Make the Most of Your MLA Membership!

The new academic year is approaching, and now is a great time to take advantage of all the MLA has to offer. Paula Krebs, the new executive director, invites you to help shape the association and build your community: nominate a colleague for forum elections, share your work in CORE, and learn about other ways to get involved.

Suggest Colleagues for Forum Elections

MLA members are encouraged to submit suggestions for forum executive committee and forum delegate elections. Make a suggestion by 18 December for consideration by forum executive committees at the convention.

Create a Powerful Online Presence

how you can boost your job search and build your professional network.

Proposals for the 2018 Delegate Assembly
Interested in proposing a motion or a resolution for consideration by the Delegate Assembly at the 2018 convention? Learn how to submit a proposal on the assembly’s Web page. The deadline for submissions is 1 October.

Involved in a Public Humanities Project on Campus?
Take part in a survey on how public humanities projects connect faculty, students, and administrators with diverse communities off campus.

Congratulations to New MLA Bibliography Fellows
Ten MLA members recently received three-year fellowships to assist with indexing materials for the MLA International Bibliography.

Humanities Commons Is Growing!
We’re pleased to announce that Humanities Commons has received a grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to support its expansion. The network also recently welcomed members of the College Art Association.
