization in Latin American literature preferred. Experience with technology, coordination of lower-level language courses, and/or Foreign Language Education, or the ability to teach French, German or Latin considered additional assets. At time of application candidate must be at least ABD with M.A.; Ph.D. must be in hand by appointment date. For more information on teaching responsibilities e-mail vsoady@valdosta.edu or phone 229-333-5948.

Review of applications will begin on November 15, 2005, and continue until position is filled. To apply submit a letter of application, faculty application form located at http://www.valdosta.edu/academic/forms/fac_employment_app.pdf, statement of teaching philosophy, names and contact information for at least three professional references.

Apply to: Dr. Viki Soady, Head, Modern and Classical Languages, Valdosta State University, 1500 N. Patterson St., Valdosta, GA 31698-0045, 229-333-5948, vsoady@valdosta.edu [R]

Vassar C

Hisp Studies, PO Box 266, 124 Raymond Av Poughkeepsie NY 12604

Assistant Professor of Hispanic Studies

1198

<http://hispanicstudies.vassar.edu/>

Tenure-track Assistant Professor to begin in fall 2006, Peninsularist in Golden Age Theater with research and teaching interests in transatlantic and cultural studies. Additional expertise in Latin American Theater desirable. Vassar College is an AA/EO employer and is strongly and actively committed to diversity within its community. Applicants from members of historically underrepresented groups are especially encouraged to apply. Ph.D. or near completion required. Interviews at the MLA convention in Washington, D.C. Send letter of application and dossier (cv, transcript and letters of recommendation) to Michael Aronna, Chair, Department of Hispanic Studies, College Box 266, 124 Raymond Ave., Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, NY, 12604. Postmark deadline is Friday, December 2. [R]

Virginia Commonwealth U

World Studies Sch, PO Box 842021 Richmond VA 23284

Spanish and Film Studies

1589

<http://www.vcu.edu>

Tenure-track position, to begin fall, 2006, contingent upon availability of funding. Strong interest and competence in film studies; cultural and religious identity in increasingly diverse populations; and literature of migration. Requirements: Ph.D. in Spanish or related field; near-native ability in Spanish and English; excellent communication skills; evidence of active research program; a record of excellence in teaching and strong commitment to undergraduate and graduate teaching; potential to help develop a film studies program. The successful candidate will be expected to teach and develop undergraduate and graduate courses in Spanish, as well as interdisciplinary courses in English on topics such as health, social justice, and film across the disciplines of languages, literature, cultural studies, and programs in anthropology, geography, international studies, and religious studies (worldstudies.vcu.edu). Interest in developing experiential learning programs and potential for community outreach and research highly desirable. This is a full time (9 mo.) position at the assistant or associate rank depending on qualifications.

Applicants should send letter of application, CV, and 3 references to Prof. Mar M. Gongora, VCU World Studies, VCU Box 842021, Richmond, VA 23284-2021. Review begins immediately. Deadline for receipt of application is December 1, 2005. Initial interviews at the MLA.

Virginia Commonwealth University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Virginia Commonwealth U

World Studies Sch, PO Box 842021 Richmond VA 23284

Spanish Linguistics and Translation

1590

<http://www.vcu.edu>

Tenure-track position, to begin fall, 2006, contingent upon availability of funding. Specialization in translation/interpretation, sociolinguistics or related field with interests in Latino Studies, Spanish in the U.S., pedagogy or other interdisciplinary field. Required: PhD at time of appointment, native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English, excellent communication skills; evidence of active research program, a record of excellence in teaching and a strong commitment to undergraduate and graduate interdisciplinary education; potential to develop translation/interpretation training program. The successful candidate will be expected to teach and develop undergraduate and graduate courses in Spanish language, translation/interpretation and linguistics, as well as interdisciplinary courses in English or Spanish on topics such as health, social justice, or film, and participate in program development across the disciplines of languages, literature, cultural studies, and programs in anthropology, geography, international studies, and religious studies (worldstudies.vcu.edu). Experience seeking external research funding and developing community-based research, experiential learning programs, and outreach to a growing Latino community highly desirable. Competitive salary and attractive research support package. This is a full time (9 mo.) position at the assistant or associate rank depending on qualifications.

Applicants should send letter of application, CV, and 3 references to Prof. Eugenia Muñoz, VCU World Studies, VCU Box 842021, Richmond, VA 23284-2021. Review begins immediately. Deadline for receipt of application is December 1, 2005. Initial interviews at the MLA.

Virginia Commonwealth University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Washburn U of Topeka

Mod Langs, 1700 SW College Av Topeka KS 66621

Modern Languages Assistant Professor

1570

<http://www.washburn.edu/cas/ml/>

Washburn University's Modern Languages Department invites applications for tenure-track Assistant Professor in Spanish beginning August 1, 2006. QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in Spanish (preferably in Latin American literature); native/near native Spanish and English fluency; evidence of successful teaching all levels of language/culture/literature; scholarly potential required; interest in interdisciplinary and Latino Studies preferred. Application review begins November 15, 2005 and continues until a suitable candidate is identified. Send letter of application, C.V., dossier w/transcripts and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Miguel Gonzalez-Abellas, Co-Chair, Department of Modern Languages, Washburn University, Topeka, KS 66621. Washburn University is EOE. www.washburn.edu [R]

Wayne SU

Rom Langs & Lits, 906 W Warren Av, 487 Manoogian Detroit MI 48202

Assistant/Associate Professor of Spanish

1285

<http://www.langlab.wayne.edu/romance/index.html>

Tenure-track position in Spanish Golden Age at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor for Fall 2006. Ph.D. in hand at time of appointment in Spanish or related field and native/near-native proficiency in Spanish and English required; ability to teach Medieval Spanish literature desirable. Duties include courses in all genres in the language, literature and culture of Spain's "Golden Age" teaching Spanish language courses at all levels, conducting scholarly research in "Golden Age" language, literature, and culture, and related duties as required. Ability to develop undergraduate courses in Spanish and in translation desirable. Apply at jobs@wayne.edu, position number 032299, by attaching a letter of interest and a C.V. Please arrange for three reference letters to be sent to Dr. Margaret E. Winters, Chair. Applications accepted until 18 November 2005 or until filled. WSU is an EO/AA employer. [R]

Weber SU

For Langs & Lits, 1403 University Cir Ogden UT 84408

Assistant Professor of Spanish

359

<http://weber.edu>

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Weber State University invites applications for a tenure-track position in Spanish. Teaching duties will include, but are not limited to, lower division courses in beginning and intermediate Spanish, and upper division courses in language, culture and literature. Ph.D. in Spanish or Latin American literature, language or second-language acquisition required. Successful candidate will demonstrate Superior speaking and writing skills in Spanish and English based on the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines.

Seeking applicants with a strong commitment and dedication to undergraduate teaching, advising and professional service. Preference will be given to candidates with strong knowledge of and experience with ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines, the National Standards for Foreign Language Learning and curriculum strategies. Experience in computer based and/or web based instruction and/or Spanish for the professions desirable.

View details and apply online at <http://jobs.weber.edu> [R]

Western Washington U

Mod & Classical Langs, 516 High St, MS-9057 Bellingham WA 98225

Assistant Professor of Spanish

536

<http://www.ac.wvu.edu/~mcl/>

Tenure-track position, beginning September, 2006. Seeking specialist in Latin American literature to teach a broad spectrum of courses in the undergraduate curriculum. Required of the qualified candidate are the Ph.D. in Spanish by time of appointment, native or near-native fluency in Spanish, specialization in Latin American literature, and a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching and scholarship. A familiarity with and sensitivity to cultural diversity concerns is desired. Please send letter of application describing teaching philosophy and research plans, CV, three letters of recommendation, a sample of teaching evaluations, and graduate transcripts to Dr. Brent Carbajal, Chair, Modern and Classical Languages, Western Washington University, 516 High St., Bellingham, WA 98225-9057. Application priority review 11/10./2005. AA/EOE. For full position announcement, www.ac.wvu.edu/~wwujobs. [R]

Whitman C

For Langs & Lits, 345 Boyer Av Walla Walla WA 99362

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1167

<http://www.whitman.edu>

Spanish Language and Latin American Literature: Whitman College invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Latin American Literature beginning August 2006. Responsibilities include: teaching Spanish language in the context of culture and all periods and genres of the Spanish-language literature of Latin America; supervision of senior theses; participation in faculty governance. Candidates must have an ongoing research program that will involve undergraduate student collaboration. Ph.D. required at time of appointment. Native or near-native fluency required. Please send cover letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of excellent teaching (including student evaluations), a writing sample, and three letters of recommendation to Professor Clark Colahan, Chair of the Tenure-Track Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Whitman College, 345 Boyer Avenue, Walla Walla, WA 99362. Deadline: October 31, 2005. Whitman College is a non-sectarian, private undergraduate liberal arts college of approximately 1,500 highly select students, and provides generous support for scholarly work. Further information can be obtained at <http://www.whitman.edu>. Applicants who would enrich the diversity of the campus community are strongly encouraged to apply. [R]

Wilkes U

Humanities, 84 West South Street Wilkes-Barre PA 18766

Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish

1612

<http://www.wilkes.edu>

Wilkes University invites applications for a one-year Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish beginning August 2006. Wilkes University is an independent institution of higher education with approximately 2200 undergraduate students and 2000 graduate students located in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, a mid-sized city within two-and-a-half hours driving distance of New York City and Philadelphia.

The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching a twelve-hour semester load and will teach introductory language courses and courses in the culture and literature of Spain. The successful candidate will also participate in program building activities. Desirable qualifications include a generalist in peninsular Spanish and a native speaker, or near fluency, in Castilian Spanish.

Effective teaching, mentoring, and advising are expected of all faculty members at Wilkes. Service to the University and the community as well as scholarly activities support the student-centered core.

A doctorate in one of the above areas of Spanish completed by December 2006 is preferred. Candidates who have completed an M.A. or are ABD will be considered. The ideal candidate will have prior experience teaching at the college level. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Send a letter of application, c.v., and letters of reference to: Wilkes University, Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish Search, Reference #CAS300, Wilkes University PO Box 3924, Scranton, PA 18505-0924. You may also send application materials by email to eapply@wilkes.edu. Please make sure to include the reference #CAS300 on the mailing envelope or in the subject line of the email or the application will not be processed. Applications must be postmarked by December 5, 2005.

Wilkes University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer committed to a diverse faculty, staff and student body. Applicants from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. [R]

Wittenberg U

For Langs & Lit, Ward St & Wittenberg Av Springfield OH 45501

Spanish Language and Cultural Studies

1630

<http://www.wittenberg.edu>

Wittenberg University seeks to fill a tenure-track position in Spanish, Latin American or Latino Language and Cultural Studies at the assistant professor level to begin August 2006, pending approval. The successful candidate must have a passion for teaching all levels of undergraduate Spanish language as well as for teaching in his/her area of specialization. There will be opportunities to teach in interdepartmental programs and a new student seminar program. Duties also include university committee work and student advising.

Preference will be given to candidates who employ interdisciplinary approaches and/or the study of popular culture in the area of Spanish, Latin American, or Latino Cultural Studies. Because of the relatively small size of the program, the candidate must have the flexibility of a generalist. A PhD in hand or near completion is required.

Native or near native fluency in English and Spanish, and college teaching experience required. Position begins August 2006. Send application letter, CV, three recommendation letters, and a letter of interest to: Chair, Spanish Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Wittenberg University, PO Box 720, Springfield, OH 45501-0720. Application deadline: January 15, 2006. Wittenberg is an AA/EOE. We encourage women and minority applicants to apply as we are committed to creating an ethnically and culturally diverse community. [R]

Wofford C

For Langs, 429 N Church St, CP09 Spartanburg SC 29303

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1377

<http://www.wofford.edu>

SPANISH: Full-time tenure-track assistant professor at Wofford College starting Fall 2006. PhD in hand. Teaching load is 4-1-4 (sometimes less). Candidates should be generalists willing to teach at all levels of language and Peninsular as well as Latin American literature. We value innovative, resourceful teaching; a commitment to the use of technology to enhance learning is essential. Traditional research and publication are applauded and supported but not required. Review of applications begins immediately and continues until position is filled. Send letter of application and rTsumT to Dr. Susan Griswold, Department of Foreign Languages, Wofford College, 429 North Church St., Spartanburg SC 29303 or by email to griswoldsc@wofford.edu. dossiers will be requested individually. [R]

Worcester SC

Langs & Lit, 486 Chandler St Worcester MA 01602

Assistant Professor of Spanish

1257

<http://www.ac.worcester.edu/hr/jobs.htm>

Assistant Professor of Spanish. Specialty in Nineteenth and Twentieth-Century Iberian Literature and Culture. Interest in Cultural Studies, Film Studies, Global Studies and/or (socio) linguistics desirable. See job announcement at <http://www.ac.worcester.edu/hr/jobs.htm> for more details. [R]

DEPARTMENT CHAIRS/DEANSHIPS

Bridgewater SC

For Langs, Bridgewater MA 02325

Chairperson, Department of Foreign Languages

58

<http://jobs.bridgew.edu> or www.bridgew.edu

(Rank Open, Tenure Negotiable)

Chair Foreign Languages Department; administer the department's budget; supervise student advising; establish teaching schedules; conduct faculty evaluations; serve as liaison between the Foreign Languages Department, other departments and programs, and the college's administration; teach beginning and intermediate language courses as well as courses to be developed in area of specialization. Chair is appointed for a three-year renewable term on a nine-month contract.

Qualifications:

Requires Ph.D. in one of the following languages: French, Portuguese, or Italian, or any combination thereof, specialization open.

Applicants should be strongly committed to excellence in teaching and advising, and to working in a multicultural environment that fosters diversity. They should also have an ability to use technology effectively in teaching and learning, the ability to work collaboratively, evidence of scholarly activity, and a commitment to public higher education.

