Executive Director Rosemary G. Feal to Step Down in 2017

Rosemary G. Feal, the MLA executive director, has announced that she plans to step down in summer 2017 after fifteen years of service to the association. “My abiding respect for our mission and for our members’ work has kept me passionately committed to this extraordinary organization,” Feal said. Read the full announcement.

Spring Newsletter Available

In this issue: an article on the newly appointed editor of PMLA, 2015 election results, a president’s column on education as preparation for a meaningful life, and an editor’s column on the ADFL-MLA Language Consultancy Service.

Phyllis Franklin Award Nominations

Nominations are invited for the Phyllis Franklin Award for Public Advocacy of the Humanities, which honors a person who has fostered public support for the humanities. The deadline for nominations is 1 April. Find out more.

Call for Proposals for Teaching Beat Generation Literature

The volume Teaching Beat Generation Literature is now in development in the Options for Teaching series. To learn more about the volume and how to propose an essay, visit the MLA Web site.

Help Shape a Volume on Karen Tei Yamashita
If you teach the work of Karen Tei Yamashita, please tell us about your experience and help shape a new MLA volume. Information about proposing an essay is included at the end of the survey.

---

Share this email:

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove™
Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.
View this email online.

85 Broad St suite 500
New York, NY | 10004-2434 US

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.