2012 MLA Convention

The convention will begin at 12:00 noon on Thursday, 5 January, and end at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, 8 January. All MLA members and others involved in the study or teaching of language and literature must register in order to attend or participate in meetings, visit the exhibit hall, take part in job interviews, or reserve hotel rooms at special MLA rates. The November (Program) issue of PMLA, which contains a complete list of the over 750 sessions, will be sent to all MLA members in mid-October.

Job Information Center

Interview facilities for job candidates and department administrators will be set up at the Job Information Center in the Conference Center of the Washington State Convention Center (3rd floor). A job-counseling service will also be located in the job center; senior faculty members will advise job candidates in one-to-one counseling sessions. Several convention sessions are designed to assist job candidates and interviewers on the job search in both English and foreign languages.

Child Care

Convention participants who would like to have child care during the convention should preregister for a possible on-site child care service provided by KiddieCorp. If a sufficient number of children are registered for child care by 31 October, a daytime child care center will operate in the Seattle Sheraton. If a sufficient number of children are not registered for the service by that date, the service will not be offered. For more information on child care arrangements or to obtain a preregistration form, visit www.mla.org/convention.

Persons with Disabilities

The MLA is committed to making arrangements that allow all members of the association to participate in the convention. Meeting rooms at the convention are accessible by elevator, and the doors are wide enough to accommodate wheelchairs. A complimentary bus service for persons with disabilities will be available throughout the convention. Sign language interpreters and hotel rooms that are specifically equipped for persons with permanent or temporary disabilities are available on request. To arrange for an interpreter or to reserve specifically equipped hotel rooms, indicate your requirements on the housing form and the registration form and write or call Karin Bagnall (kbagnall@mla.org) in the MLA convention office by 11 November.

Convention Locations

Most English sessions, some comparative literature sessions, and the exhibit hall are in the Washington State Convention Center. Most foreign language and comparative literature sessions are in the Sheraton Seattle. The Job Information Center is in the Conference Center of the Washington State Convention Center.

Exhibit Hall

Publishers of textbooks, journals, literary classics, and reference books, as well as manufacturers of computer products for language instruction, for writing programs, and for scholarly research, will display their newest titles and products in 4B, South Lobby, level 4, Washington State Convention Center.

Important reminders: please read this section carefully before completing the convention registration and hotel reservation forms

- Forms must be complete and legible to be processed. Members are reminded that hotel rooms at the special MLA rates are available only to persons who register for the convention. The housing form cannot be processed and room reservations will not be made until all nonexempt occupants sharing a room

(including spouses) have paid their registration fees. Note: to reserve a 2-bedroom suite, at least two of the occupants must be paid convention registrants.

- If paying by credit card: If you are using a credit card for your registration fee and your hotel guarantee, be sure to include credit card information on both the housing form and the registration form. Registration forms and housing forms are handled by two different departments. A hotel reservation will not be made if your credit card number is incorrect or invalid, so please read the e-mail confirmation you receive from the housing company carefully.
- If paying by check: You must pay with separate checks for registration and housing. Make your room deposit check or money order (no wire transfers) payable to Convention Management Resources/MLA in US dollars, drawn on a US bank—$100 per single or double room, $200 per 1-bedroom suite, or $300 per 2-bedroom suite.
- Acceptable forms of payment: Personal checks, bank drafts, certified checks, and money orders. Note: Do not combine your preregistration fee and hotel room deposit in one check. This will slow the processing of both your registration and your housing.
- Non-US registrants: To avoid delay in processing your housing form, please use a credit card to guarantee your hotel reservation. International money orders made out in US dollars are also accepted.
- Be sure to sign and date the check.
- Carefully check your hotel confirmation immediately on receipt to make sure that your reservation is correct.
- If you have verification of your convention registration but do not receive a confirmation of your hotel room within three weeks, do not wait until you arrive in Seattle. Notify the Convention Management Resources/MLA Housing Office immediately at MLAhousing@cmrus.com.