Canisius C

Mod Langs, 2001 Main St Buffalo NY 14208

Associate or Full Professor of French

1607

<http://www.canisius.edu>

French Canisius College, associate or full professor level, to chair Modern Languages department. Prefer generalist able to teach broad range of courses in French literature and culture at undergraduate level. Administrative experience and strong leadership skills required. Ability to work with internationally oriented departments and programs. Experience and interest in program development and study abroad. Native or near-native fluency in French and English, demonstrated evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching, and a commitment to scholarship. Teaching load as chair is two courses per semester. Salary competitive and commensurate with experience. Send CV, letter of application, including three letters of reference, to Dr. Peter Galie, Chair of the Modern Languages Search Committee, Canisius College, 2001 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14208. Review of applications will begin December 1. Applications will continue to be considered until the position is filled. Canisius College is an independent, coeducational, medium-sized institution conducted in the Catholic and Jesuit tradition. EOE. See www.canisius.edu. [R]

Georgia Southern U

For Langs, PO Box 8081 Statesboro GA 30460

Associate/Full Professor and Chair

1023

<http://www.georgiasouthern.edu>

Tenure track position and chair, Department of Literature and Philosophy. Ph. D. required. Start date July 1, 2006. Field of specialization open: literature and/or philosophy. Salary dependent upon qualifications. Candidates must demonstrate excellence in teaching, a significant publication record in peer-reviewed venues, and a record of outstanding contributions to their professional field. The successful candidate must qualify for the rank of associate or full professor within the department and must meet requirements for appointment to the graduate faculty of the university. One to three years prior administrative experience is highly desirable. Primary responsibilities will include administrative and leadership duties associated with chairing a department of 22 active teacher-scholars who contribute significantly to the university's core curriculum. Send letters of application addressing the qualifications for the position, a curriculum vitae, and names of three references with complete addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses, to Dr. Donnie D. Richards, Chair, Literature and Philosophy Chair Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages, P.O. Box 8081, Statesboro, GA 30460-8081. Screening will begin on November 1, 2005, and continue until the position is filled. The names of applicants and nominees, vitae and other general non-evaluative information may be subject to public inspection under the Georgia Open Records Act. Georgia Southern University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity institution. Individuals who need reasonable accommodations under the ADA in order to participate in the search process should notify the search chair. More information about the institution is available at www.georgiasouthern.edu. [R]

Memorial U of Newfoundland

German & Russian, Elizabeth Av St John's, NF Canada A1B 3X9

Head-Department of German & Russian 1509

<http://www.mun.ca/arts/>

POSITION #: VPA-GRRS-2005-001

The Department is seeking a colleague with proven administrative skills and a solid record of research with a German specialization. The area of expertise is open, but we are particularly interested in candidates able to teach survey of literature and culture courses at all levels, with a research interest in the 18th century OR the Age of Goethe, for which we have excellent library holdings. Candidates should have native or near-native fluency in German. The Department currently has six regular faculty members, healthy undergraduate enrolments and successful field schools in both German and Russian, and is seeking to expand its graduate program. Applications, accompanied by a current curriculum vitae, a teaching dossier and the names and addresses of three persons who can supply a letter of reference, should be directed to: Dr Gerhard Bassler, Chair, Headship Search Committee, c/o Department of German & Russian, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St John's, NL, Canada A1B 3X9. Phone: (709) 737-8831; fax: (709) 737-4000; email: marjorie@mun.ca. Candidates must have a completed doctoral degree in a relevant specialization, and a record of academic leadership experience in research, undergraduate and graduate programming. Letters of application should specifically address the qualifications and experience that make the applicant a suitable candidate for the position of Head and well qualified for a tenured senior position in the department. The term of office for Heads is three years, normally renewable once following review. All applications should reach the Chair of the Search Committee no later than November 18, 2005. Subject to budgetary approval, appointment will normally commence on July 1, 2006 and will be at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor.

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. As the province's only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programs to nearly 18,000 students, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John's, a safe, friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life, and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities. With over 170 regular faculty members in 14 academic departments and a wide variety of interdisciplinary major, minor and diploma programs, the Faculty of Arts offers breadth, depth and diversity. Counting over 3,000 registered students with declared majors or minors, and with strong graduate programs, the Faculty is committed to providing solid teaching and research support to new appointees. Memorial's Queen Elizabeth II Library has excellent holdings with the most extensive collection of journals in the region. Please see <http://www.mun.ca/arts/>.

NOTE: All applications should quote the appropriate position number .

Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. [R]

Michigan SU

C of Arts & Letters, 200 Linton Hall East Lansing MI 48824

Chair of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese

1502

<http://www.msu.edu/unit/spp/>

Michigan State University invites applications for the position of Chair of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. Candidates with distinguished records of research, publication, and teaching in any departmental area meriting a tenured appointment at the rank of professor and with relevant administrative experience at a research-oriented institution will be considered. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience as chair and qualifications. The chair is expected to demonstrate the personal qualities necessary to lead and manage a complex department; represent the department's interests effectively within the university and in the larger community; demonstrate appreciation for the diversity of its faculty and encourage excellence in research, teaching and service while enhancing opportunities for professional development; communicate departmental concerns and issues accurately and effectively to College and University administrators; demonstrate commitment to an open and inclusive environment for diverse groups/disciplines. The chair shall also promote departmental participation in the Center for Language Education and Research (CLEAR), the program in Second Language Studies, the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CLACS), the Center for Integrative Studies Arts and Humanities (CISAH), the program in Chicano-Latino Studies, the Global Literary and Cultural Studies research cluster (GLCS) and the Literature of the Americas program (LOTA) in the Department of English. The successful candidate will be the first permanent chair of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, which became an independent unit three years ago. The Department of Spanish and Portuguese is located in the College of Arts and Letters and offers a B.A. program in Spanish, as well as M.A. programs in Hispanic Literature and in Applied Spanish Linguistics, and a Ph.D. program in Hispanic Cultural Studies. Further information about the Department can be found at: <http://www.msu.edu/unit/spp/>.

All applicants and nominees who wish to be considered must submit a letter, highlighting their interest and qualifications pertinent to the position, as well as a vita and the names and contact information of at least three references. References will be contacted only after initial screening and after receiving the candidate's permission.

Send materials to:

Chair, Search Committee Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 256 Old Horticulture, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824.

The committee will begin reviewing applications on December 1, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Persons with disabilities may request and receive reasonable accommodation.

U of California, Santa Cruz

Dean of Humanities, 350 McHenry Library 1156 High Street Santa Cruz CA 95064

Dean of Humanities

1468

<http://www.ucsc.edu/ahr/humdean.html>

The University of California, Santa Cruz seeks a Dean of Humanities. The UC Santa Cruz campus is recognized as an outstanding research university, combining innovative research and multidisciplinary scholarship with a strong commitment to undergraduate and graduate education. The Dean provides intellectual, academic, and administrative leadership in the instructional and research missions of the Division of Humanities.

The Division of Humanities is a leading force in interdisciplinary research, recruitment and retention of a diverse faculty and student populations, and excellence in graduate and undergraduate teaching. The division houses nine academic departments and a number of interdisciplinary research centers and initiatives. Collaborations forged within the division and throughout the campus optimize the excellent teaching, research, and public service that make UC Santa Cruz a unique institution of higher education.

We seek an individual whose qualifications include demonstrated academic administrative leadership, an interest in fostering interdisciplinary research, an appreciation for the mission and responsibilities of a university serving a multi-ethnic state, a demonstrated commitment to diversity, and an outstanding record of scholarly achievement that is appropriate for appointment as full Professor in the UC system. Detailed position description and application information are available at <http://www.ucsc.edu/ahr/HumDean.pdf>. Review of applications and nominations will begin December 2, 2005, and continue until the position is filled.

UCSC is an EEO/AA employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

U of California, Irvine

Film and Media Studies, 235 HIB Irvine CA 92697

Department Chair, Associate or Full Professor

1473

<http://www.humanities.uci.edu/filmstudies/>

The Department of Film and Media Studies at the University of California, Irvine, announces one tenured position for Chair at the Associate or Full Professor level beginning July 1, 2006.

Film and Media Studies is an undergraduate major in the School of Humanities. The position includes participation in our Ph.D. Program in Visual Studies administered jointly by Film and Media Studies and Art History. Visit our web site at <http://www.humanities.uci.edu/visualstudies/>

Qualifications: Successful candidate will be an excellent scholar and tenured professor with administrative experience who would chair a department set to grow rapidly, and must have an established record of teaching and research in any field of film and media history and theory.

Applications should include: Statement of current research, curriculum vitae, writing or publication sample, teaching interests, two sample course syllabi, and names of referees. Applicants who submitted materials for the tenured position in Winter 2005 and wish to be considered should submit a letter to the Search Committee chair requesting re-activation of the previous file. Any new materials received with the letter of request will be added to the file.

Send materials to University of California, Irvine, Professor Edward Dimendberg, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Film and Media Studies 235 HIB, Irvine, CA 92697-2435

SEARCH COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Sohail Daulatzai, Edward Dimendberg (Chair), James D. Herbert, Victoria Johnson, Peter Krapp, Felicidad Lim, Mark Poster, and Fatimah Tobing Rony

Further inquiries may be addressed to Professor Dimendberg by e-mail at ed1@uci.edu.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: November 15, 2005

UC-Irvine is located in Southern California, approximately halfway between Los Angeles and San Diego, and offers easy access to diverse museums, archives, and research collections. The campus is home to the Humanities Film and Video Center, a state-of-the-art theater showcasing innovative film and video programs. The School of Humanities boasts the internationally recognized Critical Theory Institute and UCI is also the host campus to the University of California system-wide Humanities Research Institute.

Proof of US citizenship or eligibility for US employment will be required prior to employment (Immigration Reform Act of 1986).

UCI IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE THROUGH DIVERSITY, HAS AN ACTIVE CAREER PARTNER PROGRAM, AND A NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION ADVANCE GENDER EQUITY PROGRAM.

U of Central Arkansas

World Languages, Literatures, & Cultures, 201 Donaghey Av Conway AR 72035

Chair

92

<http://www.uca.edu>

Chair, World Languages, Literatures and Cultures. The University of Central Arkansas (UCA) invites applications for the position of chair of the Department of World Languages, Literature and Cultures, to lead a dynamic and growing department of fifteen full-time faculty offering BA degrees in French and Spanish, a minor in German, and language instruction in Japanese and Russian. The department also offers an MA in Spanish. All BA students at UCA are required to complete an intermediate-level language course. The successful candidate must possess the PhD in one of the languages taught in the department with skills at or near native proficiency. Specialization open. Applications should reflect an excellent teaching record, a commitment to academic excellence, a strong belief in a liberal arts education, and a record of significant scholarly achievement sufficient for appointment at the rank of associate or full professor, demonstrated administrative abilities and strong interpersonal and communication skills. Preference given to candidates who have experience in developing language programs and in enhancing language initiatives on campus and in the community. Although not required, experience in developing study-abroad programs is highly desirable. The starting date is July 1, 2006. Salary and benefits will be very competitive.

A complete application will include a letter of application which addresses the appropriate issues in the job description, a curriculum vita, a brief statement of education and administrative philosophies, a copy of the terminal transcript, and three recent confidential letters of reference. Send to Dr. Maurice A. Lee, Dean, College of Liberal Arts, Irby Hall 120, University of Central Arkansas, 201 Donaghey Avenue, Conway, AR 72035. Review of applications will begin November 11, 2005, and continue until position is filled. The University of Central Arkansas is an equal employment opportunity/affirmative action employer. UCA's Web site is www.uca.edu.

Founded in 1907, the University of Central Arkansas is an accredited, state-supported institution that awards the bachelor's master's and specialist's degrees. The university has grown rapidly in recent years and has an enrollment of approximately 10,000 students and faculty or more than 350. Conway, a prosperous community of almost 50,000 has three colleges and universities and an excellent public school system. It is located thirty miles northwest of Little Rock near the Ozarks. [R]

U of Colorado

East Asian Langs & Civs, PO Box 279 Boulder CO 80309

Chair 1388
<http://eall@colorado.edu>

The Department of East Asian Languages and Civilizations, the University of Colorado, seeks a CHAIR. Candidates should have a background in Japanese or Chinese literature, linguistics or cultural studies, and should establish their eligibility for a senior level professorial appointment by having an outstanding record in teaching and scholarship. The department currently offers degrees in Chinese/Japanese language and literature, and Chinese/Japanese language and civilization, and a non-degree program in Korean language. The Department is expanding its scope to include other geographical areas of Asia, and anticipates being renamed to reflect this expansion; language instruction in Hindi will commence in the 2006–2007 academic year. The Chair will also participate in developing doctoral programs in Japanese and Chinese. Candidates should send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, names of three referees to: Chair, Search Committee, EALC, University of Colorado,

279 UCB, Boulder, CO 80309. Review of applications will begin on October 15, 2005. The University of Colorado at Boulder is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment.

U of Illinois at Chicago

LAS Administration, 601 S. Morgan Street (m/c 228) Chicago IL 60607

Department Head 1390
<http://www.las.uic.edu>

The Department of Germanic Studies at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC) invites applications and nominations for the position of Head, effective Fall 2006. We will consider applications from senior scholars in any area of the discipline.

Located near downtown Chicago, UIC is a Carnegie Doctoral/Research-Extensive University with 15,448 undergraduate and 8,959 graduate and professional students.

In addition to our undergraduate degrees in Germanic Studies as well as the Teaching of German, we have a thriving graduate program at both the MA and PhD level. The Department enjoys active interdisciplinary relationships with other units in the University including Gender and Women's Studies, Jewish Studies, Second Language Acquisition, Moving Image Arts (Cinema Studies), Philosophy, History, Criminal Justice, and English. These programs attract a national and international pool of graduate students, and UIC scholars draw on a rich resource base including the UIC Institute for the Humanities and the Newberry Library. The University also has broad community outreach, especially with the Chicago Public Schools.

The Department Head provides leadership in the areas of research, teaching, university development, and international and community outreach. The Department Head is also the chief administrative officer with responsibilities for the instructional programs of the Department, administrative, budgetary, and promotion decisions. Candidates should present a strong research record, an interest in innovative teaching approaches, and evidence of successful administrative performance, as well as the ability to operate effectively in a collegial environment. Candidates must be qualified for appointment at the rank of full professor with tenure. The position is available as of August 16, 2006.

