PMLA, the journal of the Modern Language Association of America, has since 1884 published articles of scholarly interest to those who teach language and literature. It appears in five annual issues:

- Four of these (January, March, May, October) present scholarly articles and notes.
- The November issue is the program for the association's annual convention; the 2012 convention will be held 5–8 January 2012 in Seattle.

All issues are sent directly to the more than 30,000 college and university teachers of English and foreign languages who belong to the association and to about 2,100 libraries throughout the world.

Circulation

Total: 32,550

Scholars, critics, and teachers of literatures and languages: 30,450
Library subscriptions: 2,100

Distribution of Membership

United States and Canada: 92%
Other countries: 8%

PMLA Today

PMLA in 2011 offers an array of special features for advertisers.

- PMLA's circulation is among the largest for a humanities journal.
- One of the most prestigious and venerable journals, PMLA is a premier showcase for any publisher.
- PMLA covers a broad range of topics in the humanities—ideal for advertising books on many subjects.
- PMLA is available to library subscribers in an electronic format that allows convenient browsing of the ad section.
- Libraries that subscribe to the electronic version continue to receive the print issues, giving advertising unprecedented exposure.

Coming in 2011

Groupings of essays will examine such topics as children's literature, the Spanish Golden Age, the clash of religions, and Asian literature. October 2011 will bring a special issue on the topic Celebrity, Fame, Notoriety.