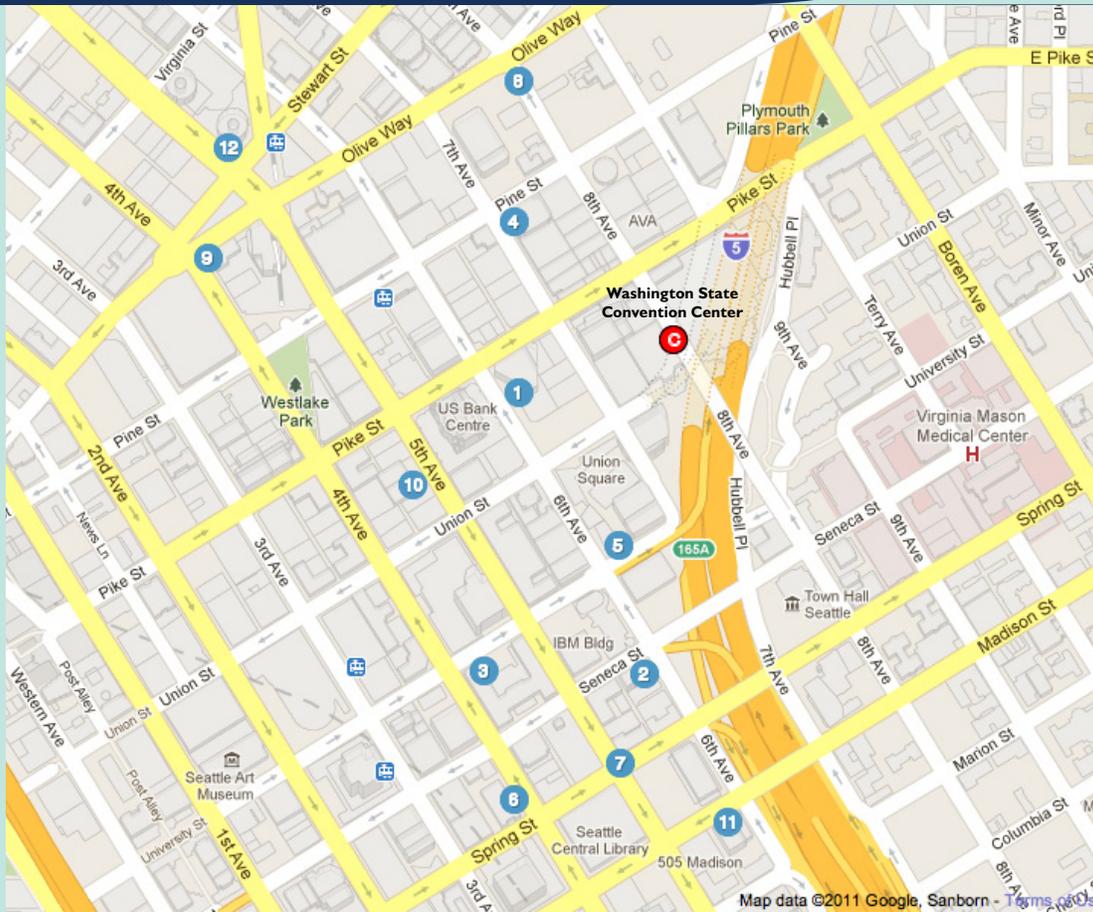

MLA rates apply at convention hotels from 5 January through 8 January 2012, based on availability. These special rates are available only to persons who register for the convention. All rates are exclusive of 15.6% tax and $2 surcharge, per room, per night.

Important note about hotel room cancellations after 16 December

Deposits are refundable if notice of cancellation is received by Convention Management Resources (CMR) by 16 December. Failure to abide by the stated cancellation policy may result in the loss of your room deposit.

To change or cancel your reservation, visit the MLA Housing Web site and enter your confirmation number, e-mail address, and zip code in the form provided; call MLA Housing at 888 644-2282 or 415 979-2266, Monday to Friday, 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Pacific time; or send an e-mail to MLAhousing@cmrus.com or a fax to 415 293-4396.

Changes and cancellations can be made directly through the hotel beginning 29 December. When canceling your reservation through CMR or the hotel, please make sure to receive a confirmation e-mail or cancellation number.