To receive fullest consideration, applications should be received by November 30, 2005. Applications should include a full curriculum vita, a letter of application, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three academic references. Applications and nominations should be addressed to: Professors Mary Beth Rose and Jennifer Ashton, Co-Chairs, Search Committee for the Head of Germanic Studies, University of Illinois at Chicago, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (MC 228), 601 S. Morgan St., 4th Fl., Chicago, IL 60607-7104

The University of Illinois at Chicago is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

U of Massachusetts Amherst

Office of the Dean, College of Humanities & Fine Arts, 221 South College Amherst MA 01003

Chair: Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures 1176
<http://www.umass.edu/hfa/>

The College of Humanities and Fine Arts at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst invites applications for the position of Chair in the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures. The department incorporates programs in Asian Languages and Literatures, Comparative Literature, French and Italian Studies, Germanic and Scandinavian Studies, and Spanish and Portuguese. The University of Massachusetts Translation Center and the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages are also affiliates. The field of academic specialization is open: candidates with distinguished records of research, publications, and teaching in the study of foreign languages, literatures, and cultures and with relevant administrative experience at a research-oriented institution will be considered. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Candidates must demonstrate the ability to promote interaction among the different programs. It is desirable that the candidate have experience in securing grants and other types of funding, in developing innovative curricula, of fostering interdisciplinary and multicultural research and teaching, and in implementing procedures for assessment of a broad range of programs within a large, robust department.

Applications review will begin November 1, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. Applicants should include a cover letter, a CV, and contact information for 3 referees. All materials should be sent to: Professor Daniel Gordon, Chair/Search Committee, c/o Jeanne Lapan, College of Humanities and Fine Arts, South College-150 Hicks Way, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA 01003-9274.

UMass Amherst is a member of the Five College Consortium along with Amherst, Hampshire, Smith, and Mount Holyoke Colleges and is also a member of the Academic Career Network, a resource for dual career couples.

The University of Massachusetts Amherst is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and members of minority groups are encouraged to apply.

U of Mississippi

Mod Langs, Bondurant C-115 University MS 38677

Chair of Modern Languages

809

<http://www.olemiss.edu>

The Department of Modern Languages invites applications for Department Chair, a tenure-track, twelve-month position at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor. The Ph.D. is required and may be in any of the languages offered by the department or in a related field. Salary and starting date are negotiable. Candidates must have a record of excellence in scholarly achievement and teaching sufficient to warrant appointment at senior rank. Effective interpersonal and administrative skills are also required. Responsibilities will include supervising academic programs, supporting faculty research, managing resources, and representing the Department to the College and the University.

The Department offers the BA and MA with emphases in Spanish, French, and German, as well as instruction in Chinese, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, and Russian. The faculty is committed to high quality research, graduate and undergraduate education, and fostering an environment of diversity among faculty and students. Please see http://www.olemiss.edu/depts/modern_languages/ for more information about the department.

Candidates should submit a letter of interest, an application, and a curriculum vitae online at <https://jobs.olemiss.edu>. Applicants should arrange to have three letters of recommendation with complete contact information sent to Scotty Hargrove, Acting Chair, Department of Health, Exercise Science, and Recreation Management, University, MS 38677. Review of applications will begin immediately. The position will remain open until filled or until an adequate applicant pool is established.

The University of Mississippi is an EEO/AA/Title VI/Title IV/Section 504/ADA/ADEA Employer. [R]

U of North Carolina at Charlotte

College of Arts and Sciences, 9201 University City Blvd Charlotte NC 28223

Chair of the Department of Languages and Culture Studies

1434

<http://www.uncc.edu>

Chair, Department of Languages and Culture Studies. University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Senior-level twelve-month appointment, beginning July 1, 2006. Salary competitive. The Chair normally teaches one course per semester.

Fields of teaching and research are open, but fields in which a major is offered at UNC Charlotte are preferred. Candidates should have: 1) a doctoral degree, 2) credentials appropriate for appointment at the rank of full-professor, and 3) successful administrative experience in a large university setting, preferably as a department chair. A record of success in securing program-related funding is highly desirable. The selected candidate will need to have the ability to lead a diverse department with numerous programmatic and research goals.

Programs in the Department include an M.A. degree in Spanish with a track in Language, Literature and Culture and a track in Translating and Translation Studies; MAT degrees in French and German; undergraduate majors and minors in French, German, and Spanish; minors in Japanese, Russian, and Western Antiquity and Classical Languages; and certificate programs in Business Language and in Translating and Translation Studies (both undergraduate and graduate). Other languages taught include Arabic, Chinese, Greek, Italian and Portuguese. The Department has 28 full-time faculty members.

UNC Charlotte is a dynamic, research-intensive university, located in a thriving urban area, with a student population of 20,000+ and some 900 full-time faculty.

For consideration, submit a letter of application describing your vision for the study of foreign languages and cultures, approach to leadership, teaching, and scholarship, vita, and three letters of reference to Chair Search Committee, College of Arts and Sciences, UNC Charlotte, 9201 University City Blvd, Charlotte, NC 28223-0001. AA/EOE employer. Minorities, persons with disabilities, and women are especially encouraged to apply. Screening of applications begins December 10, 2005 and will continue until position is filled. [R]

U of Saint Thomas

Mod & Classical Langs, 2115 Summit Av, Mail #5027 St Paul MN 55105

Spanish-Modern & Classical Languages

347

<http://www.stthomas.edu/hr>

Tenure-Track Faculty

The University of St. Thomas is seeking applications and nominations for an Associate/Full Professor to serve as Chair of the department of Modern and Classical Languages. Ph.D. with specialization in any area of Latin American or Peninsular Spanish literature and culture, or SLA (with Spanish emphasis). Willingness to teach at all levels of the Spanish program, including the language requirement sequence, is expected. Established scholarly record, demonstrated excellence in teaching, and administrative experience required. Commitment to leading a multi-language department unit imperative. Other duties include student advising, department and university service and involvement in study-abroad programs. Innovative approaches to teaching, demonstrated knowledge and support of technology in the classroom, and knowledge of additional world languages desirable.

The University of St. Thomas seeks to develop morally responsible individuals who combine career competence with cultural awareness and intellectual curiosity. A Catholic and urban university, St. Thomas continues to develop outstanding regionally and nationally recognized programs and support services as it strengthens its ties to the local community, particularly the vibrant and ethnically diverse cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Send a letter of application (refer to position #200537), curriculum vita, a statement on your philosophy of departmental governance, evidence of excellence in teaching, a projection of your scholarly agenda, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation electronically to: www.stthomas.edu/hr, or mail to: UST, Mail #AQU 217, 2115 Summit Avenue, St, Paul, MN 55105.

Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2005 and preliminary interviews will be conducted at the MLA conference in Washington DC. AA/EOE

U of Southern Indiana

Foreign Languages, 8600 University Blvd Evansville IN 47712

Associate or Full Professor of Spanish and Foreign Language Department Chair

1035

<http://www.usi.edu/foreign>

The University of Southern Indiana invites applications for Chair of the Department of Foreign Languages. Applicants must hold an earned doctorate from an accredited institution in Spanish or related field; a demonstrated record of teaching and scholarly accomplishments that will support appointment at an advanced rank; administrative experience in a Foreign Languages department; proficiency in teaching Spanish at all levels; knowledge of current trends and pedagogy in Foreign Languages; and the ability to provide leadership that places emphasis on fairness and openness, fostering cooperation and collaboration among faculty. The USI Foreign Languages Department offers majors in French, German and Spanish with additional courses offered through the intermediate level in Latin and Japanese. The successful candidate will join a department dedicated to undergraduate teaching, scholarship, and service. Applicants are invited to visit our website at <http://www.usi.edu/foreign>. Send letter of application, CV, a statement of administrative approach and academic leadership, and contact information including e-mail addresses of three professional references to: Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, Chair, Foreign Language Chair Search, University of Southern Indiana, 8600 University Blvd., Evansville, IN, 47712. Review of applications will begin November 15 and continue until the position is filled. [R]

Utah SU

Lang, Philos, & Sp Comm, 0720 Old Main Hill Logan UT 84322

Department Head

1438

<http://www.usu.edu/hr/w1-106-05.htm>

The Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Speech Communication at Utah State University seeks to fill the position of Department Head. Ph.D. required and candidates must qualify for tenure at the rank of full professor plus have an academic specialization in one of the disciplines represented in the department. Desired qualities include demonstrated administrative skills, knowledge of a foreign language, the capacity to work well with students and colleagues from diverse disciplinary and cultural backgrounds, and the ability to guide the department in its future development.

The department has 27 tenure-line faculty offering undergraduate majors in French, German, Spanish, Philosophy, and Speech Communication as well as a Master's of Second Language Teaching. There are undergraduate minors in Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese, Russian, and Linguistics together with instruction in Italian, Korean, and Navajo. Utah State University and the Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Speech Communication are noted for excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service, and for the quality of professional interaction. Further information about the department may be found at <http://www.usu.edu/langphil>.

Utah State University is situated in a beautiful mountain valley with a population of 75,000; it is 90 minutes north of metropolitan Salt Lake City. Currently, the local population is 15% Hispanic, and it is projected that by 2010 40% of students enrolled in Utah's elementary schools will be Hispanic. The area has great scenic beauty and a four-season climate with excellent opportunities for outdoor recreation year round.

The position is available July 1, 2006, and salary and benefits are competitive; see <http://www.usu.edu/hr/new/benefits2005/index.cfm> for details. Review of applications will begin January 9, 2006, and will continue until the position is filled. On-campus interviews will be scheduled for February. Applicants should submit a letter of interest, complete curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation to: Professor Jeannie B. Thomas, Chair, LPSC Search Committee, College of HASS, 0700 Old Main Hill, Utah State University, Logan UT 84322-0700, Tel: 435/-797-2736, FAX: 435/-797-1092, e-mail: jthomas@english.usu.edu

The letter of interest should describe the candidate's administrative philosophy, educational philosophy, and interpersonal skills. The letter should also address specific administrative skills desired for the position, which include responsiveness to faculty, support and promotion of faculty research, and an openness and willingness to understand the disciplines in the department.

Utah State University is a Carnegie Research Doctoral Extensive University, an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer, and was chosen recently as a NSF ADVANCE Gender Equity Program recipient. USU is sensitive to the needs of dual-career applicants and dedicated to recruiting candidates from a diverse pool, including women, minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities.

Western Kentucky U

Modern Languages, 1906 College Heights Blvd #31029 Bowling Green KY 42101

Department Head of Modern Languages

1524

<http://www.wku.edu/modernlanguages/>

Potter College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

APPOINTMENT: 12-month position, beginning July 1, 2006. Tenure, rank and salary are dependent on qualifications.

QUALIFICATIONS: earned Ph.D.; distinguished record in teaching and scholarship in one of the disciplines represented in the department; ability to provide vision and creative leadership to advance the department's educational mission; ability to promote the diverse talents of faculty to build on department's strengths; demonstrated interest in maintaining and strengthening connections between department and other campus and public school constituencies; evidence of language pedagogy knowledge and impact of technology on language instruction.

THE UNIVERSITY AND THE DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES: Western Kentucky University is located in Bowling Green, Kentucky, a city with a population of 50,000, approximately 110 miles south of Louisville and 65 miles north of Nashville, Tennessee. Over 18,000 students attend Western pursuing programs leading to bachelor's and master's degrees in arts and sciences, education, government services, business, industry, health, agriculture and similar fields. The Department of Modern Languages offers to over 100 majors those programs leading to the bachelor's degree in French, German and Spanish, as well as the Master of Arts in Education degree in French and Spanish. WKU has a general education requirement in languages for all students. The Department consists of fourteen full-time faculty members and twelve part-time faculty members who represent academic expertise in a wide variety of areas. In addition to the majors and minors listed above, courses in Chinese, Russian and Japanese are also offered. The Department has a state-of-the-art Media Center, and all classes are taught in smart classrooms. Visit the departmental website at <http://www.wku.edu/modernlanguages/> for more information.

LANGUAGE OUTREACH: The institution is a member of a study abroad consortium, and the department faculty collaborates with public schools and the public library to offer innovative, after-school, enrichment programs. Various study abroad opportunities allow students to enhance their coursework and deepen their linguistic skills.

APPLICATION: Candidates must send a letter of application, curriculum vitae and three current letters of reference specific to this position. Submit application materials to: ML Department Head Search, Dr. Mitzi Groom, Search Chair, 1906 College Heights Blvd., #41029, Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, KY 42101-1029.

Screening will begin November 15, 2005, and continue until the position is filled.

The University has a strong commitment to achieving diversity among faculty and staff. All qualified individuals are encouraged to apply, including women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and disabled veterans. Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE

Bryn Mawr C

Comp Lit, 101 N Merion Av Bryn Mawr PA 19010

Associate or Advanced Assistant Professor of Comparative Literature

1168

<http://www.brynmawr.edu/complit/>

Tenure-track position in the Comparative Literature Program for an Associate Professor (preferred) or an Advanced Assistant Professor (within one to two years of the tenure decision.) The successful candidate will be capable of leading the program and will also contribute to a language and literature department. Expertise required in at least two languages and national literatures. Additional specialization in areas such as intellectual history, critical theory, film studies is welcome. A strong research and teaching record is expected; evidence of administrative experience is also desirable.

Initial interviews will be conducted at the annual meeting of the MLA in December 2005 in Washington, D.C. Please send a letter of application outlining research and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, a writing sample, and three current letters of recommendation by November 11 to: Elizabeth Cheresh Allen, Chair, Comparative Literature Search Committee, Russian Center, Bryn Mawr College, 101 N. Merion Avenue, Bryn Mawr, PA. 19010

Bryn Mawr is a liberal arts college for women that supports faculty excellence in both teaching and research, and provides a rigorous education in the context of a diverse and pluralistic scholarly community. Located 11 miles west of Philadelphia, the college participates in consortial programs with the University of Pennsylvania, Haverford and Swarthmore Colleges. Bryn Mawr College is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer. Minority candidates and women are especially encouraged to apply.

California SU, Long Beach

Comp World Lit & Classics, 1250 Bellflower Blvd, MHB 517 Long Beach CA 90840

Assistant Professor, Comparative Literature

1635

<http://www.csulb.edu>

Ph. D. in Comparative Literature or related field, specialization in Medieval/Renaissance Continental European literature; Ph. D. required at time of appointment. Ability to teach specialized courses and General Education courses (e.g., Introduction to World Literature, European Literature surveys, interdisciplinary courses). The candidate must communicate effectively with an ethnically and culturally diverse campus community. Salary range: commensurate with qualifications and experience. Required Documentation: letter of application; curriculum vitae with contact information, including e-mail address; three letters of recommendation; official transcripts; teaching evaluations; writing sample (30 pp. maximum). Review of applications to begin December 1, 2005. Address inquiries and applications to Carl Fisher, Search Committee Chair, Department of Comparative World Literature and Classics (cfisher2@csulb.edu). CSULB is an EEO employer. [R]

California SU, Chico

English, Chico CA 95929

Assistant Professor-Comparative Literature

1336

<http://www.csuchico.edu>

The English Department at California State University, Chico seeks to fill a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Comparative Literature/Literature in Translation beginning Fall 2006. The minimum requirement for appointment to this position is an earned doctorate in English or Comparative Literature at the time of the appointment. Demonstrated excellence in teaching and a commitment to and evidence of research and publication. Scholarly interests should be grounded in continental European literature and its historical and social contexts. Experience teaching period, genre, and/or theme courses in comparative literature, and an active, profession interest in the theory and practice of translation is desirable. Knowledge of and interest in working with California's diverse student population. As a university that educates students of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds, we value a diverse faculty and staff and seek to create as diverse a pool of candidates as possible. Review of applications will begin December 2, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Send letter, dossier and three letters of rec. to Lynn Elliott, Chair, English Dept. California State University, Chico, CA. 95929-0830. Chico is an EEO/AA/ADA employer and only employs individuals lawfully authorized to work in the U.S. [R]

California S Polytechnic U, Pomona

English & Foreign Languages, 3801 W Temple Ave Pomona CA 91768

Assistant Professor, World Literature

752

<http://www.csupomona.edu/~academic/faculty/positions/index.h>

The English and Foreign Languages Department invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in World Literature (specialty open) effective September 2006. Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in an appropriate discipline related to World Literature by July 1, 2006; evidence of effective teaching and scholarly potential. Duties and Responsibilities: teaching and developing courses in World Literature of various traditions, genres, and periods; teaching composition; student advising; and university services. Application Deadline: Completed applications must be received by Nov. 30, 2005. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the MLA Convention in December 2005. For expanded position description and application form, call (909) 869-3940, e-mail mpaguiar@csupomona.edu or visit the Website at <http://www.csupomona.edu/~academic/faculty/positions/index.htm>

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply, including minorities and women. The University is an AA/EOE. [R]

Colorado C

Comparative Literature, 14 E Cache la Poudre Colorado Springs CO 80903

Visiting Instructor/Professor (rank open) of Comparative Literature

1197

<http://www.coloradocollege.edu/idprog/ComparativeLiterature/>

One-year position (with possible renewal for up to two additional years) in Comparative Literature, rank open, to begin teaching in the fall of 2006. Area of expertise open. Salary competitive. The successful candidate will be fluent both in English, and in at least one other language, and will have a strong background in comparative approaches to literature and in literary theory. Strong undergraduate teaching ability is essential. Teaching responsibilities will include introductory survey of comparative literature, literary theory, as well as introductory and advanced topics courses in the candidate's area of expertise. We will hold interviews with selected candidates at the MLA conference in Washington, D.C. The Program in Comparative Literature is committed to diversity both within the College community and the curriculum. Candidates are encouraged to identify their strengths or experiences in supporting greater diversity in a college setting. Send letter of application, vita, photocopy of transcript, and three letters of reference to: William Davis, Director of Program in Comparative Literature, The Colorado College, 14 E. Cache la Poudre, Colorado Springs, CO 80903. Materials should be postmarked by Monday, November 28, 2005.

The Colorado College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It welcomes members of all groups and reaffirms its commitment not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability in its educational programs, activities, and employment practices. [R]

Hamilton C

Comp Lit, 198 College Hill Rd Clinton NY 13323

Visiting Assistant Professor or Instructor

797

<http://www.hamilton.edu>

The Department of Comparative Literature seeks qualified applicants for a one-year, full-time (5 courses), leave-replacement position starting July 1, 2006. Ph.D. or A.B.D. required. Specialization in "pre-modern"/pre-18th century Asian or Middle Eastern literature with capability to teach introductory World Literature course (spanning the origins of writing to the sixteenth century). Background in interdisciplinary studies especially welcome. Evidence of excellence in teaching a high priority. Hamilton is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer and is committed to diversity in all areas of the campus community. Please send vita, letter of application, writing sample, and three letters of recommendation by November 21 to Carol S. Rupprecht, Acting Chair, Department of Comparative Literature, Hamilton College, 198 College Hill Road, Clinton, NY 13323 [R]

Princeton U

Comp Lit, 133 East Pyne Princeton NJ 08544

Assistant Professor

1466

<http://complit.princeton.edu/index.php/>

The Department of Comparative Literature announces a tenure track assistant professorship. Candidates should have strength in two languages in addition to English and special expertise in the modern literatures and/or film of Africa or the Middle East. Please send letter of application, CV, dossier, and writing sample by November 15th to Professor Daniel Heller-Roazen, Chair of the Search Committee, Department of Comparative Literature, 133 East Pyne, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 08544. Princeton is an EE/AA employer. For further information about applying to Princeton and how to self-identify, please see link to <http://web.princeton.edu/sites/dof/ApplicationsInfo.htm> [R]

U of Aberdeen

C of Arts & Social Sciences, University Office-Kings College Aberdeen AB24 3FX Scotland

Senior Lecturer in Comparative Literature and Cultural Studies

1323

<http://www.abdn.ac.uk/jobs>

£37,558-£42,573 per annum

You will have a strong record of research, and experience of teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, in one, and preferably more than one, of the following areas: comparative literature (primarily European, but also non-European), visual culture, intellectual history, literary theory, psychoanalysis, cultural studies. You will be expected to play a key role in developing interdisciplinary postgraduate teaching and research within the School, in particular our new M.Litt in Comparative Literature and Thought, so the requisite administrative experience is essential. Active involvement with the University's new Centre for Modern Thought will be strongly encouraged, and proven success in attracting significant external funding is also highly desirable.

Informal enquiries can be made to the Head of School, Professor C Fynsk c.fynsk@abdn.ac.uk.

Online application forms and further particulars are available from www.abdn.ac.uk/jobs. Alternatively email jobs@abdn.ac.uk or telephone (01224) 272727 (24-hour answering service), quoting appropriate reference number FLL014A for an application pack.

The closing date for the receipt of applications is 31 October 2005

Promoting Diversity and Equal Opportunities throughout the University [R]

U of Aberdeen

C of Arts & Social Sciences, University Office-Kings College Aberdeen AB24 3FX Scotland

Lecturer in Comparative Literature and Media Studies

1324

<http://www.abdn.ac.uk>

£23,643-£35,883 per annum

You should have a strong record of research, and experience of teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, in media theory and at least one of the following areas: digital culture, European intellectual history, socio-political theory, literary theory, comparative literature. You will be expected to play a role in developing interdisciplinary undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and research within the School, in particular our new M.Litt in Comparative Literature and Thought, so relevant administrative experience would be advantageous.

Informal enquiries can be made to the Head of School, Professor C Fynsk c.fynsk@abdn.ac.uk.

Online application forms and further particulars are available from www.abdn.ac.uk/jobs. Alternatively email jobs@abdn.ac.uk or telephone (01224) 272727 (24-hour answering service), quoting appropriate reference number FLL015A for an application pack.

The closing date for the receipt of applications is 31 October 2005

Promoting Diversity and Equal Opportunities throughout the University [R]

LINGUISTICS AND ESL

Allan Hancock C

Lang Arts, 800 S College Dr Santa Maria CA 93454

PT English as a Second Language Instructor

1225

<http://www.hancockcollege.edu>

PART TIME INSTRUCTORS

English as a Second Language (Credit/Noncredit)

Language Arts Department

Allan Hancock College is accepting applications for English as a Second Language instructors to teach at the Santa Maria campus, Lompoc Valley Center, and the Vandenberg Air Force Base center.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education:

Credit

Requires a master's degree in TESL, TESOL, applied linguistics with a TESL emphasis, linguistics with a TESL emphasis, English with a TESL emphasis, or education with a TESL emphasis OR a bachelor's degree in TESL, TESOL, English with a TESL certificate, linguistics with a TESL certificate, applied linguistics with a TESL certificate, or any foreign language with a TESL certificate AND a master's degree in linguistics, applied linguistics, English, composition, bilingual/bicultural studies, reading, speech, or any foreign language OR the equivalent OR a valid California community college credential authorizing the applicant to teach in the discipline.

Noncredit

Requires a bachelor's degree in teaching English as a second language or teaching English to speakers of other languages OR a bachelor's degree in education, English, Linguistics, any foreign language, composition, bilingual/bicultural studies, reading, speech AND a certificate in teaching English as a second language; OR a bachelor's degree in any of the specific area AND one year teaching ESL in an accredited institution AND a certificate in teaching English as a second language OR the equivalent OR a valid California community college credential authorizing the applicant to teach in the discipline.

Special Qualification: Sensitivity to and an understanding of the various academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, and ethnic backgrounds of staff and students and to staff and students with disabilities.

In its desire to select outstanding faculty members from the largest possible pool of qualified applicants, Allan Hancock College recognizes candidates may have attained expertise in a discipline through a variety of means. Certain combinations of education, experience, and other accomplishments in the field may be judged by the district as equal to the stated minimum qualifications for this position. Candidates who feel they possess such equivalent qualifications are encouraged to complete the equivalency form and provide appropriate documentation of their qualifications.

SALARY

Credit:

Lecture Rate: $33.08 to $57.23 per hour depending upon education and experience

Lab Rate: $30.61 to $52.94 per hour depending upon education and experience

Activity Rate: $22.61 to $38.99 per hour depending upon education and experience

Noncredit:

Instructional Rate: $31.52 to $42.22

Activity and Non-classroom Rate: $22.61 to $29.14

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

To be considered as a candidate for this position, the following materials must be submitted to the college human resources office no later than December 9, 2005.

District application for faculty/administrative positions

Availability Inquiry and Supplemental Application form

Resume of education and professional experience

Transcripts (official not necessary)

APPLICATION

For application materials please visit our Web site at www.hancockcollege.edu or contact: Human Resources, Building U, Allan Hancock College, 800 South College Drive, Santa Maria, CA 93454-6399, (805) 922-6966 extension 3378

Arkansas Tech U

English, 215 West Q St Russellville AR 72801

Assistant Professor of English/TESL

1245

<http://www.atu.edu>

Arkansas Tech University invites applications for a nine-month, tenure-track Assistant Professor of English beginning August 15, 2006. Ph.D. preferred, ABD required. Fields in English, Linguistics or Applied Linguistics with ability to teach TESL classes on undergraduate and graduate levels, as well as commitment to undergraduate courses, including composition, should be demonstrated. Other areas of specialization are open. Arkansas Tech is a mid-sized liberal arts university emphasizing teaching and undergraduate education. Tech offers an M.A. in English (with or without a TESL option), an M.Ed. in English Education, and an M.L.A. in Communication. Closing date is November 23, 2005, or until filled. Send letter of application, rTsumT, copies of transcripts and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Carl Brucker, Head, Department of English, WPN 142, Arkansas Tech University, Russellville, AR 72801. AA/EOE. [R]

Baylor U

English, PO Box 97404 1 Bear Pl Waco TX 76798

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor

642

General Linguistics, with emphasis on syntax/semantics/discourse analysis; to begin Fall 2006. Primarily upper-division courses in our Program in English Language and Linguistics with some graduate teaching. Active researcher with publications either accepted or in print. Baylor is a Baptist university affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer, Baylor encourages minorities, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities to apply. Applicants should be able to affirm Baylor's Christian identity and mission. Applications will be reviewed beginning 17 October 2005, and will be accepted until the position is filled. MLA interviews. To ensure full consideration, applications should be completed by 2 December 2005. The position requires that a letter of application, a c.v., and at least three letters of recommendation be mailed to Professor Maurice Hunt; Chair, Department of English; One Bear Place #97404; Baylor University; Waco, Texas 76798-7404. [R]

Bluffton U

English & Lang, 1 University Drive Bluffton OH 45817

English/TESOL

1486

<http://www.bluffton.edu>

Bluffton University invites applications for a tenure track faculty position beginning fall 2006. Ph.D. in rhetoric/composition, linguistics, or English (ABD will be considered), with advanced degree in TESOL. Background/experience in public school teaching desirable. Responsibilities: Direct growing TESOL program (minor and education endorsement), teach TESOL and language courses, composition, and general education courses, including possible involvement in active cross-cultural program. Review of applications begins November 15 and continues until an appointment is made. Compensation is commensurate with education and experience within the university pay scale. Send letter of interest, resume or curriculum vita, three letters of reference (submitted directly from referee or if necessary from placement office), and official transcripts to Elaine Suderman, Academic Affairs, Bluffton University, 1 University Drive, Bluffton, OH 45817-2104. Bluffton University welcomes applications from all academically qualified persons who respect the Anabaptist/Mennonite peace church tradition and endorse Christian higher education in a liberal arts environment. Members of underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply. EOE. [R]

California SU, Northridge

Department of Chicana/o Studies, 18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330

Assistant Professor of Chicana/o Studies

1087

Qualifications: A doctorate or equivalent in applied linguistics with an emphasis on Chicano/Latino language development, first and second language acquisition, and the role of language in the education of linguistic minority and ESL children. A general knowledge of the language experiences of Chicanos/Latinos is preferred with a specialization in the application of language studies to the preparation of teachers. A background in teacher education is desirable as is a second area of specialization and ability to teach in related areas, for example written communication skills.

Responsibilities: The candidate will normally be expected to teach "Language Acquisition of the Chicana/o and ESL Speakers," in addition to other relevant courses.

Application Deadline: Open until filled. Review of applications will begin December 2, 2005. Please submit 3 letters of recommendation, Vita, and Syllabi for above courses.

Inquiries and nominations should be addressed to: Mary Pardo, Chair, Chicana/o Studies Department, California State University Northridge, 18111 Nordhoff St., CA 91330-8246

California SU, Los Angeles

English, 5151 State University Dr Los Angeles CA 90032

Assistant Professor in Linguistics

1055

<http://www.calstatela.edu/academic/english>

Tenure-track Assistant Professor in Linguistics. ABD or Ph.D. in Linguistics. A Ph.D. from an accredited institution of higher education is required for tenure. Preferred specializations include applied linguistics, sociolinguistics, syntax, and/or the relevance of linguistics to literary study. The candidate should be able to teach introductory, upper-division, and graduate courses in linguistics to English majors and linguistics courses for credential students preparing to teach English in grades K-12. The candidate should also demonstrate an ability or interest in teaching in a multicultural, multiethnic campus and have a commitment to fostering intercommunication among linguistics, composition, and literary studies. Send application letter, vita, official transcripts, and 3 letters of recommendation to John Cleman, Acting Chair, Department of English, California State University, Los Angeles, 5151 State University Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90032-8110 by December 1, 2005. EO/Title IX/ADA Employer. [R]

Murray SU

English & Philos, 7C Faculty Hall Murray KY 42071

Assistant Professor of English

1155

Assistant Professor, Department of English and Philosophy, Murray State University.

Full-time, tenure track position to begin August 2006.

Qualifications: Candidate must have Ph.D. in TESOL, Applied Linguistics or related degree before September 2006. Ability to teach online courses is required. Experience in teacher training preferred. Evidence of good teaching and scholarly potential required.

Responsibilities: Teaching TESOL and linguistics courses in Master of Arts in TESOL program.

Application Deadline: December 10, 2005.

To Apply: Submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, placement file with transcripts and three recent letters of recommendation addressing the above qualifications/responsibilities and teaching evaluations to: TESOL Search, Department of English and Philosophy, Murray State University, 7C Faculty Hall, Murray, KY 42071.

Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Murray State University is an equal education and employment opportunity, M/F/D, AA employer. [R]

Northwestern C

Mod For Langs, 101 Seventh St SW Orange City IA 51041

Assistant Professor of ESL and TESL

370

<http://www.nwciowa.edu>

Beginning August 2006, teaching assignments include a range of ESL courses for international students, such as ESL for Academic Purposes, ESL Bible, Business English, Oral English, ESL Writing and American Culture, in addition to TESL courses for the TESL Endorsement in Education for the B.A. program. Additional responsibilities include advising, Modern Foreign Languages departmental duties, student teaching supervision, scholarship, committee assignments, and working closely with international programs personnel. Preference will be given to candidates with a doctorate or nearly completed doctorate in ESL and/or TESL/Linguistics and proven excellence in teaching. Northwestern College seeks faculty who are evangelical in theology with a Reformed perspective, and who are committed to the distinctives of a Christian liberal arts education. Applications, including curriculum vitae and copies of transcripts, should be submitted to: Dr. Jasper Lesage, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Northwestern College, Orange City, IA 51041 vpaa@nwciowa.edu. NWC is an Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

Penn State U

Linguistics & Applied Lang Studies, 305 Sparks Bldg University Park PA 16802

Professor of Applied Linguistics (Open Rank)

1147

<http://lals.la.psu.edu/>

Department of Linguistics and Applied Language Studies, Penn State University

Rank open position for applied linguist specializing in corpus linguistics with strong interest in languages other than English and in learner corpora. Ph.D. required at time of appointment. Substantial research and teaching record expected. For appointment at senior rank an outstanding record in both areas is necessary. In addition to corpus linguistics, the successful candidate will be expected to contribute to other areas within the department's scope, including SLA, discourse analysis, language and culture, language in use, language and health, language pedagogy.

Send applications along with CV, three confidential letters of recommendation, no more than 3 sample publications and documentation of teaching excellence no later than Nov. 11 2005 to: James P. Lantolf (JPL7@PSU.EDU), Chair, Search Committee, Box A, 305 Sparks Building, University Park, PA 16802.

Information about the department can be found at <http://lals.la.psu.edu/> [R]

Syracuse U

Langs, Lits & Ling, 340 HBCrouse Hall Syracuse NY 13244

Assistant Professor of TESOL 1405

Syracuse University:

Assistant Professor of TESOL. A tenure-track position to teach TESOL and TESOL methods courses within a Linguistics Studies Program. Ph.D. in TESOL or Applied Linguistics. Demonstrated record of excellence in research and teaching. Interest and experience in training International Teaching Assistants and teacher certification program desirable. The candidate hired must have Ph.D. in hand by August 2006. Salary is competitive. Send cover letter, dossier (CV, 3 letters of recommendations, evidence of teaching excellence and research interests, with at least one writing sample) to Jaklin Kornfilt, Chair/Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, Syracuse, NY 13244-1160. Submission deadline to be considered for interview at the LSA annual meeting in Albuquerque or at the MLA annual meeting in Washington, DC: 12.2.05. Women, minorities urged to apply: AA/EOE employer. [R]

U of North Texas

English, PO Box 311307 Denton TX 76203

Assistant Professor of English (Linguistics—Specialty Open) 1125

<http://www.engl.unt.edu>

The Linguistics Division of the University of North Texas Department of English is currently accepting applications for a tenure-track position (specialty open) at the Assistant Professor level beginning September 2006. Applicants' research interests should complement our program's current strengths in field-based research. Teaching load: 3/2. Applicants must demonstrate a long-term commitment to research and publication. In addition, we seek candidates who will contribute to our plan to establish a doctoral program in Linguistics. The Ph.D. in Linguistics is required by the time of the appointment. For information about the Linguistics Division, including a list of courses and their descriptions, please visit our website at www.ling.unt.edu. To apply for this position please send a letter of application, vita, and three letters of reference to Prof. James T. F. Tanner, Chair, Department of English, University of North Texas, P.O. Box 311307, Denton, TX 76203-1307. We will begin considering applications on October 15, 2005. This position will remain open until filled. UNT is AA/EO employer that values diversity.

U of Oklahoma

Mod Langs, Lits, & Linguistics, 780 Van Vleet Oval, Rm 202 Norman OK 73019

Assistant Professor of Linguistics 1529

<http://modlang.ou.edu>

The University of Oklahoma invites applications for a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level in the Linguistics Program of the Department of Modern Languages, Literatures, and Linguistics. A PhD in Linguistics required, with strong evidence of research and publication potential. Any research specialty is acceptable, but the appointed candidate will teach phonetics and phonology. The successful candidate must be general enough to teach most undergraduate courses as needed and strengthen the undergraduate program in linguistics. Teaching load is five courses per year. Submit a letter of application and dossier (CV, recent teaching evaluations, and writing sample), and arrange to have three letters of recommendation sent directly to Marcia Haag, Chair of the Search Committee, Modern Languages, Literatures, and Linguistics, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma 73019 by December 1, 2005. Initial invited interviews will be held at the LSA Annual Meeting in Albuquerque January 5–8. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. The University of Oklahoma is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. [R]

U of Pittsburgh

Linguistics, 2816 Cathedral of Learning Pittsburgh PA 15260

Assistant Professor of Phonology

890

<http://www.linguistics.pitt.edu>

The University of Pittsburgh, Department of Linguistics, invites applications for a full time tenure-track position in Phonology to begin in the Fall Term 2006, pending budgetary approval. The appointment is at the Assistant Professor level. Applicants must have a solid training in phonology, as well as demonstrated competence in a secondary area. Candidates should send a CV (including a list of funded research if applicable), a statement of research and teaching interests, copies of 2 reprints or other written work, teaching evaluations (if available), a transcript of graduate work. Applicants should arrange to have three reference letters sent directly to the search committee. Send materials to: Phonology Search Committee, Dept. of Linguistics, 2816 CL, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260; (412) 624 5900; Fax (412) 624 6130. e-mail inquiries should be directed to Alan Juffs, Chair, at juffs@pitt.edu. The web page for the Department is <http://www.linguistics.pitt.edu>. To ensure full consideration, complete applications should be received by November 22, 2005. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply. [R]

U of Pittsburgh

Linguistics, 2816 Cathedral of Learning Pittsburgh PA 15260

Open Rank Professor of Applied Linguistics

895

<http://www.linguistics.pitt.edu>

The University of Pittsburgh, Department of Linguistics, invites applications for a full-time tenure-track position in Applied Linguistics to begin in the Fall Term 2006, pending budgetary approval. The appointment is at the Assistant Professor level or above, depending on the credentials of the applicant, with senior rank possible if the candidate has the appropriate experience and an established international reputation. Applicants should have a solid training in applied linguistics and/or second language acquisition, classroom teaching experience, and knowledge of a language in addition to English. Preference will be given to candidates with expertise in research methodologies and/or classroom-based research. Candidates should send a CV (including a list of funded research, if applicable), a statement of research and teaching interests, copies of 2 reprints or other written work, and teaching evaluations (if available). Applicants at a junior rank should send a transcript of graduate work. Applicants should arrange to have three reference letters sent directly to the search committee. Send materials to: Applied Linguistics Search Committee, Dept. of Linguistics, 2816 CL, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260; (412) 624 5900; Fax (412) 624 6130. e-mail inquiries should be directed to Alan Juffs, Chair, at juffs@pitt.edu. The web page for the Dept. is <http://www.linguistics.pitt.edu>. To ensure full consideration, complete applications should be received by November 22, 2005. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply. [R]

U of Toronto

French, German and Italian, Odette Hall, 50 St. Joseph Street Toronto ON M5S 1J4 Canada

Assistant Professor-Linguistics

1267

http://link.library.utoronto.ca/academicjobs/display_job_det

The Department of French, German and Italian, University of Toronto at Mississauga (UTM) invites applications for a tenure-track position in Linguistics at the Assistant Professor level in one or more of the following areas: sociolinguistics, dialectology, phonetics, second language teaching and learning, and educational technology. The successful candidate will strengthen its undergraduate programs in general linguistics and/or teaching and learning. Beside teaching courses, delivered in English, the candidate will contribute to the Crossroads Centre (www.chass.utoronto.ca/crossroads/) and the proposed MA program at UTM.

DUTIES. Teaching in Linguistics programs at all levels (undergraduate at UTM and graduate at UTM and/or St. George campuses), teaching and supervision of graduate students, collaboration with research groups within the Department.

QUALIFICATIONS. A Ph. D. degree in Linguistics and a strong publication record. Applicants must exhibit high potential for excellent and innovative scholarly research and for outstanding teaching contributions in support of the Department's various programs. Ability to participate in team work, and knowledge of French, German or Italian will be an asset.

SALARY commensurate with experience and qualifications

DATE OF APPOINTMENT. July 1, 2006.

Candidates should submit a covering letter, cv, copies of three publications and three letters of reference (sent directly by referees) before November 30th, 2005, to Professor Michael Lettieri, Chair, Department of French, German and Italian, University of Toronto at Mississauga, 3359 Mississauga Road North, Mississauga, Ontario, CANADA, L5L 1C6.

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. We offer opportunities to work in many collaborative programs, including Aboriginal, Canadian, environmental, ethno-cultural, sexual diversity, gender and women's studies. The University of Toronto offers the opportunity to teach, conduct research and live in one of the most diverse cities in the world. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Western Kentucky U

English, 1906 College Heights Blvd #11086 Bowling Green KY 42101

Assistant Professor of English: Linguistics/TESL

1083

<http://www.wku.edu/Dept/Academic/AHSS/English>

Tenure track. Beginning August 2006.

The English Department at Western Kentucky University seeks applicants for a position in Linguistics/ESL to teach language, linguistics, and TESL courses. Facility with technology and willingness to teach online are essential. Requirements: Doctorate in appropriate area, evidence of successful university-level teaching, and promise in research/creative activity and service. Enthusiasm in teaching composition/general education courses necessary.

Review of applications begins November 1, 2005, and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a letter of application, a vita, a copy of graduate transcript(s), and at least 3 recent letters of recommendation to: Dr. Karen Schneider, Head, Department of English, Western Kentucky University, 1906 College Heights Blvd #11086, Bowling Green, KY 42101-1086, e-mail: Karen.Schneider@wku.edu, Telephone: (270) 745-3046 Fax: (270) 745-2533

For more information, visit our website <http://www.wku.edu/Dept/Academic/AHSS/English>

All qualified individuals are encouraged to apply, including women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and disabled veterans. Western Kentucky University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. [R]

FOREIGN LANGUAGE EDUCATION

La Grange C

Latin Amer Studies, 601 Broad St La Grange GA 30240

Assistant Professor of Foreign Language Education

1591

<http://www.lagrange.edu>

Assistant Professor of Foreign Language Education

LaGrange College (www.lagrange.edu) seeks candidates for tenure-track position beginning August 2006. For a shared appointment between the departments of Latin American Studies and Education. Teaching responsibilities include teaching lower division Spanish courses and graduate courses in education. By December 30, 2005, candidates should submit: a letter of application; curriculum vitae; statement of educational philosophy; transcripts; and letters from three or more professional references, including e-mail addresses and phone numbers, to dlivingston@lagrange.edu or by post to Dr. Don Livingston, Chair, Education Department, LaGrange College, 601 Broad Street, LaGrange, Georgia 30240 [R]

U of Texas at El Paso

Langs & Linguistics, 500 W University El Paso TX 79968

Assistant or Associate Professor of Language Pedagogy

985

Advanced Assistant or Associate Professor of Language Pedagogy, with substantial experience in supervision of language programs. Ph.D. in Language Pedagogy and/or Second Language Teaching and Learning required. Solid publications record and native or near-native fluency in English also required. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, supervision and further development of lower-division programs in Spanish (Heritage and non-native), French, Portuguese, ESOL and occasional offering in other foreign languages. Strong commitment to teaching and research in language pedagogy. Normal teaching three courses per semester with reduced loads for significant administrative duties. Salary competitive and commensurate with academic qualifications and professional experience. The Department offers a BA in Spanish, French and Linguistics, as well as the MA in Spanish and Linguistics. It also is a major participant in the University's initiative in bilingualism and language acquisition. The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP), which sits on the border with Mexico, has an enrollment of nearly 20,000 students and is nationally recognized as the only doctoral-research university in the United States with a majority Mexican-American student population. With some 700,00 people, the city of El Paso is a major cultural and economic presence in the Southwest and on the US/Mexico border.

Send letters of interest, CV and three current letters of recommendation to: Kirsten F. Nigro, Chair, Department of Languages and Linguistics, 137 Liberal Arts Building, University of Texas at El Paso, El Paso, TX 79968-0531. Applications acknowledged by letter and reviewed beginning October 15, 2005, until position filled. Incomplete or electronic applications not considered. Interviews at 2005 MLA Convention, or earlier.

The University of Texas at El Paso does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation in employment or provision of services. [R]

MULTIPLE COMPETENCIES

Binghamton U

History, P.O. Box 6000 Binghamton NY 13902

Open Rank Professor of Early Modern European History

1296

<http://history.binghamton.edu>

Early Modern Europe

The history department at Binghamton University (State University of New York) invites applications for an open rank tenure-track or tenured professorship in Early Modern European history beginning in fall 2006. The position is open to a research scholar in any field of specialization, including someone working across disciplines. The successful candidate will have a strong record of publication, be able to mentor doctoral students, and teach courses in the Renaissance, Reformation, and/or European expansion. Send application dossier, including writing sample, to Dr. Howard G. Brown, Chair, Early Modern Europe Search Committee, Department of History, Binghamton University, Binghamton, NY 13902-6000. Review of applications will begin November 15, 2005. Binghamton University is an AA/EOE; women and minority candidates are especially encouraged to apply. [R]

California SU, San Bernardino

World Languages and Literatures, 5500 University Pky San Bernardino CA 92407

Assistant Professor of Arabic and French 1399

http://academic-affairs.csusb.edu/personnel/positm_2006_2007.htm

Ph.D. in Language or related field with specialization in Arabic and French. The department is looking for energetic and enterprising candidates who will contribute to the growth of the department while heading the emerging Arabic program and teaching both Arabic and French at all levels. Native or near native proficiency in Arabic and fluency in French is required. Experience in student-centered teaching and the ability to relate well to a diverse, multi-ethnic student body is essential. Preference will be given to candidates with an interest in student recruitment and a record of successful professional development. [R]

Clark U

Visual & Performing Arts, 950 Main Street Worcester MA 01610

Assistant Professor of Screen Studies 1354

<http://www.clarku.edu/departments/clarkarts/>

The Department of Visual and Performing Arts at Clark University seeks to fill an introductory-level tenure-track position in non-Western cinemas (especially those of Asia and/or Africa) effective August 2006. Ph.D. is required. Candidates must be able to teach a broad range of courses in film, television, or video studies and should also be willing to participate in Clark's interdisciplinary Communications and Culture program. The successful candidate will demonstrate potential for excellence in both teaching and research. Review of applications will begin November 1, 2005. Please send cover letter, CV, writing sample from recent research, and three letters of recommendation to: Sarah Walker, Chair, Visual and Performing Arts, Clark University, 950 Main Street, Worcester, MA, 01610. For full consideration, all materials must be received no later than December 1. You may also make inquiries via email at: screenstudiesearch@clarku.edu AA/EOE. Minorities and women are especially encouraged to apply. [R]

Deep Springs C

Faculty Search, Deep Springs, CA via Dyer NV 89010

Visiting Professor 1462

<http://www.deepsprings.edu>

Deep Springs College offers one-semester visiting appointments in any discipline within the humanities during 2006–2007. Successful candidates will teach 1–2 self-designed courses within the area of his or her expertise.

One of the most academically selective colleges in the country, Deep Springs educates 26 students (SAT's average 1500), all of whom receive full scholarships. Located in an isolated California desert valley, the college emphasizes preparation for a life of service to humanity through a rigorous liberal arts curriculum, student body self-governance, and ranch labor.

To apply, please send a cover letter including brief descriptions of courses you might teach, CV, statement of teaching philosophy and three letters of recommendation by November 10, 2005 to: Faculty Humanities Search, Deep Springs College, HC 72 Box 45001, via Dyer, NV 89010. EOE [R]

Emmanuel C

English, 400 The Fenway Boston MA 02115

Wyant Professorship

1540

<http://www.emmanuel.edu>

Emmanuel College proudly announces the Louise Doherty Wyant '64 Professorship. This professorship was established by the late Louise Wyant and her husband Dr. James Wyant in honor of Sister Anne Cyril Delaney, SND '30, an Emmanuel College Professor. In her teaching and her intellectual breadth, Sister Anne exemplified the values of a liberal arts education and the relevance of the humanities to understanding and changing the world. The Wyant Professorship may be held in the humanities, history or the arts. Emmanuel College is a rapidly growing Catholic, coeducational, liberal arts and sciences college founded by the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur in 1919. Emmanuel's 17-acre campus is located in the heart of Boston's academic, scientific and cultural communities and is within walking distance of landmarks such as the Museum of Fine Arts, Fenway Park, Symphony Hall and world renowned medical institutions. Our mission is to educate students in a dynamic learning community rooted in the liberal arts and sciences and shaped by strong ethical values and a Catholic academic tradition. As a key member of the faculty, the successful candidate can have an active voice in the development of the humanities at Emmanuel College. The Wyant Professor will teach one interdisciplinary seminar for upper-class students, run a faculty colloquium and manage a public lecture series. The position may be tailored to the strengths and specific talents of the successful candidate. This is a three year appointment with the possibility of extension. The Wyant Professor will work with administrators and faculty to enhance the visibility of humanities and participate in events to further the reputation and global view of the college.

The successful candidate will have an excellent track record as an exemplary faculty member in the humanities, an interest in interdisciplinary education and an understanding of the ways in which the humanities can inform other disciplines. An earned Doctorate in one of the disciplines in the humanities is required. An excellent record of publication and external funding is highly desirable.

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, list of publications, and three professional references to: Emmanuel College, Wyant Professor Search, Human Resources, 400 The Fenway, Boston, MA 02115; Fax to: 617-735-9877; or Email: jobs@emmanuel.edu.

Emmanuel College is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and a member of the Colleges of the Fenway.

Indiana U-Purdue U Indianapolis

English, 425 N University Blvd Indianapolis IN 46202

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor in Film Studies

1440

<http://english.iupui.edu>

The English Department at Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis seeks tenure-track assistant professor of Film Studies to join growing program. Located in the heart of a cosmopolitan metro area of one million, IUPUI is an urban campus of 30,000 that offers 150 degree programs. Film Studies, an undergraduate program within English, also attracts students from programs in New Media and Communication Studies, and the Herron Art School.

The successful candidate must have Ph.D. in hand by August 2006 and strong commitment to teaching (2–3 load), as well as a promising research program. The ideal applicant would have expertise in film history, theory, and genres; interest in animation or independent cinemas a plus. This campus and department are committed to student and faculty diversity and value the educational benefits flowing from such diversity. Candidates should make known their experience and leadership in this area.

Please send letter of application postmarked by Nov. 4, CV, writing sample (not to exceed 30 pp.), sample syllabus, and three letters of recommendation to Prof. Jane E. Schultz, Film Studies Search, Department of English, School of Liberal Arts, IUPUI, 425 University Blvd., Indianapolis, IN 46202. We will interview at MLA in Washington, Dec. 27–29. IUPUI is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. [R]

Luther C

Mod Langs & Lit, Decorah IA 52101

Assistant Professor of Linguistics and Modern Languages

1448

<http://www.luther.edu>

Assistant Professor of Linguistics and Modern Languages, tenure-eligible, to begin August, 2006. Required: Ph.D in linguistics or in a modern language taught at Luther with specialization in linguistics, teaching experience, proficiency in at least one of the languages taught in Luther College's Modern Languages and Literatures department. The successful candidate will teach courses in linguistics, including "Introduction to Language" and "Introduction to the English Language," as well as appropriate language courses. Familiarity with instructional technology desirable. Salary commensurate with academic qualifications and professional experience. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, 3 recent letters of recommendation and official graduate and undergraduate transcripts by November 15, 2005 to Chair, Linguistics and Modern Languages Search Committee, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, Luther College, 700 College Drive, Decorah, IA 52101. An EEO employer; persons of diverse ethnic backgrounds and women are encouraged to apply. [R]

Middle Tennessee SU

English, PO Box 70 Murfreesboro TN 37132

Folklore Studies

1340

<http://mtsujobs.mtsu.edu>

Middle Tennessee State University seeks applications for a tenure-track position in Folklore Studies (position # 123145); Ph.D. in hand by August 1, 2006; Assistant/Associate. Candidates should be committed to undergraduate instruction in General Education courses, but opportunities exist for graduate teaching. Twelve-hour teaching load (4 courses) per semester with possibility of reduced load.

To apply for this position, go to <http://mtsujobs.mtsu.edu> and follow the instructions on how to complete an application, attach documents, and submit your application online. If you have questions, please contact Dr. Hilary Stallings at 615-898-5986. Review of applications begins October 31, 2005 and will continue until the position is filled. Rank and salary commensurate with education and experience. Proof of U.S. citizenship OR eligibility for U.S. employment will be required prior to employment (Immigration Control Act of 1986). Clearly Act crime statistics for MTSU available at http://police.mtsu.edu/crime_statistics.htm. EO/AA employer. [R]

Nanyang Technological U

Humanities and Social Science, S3.2 B4 27 Singapore 639798

Assistant/Associate Professor of English Literature in Southeast Asian literature

1432

<http://www.hss.ntu.edu.sg/english/index.asp>

The Division of English (School of Humanities and Social Sciences) at Nanyang Technological University, Singapore invites suitably qualified academics who possess a PhD, with a proven track record in teaching and research, to apply for a tenurable faculty position as Assistant/Associate Professor in English Literature with specialization in Southeast Asian literature. Preference will be given to candidates with secondary interests in Women's Literature and/or Gender Studies, Postcolonial Theory and/or World Literature, or Modernism. An ability to contribute to introductory level literature courses is required. Nanyang Technological University is a rapidly growing, progressive research university that is committed to contributing to a comprehensive educational experience in a multicultural environment. NTU offers competitive salaries, generous research support, and is committed to nurturing faculty development. An ability to contribute to introductory level literature courses is required.

Review of applications begins November 20, 2005 and will continue until the positions are filled. To apply, send cover letter, curriculum vitae, 3 letters of recommendation, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and a completed university application FORM (downloadable at <http://www.ntu.edu.sg/personnel/acadform.doc>) to Office of Human Resources NANYANG TECHNOLOGICAL UNI-

VERSITY Administration Building, Level 4, 50 Nanyang Avenue, Singapore 639798, Fax: (65) 6791-9340, Email : acad-recruitment@ntu.edu.sg

Penn State U

College of the Liberal Arts, 111 Sparks Building University Park PA 16802

Assistant/Associate/Professor of STEMS

1364

<http://www.la.psu.edu>

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA. The College of the Liberal Arts invites applications for a tenure-stream appointment, rank open, in its innovative intercollege program in science, technology, ethics, and medicine in contemporary society. Applications are welcome from candidates with degrees in Science, Technology, and Society or in a pertinent discipline within the humanities or social sciences.

This position is part of Penn State's, and the College of the Liberal Arts', commitment to research, teaching, and outreach in the areas of science and technology policy, public health and environmental policy, and ethical inquiry in these fields. The successful candidate will play a central role in the expansion and development of a robust intercollege program designed to augment Penn State's strengths in basic and applied fields of science and technology. She or he will also be involved in programs that strengthen the Rock Ethics Institute's initiatives in the area of ethics and policy in science, technology, and medicine.

The Program seeks candidates with expertise in the study of the relationship between contemporary society and science, medicine, and/or technology. Areas of research may include the ethical and social impact of biotechnology, engineering, environmental sciences, human sciences, and/or information sciences. The successful candidate must be able to work knowledgeably and effectively with researchers in basic and applied fields of science, technology, and/or medicine relevant to her or his area of specialization.

Ph.D. required along with evidence of research strength and ability to offer a range of courses at the undergraduate and graduate level in the program in science, technology, medicine, and ethics in society. Please send application letter, full curriculum vitae, sample publications, and letters of recommendation to: Chair, STEMS Search Committee, The Pennsylvania State University, Box MLA, 111 Sparks Building, University Park, PA 16802

Review of applications begins on November 15 and will continue until the position is filled. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity, and the diversity of its workforce.

Penn State U

English, 111 Sparks Building University Park PA 16802

Associate or Professor of Biomedical Ethics

1363

<http://www.la.psu.edu>

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA invites applications for a senior hire to be filled at the rank of tenured associate or professor in the area of Biomedical Ethics. This will be a joint appointment involving two Penn State campuses, the College of the Liberal Arts (<http://www.la.psu.edu/>) and the College of Medicine (<http://www.hmc.psu.edu/college/>), as well as the Huck Institutes of the Life Sciences (<http://www.lsc.psu.edu/>) The successful candidate would have a departmental home in the Humanities or Social Sciences in the College of the Liberal Arts and in the Department of Humanities in the College of Medicine.

Applicants will be expected to teach courses at both the graduate and undergraduate levels, with a strong range of teaching abilities in the area of Bioethics and Medical Humanities. We are particularly interested in candidates with expertise in research ethics. The successful candidate must be able to work knowledgeably and effectively with scientists and physicians. Highly desirable for the appointee is an active grants record.

A portion of the position will be situated in the Rock Ethics Institute (<http://rockethics.psu.edu/>) with concomitant released time to ensure and enhance interactions with colleagues from the Huck Institutes of the Life Sciences, participation in collaborative research projects, and development of research and outreach activities that create rich links between the Rock Ethics Institute and the College of Medicine.

Please send application letter, full curriculum vitae, sample publications, and letters of reference to: Chair, Biomedical Ethics Search Committee, The Pennsylvania State University, Box MLA, 111 Sparks Building, University Park, PA 16802

Review of applications begins on November 15 and will continue until the position is filled. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity, and the diversity of its workforce.

Purdue U

English, 500 Oval Dr West Lafayette IN 47907

Director of Women's Studies Program

1316

<http://www.cla.purdue.edu/english/>

Full Professor, 50% Women's Studies and 50% tenure home in one of the following departments within the College of Liberal Arts: Communication; English; Foreign Languages and Literatures; Health & Kinesiology; History; Philosophy; Political Science; Sociology and Anthropology; and Visual and Performing Arts. Responsibilities: Lead, administer, and develop the program's curricula, courses, faculty and staff. Manage and develop budget and other resources. Oversee public programming, public relations, and other program activities. Coordinate with other interdisciplinary programs, departments, and university units. Teach one undergraduate or graduate course per semester, maintain scholarly research, direct and advise graduate and undergraduate students, and fulfill faculty service responsibilities.

Qualifications: Ph.D.; a distinguished record of feminist scholarship and teaching, and experience in administration, especially in women's studies or other interdisciplinary programs. All fields of specialization are welcome, including areas such as critical race theory, transnational feminisms, queer theory, or performance studies.

Send: Letter of application; curriculum vitae; two articles or recent examples of scholarship; and contact information for four references to: Professor Susan Curtis, Chair, Search Committee, Interdisciplinary Studies, Beering Hall of Liberal Arts and Education, Room 1289, Purdue University, 100 N. University Street, West Lafayette, IN 47907

Application review begins December 1, 2005, but applications will be accepted until a suitable applicant is hired. Purdue University is an Equal Opportunity/Equal Access/Affirmative Action employer and encouraged applications from women and minorities. [R]

U of Aberdeen

C of Arts & Social Sciences, University Office-Kings College Aberdeen AB24 3FX Scotland

Academic Vacancies (Any Level)

765

<http://www.abdn.ac.uk>

Chair, Reader, Senior Lecturer, Lecturer, Research Fellow

The Centre for Modern Thought at the University of Aberdeen has been created as a site for cross-disciplinary theoretical research and theoretical inquiry bearing on global socio-historical developments and political issues. It will serve degree programs throughout the College of Art and Social Sciences in the context of the University's new Graduate School and will offer a stimulating environment to students seeking a high-profile Ph.D. program staffed by internationally recognized scholars.

In the coming academic year, we aim to make a number of academic appointments (at any rank) in the following areas:

Modern Intellectual History: We seek a scholar whose work entails the capacity to address representations of history in the modern period, including Hegelian or Marxist models, and more contemporary "post-structuralist" elaborations. This individual could come from fields such as philosophy, literature, history, or sociology, but should have a strong interest in philosophy of history.

Science Studies/History of Science: An important part of the Centre's work will be addressed to relations between the sciences, the social sciences and the humanities. An individual strongly versed in the areas of history of science and theory of knowledge will play a vital role.

Theory of Art: We intend to establish strong links between the Centre for Modern Thought, the program in Art History, the Centre for Visual Culture, and initiatives underway in Aberdeen. A suitable candidate might come from a variety of fields, including architecture, film, art history, or the performing arts. We would also consider candidates whose work combines theoretical inquiry and practice.

Political Theory: The Centre's ambition of addressing issues of broad socio-political import will be served by an individual with significant preparation in political economy and modern political theory.

Literary Theory: We seek a scholar with a strong capacity to address the questions posed to modern thought by literature. This individual should be well versed in modern continental philosophy and might also bring a special interest in psychoanalytic theory.

Scholars from any field whose work intersects with these areas are welcome to apply. Suitable candidates will have a distinguished publication record or demonstrate exceptional promise. We will accept applications until the positions are filled, but we will begin active consideration of the applications on 15 November 2005. Enquiries may be directed to Professor Christopher Fynsk, enl290@abdn.ac.uk For further information regarding the Centre for Modern Thought and the University of Aberdeen, visit our website at: <http://www.abdn.ac.uk/moderthought>

Application procedure: Online application forms including further particulars are available from www.abdn.ac.uk/jobs. Alternatively email jobs@abdn.ac.uk or telephone (01224) 272727 (24-hour answering service) quoting reference number CMT001A for an application pack.

Promoting Diversity and Equal Opportunities throughout the University [R]

U of California, Santa Barbara

Film Studies, Santa Barbara CA 93106

Assistant Professor of Comparative Media Studies

1396

<http://www.filmstudies.ucsb.edu>

The Department of Film Studies at University of California, Santa Barbara seeks an Assistant Professor commencing July 1, 2006 specializing in media studies within a comparative international context. The ideal candidate will have the ability/intellectual background to teach in core areas of our curriculum, while specializing in one or more of the following areas of media criticism: political economy; intellectual property; media ownership and trade law; environmental media; policy and regulation; media archaeology; science and media approaches. A Ph.D. normally is required by the time of appointment, as well as a strong commitment to teaching and outstanding scholarly research potential. The department is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through research, teaching and service. To ensure full consideration, applications must be completed by November 15, 2005. An EO/AA Employer. For complete information, see <http://www.filmstudies.ucsb.edu/graduate/announcements.html>. [R]

U of California, Irvine

Film and Media Studies, 235 HIB Irvine CA 92697

Associate Professor of Film and Media Studies

1472

<http://www.humanities.uci.edu/filmstudies/>

The Department of Film and Media Studies at the University of California, Irvine, announces a tenured position at the Associate Professor level beginning July 1, 2006.

Film and Media Studies is an undergraduate major in the School of Humanities. The position includes participation in our Ph.D. Program in Visual Studies administered jointly by Film and Media Studies and Art History. Visit our web site at <http://www.humanities.uci.edu/visualstudies/>

Qualifications: Successful candidate will demonstrate a commitment to research projects and teaching in the areas of theory and history of vision and visuality, film, television, video or new technologies, new media, and digital culture. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in an appropriate discipline.

Applications should include: Statement of current research, curriculum vitae, writing or publication sample, teaching interests, two sample course syllabi, and names of referees. Applicants who submitted materials for the tenured position in Winter 2005 and wish to be considered should submit a letter to the Search Committee Chair requesting re-activation of the previous file. Any new materials received with the letter of request will be added to the file.

Send materials to University of California, Irvine, Professor Mark Poster, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Film and Media Studies 235 HIB, Irvine, CA 92697-2435

SEARCH COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Sohail Daulatzai, Edward Dimendberg, James D. Herbert, Victoria Johnson, Peter Krapp, Felicidad Lim, Mark Poster (Chair), and Fatimah Tobing Rony

Further inquiries may be addressed to Professor Poster by e-mail at poster@uci.edu.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: November 15, 2005

UC-Irvine is located in Southern California, approximately halfway between Los Angeles and San Diego, and offers easy access to diverse museums, archives, and research collections. The campus is home to the Humanities Film and Video Center, a state-of-the-art theater showcasing innovative film and video programs. The School of Humanities boasts the internationally recognized Critical Theory Institute and UCI is also the host campus to the University of California system-wide Humanities Research Institute.

Proof of US citizenship or eligibility for US employment will be required prior to employment (Immigration Reform Act of 1986).

UCI IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE

THROUGH DIVERSITY, HAS AN ACTIVE CAREER PARTNER PROGRAM, AND A NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION ADVANCE GENDER EQUITY PROGRAM.

U of California, Merced

Soc Sciences, Humanities, & Arts Sch, PO Box 2039 Merced CA 95344

Literature Professor (Job Code ASHA308A)

1437

<http://www.ucmerced.edu/>

The School of Social Sciences, Humanities, and Arts (SSHA) invites applications for a faculty position in literature at the rank of Full Professor. We seek applicants who study the literature of the Americas in a comparative context. We are particularly interested in candidates with a strong background in Mexican literature. Candidates with a demonstrated commitment to graduate and undergraduate literary pedagogy and who have an interest in making literary studies fully accessible to undergraduates as well as graduates are strongly encouraged to apply. This hire is part of a broader SSHA initiative to create collaborative and interdisciplinary programs, and the successful candidate will be expected to interact with colleagues across a large and diverse array of fields. Qualifications include a Ph.D. in literature or related fields. We seek distinguished senior scholars who will establish creative, vigorous research programs and participate actively in the development of innovative interdisciplinary curricula. To apply or for more information: http://jobs.ucmerced.edu/view_academic_position.faces?positionId=308. Application deadline: December 1, 2005. AA/EOE. [R]

U of California, Los Angeles

UCLA International Institute, 11230 Bunche Hall Los Angeles CA 90095

South Asian Studies Scholar

1536

<http://www.international.ucla.edu>

Pending final administrative approval, UCLA seeks a scholar of excellence in South Asian studies for a joint tenure-track or tenured appointment between UCLA's International Institute and one or more social science, humanities, or arts departments. This appointment can be at any level. Candidates must demonstrate research and teaching interests in one or more aspects of South Asia, have an interest in international issues, and be comfortable working across disciplines. The successful candidate will be expected to participate in an interdisciplinary teaching and training program in international studies, at both undergraduate and graduate levels. Applications, to include a c.v., a statement of research and teaching interests, and three references, should be submitted on-line (after 1 November) via the appropriate link at <http://www.international.ucla.edu/or> directed in hard copy to: Ms. Tara Wake, South Asia Search Committee, International Institute, 11230 Bunche Hall, UCLA, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1487; and, to assure full consideration, should be received by 9 January 2006. UCLA is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and has a strong commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff.

U of California, Los Angeles

UCLA International Institute, 11230 Bunche Hall Los Angeles CA 90095

Southeast Asian Studies Scholar

1537

<http://www.international.ucla.edu>

The University of California, Los Angeles, invites applications and nominations for a tenured or tenure-track position in any field of the Social Sciences or Humanities related to Southeast Asia. This position is intended to expand the University's teaching and research activities in Southeast Asian Studies. We seek a scholar of demonstrated distinction, with a strong future potential in research and a commitment to graduate and undergraduate education. The ideal candidate should have broad regional interests in Southeast Asia and be able to link the study of Southeast Asia to the theory, methodologies, and knowledge of one or more disciplinary fields. We also prefer a dynamic program builder, who will help co-ordinate UCLA's growing programs in Southeast Asian Studies and to contribute to interdisciplinary dialogue with colleagues throughout the University. The appointment, which can be at any level, is to begin 1 July 2006. Applications, to include a c.v., a statement of research and teaching interests, a representative recent paper or article, and three references, should be submitted on-line (after 1 November) via the appropriate link at <http://www.international.ucla.edu/or> directed in hard copy to: Ms. Tara Wake, Southeast Asia Search Committee, International Institute, 11230 Bunche Hall, UCLA Los Angeles, CA 90095-1487;

To assure full consideration, applications should be received by 6 January 2006. UCLA is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and has a strong commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff.

U of Florida

Women's Studies, 3324 Turlington Hall, PO Box 117352 Gainesville FL 32611

Ast Prof, Transnat'l Feminisms

1209

<http://www.wst.ufl.edu>

The Center for Women's Studies and Gender Research (CWSGR) at the University of Florida is pleased to announce its search for a full-time tenure-track appointment at the rank of assistant professor beginning August 2006. PhD required at time of appointment, in women's studies or related field, with specialization in transnational feminist and gender studies. Scholarly strength preferred in Asian or African studies with specialization in gender, race, sexuality, comparative and/or diasporic studies. Please send letter of application, email address, CV, and names and contact information (including email) of three persons willing to write references to Florence Babb, Chair, Search Committee, Center for Women's Studies and Gender Research, 3324 Turlington Hall, PO Box 117352, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL 32611. Applications should be received by November 8, 2005 and should reference job number 00021741. For more information, see http://web.wst.ufl.edu/The University of Florida is an equal opportunity institution. [R]

U of Illinois

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 702 S Wright St./294 Lincoln Hall Urbana IL 61801

Director, Gender and Women's Studies Program

1469

<http://www.womstd.uiuc.edu/>

The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is seeking a Director for the Gender and Women's Studies Program, a vibrant interdisciplinary academic program that coordinates a wide range of research, teaching and public service activities emphasizing intersectional approaches to the study of gender, race, class, ethnicity, and sexuality in national and transnational contexts.

The Director stimulates research, supervises the administrative office of the Program, and promotes the development of Gender and Women's Studies related curricula. The Director also facilitates inter-disciplinary communication and scholarship among the faculty. The Director is expected to represent and advance the interests of the Program on campus and in the community, as well as to cultivate external funding resources. The Director reports to the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and will hold a full-time tenured appointment in the program and/or appropriate disciplinary unit.

The successful candidate will have a national and/or international scholarly standing in Gender and Women's Studies; a demonstrated commitment to interdisciplinary feminist, queer, and/or transgender scholarship; administrative experience; a Ph.D., a record of distinguished teaching; a commitment to racial and gender diversity; and the ability to work closely with other interdisciplinary units on campus, including the ethnic studies programs. Salary is negotiable. The preferred starting date is on or before August 16, 2006.

Full consideration will be given to applications and nominations received by November 28, 2005. Send nominations, applications, and inquiries to Professor Antoinette Burton, Chair, c/o Paula Hays, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 294 Lincoln Hall, 702 S. Wright Street, Urbana, Illinois 61801. Phone: (217) 333-1350. Candidates should supply a letter of application, current curriculum vitae, one sample of scholarly writing, and the names and addresses of at least three referees.

Additional information about the University of Illinois and its programs may be accessed at <http://www.uiuc.edu>. The Gender & Women's Studies Program website is <http://www.womstd.uiuc.edu/>. The UIUC is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer (<http://www.eoa.uiuc.edu/>). [R]

U of Illinois at Chicago

Disability and Human Development, 601 S. Morgan Street (m/c 228)
Chicago IL 60607

Faculty Position in Disability and Health Development 1180
<http://www.ahs.uic.edu/dhd>
College of Applied Health Sciences

The Department of Disability and Human Development (DHD) is seeking applications for a tenure-track faculty position (rank open). The position start date is to be negotiated but beginning no later than Fall 2006. Applicants must have a focus on policy, law or related areas of disability research. Responsibilities include teaching of disability related topics especially in the area of policy, supervising graduate students, and developing and sustaining an independent research program. Qualified candidates should send a letter of application with a curriculum vita and contact information for three references to the Search Chair, Faculty Search Committee, UIC, DHD (M/C 626), 1640 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, Illinois 60608. We will begin reviewing applications on January 2006 and continue until the position is filled. UIC is an AA/EOE. We encourage applications from persons with disabilities, other minorities and women.

U of Michigan

Women's Studies Department, Lane Hall-204 South State St Ann Arbor
MI 48109

Feminist Theorist of Race & Gender 511
<http://www.lsa.umich.edu/women/>

Pending authorization. The Women's Studies Program invites applications at the tenured level for a Feminist Theorist whose work focuses simultaneously on race and gender, to begin September 1, 2006. We seek candidates who demonstrate outstanding research and scholarly contributions and who can contribute to our vibrant interdisciplinary community. While the emphasis in this position is on scholarship in the area of theory, applications are welcome from those who also employ empirical research methods. Research may be focused on the U.S. or international contexts. Send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, a brief statement of research, evidence of teaching excellence, and the names of suggested reviewers by December 15, 2005 to Chair, Women's Studies Search Committee,

Women's Studies Program, University of Michigan, 1122 Lane Hall, 204 S. State St., Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1290. Applications will begin being reviewed November 15, 2005; all applications will be acknowledged. The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer, and is supportive of the needs of dual career couples. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. [R]

U of Northern Colorado

English, 501 20th St Greeley CO 80639

Assistant Professor of English 1549
<http://www.unco.edu/english>

Assistant Professor, tenure-track, Film and Cultural Studies, emphasis in Early Cinema and Visual Culture desirable. PhD. in hand from an accredited institution preferred, near completion considered. Dissertation and/or publications in field required; evidence of potential for successful teaching and ability to contribute to growing interdisciplinary programs in Film Studies and in Cultural Studies. Teaching will include Introduction to Film, Introduction to Cultural Studies, upper-division undergraduate and graduate courses in Film and Cultural Studies, and possible other teaching depending upon candidate's experience. Teaching load is 3 courses per semester with service and scholarship required. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Benefits include health, life, and dental insurance as well as a selection of several defined contribution retirement programs. Satisfactory completion of a background check is required after a conditional offer of employment has been made. UNC is an AA/EO employer and is committed to fostering diversity in its student body, faculty, and staff. Starting Date: 8/21/06.

November 11, 2005 is deadline for receipt of applications. Send letter, cv, official transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to Joonok Huh, Director, School of English, Language and Literature, University of Northern Colorado, Campus Box 109, Greeley, CO 80639.

Phone: 970.351.2970, Fax: 970.351.3378 [R]

U of Oregon

Women's & Gender Studies Prog, 315 Hendricks Hall Eugene OR 97403

Assistant Professor in Women's and Gender Studies and Ethnic Studies 1287
<http://darkwing.uoregon.edu/~wst/>

The Women's and Gender Studies Program and Ethnic Studies Program invite applications for an assistant professor with expertise in contemporary comparative ethnic literatures, with an emphasis on gender and/or sexuality, to begin in September 2006. We are especially interested in candidates whose research and teaching interests include Chicana /o or Latina/o literatures but we welcome applications from all comparative ethnic literature scholars. The successful candidate will hold a joint appointment in Women's and Gender Studies and Ethnic Studies with a tenure home in the English Department. This position requires an active program of research and publication, as well as undergraduate and graduate teaching. Preference will be given to candidates who have completed the Ph.D. degree by September 2005. Applications, including letter of interest, curriculum vita, writing sample, and three letters of recommendation, should be sent to: Director of Women's and Gender Studies, 315 Hendricks Hall, 1298 University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97405-1298. To ensure full consideration, materials must be received by October 15, 2005. We invite applications from all qualified candidates who share our commitment to diversity. Women, minorities, and members of LGBTQ communities are encouraged to apply. The University of Oregon is an AA/EOE institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. [R]

U of Southern California

East Asian Langs & Cultures, THH 356 Los Angeles CA 90089

Senior Faculty 620

The Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures at the University of Southern California invites applications for a position at the rank of advanced assistant professor or above. The department seeks applicants in early modern and modern Japanese or Chinese literature. We are particularly interested in candidates working in critical theory, visual studies, or cultural studies. A Ph.D. in relevant fields is required. The successful candidate will display a superior record of scholarship and teaching with a commitment to interdisciplinary and intra-regional approaches.

Please send a letter of application, a C.V., and a list of at least three potential referees whom we may contact to: Search Committee, Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA 90089-0357

Review of applications will begin January 10th, 2006. USC is an AA/EOE employer.

U of Wisconsin-Madison

African Langs & Lit, 1220 Linden Dr, 1414 Van Hise Madison WI 53706

Assistant Professor of African Languages and Literature 1028
<http://african.lss.wisc.edu/all>

The Department of African Languages and Literature of the University of Wisconsin-Madison invites applications for a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level. We seek a scholar whose work focuses on African languages, literature, or linguistics, and who has a high level of competency in an African language. Preference will be given to candidates with a strong record in teaching. Applicants must have completed the Ph.D. by beginning of appointment in August 2006 and show promise of a distinguished career as a scholar and teacher. To ensure full consideration, your letter of application and c.v., three letters of recommendation, and a writing sample (strongly preferred length: under 50 pages of text) should arrive by Wednesday, November 16, 2005. The writing sample may be a self-standing essay, or a chapter from a dissertation or book project. Chapters should be accompanied by a brief outline or statement (less than 2 pages) that sets the chapter in the context of the larger work and its argument. Send materials to the following address: Prof. Linda Hunter, Chair of the Search Committee, Department of African Languages and Literature, 1414 Van Hise Hall, 1220 Linden Drive, Madison, Wisconsin 53706 (lhunter@wisc.edu). The UW-Madison is an AA/EOE and encourages applications from women and minorities. Unless confidentiality is requested in writing, information regarding applicants must be released upon request. Finalists cannot be guaranteed confidentiality. [R]

NONACADEMIC LISTINGS

Modern Language Association

Job Clinic on Nonacademic Careers, 26 Broadway New York NY 10004

Job Clinic at the 2005 Convention 975
<http://www.mla.org>

A Job Clinic for MLA members interested in employment outside the academy will be held at the 2005 convention in Washington, DC. The Clinic will again be conducted by Howard Figler, career consultant, author ("The Complete Job Search Handbook"), and former director of the career center at the University of Texas at Austin. The twenty one previous clinics have been enthusiastically received by participants. The first job clinic was held at the 1984 convention. One participant praised a previous clinic for being "very well organized, reasonably priced." Another observed, "I feel that I now have a concrete picture of available opportunities and practical approaches to the job search. Dr. Figler really helped build my confidence and change my frame of mind to a more positive attitude. I especially appreciated that Dr. Figler's own background and the slant given to the seminar were pertinent to my own specific situation as an academic in transition." The clinic will assist in learning about career options and marketable skills, preparing effective resumes, locating jobs, and improving interviewing and negotiation skills. It will consist of five sessions that begin at 4:00 p.m. on 26 December (one day before the formal opening of the convention) and conclude at noon on 28 December. There should be minimal conflict with other convention sessions. The cost is $215 in addition to the convention registration fee; enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars, write or e-mail (rchustek@mla.org) with your name and complete mailing address to the MLA Job Information Service. Enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars, write or e-mail (rchustek@mla.org) with your name and complete mailing address to the MLA Job Information Service. Enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars, write or e-mail (rchustek@mla.org) with your name and complete mailing address to the MLA Job Information Service. Enrollment is limited. To receive further particulars, write or e-mail (rchustek@mla.org) with your name and complete mailing address to the MLA Job Information Service.

POSTDOCTORAL LISTINGS

Brown U

Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women, Box 1958
 Providence RI 02912

Postdoctoral Fellow

122

<http://pembrokecenter.org>

2006-2007

Mediated Bodies/Bodies of Mediation

Seminar Leader: Lynne Joyrich

Chesler-Mallow Senior Faculty Research Fellow, Pembroke Center

Department of Modern Culture and Media

Fellowships are open to scholars from all disciplines. Recipients may not hold a tenured position in an American college or university.

The term of appointment is September 1, 2006-May 31, 2007. The stipend is $35,000, plus health insurance unless otherwise covered.

For application forms contact Elizabeth_Barboza@brown.edu; phone: 401-863-2643. A full description of the fellowship is on the center's website: pembrokecenter.org

The mailing address of the Center is Box 1958, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912. The deadline for applications is December 8, 2005. Selection will be announced in February.

Kenyon C

Office of the Associate Provost, Edelstein House Gambier OH 43028

Kenyon College Dissertation Fellowship

664

<http://provost.kenyon.edu>

Kenyon College announces a competition for the Marilyn Yarbrough Dissertation/Teaching Fellowship. This fellowship is intended for members of underrepresented groups (e.g., ethnic minorities; women in fields that attract mostly men, or men in fields that attract mostly women; and persons who are first-generation college attendees). Those eligible to apply include individuals who are enrolled in a research-based Ph.D. program; individuals who aspire to a teaching and research career; and persons who have not yet earned a doctoral degree at any time and in any field.

Kenyon College located on an idyllic campus in rural central Ohio (about 50 miles NE of Columbus) enrolls approximately 1500 students and is ranked in the top tier of national liberal arts colleges. Kenyon prides itself upon its reputation as an excellent teaching environment enriched by small classes, close contact with highly motivated and engaged students and an excellent faculty of dedicated teacher scholars.

For more specific information regarding this fellowship and for application instructions please visit: <http://provost.kenyon.edu>. To learn more about Kenyon, visit: www.kenyon.edu

Review of applications will begin December 1, 2005 and continue until the position is filled.

An EOE, Kenyon welcomes diversity and encourages the applications of women and minority candidates. [R]

U of California, Los Angeles

Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Humanities, RHG, PO Box 951539
Los Angeles CA 90095

Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Humanities at UCLA

707

<http://www.ucla.edu>

"Cultures in Transnational Perspective"

Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Humanities at UCLA

Call for Applications

Deadline: February 1, 2006

The division of humanities at the University of California, Los Angeles, will appoint four Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellows for a 2-year tenure beginning in the fall of 2006. Fellows must have earned their doctoral degree no earlier than January 2000 and no later than June 2006. The Mellon Fellowship provides a stipend of $45,000 a year, standard fringe benefits, a one-time moving allowance of $1,500, plus a small research budget of $1,000. All Fellows will be housed in relevant home departments for which they teach two courses each year. They are required to be in residence and to participate in the monthly Mellon Fellows Seminars and annual Mellon Conference, as well as the on-going intellectual life of their home departments. Fellows will also write a progress report due on June 15th of each year of residence.

The Mellon program at UCLA is designed to explore the emerging field of Transnational Studies. Its aim is to broaden the study of minority cultures from its national focus to global and comparative perspectives. We seek innovative scholarship that explores minority cultures as major components of world culture and history, generated by immigrant and minority writers, artists, filmmakers, playwrights, and musicians residing in metropolitan centers across the world and thereby reshaping the canons of literature, art, and music in their respective countries. The program encourages the investigation of such patterns of encounter over several centuries in order better to understand what is distinctive about each period and in each field of research.

There is no application form. Applicants should send a cover letter, a description (no more than 1500 words) of the scholarly project relevant to the program, a CV, and three letters of recommendation by February 1, 2006, to: Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Humanities at UCLA, Royce Humanities Group, 212 Royce Hall, UCLA, Los Angeles, CA 90095. The program is co-chaired by Professors Françoise Lionnet (French and Francophone Studies; Comparative Literature) and Shu-mei Shih (Asian Languages and Cultures; Comparative Literature). For more information, please contact Cyndia Soloway at (310) 267-4842 or via e-mail at soloway@humnet.ucla.edu.

U of Michigan

University/Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship Programs, Rackham School of Graduate Studies Ann Arbor MI 48109

Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship Position in the Humanities

1271

<http://www.rackham.umich.edu/Postdoctoral/Mellon.html>

The University of Michigan, with the support from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, is pleased to invite applications for postdoctoral fellowship programs for recent PhDs in the humanities and related social sciences. Two-year positions are open to recent PhDs who wish to pursue research opportunities while teaching at a major research university. Fellows shall carry departmental affiliation; they may take advantage of interdisciplinary opportunities throughout the campus.

For further information, please contact: Rhonda Johnson, Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship Program, Rackham School of Graduate Studies, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109. e-mail: rhondaej@umich.edu or go to the following website: <http://www.rackham.umich.edu/Postdoctoral/Mellon.html>.

A non-discriminatory, affirmative action employer.

Valparaiso U

Lilly Fellows Program, Linwood House Valparaiso IN 46383

Postdoctoral Fellowship

1042

<http://www.lillyfellows.org>

The Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts at Valparaiso University offers three postdoctoral teaching fellowships for 2006–2008 to scholars seriously considering academic vocations in church-related institutions. Lilly Fellows teach seven courses over the two-year period in the honors college and in departments of the College of Arts and Sciences at Valparaiso University; work with a VU faculty mentor; engage in scholarship or creative work; participate in a two-year colloquium; and interact with the LFP National Network of 77 Catholic and Protestant colleges and universities.

Applicants from the following disciplines will be considered: art and art history; creative writing; history; interdisciplinary studies; languages and literatures; music and music history; philosophy; religion and theology; rhetoric; theatre arts and theatre history. The PhD or equivalent must have been received within the 20 months prior to August 2006.

Appointment: Fellows will be appointed to Valparaiso University for two years beginning August 2006 at rank equivalent to assistant professor. Stipend: $42,000 annually plus standard benefits, moving allowance, and professional funds.

Application For more information contact the Lilly Fellows Program at 219-464-5317 or visit www.lillyfellows.org. EOE/AA

Application deadline: December 20, 2005 [R]

Yonsei U

Underwood International C, Seoul 120-749 Korea

Humanities Teaching Fellowships

851

<http://uic.yonsei.ac.kr>

Underwood Society of Fellows, Underwood International College, Yonsei University

Humanities, Seoul, Korea

The Underwood International College, Yonsei University, invites applications for up to four junior teaching fellowships in the Humanities to begin September 2006. Positions are for two years, renewable, with the possibility of conversion into a tenure-track position. Teaching responsibilities are normally 6 credit-hours per semester, and compensation includes an annual stipend of approximately $50,000, a housing subsidy, and a limited relocation package. Fellows will be affiliated with the Underwood Society of Fellows and teach in the Underwood International College (UIC) Common Curriculum. Fields of specialty can include literature (classical, modern European, English and American), history (all fields, including history of science), art history, or philosophy. Please send letter of application, c.v. including teaching experience/interests and publications list, a writing sample, and three letters of recommendation to: Underwood Society of Fellows Junior Search/Underwood International College/Yonsei University/Seoul, 120-749, Korea. Applications must be received by December 1, 2005. Interviews at the MLA. More information available on our website at <http://uic.yonsei.ac.kr>.

MLA JOB INFORMATION SERVICE

26 Broadway, 3rd floor
New York, NY 10004-1789

First Class
US Postage PAID
New York, NY
Permit No. 2967

FIRST CLASS MAIL

- Job Information List on the World Wide Web
- How to access the electronic JIL (inside front cover)

FIRST CLASS MAIL
DATED MATERIAL